A Metropolitan Store in Oil City.

The other day one of our friends, recently back from a visit to New York, came in on a shopping expedition. After she'd looked around a while she exclaimed, "Well, it's hard to believe that I'm not in New York at this minute. Your autumn displays show the same range of qualities and designs that I saw in the higher class stores in the big city."

Possibly she didn't realize it, but she expressed in a nutshell the policies and ideals of this store. For years we've tried our level best so to please our friends that they won't feel compelled to make long, expensive trips to the "big cities" for their fall and winter shopping. We're glad to think we're succeeding.

Now we want to include every woman in Tionesta among our friends, just as much as we do every woman in Oil City. We know that a closer acquaintance will be to your advantage as well as to ours, and to make that acquaintance we're glad to stand the expense of your trip down here,

On purchases amounting to $10 we'll give you a rebate covering your fare one way; purchases amounting to $20 or over mean that the cost of your entire trip is paid for, Can't we become better acquainted, Mrs. Housekeeper?

The New Fall Hats Will Delight You.

As cooler weather brings vividly to mind the need for autumn headwear, you'll find a visit to our Millinery Department bunch at the spelling bee, balked at full of interest. You'll see cases and tables loaded with upward the first word given out and was sent of three hundred charming new models-you'll admire the new the third word put to him. Press creations from Fisk, Gage, Phipps, and other makers of world- Arwood could not spell Chicago and wide fame-you'll note the smart, Frenchy air of our own reproductions from late Paris models. And finally, you'll be pleased with the wide range of prices, all the way from $5 to

ODD FACTS ABOUT DUST.

Four Thousand Million Particles of It in a Puff of Smoke. Dust would not be possible were it ot for the fact that matter is almost nfinitely divisible. It has been estiented that an average puff of smoke rom a cigarette contains about four housand millions of particles of dust. A single grain of indigo will give olor to a ton of water; of course, "Popular Mechanics," every rop of this water must contain an mmense number of ultramicroscopic particles of indigo.

A few grains of fluorescein, a substance derived from coal tar, will produce a distinct fluorescence, shining with a yellowish green light when strongly illuminated, in a hundred tons of water. To produce this resuit the fluorescein must be divided nto countless billions of particles.

Every conceivable substance enters into the composition of dust. In street dust may be found bits of iron and steel from the tires of wagons, horseshoes and the nails of our own shoes, bits of leather from harness, fragments of weed, cotton, silk, tone, gold, silver, clothing, wool, hair, mimal excreta, various ores, tin, paper, clay, sand, moulds, bacteriain fact everything under the sun.

The Austrian State Coach. The Emperor of Austria owns the nost beautiful state coach in existence. Its proportions are perfect and the finish of the mouldings and carvings are exquisite. It was built in 1696, and is shaped with all the curves which distinguish Louis Quatorze furniture, streight lines being carefully avoided. The panels are adorned with nymphs in the style of Rubens. Indeed, the custodian informs those privileged to view the coach that they are the work of Rubens. If Peter the painter had not dled fifty-six years before the coach was built his statement would be believed. It is a more comfortable conveyance too than the British state coach, being hung upon well balanced springs,-London Chronicle.

A Kentucky Spelling Bee. Dr. Herbert Cunningham, who was reputed to be one of the best in the John 'King put an i where the e should have been in bullet. John Lawrence put the i before the e in nickel; Arthur Burnett put a u for w in frown and Harper Boyd spelled pew pue. Mrs. W. H. Jefferson, who was the best speller for the town side, missed the word cuckoo, while Prentice Thomas, Mrs. Robert Crenshaw and others missed words equally simple.-Cadiz Record.

Birds Killed In Migration.

According to advices f om the Caucasus millions of singing birds which every winter used to find a warm retreat on the southern slopes of the forest clad mountains of the Caucasus were suddenly surprised by the intense cold and severe snowstorms while they were on their way from the north. The sides of the mighty mountains, the highest in Europe, and rtune, provided proper the shores of the Black Sea were strewn with small corpses of singing birds, especially bullfinches, goldfinches, robin redbreasts, flycatchers and other birds which in the summer mostly visit these shores,-Pall Mall

Hawaiian Pineapples.

"Hawaii has the most extensive pineapple district in the world," said B. O. Thomas, formerly of San Francisco, now a resident of Honolulu. within Whiawa, which is a twenty mile ride from Honolulu. "James D. Dole is the man who introduced pineapple culture into Hawaii, and he has made a fortune out of the business. Some of the pines in the Wahiawa district extend in parallel rows for miles, and it is not unusual to find the fruit weighing as much as fourteen pounds. The largest cannery in the world is located within an hour's ride of Honolulu,"-Washing-

Dog Dies From Grief. A dog's striking attachment to his master is recorded from Villeneuve-Saint-Georges. While attending the funeral of a municipal councillor's wife M. Constantin, a resident of that village, contracted congestion of the lungs, from which be died suddenly. He had a dog, a small fox terrier, which never left him. After the death of M. Constantin the poor animal refused food and passed whole days at the cemetery moaning on the tomb of his dead master. Later the terrier was found dead .- le Figaro.

Indianian's Hungry Eagle. C. E. Summers had a gray eagle which was captured in a steel trap here. The bird measured seven feet from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other and its appetite made it desirable for Mr. Summers to dispose of it at once. It ate one rooster, two crows and about ten pounds of meat. Attacks on lambs caused sheep owners to set traps about their folds with the result that the eagle was caught by Henry Mannan.

Whistling for Health,

Whistling is a good thing for the lungs. It is said that whistling boys are seldom troubled with bronchitis and pneumona. Many medical men sometimes urge patients with weak lungs to whistle as often and as much as they possibly can.-Science Sift-

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Learn to Breathe and Walk. Proper breathing exercises are absolutely essential to chest development as well as good health. You must also learn to walk correctly. You will then fill the lungs with pure air, expand the chest and improve the circulation.

Perhaps, on account of popular opinion and personal babit, we waste much time in a jellyfish condition that could be more profitably spent in active pursuit of our ambitions. The answer, of course, depends upon the nature of our occupation. If there is much muscular effort involved, with a corresponding large amount of waste in the cells and blood, eight hours or more are probably necessary. But if our work is of a sedentary nature and mainly of the brain there is naturally a smaller quantity of accumulated waste, and less time is required for its removal. Many are the instances of great men, past and present, who have lived healthfully and worked unceasingly and strenuously on only four or five hours of sleep, or half the laborer's portion. Surely we are not to suppose that those men were or are physically different from others, but rather that by inclination or necessity they have developed a habit of sleeping intensely for a short period instead of lightly for a longer period, with resulting gain of time and efficiency.-Atlantic Monthly.

Kings Are Useful.

A king is a hand embroidered gentle man trimmed with metals, faced with whiskers and thatched with a metal roof that would never keep off the rain. Nominally he is the head of the nation; actually he is a figurehead, and that is figuratively speaking only, for he is generally too fat to claim a figure and seldom has much of a head-except on the morning after a celebration. Once upon a time the king was the big tuba of the band. Now he is merely an oboc-until there is a revolution,

However, a king has his place, although he is yearly finding it more difficult to stay in it. Kings are found to be very useful in poker games, and by society ladies who wish to be presented to some

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMON-THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMON-WEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL AS-SEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISH-ED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PUR-SUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION. Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Consti-tution of the Common wealth of Penn-sylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section L Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Penn-sylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:— That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said sec-tion, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respecttvely as the court of common pleas num-ber one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be in-creased, from time to time, and when-ever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court and the saverail. ber of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive juris-thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.
