RECENT DEATHS.

HOOPER.
John Hooper, whose serious illness was noted in these columns last week, died at the home of his eldest son, Roy, at Sigel, Pa., Sunday morning last, and was buried at Marienville, Monday afternoon. Deceased was 63 years of age, and had been a resident of Marienville for nearly thirty years, a greater portion of which time he was prosperously engaged in the livery business and was regarded as one of its squareest business men, by reason of which he made and retained many friends in the community. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis.

KERR.
Ernest E. Kerr, reference to whose death was made in our last issue, was a son of the late Judge Kerr, and was born near Clarion, Pa., Aug. 6, 1880, and died at the home of his brother Calvin B. Kerr, near the scenes of his boyhood, Aug. 19, 1911, aged 31 years on 13 days. Jan. 27, 1888, he was united in marriage with Miss Anna Elizabeth Cook, who, with one daughter, survives. One brother, C. B. Kerr of Houtsville, and one sister, Mrs. M. S. Henry of Tionesta, also survive. Mr. Kerr was a man of exemplary character, and kind husband and father, who had many friends in the community in which the greater part of his life was spent. It is believed his death was ultimately caused by an accident sustained in the woods at Yankee Camp, Howe township nearly a year ago, when he was struck on the head by a limb from a falling tree, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. The funeral was held on the 23d inst., with interment in the Daniels cemetery, Jefferson county.

MCGAFFIGAN.
Eastern friends have lately received word of the death of Mrs. Isabella Nugent McGaffigan, who died at Portland, Oregon, August 12, 1911. Mrs. McGaffigan is pleasantly remembered by residents of Forest county, she and her husband having spent many years within its borders. She was born in New Jersey, Oct. 10, 1836, where she was married, in 1851, to James McGaffigan, who died at West Hickory, Nov. 24, 1901. In 1865 Mr. and Mrs. McGaffigan came to western Pennsylvania and settled at Benninghoff run, on Oil creek. They afterwards moved to Pleasantville where they resided till 1882, when they became residents of Ballow, this county. About twelve years ago they removed to West Hickory where Mrs. McGaffigan resided till she, in company with her adopted daughter, Mrs. F. A. Wood, took up her residence at Portland, Oregon, a few years since. Mrs. McGaffigan was a noble, christian character, dearly beloved by all who knew her. Although she was never honored by being a mother, she became the foster mother of seventeen children. In early years she was converted and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she remained a devoted and consistent member till her death. Always ready and willing to do all within her power to advance the Master's kingdom, she never shrank from any duty and was, for many years, an efficient superintendent of the Sabbath schools at different points where she resided. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Goldendale, Oregon, beside those of her sister.

BIMBER.
Martha Hunter was born at Tionesta, Pa., Dec. 9th, 1830, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jonathan Albright, at East Hickory, Pa., Aug. 26, 1911, being 80 years, 8 months and 17 days of age.

She was the daughter of William and Sally (Range) Hunter, who were among the first settlers of this section. She was united in marriage with Nelson G. Ball, deceased, in the year 1849. To this union there were born eight children, five of whom survive her, namely: Homer Ball and Mrs. Sally Albright, both of East Hickory, William N. Ball, of Tionesta, Mrs. Jennie S. Zahniser, of Port Allegany, Pa., and Mrs. Rilla Trantum, of Jamestown, N. Y., all of whom were present at the time of her death and attended the funeral. The deceased is also survived by one brother, James R. Hunter, of Mill Village, Pa., and twenty-eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. She was united in marriage with J. L. Peters, Feb. 17, 1894, whose death occurred about three years later. She was again united in matrimony with George L. Bimber in 1904, who departed this life three years ago last July. Possibly few people in this section were better and more favorably known than the deceased. She was kind hearted and generous almost to a fault and fully complied with the divine injunction, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers." No one in distress or need ever found her unwilling to render assistance to the extent of her ability. She was a loving wife, an affectionate mother, a good neighbor and a loyal christian. She was converted when about fourteen years of age and united with the Methodist Episcopal church of which she was an active member until the organization of the Free Methodist church at East Hickory, about 1871, when she became a charter member of this new society. Her last utterances were notes of victory and triumph. The funeral services were conducted in the Free Methodist church at East Hickory, on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by the interment in the East Hickory cemetery. The sermon was preached by Rev. E. L. Monroe, a former pastor, assisted by Revs. A. G. Crill and G. A. Garrett. The following old friends and neighbors of the deceased acted as pallbearers: James S. Henderson, Caleb Middleton, William and Jonathan Albright, Guy Hillard and J. R. Squire.

1100 REWARD, $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in the last 20 years. It is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Mayburg won an exciting game of ball at Sheffield last Saturday afternoon, the score standing 7 to 0. Snappy fielding kept them from scoring and Mayburg took the series from Sheffield, two games to one. Mayburg disbanded after this game. The score:

Was Shaken Up to Beat the Cars.
The following from a Seattle, Washington, daily paper of recent date, refers to a former well known Tionesta citizen, whose old friends here will wish him success in his suit for damages:

V. G. Armstrong, inspector of forest ranges for the Washington Forest Fire Association, was peacefully resting on his front porch on the evening of July 13, 1911, absorbing the beauty of an iridescent sunset, with one eye on a brakeman who was dropping three cars of crushed rock down the grade in front of the house, when the cars struck a sharp curve 150 feet from the front door, dumping a car of the rock on the porch, and incidentally upon Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong arose from the debris, after some delay, and, carefully checking himself over, found that he had acquired a commotion of the skull, a sprained neck twisted and strained ligaments all over his body, and a most acrimonious temper.

So much of the story is related in a complaint filed yesterday in the superior court, in which Mr. Armstrong asks for a judgment for damages against the Tacoma-Eastern railroad in the sum of $7,500.

It is charged that, contrary to prudent railroad ethics, the switch engine in charge of the three cars of rock was detached from the cars at the top of the grade, and the descent accomplished by gravitation to the extent that when they reached the curve it was running at a tremendous rate of speed, with the brakeman frantically tugging at the brakes and failing to dent the speed to an appreciable extent.
