NELSON WAS EXCUSED

Judge Bordwell Declared Venireman Ineligible to Serve on the McNamara Jury.

Los Angeles, Oct. 17.—After being the object of a spirited controversy between the prosecution and the defense for days Venireman Z. H. Nelson was excused from service in the case of James B. McNamara, charged with dynamiting the Times building.

When the court's work for the day had been concluded two other veniremen had undergone partial examination at the hands of Clarence Darrow, attorney for the defense.

More rapid progress was made than on any other since the case was begun. While the prosecution may yet challenge Veniremen John W. Roberts and Robert G. Bain, for cause, these two men have been passed temporarily, which is taken to indicate that the case will proceed rapidly from this time on.

Nelson's disqualification for cause came at the end of a series of questions propounded to him by Judge Bordwell. Nelson virtually admitted that it would be difficult for him to render an impartial decision in the case if he was chosen for jury duty.
