Congressional enactment. THE more Dr. Wiley, the pure food champion, is investigated, and the better he is understood, the stronger becomes the conviction in the public mind that he is thoroughly devoted to his task, and that he can neither be bribed or frightened into a betraval of his trust. The conviction is gradually dawning on the public mind that Dr. Wiley is an ideal public servant, able, conscientious, energetic

Mrs. E. Wilson and daughter Ruth went to North Warren Saturday to visit the latter's uncle at that place. Mrs. Wilson will go to Buffalo to secure her fall millinery goods before returning

James Huling of Tionesta is doing the carpenter work on Dr. Davis' residence. The new addition to the school building is completed and Plummer Wilson, Alva Watson and Ronald Spangler are busy cleaning the entire building and getting it in shape for school, which will begin next Monday. There have been added two very pleasant rooms and as they will have one extra room this year the desks will be changed and there will be no school in the room up stairs in the old building. There has been quite a change in the teaching force this year, but all come well recommended, and with the extra sdvantages secured it is hoped that we will keep up the standard of former years and have in all respects first class school. The extra year of high school affords opportunity to a numto go elsewhere last year, to complete a third year at home.

Miss Nellie Detar departed for Oil City ast week for a short stay.

Miss Edith Spencer left Saturday for lamestown, where she has employment for the winter. Ralph Whitehill spent several days at Oil City during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Pope and Mr and Mrs. John Blum and children drove to Nebraska Sunday, Mr. Blum was raised on a farm near there and he took this opportunity to visit once more the scenes of his childhood and taste again the apples that are to be found there.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Cora Pope, Friday, and elected the following officers: Mrs. Ellen Catlin, president; Mrs. Cora Jones, vice president; Mrs. Mabel Henderson, recording secretary; Mrs. Lovilla Hartman, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Ida Daubenspeck, treasurer. Mrs. Blauser and Mrs. Robbins were elected delegates to the county convention to be held at Endeavor.

Miss Bertha Spangler accompanied her grandmother to Buffalo, Monday.

Kathleen Daubenspeck left Thursday for Buffalo, where she will attend the fall millinery opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daubenspeck are visiting friends at Tylersburg during the week. The former was unfortunate in having his foot caught in the machinery while at work on the mill Wednesday and so painfully hurt that he is unable to work for the present. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Robbins attended the picnic at Tylersburg Wednesday. Mr. Robbins has charge of the Fryburg band and attended in that capacity. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stitzinger and two sons of New Castle visited Dr. Detar's family during the week. Alda, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, is yery sick with bowel trouble. Mrs. Frank Nash and daughter Mar orie are visiting friends at Frosts.

Mrs. Geo. Porter, Mrs. Carbaugh, Mrs. J. Smith and Mrs. W. E. Barrett visited their respective parents at Tylersburg

Mrs. Birch of Frewsburg, who spent the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Tobey, returned to her home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hendricks and daughter Roberta drove to Sheffield Tuesday, where they were joined by their other daughter, Blanche, who has spent the summer at Crown and Kane. Together they spent the day in Warren, Blanche returning home with them in the evening. They reported the roads in bad shape for autoing in consequence of the heavy storm that passed over the country during the day.

Mrs. Robert Watson and Miss Alice Lease visited the former's grandparents at Tylersburg and took in the picnic.

Rev. G. A. Barnard of West Hickory gave a very interesting lecture on the Filipinos Wednesday evening in Johnson's Hall. Although there were several bills posted, it was not generally known and only a small crowd gathered to hear Truman Hill and daughter Guendolin drove over from Tionesta, Wednesday, the latter staying for a few days' visit with friends here. Blanche Hendricks accompanied Mr. Hill home for a few days' visit at the poor farm.

Miss Mildred Bloss is staying with Vernita Rupert during the latter's housekeeping while Mother Rupert is away. The two girls are cheif cook and bottle washers for the orphange.

Lightning has been very frequent here of late and during the storm of Tuesday night a tree was struck back of Shay's ouse at Fools Creek, and we are told that Mr. Shay was out of bed and dressed before he realized what was the matter. No doubt he thought it was a telephone message from some of the women at Porkey for groceries. Mr. Shay is driving the delivery rig for the Fools Creek Store Co.

James B, Littlefield, wife and children L. Littlefield and family, Mrs. Maze and children and Mrs. J. W. Littlefield were guests of the Rupert family last Thursday evening, and a good time was had by all present. The men gave them a treat with the violins, cornet and piano. The comic part of it was that Rupert and son were playing a violin and piano duet when they arrived and everybody got inhome at Starr several days during the to the room and seated before their pres-evening missing this pleasant event. John Bennett gave a very pleasant dancing party at Minister on Saturday of last week which was a grand success, and everything went off without any one being offended. There was no drinking indulged in and this alone will make anything a success-if the fellows only thought so-and the ladies have a nicer time, too.

Mrs. J. H. Kinch was on the sick list last week and had to see the doctor but is able to be around again. Her sister, Miss Olive Vandenberg, is with her. The School Building has been cleaned and repairs are being made to the fence prior to the opening on Aug. 28th. There will be several children in attendance from Kingsley Run, who will come up on the morning train and return on the evening train.

Hugh Cook, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died Friday, August 18th. He was born January 23d, 1856, in Jefferson county, where he resided until grown to manhood, when he went to Missouri. He stayed there a few years and then came back to Jefferson county. He united with the Methodist church in early manhood, of which he was a mem-ber until death. He was a man of sterling character and every one was his friend. He had borne with a great deal of sorrow but he suffered alone, his own friends not even knowing it. When he saw that his end was near he said he was ready to die. He is survived by four children: One daughter, who is a mis-sionary in India, Guy Cook of Tarentum, Pa., Herbert of St. Louis, Mo., and Earl of Cooksburg; also five sisters and one brother. He was laid to rest in the Cooksburg cemetery. Rev. J. F. Mac-
