MURDER AND SUICIDE

Orleans County Farmer Takes His Own Life and That of His Son.

Frank W. Waterstreet, aged 60 years, and his son, Fred Waterstreet, aged 25, members of a respectable, well-to-do family living on the Transit road, near Kent, Orleans county, N. Y., are dead at the farm home, the father a suicide and the murderer of his son.

Lighted Pipe Causes Death.

B. F. Steward of Franklin, N. Y., while driving an automobile at Ogdensburg, put a lighted pipe into his coat pocket containing matches and gasoline-soaked cloth. The coat burst into flames. In tearing it off Steward lost control of his machine, which was going at a rapid rate. It crashed into a stone wall, injuring Mr. Steward's sister, who was in the car, fatally, and bruising the other occupants.

Aviator Killed by Fall at Fair.

"Dare Devil" Castilane, a Curtiss aviator, fell to instant death at the Mansfield (Pa.) fair last week. He had started in an exhibition flight and when three-quarters of a mile from the grounds his machine was seen to careen, turn turtle, and fall on a hillside. Castilane was found buried beneath the wreckage of his engine and plane. His wife witnessed the fatality.

Thirteen People Instantly Killed.

State Dairymen to Meet at Olean.

The K. of C. hall and the state armory will be the meeting place of the convention of the New York State Dairymen's association at Olean, N. Y., Dec. 12 to 15, inclusive. The proper authorities have been asked for permission to use the big armory drill shed for the exhibits. The drill shed is well lighted and is wired for carrying a heavy electric current which would be needed by the exhibitors.

Auto Runs Over Hornell Physician.

As Dr. George Mitchell was riding a motorcycle up Broad street, Hornell, N. Y., he was run into by an automobile and thrown to the pavement. Before the driver, who was attempting to turn his machine around, could stop it had run over Dr. Mitchell, but fortunately the wheels passed each side of his body, and he was uninjured, save for minor bruises.

Yeggs Get $30 and Postage Stamps.

Expert crackmen, believed by the Binghamton police to be bank burglars, did a smooth job with nitroglycerine on the safes of the National Benefit company there. The big doors were blown open and the safes wrecked without cracking a pane of glass in the office. The yeggs got only $30 in cash and some postage stamps.

Automobile Burns.

While driving his automobile delivery wagon near Celoron, B. J. Rhodes of Jamestown had trouble with the engine and in attempting to fix it the machine caught fire and was completely destroyed, together with a quantity of groceries with which it was loaded.

Immense Puff Ball, This.

Horton Lewis, a Creek road farmer, near Mt. Morris, found a puff ball in his pasture lot which measured nearly 5 feet in circumference and weighed about 10 pounds.

500 SAILORS ARE LOST

Magazines on French Battleship Liberie Exploded.

Battleship Demographic Lost 20 Killed and 50 Wounded, While the Other Vessels in Near Vicinity of the Disaster Also Suffered Many Casualties—Twenty Wounded Have Already Died of Those Taken to Hospitals For Treatment—Waters of Harbor Covered With Wreckage of Small Boats and Parts of Destroyed Battleship.

Toulon, Sept. 26.—The first class battleship Liberie, one of the finest in the French fleet blew up and sank while at anchor in the roadstead yesterday morning. It is estimated that 500 sailors were killed aboard the Liberie and 20 killed and 50 injured aboard the Demographic. There were also many casualties aboard the other vessels.

Fatalities on Other Vessels.

There were also a number of fatalities on the battleships Vorite and Republique. These vessels are also of the same class as the Liberie. The Republique had her armor plate torn by a projectile from the Liberie. Many of the seamen from the surrounding vessels which went to aid in putting out the fire when it first started on the Liberie, are also among the dead.

The eighteen-hour flur on the Pennsylvania, bound east, was hit by a freight train near Lorimer, Pa.; a fireman was killed and four trainmen and a passenger were hurt.

Thursday.

It was anticipated in Paris that the coolness existing between France and Spain may render difficult a final adjustment with Germany on the subject of Morocco.

BIG DAY FOR PICKPOCKETS

Fair at Batavia Proved Rich Harvest For Dips Saturday.

Saturday evening marked the close of Genesee county's big fair. All records for attendance were smashed. Friday 15,865 people paid admission to the park and Saturday at 6 p. m. 17,481 tickets had been sold. It is estimated that there were over 19,000 persons on the grounds, including exhibitors, children who did not pay and employees.

Light-fingered thieves did a record breaking business also. They operated chiefly outside the grounds and relieved many farmers of various sums. S. E. Bower of West Bergen lost $100, N. C. Porter of Corfu $36 Ray E. Otis of Batavia $60 and the list runs on among the farmers in every town in the county. The fair police were unable to cope with the situation and beyond compiling a list of the people who reported their losses, they did nothing.

CUSTOMS SLEUTHS NAB CHICAGO SMUGGLER.

Officers Find Valuable Jewelry on Himself and Wife.

New York, Sept. 26.—Rudolph Neuman, a jeweler of Chicago, has made frequent trips to Europe. Hitherto he has come in unobserved by the customs sleuths. He was held up today after he landed from the Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam, from Rotterdam and Boulogne, for "information" had come from London that he had been buying jewelry and he had made no mention of jewelry in his declaration.

It is said that there had been also a tip from Chicago that Neuman had been doing a large business at more reasonable rates than his competitors. Neuman was searched as was his baggage, and also his wife. In Mrs. Neuman's petticoat were found thirty pockets and there was a package of jewelry in each. Most of the packets contained garnets.

Mrs. Neuman had also a silver mesh bag in her grip which she had not declared. In a rubber stocking-like bag she had hidden a diamond ring, valued at about $1,500.

They were sent to Hoboken under arrest and arraigned before United States Commissioner Russ, charged with smuggling. He had the jeweler held in $2,000 for examination. As Mrs. Neuman had two young children with her to care for she was released on her own recognizance.

Jared Flagg Out on Bail.

New York, Sept. 26.—Jared Flagg, Jr., got out of the Tombs, his brother Ernest Flagg, the architect, putting up a bond of $25,000. At the same time Ernest Flagg gave $5,000 bail for Edward Schiller, one of the seven other men who were arrested on Saturday with Jared Flagg, the 52 per cent stock expert, author of "Flags's flax."
