Republican Ticket.

- President Judge, HON. W. D. HINCKLEY. Associate Judge, JOSEPH M. MORGAN. Prothonotary, SHARP R. MAXWELL. Sheriff, CHARLES CLARK. Treasurer, W. H. BRAZEE. County Commissioner, W. H. HARRISON. County Auditor, JOSEPH C. SCOWDEN. Auditors, A. C. GREGG, GEO. H. WARDEN. Jury Commissioner, JOHN B. EDEN. County Surveyor, ROY S. BRADEN.

The Republican Primaries.

Not in the history of Forest county has a quieter or more orderly election taken place within its borders than that which was held on Saturday afternoon last, number of candidates and local importance of the offices to be filled, taken into consideration. The candidates all hustled in a quiet way for themselves and there was less outside interference than is usually the case in such contests. This was doubtless due to the fact that the candidates were among the most worthy of our citizenship, and were looked upon as men in whose ability and standing the voters generally reposed confidence, so that, no matter what the result, the Republican party would have a ticket which it could loyally and faithfully support at the November election.

The vote cast was of the ordinary in number, about 900, which is neither the largest nor the smallest, but represents a fair expression of the party in the county.

As a general thing the majorities or pluralities were not of the overwhelming kind, but were reasonably close, showing that the unsuccessful as well as the successful had their friends well lined up, and active. We believe that the contest has left far less bitterness than is usually the case in primary elections, and that the nominees will have a united and harmonious party back of them in the contest next month. A party victory is the next important thing, and with a disposition to early get over whatever disappointments we may have had, let us all go to work earnestly and loyally for the success of the whole ticket, which is one most worthy of the support of the Republicans throughout the county.

A table nearly complete and unofficial published in this issue tells the story of the voting.

Sunday Schools, Attention!

On Monday and Tuesday of last week very interesting Sunday School rallies were held in Marienville and in Tionesta. Mr. B. S. Forsythe, State fieldworker of the State Sabbath School Association of Pennsylvania, was at each meeting and gave very interesting and instructive talks on the great work which is now being done throughout the State in the Sunday school field.

The principal object of these last two meetings was to bring Forest county into the front line. It will certainly be good news to all Sunday school workers in the county to know that we have received pledges from a sufficient number of schools to do the work necessary, and we believe all those pledges will be kept and that by the time of the meeting of the State Sunday School Association in New Castle, on Oct. 11, 12 and 13, our county will stand as high as any other. Don't forget that all reports of examinations of Teachers Training Classes must reach Rev. Charles A. Oliver, York, Pa. this week.

We have received a very congratulatory letter from Mr. Landes, Secretary of the State Sunday School Association as to the splendid condition and good work of the Sunday schools in Forest County. We have also received an invitation from the committee of arrangements at New Castle for all interested in this great work to attend the State convention next week, and join the procession which they expect to be 10,000 strong. Now, fellow workers, keep your shoulders to the wheel, put and keep our county in the front line.

FOREST COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION.

Why Catch Cold.

Karl de Schweinitz, executive secretary Pennsylvania society for the prevention of tuberculosis, says, it is usually the coward who catches cold. People who are afraid of fresh air and cold water are the ones who spend the winter sniffling and blowing their noses. Start now to harden yourself and by the time the wind begins to bite your cheeks you will be safe from colds.

Sleep with your window wide open. If you feel chilly use more covers, but don't close the windows. When you rise in the morning take a cold bath. A shower is splendid if you have that luxury. Invalids, however, should see a physician before following the bath treatment. What is good for the well may not always be good for the sick.

Keep your feet dry and warm. Don't sit in draughts when you are overheated or tired. Avoid close and poorly ventilated rooms. When you leave a crowded church, theatre or moving picture show, start your blood moving by walking rapidly. As long as it is circulating briskly you need not fear catching cold. By starting the cold baths and open window treatment now your body will be hardened by the time winter sets in. And don't forget to take plenty of sleep—make sure of eight hours at least.

Unofficial Vote Cast for Republican Candidates Sept. 30, 1911

Table showing unofficial vote cast for Republican candidates across various districts and offices including Associate Jdgs., Prothonotary, Sheriff, Treas., and County Commissioners.

NOTE.—The above table is practically official on those offices for which there was any contest, and will hardly be changed any by the complete figures. Judge Hinckley received the party vote throughout the county. There was no position on County Auditor, Jury Commissioner and County Surveyor, for the first named A. C. Gregg and George H. Warden being nominated, for the second J. B. Eden, and for the last Roy S. Braden.

The Democrats had no contest for any except the office of County Commissioner, and from nearly complete figures the nomination of H. H. McClellan and William Blum is indicated, with William Nicol third in the race.

Those Water Rights Again.

The application for a charter for an intended corporation which shall have exclusive water power rights on Clarion river and Tionesta creek, which was referred to in somewhat vigorous terms in these columns at the time of the original application, still hangs fire, and a strenuous effort is being made on the part of the men interested to have the opposition withdrawn, but with little success. The residents of Forest and Clarion counties who would be directly affected by the work of the corporation have carried on an aggressive fight against the granting of the charters and have aroused such an opposition as the authorities can scarcely ignore.—Brookville Republican.

The opponents of this gigantic grab had hoped that their protests would be effective and that the Water Commission would promptly sit down on the scheme, but the fact that the question still "hangs fire" is ominous, and leads to the suspicion that the snake is not yet effectually dead. The thing will bear close watching.

Nebraska.

Since our last correspondence Ray Combs has enrolled as a student at Clarion Normal. Mrs. Goldinger of Butler county is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Walters at present. Dan Small is home from Sheffield on a visit. Geo. McKown and daughter were Tionesta visitors on Monday afternoon. Roy Thompson of Endeavor spent Sunday with friends here. Miss Mary Thompson was a visitor in Tionesta on Thursday of last week. The primaries went off very quiet here on Saturday afternoon.

Newtown Mills.

Mildred Weller and Mrs. Anna Storer were callers at Kelleitville, Tuesday afternoon. Miss Emma Rudolph, who has been visiting relatives in town, returned to Franklin, Thursday. Mrs. Ed. Gillespie of Kelleitville was a business caller in town Thursday. Chas. Hoover of Golina visited Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Flynn, Thursday. Mrs. Will Lease of Kelleitville was in town Friday. Mrs. Dave Storer and daughter Avadna who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weller, returned to her home at Mayburg, Wednesday. Mrs. Rynd of Newmansville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Flynn, Thursday and Friday. R. J. Flynn was at Warren Monday. Wm. Carpenter visited his mother, Mrs. J. B. Carpenter, Sunday. M. C. Coy, who has been visiting relatives in Warren county for the past month, returned Saturday for election. Frank Rudolph and family who have been detained here since the Rudolph reunion on account of the sickness of their little daughter, returned to their home at Pine Grove, Friday. Adda Carpenter is helping Mrs. McMillen, who is on the sick list. John Zuendel of Starr was a caller at R. J. Flynn's Saturday afternoon.

Township Caucus.

The Republican voters of Kingsley township will meet in caucus in Johnson's hall, Kelleitville, Saturday, Oct. 7th at 7:00 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for township offices.

LEON WATSON, Committeeman.

A citizens' caucus for the nomination of a township ticket will be held by the electors of Tionesta township, at the Township House, Tionesta, Saturday, Oct. 7, 1911, at 2 o'clock p. m. J. B. EDEN, Rep. Committeeman. W. A. KORN, Dem. Committeeman.

A Hasty Government.

"The postmaster here was removed the other day for incivility to the patrons of the office," said the landlord of the tavern. "You see, Lefe Stroeder asked for his mail and none could be found, but the postmaster said he believed there had been a postcard, but what had become of it he'd be blamed if he knew. Lefe is a good deal of a crank and that didn't satisfy him, and they had some words, and the postmaster took a shot at Lefe that tore off half of one of his ears. "Still, as the postmaster was able to remember just about what had been written on the postal card and told it to Lefe and then didn't shoot off enough of his ear to really affect the hearing it strikes me that the government was pretty considerable stringent, as you might say, about the matter."—Puck.

—You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

Don't Breathe Lazily.

"If you are consumptive, if you think you are drifting into consumption, sing!" said a medical man. "Of course singing alone will not save you from consumption or cure you. Besides singing you must have plenty of fresh air and good food. And, speaking of fresh air, I must say that not one person in a hundred knows how to inhale it. People seldom breathe deeply enough. They seldom properly ventilate their lung cavities, which resemble stuffy, insanitary apartments, where all germs thrive undisturbed. Acquire the habit of taking the big deep breath which is a primary requisite for any kind of singing, bad or good, and the physical joy derived from it will never allow you to relapse into lazy breathing. Furthermore, the mere effort of singing compels the singer to stand straight and to throw out the chest, a good corrective for the bad physical habits of weak chested people."

Killed by a Shout.

A joyful shout thoughtlessly given by an Italian smuggler on having eluded the customs guards on the Swiss frontier was the cause of his six companions being killed by an avalanche. The party, coming from the Grisons, had, with a thousand precautions, successfully negotiated the Forcola pass on the Swiss-Italian border. Five of the men were loaded with valuable contraband goods, and two acted as guides and scouts. When they were all safely on Italian soil one of the guides named Marelli gave vent to a joyful yodel. In the still air the least sound causes a vibration which may set enormous masses of snow moving. This is what occurred here. A quarter of a million tons of snow detached itself from the mountain side and came thundering down upon the party, who were swept in an instant into an abyss. Marelli alone was able to extricate himself.

Checkmate!

In these days, when various schemes are being suggested by which the loser of personal property may recover it without offering an extreme reward, it is interesting to note two advertisements which appeared last summer in a German paper. In these advertisements nothing so bald as a suggestion of reward appeared. They seem merely to present two wits fencing, and the reader forgets the matter at stake: Berlin, Aug. 5.—The gentleman who found a purse, valuable beyond explanation, in the Blumenstrasse, is requested graciously to forward it to the address of the loser, as he is recognized. Berlin, Aug. 6.—The recognized gentleman who found a purse, valuable beyond explanation, begs that the loser will call at his house at the earliest convenient hour.

The Green Kind.

A naval officer who has seen considerable service in South American waters once brought home two parrots, one of which he gave to the housemaid and the other to the cook.

For a long time there ensued animated discussions as to the merits of their respective birds. Finally the housemaid said: "Your parrot was a better talker than mine, though I don't believe it." Then, with an air of presenting the final clinching argument in her favor, she added, "Besides, you'll have to admit that mine has the most beautiful foliage."—Lippincott's.

Honored the Old Men.

A unique festival occurred in Paris in 1797 in honor of the old men. The idea was the encouragement of the family circle, and the old man who was a happy grandfather was held up to the younger generations to follow in his footsteps. "A gracious Hebe crowned their white locks with garlands of roses, while the soldiers of France presented arms in their honor."

Princes at School.

Dr. Marks tells some amusing stories of the early days of the school in Burma of which he was for so many years the head. Shortly after the school was opened King Thebaw said, "Will you teach some of my sons?" "Certainly," said Dr. Marks. "What ages do you like them to?" Dr. Marks replied, "From twelve to fourteen." The king said, "Bring all my sons between twelve and fourteen to me." Nine princes came in. Four came to school the next day, each riding on an elephant and with two gold umbrellas. Each also was escorted by forty soldiers. Afterward the whole nine came, so there were nine princes, nine elephants, eighteen gold umbrellas and 360 soldiers. The elephants stayed outside, but when the princes came into the schoolroom all the other boys threw themselves flat down on their faces on the ground. It was forbidden for any one to stand or sit in the presence of princes. Dr. Marks found this state of things very inconvenient, and the royal etiquette at school was at his request considerably abated.—London Globe.

Legislatively Expressed.

"No one can go wrong if he follows the Ten Commandments," said the sincere citizen. "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum, "the only trouble about the Ten Commandments arises from the amendments people try to tack to them."—Washington Star.

Stung.

Teacher—Tommy, do you know "How Does the Little Busy Bee?" Tommy—No; I only know he doth it!—Today's Magazine.

Strategy.

Miss Highsee—But it is time for the guests to leave. Hostess—Yes; that's why I want you to sing.—New York Sun.
