Harmony Township Canvass.

The Republicans of Harmony township will meet at the township house at West Hickory, Wednesday, October 18th, 1911, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a ticket for the ensuing election.

W. G. MORROW, Committeeman.

HARDLY a day passes without its special sensation. It is either flood, war, famine, pestilence, murder mystery or railroad strike.

THE Titusville Herald thinks its the cost of high living rather than the high cost of living that's playing ball with all of us. Had you thought of it in that way?

ONCE in a while nature says to the world: "The valleys are mine; my forces can not be restrained, my dominion extends from hill to hill and I must have uninterrupted access to the sea."

OVER in Clarion county W. A. Hindman, Esq., defeated G. G. Sloan, Esq., for the democratic nomination for Judge of the courts on the 30th ult., by about 400 votes. Attorney Hindman won the nomination over Sloan ten years ago but was defeated at the general election by Harry R. Wilson, Esq., the republican nominee. This year the republicans have placed in nomination Joseph F. Maffett, Esq., and the Keystone party have placed the name of Don C. Corbett on their ticket. Clarion county is peculiar about who she elects to preside over her courts, and it would not greatly surprise anyone to learn that "history had repeated itself" in the election of Mr. Maffett, the Republican nominee.

THE tabulated vote of the late primary election is reproduced in these columns this week, the figures being taken from the official returns as computed by the County Commissioners, and will be found correct and complete. It will be noted that the highest vote cast was on the office of Prothonotary, 945, which, though lacking considerably of the full party vote, is a very satisfactory percentage and a mighty nice turnout. With such a showing there ought to be no question whatever of the election of the entire ticket from top to bottom, especially since the candidates are all clean, capable and strictly honorable and trustworthy men, peculiarly fitted for the positions to which they aspire and for which they received the party's pronounced endorsement. It is the duty of every Republican now to turn in with a hearty good will and help in their election, and there is no question but that they will do that very thing. The candidates whom you have named should not be expected to do all the work of the campaign themselves.

The Disaster at Austin.

The recovery of two additional bodies on Sunday at Austin made a total of sixty-two out of a total of seventy-four believed to have perished in the flood of the 30th ult. The wreckage is being rapidly cleared away and it is thought that another week will see the most of the ground in the stricken town cleaned up, and all the bodies recovered that were not carried on down the small creek. Contributions from all sections have been sent to the town, but more cash is needed to alleviate the suffering, for it must be remembered that while many of the residents were well to do before the disaster, all was wiped away and all are now poor and in immediate want of the necessities of life.

There has been some talk of rebuilding the town, but that will hardly be done, since the village was "going back" at the time of the flood.

The inquest for the purpose of fixing the responsibility for the disaster is in progress, but it will be some time before its completion, and many obstructions will likely be placed in the way of the coroner's jury by those who are likely to be adversely affected by its findings. The public will be satisfied with nothing but the most rigid investigation and the punishment of those responsible for the calamity.

—Attorney D. U. Arild of Warren has been notified that the appeal in the John M. Andrews murder case is complete, the affidavit given by Mr. Andrews having been received by the prothonotary of the Supreme Court. Governor Tener was notified that an appeal had been granted. This stops all proceedings on the part of the Commonwealth until the Supreme Court shall hand down a decision. In accordance with the expectations of the counsel for the defense, the prothonotary of the Supreme Court fixed the argument for the first Monday of November. Attorneys Arild and Scarlett will argue for the defense and District Attorney Lyons and Attorney Thomas C. Cochran for the Commonwealth.

Official Vote Cast for Republican Candidates Sept. 30, 1911.

Large table showing official vote cast for Republican candidates across various districts and offices including Associate Judge, Prothonotary, Sheriff, Treas., and County Commissioner.

NOTE.—On the Republican ticket for President Judge W. D. Hinckley had 725 votes; County Auditor, G. H. Warren 640; A. C. Gregg 544; Jury Commissioner, J. B. Eden 716; County Surveyor, Roy S. Braden 719. The total vote on the Democratic ticket is as follows: Associate Judge, Perry C. Hill 217; Prothonotary, G. G. Gaston 910; Sheriff, W. H. Hood 216; County Treasurer, J. H. Russell 215; County Commissioner, H. H. McClellan 140; Wm. Blum 127; Wm. Nicol 104; J. P. Kelley 67; County Auditor, S. V. Shields 191; Jury Commissioner, A. M. Moore 203; County Surveyor, D. W. Clark 55. Judge Hinckley, the Republican nominee for President Judge, received 8 votes on the Democratic ticket and will be their nominee, provided that no other candidate in Warren county received a greater vote.

The Socialists polled 40 votes and their nominees are as follows: Sheriff, Wm. Conger; County Commissioner, Lewis Behrens; J. E. Whitmore; County Auditors, A. W. Albaugh, W. F. Weingard; Jury Commissioner, L. F. Mervan.

Porkey.

Our school was changed to a two-room school last Monday, with Miss Anna Allaire as teacher in the primary room, and things were going along nicely when chicken-pox made its appearance, and the cases increased so rapidly that by the end of the week the rooms were getting pretty well emptied. It was then decided to close the school for a week until the children got over said malady sufficient to begin again. There is a good sized school here this winter.

Our people got a lot of nice chestnuts the past week as the frost and wind were favorable for the ripening of the nuts.

The S. & T. had a freight wreck near Hastings last week that put the passenger train away late, but it made its trip just the same. They were also detained the day before so that the school children did not get to Kingsley until about nine o'clock in the evening. The passenger train has been sure-footed lately but we cannot say the same for the freight and log trains. The late winds have also made a lot of trouble with the telephone line of this railroad, but there is a better time ahead, and farther on the way grows brighter.

A. E. Arters filled the pulpit at Minister on Sunday last and the attendance was as usual small, but we are looking for more of a congregation next time as it will be in the evening.

Mrs. C. L. Littlefield is the guest of her parents at Clarion for a few days and Claude is keeping bachelor's misery during her absence. There were 40 or 50 Maccabees who lost everything they had at Austin during the late flood, and their brothers here are making up a donation for them. This is the right thing to do and if every member would do what he could financially it would mean a lot to those brothers at Austin. We do not realize the real awfulness of the situation while so far away from the place.

J. W. Littlefield was home over Sunday from his work on Whig Hill and returned to his duty on Monday morning early. He is erecting a saw mill for Henderson and Miller of Kellettsville.

It was cold enough to freeze ice here on Sunday morning and the plants and vines are all "cooked," and the sight is not so pretty as it was last week.

Mrs. D. W. Downey is going to make her mother a visit at Pleasantville next week.

Mrs. Jay Cooper of Minister was a caller in our village on Sunday last. Coopers are soon going to move out to Irvineton on a farm.

James Murphy of Trueman's leaves on Monday for the golden west, and with him go the best wishes of a host of friends around these parts. Mrs. Murphy will not go out for a time but will wait till Jim gets acclimated and ascertains if he can stand the country.

A great number of the smaller children at Porkey are Sunday school hungry and on Sunday, Oct. 15, there will be a session at 3:30 p. m., for these little fellows and their parents, if they are so much interested to attend. Years ago a small Sunday school was kept up in a small building—in fact one room of a dwelling here, and some of the scholars are still living around here. The lady who conducted it last has lately passed to her reward—Mrs. Isabel McGaughan, who died in the state of Oregon a short time ago.

Lafe Littlefield has moved into his new residence at the head of Plous avenue, where he has remodelled the Gillespie house and it makes a good place to live.

Mrs. L. R. Brennan returned from a visit with her father at Kellettsville, on Saturday last. This gentleman has been very sick for a few days.

John Bennett got a fine horse at Cherry Grove last week, but was not satisfied and returned the animal the latter part of the week.

Earl Downey and Fidele Spencer were Marienville visitors last Wednesday evening, and report that a nice village with good residents. The change to a broad gauge of the B. & O. will undoubtedly make a fine place.

J. H. Kinch and family were visitors at the Vandenberg home at Cherry Grove on Sunday last.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Another Railroad for Forest County.

Forest county, which is to be tapped by another railroad, which will pass through the towns of Clarion and Cooksburg on the Clarion river, according to the following from the Franklin News: An application has been filed with the State Department at Harrisburg to secure a charter for a railway to be known as the "Pennsylvania Northern Railroad Company," a description of which is as follows:

"Beginning at or near the village of Hallton, Elk county, Pennsylvania; thence proceeding in a southerly westerly direction to a point at or near the mouth of Mill creek, where the same enters the Clarion river, Clarion county, Pennsylvania; thence first, in an easterly direction up and along near Mill creek to a point approximately ten (10) miles distant from the mouth of said Mill creek, and second in a westerly direction from the said mouth of said Mill creek, first aforesaid, to a point at or near the borough of Clarion, Clarion county, Pennsylvania. Total miles, 50."

The object of the association is to construct a railroad as above indicated, which will run through the counties of Clarion, Forest, Jefferson and Elk. In Clarion county there is a large amount of timber, as well as fire clay and limestone, which the proposed road will touch; there is also some timber in Forest and Elk counties.

The proposed road will be practically an extension of the Pennsylvania Southern railway, connecting with the P. S. & C. railway, leased by the Pennsylvania Southern railway, at Clarion and at Mill creek, which latter road is via the Pennsylvania Southern railway. The extension of the Pennsylvania Southern will be of great value to the city of Franklin, as it covers a territory now unoccupied by any railroad running through part of Clarion, Jefferson, Forest and Elk counties, and will bring the trade of that part of northwestern Pennsylvania to this city.

The following are the officers and directors of the proposed company: President—H. Buckingham, Clarion; Directors—David W. Morgan, James G. Carmichael, C. C. Steinbrenner, Emery C. Reed and George C. Miller, all of Franklin; John N. Curry and H. Buckingham, of Clarion.

The general office will be located at Franklin.

Announcement has also been made of the organization of the Buckingham Coal Company, which has mines along the Pennsylvania Southern road. The company mines 1,000 tons of coal a day.

RECENT DEATHS.

SHAFER.

Jacob Shaffer almost a lifelong resident of this section, died at his home in Kellettsville, Monday morning of this week. He had suffered a stroke of paralysis in the spring but had partially recovered and was able to attend to his daily affairs until about two weeks ago, when a second stroke prostrated him, and from which he rallied again and was able to be about some. Monday morning he complained of not feeling well and his wife summoned a physician, who found the patient weakened considerably but still able to walk about the room. In a few moments however, Mr. Shaffer laid down upon the bed and almost immediately expired from heart weakness. Mr. Shaffer was born in Lawrence county, Pa., Nov. 27, 1837, being thus aged 73 years, 10 months and 12 days. While yet a young man his parents moved to Venango county, and from thence he came to Hickory township to work, where he was married to Miss Mary Church, who, with five daughters and two sons, survives, namely: Mrs. Nathan Brewster, Mrs. J. J. Jones, Mrs. Sheridan Shaw and Mrs. Wm. Storer, of Endeavor, Mrs. Lewis Brennan of Minister, Charles of Hickory twp., and Burton of Sheriff, all of Forest county. Two sisters and two brothers also survive, Mrs. Martin Manross of Iowa, Mrs. Hannah Evans of New Castle, Pa., John of Toledo, Ohio, and Wm. of Ten Mile Bottom, Pa. The deceased moved to Kellettsville 16 years ago, which place he had been a highly respected citizen to the hour of his death. Funeral services will be held in the church on Church Hill this, Wednesday, afternoon at 2 o'clock, to be followed by interment in the cemetery connected with the church.
