Laws of Pennsylvania No. 333.

An Act to protect trees and woodlands, and providing punishment for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That if any person shall willfully, negligently, or maliciously cut on fire, or cause to be set on fire, any woodland within this Commonwealth, or shall directly or indirectly, without the consent of the owner, cause fire to burn therein; or shall willfully, negligently, or maliciously set fire upon adjacent lands, which fire shall be communicated to woodlands; such persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars for each offense, or imprisonment not exceeding six months either or both, at the discretion of the court, together with costs of suit.

Section 2. If any person shall willfully, negligently, or maliciously cut back from, or cut down, injure, or destroy, or remove a tree or trees growing or standing upon the land of another, without the consent of the owner; or shall willfully, negligently, or maliciously do or cause to be done any other act to the damage of said land or the trees growing thereon; such persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars for each offense, or imprisoned not exceeding three months, either or both, at the discretion of the court, together with costs of suit.

Section 3. If any person shall purchase or receive a tree or trees, knowing the same to have been cut or removed without the consent of the owner thereof, or shall purchase or receive any logs, planks, boards, staves, shingles, or other lumber, made from such trees so cut or removed, and knowing the same to have been so cut and made without such consent; such persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon the conviction thereof shall be subject to the punishment provided in section two of this act.

Section 4. If any person shall willfully, negligently, or maliciously cut down or fell, a tree or trees growing upon the land of another, without the consent of the owner, such persons shall be liable to pay to the owner double the value of such trees so cut down or felled, and in case of the removal from the land where grown, and the conversion thereof, treble the value, to be recovered in an appropriate action, with costs of suit; and no prosecution under any other section of this act shall be a bar to the recovery of damages under this section; and, in addition to the remedy for recovery of damages herein provided, the owner of such trees may follow the same and retake them from the possession of any person, and whosoever they may be identified and found; as well as, in the same manner, retake all material into which said trees may have been converted, wherever the same may be identified and found; and without any liability on the part of said owner for the restoring the same to his possession. If the person in whose possession such trees or materials may be found shall refuse to surrender or deliver the same to the owner thereof, after due proof of ownership shall have been made, such person shall be equally guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof subject to the punishment provided in section two of this act.

Section 5. The term "person" as used in this act, shall include not only individuals or natural persons, but as well artificial persons, existing only in contemplation of law, and shall be construed to partnerships, joint-stock companies and corporations, and the officers, agents, and employees of the same.

Section 6. The term "woodlands," in this act, is intended to include, and shall be construed to mean, woods, farmers' woodlots, marshes, moors, brush, barrens, brush lands, and wild, unseated uncultivated land.

Section 7. All fines which shall be collected or paid under this act shall be remitted at once to the treasurer of the county wherein the same shall be collected or paid, to become a part of the general fund of the county.

Section 8. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. Approved—The 9th day of June, A. D. 1911.

Seemed to Give Him a New Stomach. "I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Young, publisher, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by all dealers.

Is a communication to the Butler county commissioners, State Highway Commissioner E. M. Bigelow states that all petitions on file for road improvement under state aid are now null and void under the new road laws. New petitions are necessary because the proportion the state is to pay is reduced to 50 per cent., and the county and township authorities must each pay 25 per cent. of the cost. It is evident our legislators had an idea the counties and townships were getting too much help under existing law, so they amended the act by making them pay a double portion of the cost of road improvement. Just where the wisdom or fairness of such legislation comes in is difficult to figure out.

In addition to the extremely large ballot which will be handed to the voters for their consideration at the coming fall election, made so by the large number of candidates to be voted for both county and local offices there will also be two amendments to the constitution of the State of Pennsylvania. The amendments have no local bearing however. The first is to allow the consolidation of the courts of Common Pleas, of Allegheny county, and the second allows for the increase of the bonded indebtedness for the city of Philadelphia. There will be two squares in either of which the voter will place his mark, one will be "yes" and the other "no" which will indicate the voter's favor or disapproval of the amendments.

Nebraska. Russell Wiant spent Sunday at Mayburg. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Baumgardner and daughter Gladys of Tionesta spent Sunday with John Knopp's family.

Mrs. S. H. Secor and Miss Flora Kerr were visitors in Warren, Monday. Among the visitors at Chautauque last week were Mrs. A. J. Small and daughters, Marie and Lorna, Miss Augusta Cook and Miss Alice McCallough.

Wm. Fitzgerald and family of Kellettsville visited the former's brother, E. R. Fitzgerald, over Sunday. Mr. E. Sibbie, who holds a responsible clerkship at the company store, is taking a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. N. G. Cole and daughter Anna visited relatives at West Hickory and Endeavor over Sunday. I. D. Bean and Addison Reed were callers in Tionesta, Saturday.

$100 REWARD, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The problem here is, who holds a responsible position that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by all dealers.

Horse Thief Caught With the Goods.

Fred Ameler, who says he lives near Knox, Clarion county, and is about 30 years of age, was arrested in Oil City Sunday morning on a charge of stealing a team of valuable young horses from Stewart Muir, of Rome township, Crawford county. The animals were found in his possession and identified by the owner. They are a valuable pair, five and six years old respectively, and were missed from the barn at 6 o'clock Sunday morning. Telephone communication was effected with surrounding towns, and in twenty minutes after the Oil City policeman got the word Ameler drove into their hands, so to speak. A horse and buggy belonging to a New Bethlehem liveryman named Raybeck had been stolen a day or two prior, and this horse was found near Sheldahl Springs, the home of Mr. Muir, where it had evidently been driven by Ameler, and where he had exchanged it for the Muir team, abandoning the horse. When captured it was found that Ameler had a complete outfit of harness, provisions and camping equipment in his buggy as the following will show: Pair single lines, pair neck-yoke straps, pair halters, pair neckstraps, breeching and holdbacks for single harness, monkey wrench, two clavies, two nekyokes, one pair whiffletrees, one light doubletree, a woolen blanket, an oil can, a laprobe, a gasoline torch lamp, a new automobile lamp, a suit case full of clothing, two loaves of bread, two table knives, two spoons, a pound of butter, salt, apples in a sack, two-quart can of milk, two-quart jar of preserves, a quart of gasoline, a pound of coffee, a double harness with yellow lines, two small feed boxes, a new hammer, magazine Remington rifle of .22 bore with four boxes of cartridges.

Kellettsville. Mrs. Jay Catlin and children of Hastings were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. M. F. Catlin during the week. The baby was suffering with catarrhal inflammation and it was necessary to have her near a physician. We are glad to note that the little girl is better.

Richard Flynn, who had charge of the carpenter work on Dr. H. L. Davis' residence, being unable to work, the operations on that building rested during the week.

Miss Allie Harkless of Pittsburg visited her brother, F. E. Harkless, during the week.

A. A. Ludwig of Titusville joined his wife, who had been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Frampton, for the past week, Saturday and stayed over the Sabbath, taking his wife home with him Monday.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolfe Monday morning and left with them a bright little girl for "keeps."

Mrs. Highfield of Beaver Valley visited her sister, Mrs. M. D. Spencer, Tuesday. Miss Mattie Webber, who has spent the past month visiting friends in Oil City, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. W. H. Dotterer is visiting friends at Starr this week. Mrs. Maude Berlin of Starr visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hartman Tuesday.

Mrs. Hulitz left Tuesday for New Jersey to visit her sister, who lives on the old homestead. Mrs. Hulitz has not visited her old home for thirty years and will make an extended visit.

Alva Watson returned home Monday from his base ball tour with the Mayburg team. On this trip they succeeded in defeating the boys at Brookville and Clarion.

Miss Ida Keerie went to Sheffield Wednesday, where she has employment. Mrs. Spangler, who has been with her son Andrew since the death of his wife some time ago, will go to Buffalo in the near future to stay with a sister during the winter.

COSTLY HEROICS!

Man Who Jumped into River and Saved Drowning Friend Fined. Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 15.—Frank Riley jumped from a barge into the Monongahela river last night and saved the life of John Bridges, who was floundering around in the deep water trying to end his life. This morning Magistrate Kirby fined Riley $5 for indulging in his heroics.

In leaving the fine the magistrate deducted considerably when he figured Riley's extenuating circumstances for saving a life. The policeman charged, however, that Riley was responsible for Bridges' condition and that the rescuer as well as the rescued had so much aboard that both escaped drowning by a miracle.

"If I had Bridges down I'd be a fire spot in," mused Riley, as his brother paid the fine.
