Republican Ticket.

- President Judge, HON. W. D. HINCKLEY. Associate Judge, JOSEPH M. MORGAN. Prothonotary, SHARP R. MAXWELL. Sheriff, CHARLES CLARK. Treasurer, W. H. BRAZEE. County Commissioner, W. H. HARRISON. JOSEPH C. SCOWDEN. Auditors, A. C. GREGG, GEO. H. WARDEN. Jury Commissioner, JOHN B. EDEN. County Surveyor, ROY S. BRADEN.

It is now claimed that the same Hines who "put Lorimer over" also put "Uncle Ike" Stephenson of Wisconsin. They are putting it all over Mr. Hines himself these days.

There's nothing like being "progressive" while you're at it. Senator La Follette goes a step further than any of the other reformers. When he believes that the voters of the country have not voted right he wants the privilege of recalling them.

There is no question but that every Republican must feel satisfaction in the strength of the ticket that is in the field. The duty then becomes apparent, that every Republican should be sufficiently interested to get out, and work, and vote for the ticket.

The impression seems to have gotten out that Mr. Brazee, the Republican nominee for County Treasurer is still forgoing at the kindling wood factory at Kellettsville at a salary of $100 per month. This is a mistake. Mr. Brazee has not been foreman of the plant since 1907, when the entire management went into other hands. His wage is simply 20 cents per hour, and at that rate a one-armed man is not getting rich very fast.

The election is less than two weeks in the future. Are you, Mr. Republican, doing your duty toward the election of the straight Republican ticket, a better, cleaner or more worthy than which has not been before the people of Forest County. It was fairly nominated by the party voters, and a united party should be found at its back in the election which is now rapidly approaching. The candidates are entitled to your earnest, loyal support, and since the primaries are over the candidates should not be expected to make the fight alone. Get into the collar and help them to win by good majorities.

PRESIDENT TAFT, writing of "The Dawn of World Peace," in the November Woman's Home Companion, takes the following position with relation to the arbitration treaties now up for adoption between England, France and the United States: "With the ratification of the treaties with Great Britain and France, we may hope that treaties with other nations will follow. After a time, if our treaties stand the test of experience and prove useful, it is probable that all the greatest powers on earth will come under obligation to arbitrate their differences with other nations. Naturally, the smaller nations will do likewise, and then universal arbitration will be more of an actuality than an altruistic dream."

Taft Seems Certain.

United States Senator Boies Penrose, who has just recovered from an annoying but not serious sickness, has declared that in his judgment President Taft will be re-nominated and re-elected. Senator Penrose sees nothing alarming in the recent Chicago meeting of the advocates of Senator La Follette and declares that meeting merely a move of the political opportunists and soreheads. The political Penrose reasons along the following convincing lines: "The vote taken in the Chicago convention for President in 1908 shows how little President Taft has to fear from this so-called La Follette uprising. At that time the Wisconsin candidate received but 25 votes not the solid delegation from his own State, as one delegate voted for Taft. Taft then received 702 votes out of a total of 980. Though it is far in advance of the next convention, yet all the indications point to the regular Republicans uniting for the re-nomination of Mr. Taft. In that event he will have in addition to the 702 votes he had in 1908, these votes which were cast for other candidates: Cannon, 58; Fairbanks, 40; Foraker, 16; Hughes, 67; Knox, 68; Roosevelt, 3. With these accessions to his strength, it is seen how frail are the supports upon which the hopes of the progressive rest. But they are taking a gambler's chance and at any rate they are crystallizing the opposition in the belief that it may prove useful upon some occasion."

A destructive fire, entailing a loss estimated at $150,000, visited Warren at an early hour Saturday morning. The handsome Y. M. C. A. building, where the fire originated, was destroyed, and the Wendelboe building adjoining was gutted. The McKean block, also adjoining, was considerably damaged, and the First National bank sustained a small loss. The occupants of these buildings were losers to the extent of several thousand dollars. Only partial insurance was carried by those who suffered by the fire.

Kellettsville.

Charley Bauer, who visited his brother Addison Bauer and other relatives and friends in town, returned to his home in Warren Tuesday. Mrs. E. Hunter of Endeavor and Mrs. Herman Blum of Newtown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller Monday. Thomas Baptie and daughter Anna of Grand Valley spent the week with the former's daughter, Mrs. Geo. Kinstiver. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harkless received a present of a fine baby boy Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sizle and children went to Warren Thursday to spend a few days on business and pleasure. The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Lorom Wednesday afternoon. Superintendents for the different departments were appointed and other business was transacted, after which a very fine luncheon was served by the hostess. It is the rule of the order only to serve three articles of refreshments, but instead we were treated to a three-course luncheon. As we ate we decided it tasted so good we would eat it all and say nothing about the threatened fine. Mrs. Lorom proved herself an excellent hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Murphy, Nov. 1. The Y.'s also held a meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Anna Lease. Refreshments were served during the evening. Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Davis and son Kenneth, who have spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Cullin, returned to their rooms above the doctor's dental parlors during the week. They will occupy these rooms during the winter, moving into their new home when it is completed in the spring. Mrs. C. Pope went with them as housekeeper while Mrs. Davis is teaching. Mrs. John Watson received a very painful bruise on the hand by being kicked by a cow while milking Tuesday. Clarence Jenkins is having a streak of misfortunes. The first day he was able to work after injuring his foot he scalded both his hands so badly that he was forced to take another vacation. Martin L. Zimmerman and Mary C. Reed came over from Sykesville and were married at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. W. E. Frampton, Saturday evening. They remained as guests at the parsonage over the Sabbath. Mrs. W. E. Frampton returned from a three weeks' visit with friends at Punxsutawney Wednesday. Members of the junior or middle year classes in the high school enjoyed a supper in Johnson's hall, Friday evening. The Misses Della Cook and L. Barr were down from Mayburg as guests of the classes. Mrs. Isaac Siggins and daughters of West Hickory were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. C. Miller, and nephew, H. E. Murphy, Friday, taking her son Fred, who had been visiting relatives in town for a week, home with them Saturday. Miss Kate Guenther came over from Brookston, where she is teaching this winter, Friday, and remained over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. L. Weller. C. P. Cloak is visiting friends in New York this week. His place at the depot is filled by Geo. Porter during his absence. Dr. Hamilton came over from Warren Friday, being called here in consultation with local physicians for A. L. Weller, who has been sick for the past week. Wm. Hood was up from Tionesta Friday looking after his interests as health officer. H. E. Gillespie harvested a tree of Northern Spy apples which yielded forty bushels of perfect hand-picked fruit. Charles Russell spent the week in Warren. Mrs. H. E. Gillespie and Mrs. John Shaw were called to Oil City Saturday on account of the serious illness of Robert Harkison at that place. Mrs. F. V. Hendrickson and Mrs. S. Watson drove to Nebraska Saturday and disposed of twenty tickets for the lecture course to be given by the League during the winter. Mrs. Hullett returned from her visit to her old home in New Jersey during the week. She was accompanied by her sisters, Mrs. Stoen, of Petrolia, who will remain as her guest for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hendricks and daughter Roberta and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Arner were Marienville visitors Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Sager Watson drove to Tionesta Sunday. Rev. Mr. Rich was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kinch while in town Sunday. E. E. Daubenspeck was elected a trustee of the M. E. church to fill a vacancy, at the quarterly conference Saturday evening.

According to Orders. In employing men to work at his Palo Alto farm in California the late Senator Stanford gave strict orders by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75.

Hall's Family Pills are the best. -You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

YEGGS MAKE GOOD HAUL

Get Away With $2,000 in Stamps and Money at Falconer. The most serious loss that has yet occurred in a series of postoffice robberies in Western New York recently, was that at the Falconer village office, when it was blown open on Saturday morning. Nitroglycerine was used on the safe and the door was blown more than half way across the room, going through a section of the post-office boxes. The money box and the stamp drawer in the safe were laid open and the burglar made away with all the stamps and cash, estimated at $2,000. A few minutes after the explosion two men were seen driving rapidly from the village of Falconer toward Jamestown; this is the only clue to the perpetrators of the robbery. The postoffice at Ceres, near Olean, was broken into and the safe blown open with dynamite. Only about $6 in pennies and a few dollars' worth of stamps was secured by the yeggs.

STABBED TO DEATH

Mother and Brother of Victim Held For Murder, Each Accusing the Other of Crime. Pittsburg, Oct. 24.—Harry Kirk, 39 years old, was found stabbed to death at the foot of a flight of stairs leading to his home. Police men investigating found Kirk's mother, Mrs. Mary Kirk, 68 years old, sitting in the kitchen and James Kirk, 20, a brother, sleeping in bed. When the house was searched they found a stained razor in a cupboard and a table knife in a drawer. The mother and son were arrested. Mrs. Kirk broke down later and said that her two sons, James and Harry, had quarreled and that James stabbed Harry. When James was confronted with his mother's damaging story he emphatically declared that his mother had stabbed his brother to death in a quarrel when his brother returned intoxicated. The police are unable to shake either story.

LIFE EBBING AWAY

Ida Lewis, Famous Lighthouse Keeper, Slowly Sinking to Death. Newport, R. I., Oct. 24.—Ida Lewis, the famous keeper of the Limes Rock lighthouse here, who was stricken with apoplexy on Saturday morning, still remains unconscious and it is the opinion of her relatives and friends here that she is slowly sinking. Once or twice during the day the lightkeeper moved one of her hands, and once moved her mouth, but generally speaking there has been no change in her condition.

Golden Wedding.

On Tuesday, September 26, Mr. and Mrs. John Coon, of Clarion, Forest county, Pa., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, a great number of friends and relatives being present. The weather in the morning was threatening but it turned to be fine and helped to make the day one of pleasure and enjoyment. The large crowd present arrived from 10 o'clock until 2 o'clock. After a happy reunion and a meeting of old friends all did ample justice to a dinner to which nothing was lacking. After dinner, Mr. Knapp, the photographer of Brookville, took a picture of the entire party, after which the people were gathered together in the house and short services were conducted. After singing a couple of verses of a familiar hymn, Rev. S. B. Hoffman led in prayer. Then Rev. D. O. May gave a brief address which was fitting for the occasion, at the conclusion of which, on behalf of the people, he presented Mr. and Mrs. Coon with a good purse of gold and silver. They received many nice presents. After extending to Mr. and Mrs. Coon all best wishes the respective homes, Mr. Coon was born and grew to manhood in the vicinity of Clarion, and on September 26, 1861, was united in marriage to Sara Anne Davis, of West Freedom, Pa. To this marriage are six children, all of whom were present at the anniversary. They are: Mrs. Lillian R. Hall, Clarion; Mrs. C. E. Wickwar, May, W. Va.; Mrs. C. J. McClain, Fairport, Pa.; Elizabeth, Louise, W. Fulmer, Kane; Mrs. C. C. Hesley, Leeper. There are nineteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Coon and family have spent the greater part of their life in Clarion and vicinity and have been a family of high esteem. The following out-of-town guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winston, Mr. and Mrs. William Hawthorne, Tionesta, Pa.; B. A. Leindor, Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Flora E. Wacker, William Sibley, Brookville; A. N. Lehman and wife, Letonia; A. M. Meyers, Tionesta; Marie Eggdahl, West Hickory; Olive Coon, Hazel Grant, Anna McClellan, Sigis; J. E. Davis and wife, Farmington, W. Va.; Mrs. Hira A. Irwin, Redfield; Mrs. E. J. Zilliox, Clarion; Floyd Hepler, H. S. Armagost, New Bethlehem; J. W. Hoeter and wife and two children, Butler, Pa.

Whig Hill.

The order of the day is husking corn, picking apples and making cider, while the good housewife is busy stirring apple-butter. Potatoes are about all dug and were a small crop. The mill of Miller & Henderson is about ready to start. With all modern improvements they no doubt will turn out a good grade of lumber. Moss Barber disposed of a fine Rob Roy horse lately. Charley Littlefield is now on the hill with his threshing, doing Ribbs & Ray's threshing. Mr. Littlefield is carrying his arm in a sling. He was putting a belt on a wheel or shaft and somehow his arm was caught and whirled around the shaft, breaking both bones. Although the damages are serious, Mr. Littlefield is at the wheel of his large traction engine and is still doing business. Claude Terrill, our teacher, and Loy Price went to Tylersburg over Sunday. Rev. W. E. Frampton will conduct services Sunday evening in the M. E. church. The roads are just fine in this vicinity and the pleasure seekers go fitting by in their autos. The hunting season opened up in this neighborhood about two weeks ago. The woodcock, contrary to old customs, are found now on the hills, judging by the sound of the shooting. -Billousness is due to a disordered condition of the stomach. Chamberlain's Tablets are essentially a stomach medicine, intended especially to act on that organ; to cleanse it, strengthen it, tone and invigorate it, to regulate the liver and to banish biliousness, positively and effectually. For sale by all dealers.
