

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

Look Who's Here

FOREST COUNTY'S VOTE.

Republicans Win All But Sheriff, Which is Close.

With the exception of the office of Sheriff the Republicans won out in the election in Forest County yesterday, the indications this morning being that Wm. H. Hood, Democrat, has been elected over Charles Clark, Republican, by a majority somewhere between 10 and 25 votes.

All the other candidates on the Republican ticket were elected by safe pluralities, the result being as follows: President Judge, W. D. Hinckley; Associate Judge, Joseph M. Morgan; Prothonotary, Sharp R. Maxwell; Sheriff, Wm. H. Hood; County Treasurer, Wade H. Brazee; County Commissioners, W. H. Harrison, J. C. Scowden, H. H. McClellan; Auditors, A. C. Gregg, Geo. H. Warden, S. V. Shields; Jury Commissioners, J. B. Eden, Melvin Moore; County Surveyor, Roy S. Braden.

The vote was one of the heaviest in the history of the county, the election of township officials being responsible for bringing out almost the total registration. The ballot sheets were immense and the voting greatly mixed, making the counting slow and the returns belated.

We give below the result of the vote on all the offices on which there were any contests, so far as the figures are obtainable this morning, it being impossible to get figures on those candidates who were unopposed:

Blankenburg Mayor of Philadelphia.

Indications are that Rudolph Blankenburg, Democrat-Keystone candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia, is elected over Earle, Republican, by 2,500 majority.

If it was the purpose of Congressman Littleton to embarrass President Taft at a public dinner he realizes now that he put himself in a hole.

PREPARATIONS for Thanksgiving Day are being made all over the world. The Italians are after Turkey and the Chinese are struggling for Shanghai.

REPORTED massacres at Tripoli and Hankow remind peace societies that there is still a good deal of savagery in race claiming to have been long civilized.

THE steel trust paid its regular dividend a few days after the institution of the government's suit for its dissolution. It is evidently determined to keep its stockholders in line.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S third Thanksgiving proclamation is almost too optimistic in tone to suit the insurgents. Had Senator La Follette been a block border it would have included it in a black border.

VERY few men deliberately "go to the devil." In nearly every case there is a cause for the loss of self grip. It may be inherited appetite, lack of moral training, business or domestic troubles. Don't be too free to condemn men for not rising above their weakness. Show us a man who never fell before temptation and we'll look upon a thing built in human shape, but having the vitals of a fish and whose venal fluid is weaker than separated milk.—Slippery Rock Sun.

JOHN F. COX, speaker of the last two sessions of the legislature died at his home at Homestead, Allegheny county, on Monday, from uremic poison. He had not been well for six months, but only in the past few days did he give up work. Mr. Cox was prominent as a lawyer, legislator and orator, and as speaker of the House he was very popular because of his uniform courtesy and fairness toward all the members. Speaker Cox was in Tionesta with the State candidates in the fall of 1908, and met many of our citizens.

Porkey.

Owing to the great amount of business on hand our pen remained inactive last week but we are going to exercise it some this week.

Hallowe'en passed us without any damage, only the half grown boys had to bar the school house entrance, but early risers removed the obstructions so that the teacher was not abashed when he arrived at the school in the morning. There was a very enjoyable party given the youngsters at J. W. Littlefield's and every one had a very nice time. There was a parade of Jack-o-lanterns just after dark, accompanied by a loud noise.

J. W. Littlefield was over on Sunday to spend the day with his family here and returned on Monday morning early to his labors at Whig Hill.

Miss Lottie Littlefield is at Grand Valley working for her brother James Littlefield, who lately moved there.

Mrs. Geo. Blum returned Friday from a short visit to Newmansville, the home of her parents, and reports the apple crop very good out in that part of the country, and brings evidence in the shape of some of the finest we have ever seen in apples.

Thomas Miller was down from Henry's Mill over Sunday with his little family. G. H. Blum spent a few hours with his family on Saturday evening but had to return to look after his stock. He is serving as woods-boss for the Watson Lands Lumber Co., near Mayburg, and in addition to the woods work has the feeding of the horses.

Wm. Labree, who is in California, has a perfect right to smile a great smile, for out here in the east a little daughter was born last week. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

There is a revival in progress at Minister and thus far three have laid down their burden of sin on the altar. The attendance is good and we hope to see more of the good work here. There is no service on Monday evenings so as to allow the women rest from the weekly wash-day. This is a good rule too, for our poor women feel tired Monday evening.

Kellettville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Murphy entertained at a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening. The guests consisted of fourteen young ladies, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cunningham and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller and Mrs. O. L. Johnson and daughter Helen, the last two of Sheffield. The evening was spent in the usual Hallowe'en pastimes, such as Cinderella fortune telling and stringing peas. In the peanut contest Miss Lela Shaw won the prize by stringing twenty-four peanuts, being the highest number stringed, and Miss Yerna Miller was awarded the booby prize for the smallest string, only having two to her credit. The fortune teller also had a place in the evening's amusement and contained a piece of money, a thimble and a ring, but when eating the money was not discovered and it is supposed some fair damsel swallowed her fortune. Among the young ladies Miss Anna Haslet of Newtown was the only guest from out of town.

The high school celebrated Hallowe'en by a supper in the vacant room in the school building. Their pleasure was somewhat marred by the presence of a ghost upon the scene, which chased and frightened some of the girls so they were compelled to go home, Belle Spencer being unable to leave her bed for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grove, Levi Pierson and John attended the mask supper and dance at the Grange Hall Tuesday evening.

While the streets were overrun by hobgoblins of every description and the young people were amusing themselves by soaping their neighbors' windows and piling porches with every movable thing they could find, some malicious spirits were bent on destruction. Gates were torn from their hinges and carried away and have never been recovered by the owners. Several engines belonging to the Salmon Creek Lumber Co. were run up and down the track until the water supply was exhausted and then left to their fate. No. 7 was so badly burned that the crown sheet dropped and the engine was so badly damaged it is estimated it will take two hundred dollars to repair it. No. 8 was perfectly dry but had not been standing so long and by using great care it stood the test of refilling and firing. Twenty minutes more would have fixed it so it would have shared the fate of the former. Rumor says several ladies (?) were among the crowd who amused themselves at the company's expense. It might be well for our little town to pattern after the larger places and furnish some organized amusement for the people when this eventful night appears again.

Another Hallowe'en disaster happened at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith. The children lighted a Jack-o-lantern and put it in the parlor window. While the members of the family were in another part of the house the curtain became ignited from the flame of the candle and when it was discovered the interior of the room was entirely enveloped in flames. The windows cracked with the heat, the glasses on pictures were broken and the entire furnishings of the room were greatly damaged before the fire was extinguished.

Rev. George Thompson, who is interested in the home for destitute children in Pittsburgh, was present at the W. C. T. U. meeting held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Murphy Wednesday afternoon and was entrusted with twelve dollars for the relief of the sufferers at Austin.

The sportsmen of town held their annual ring hunt Thursday and were successful in bagging quite a lot of game. The captains were Dr. H. L. Davis and Dr. W. Serrill. The latter with his chosen helpers were successful in winning the supper from their defeated comrades, which was prepared at the hotel. Herman Blum received the highest count, having 125 points to his credit, his son being a close second with 93 points. They were both on the winning side and their catch had considerable weight in deciding the victory, the entire side only scoring something less than 500 points, while the other side had nearly 500.

George Kinsinger went to Nebraska Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his mother, who is quite sick at that place.

Mrs. Sarah Shaw and Mrs. W. F. Barrett are both quite sick at their respective homes with pneumonia.

Mrs. John Shaw and Mrs. Wm. Nelson have been on the sick list during the week but are improving.

Charley Dautenspeck has been confined to his home during the week with a cold. We are glad to note that Blanche Hendricks, who has been sick for the past few weeks, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Patch of Endeavor visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, Sunday.

Miss Mildred Weller of Newton was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Watson, Sunday.

The lumber is on the ground for the erection of a new wagon and blacksmith shop for Lewis Jensen, on the bank of the creek opposite his home.

Mrs. E. McCullough of Mayburg was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson during the week.

Mr. McKenzie of Newmansville is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Carbaugh.

The Best Kind of family Reading.

For your home, where the right influence counts for so much, choose the reading that quickens the pulse, that tells of deeds of daring, that takes the reader into strange parts of the world, and yet, with all its power to entertain, depicts honor, true manliness, gentleness, loyalty to principle, as the things of chief importance in life. It benefits while it entertains.

You will find such reading week after week in the pages of The Youth's Companion, contributed by the most popular story-writers, and by men and women whose names are famous in every field of enterprise and scholarship.

Send us your address on a postal card, and we will mail you the beautiful Prospectus of The Companion for 1912, together with sample copies of the paper.

We think you will agree, when you have read them, that there is no other paper that gives quite so much of such a high quality as The Companion, and it costs only $1.75 now for the 52 weekly issues. On January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.00.

The new subscriber receives a gift of The Companion's Calendar for 1912, in ten colors and gold, and all the remaining issues of 1911 free from the time the subscription is received.

Cherry Grove.

Mr. Westling was in Sheffield Wednesday. Mrs. Albert Snyder of Barnes was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Poehy Wednesday.

H. C. Johnson is having a new tin roof put on his barn. L. C. Hanson was in Sheffield on business Wednesday.

W. P. Johnson went to Clarendon Wednesday. Our first snow fell Thursday.

Plenty of hunting now that the rabbit season is open. Rabbits are very plentiful here, and some of the farmers are glad to see them killed.

G. W. Gifford had business in Warren Friday. H. C. Johnson went to Clarendon Wednesday.

Rumors of wedding bells again. It has been some time since they chimed in our town. Looks as if it remained for our elders to start the ball rolling again.

Henry Sorenson and Leslie Hanson returned from Gusher Tuesday evening. Leslie Paul, whom we reported sick last week, is better.

Cattle losses have been very heavy here this summer. About twenty-one dead, as the result of eating "roadstools," L. C. Hanson the latest loser found four dead in the woods last week. Since the heavy frosts there will be no more deaths due to this cause, and if any similar cases arise, we will know we are on the wrong track as to cause.

Miss Minnie Hanson, who is teaching school near Warren, spent Sunday with her parents. Mrs. H. C. Johnson was a Warren visitor Tuesday.

Henry Sorenson was in Clarendon Saturday. Jas. Cousins was home from his work, near Mayburg, over Sunday.

Peter Borne of Youngsville is the guest of his sister Mrs. Johnson and is also the overseer of the roofing of H. C. Johnson's barn. Two large bears were seen near here Saturday, one by a party of workmen on Minister hill, the other just at the top of Vandergriff hill.

The birthday club gave a farewell party for Mrs. Arthur Poehy on Saturday. A good attendance and fine time are reported by all. For a present Mrs. Poehy selected a signet ring bearing her initials. These people will soon be leaving us. They expect to go to West Virginia soon, and they will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Geo. Gifford and daughter Cora were shopping in Sheffield Saturday.

A Bride and Her Dowry. The first colonial mint was established in 1612, but it worked only in brass. Forty years later Massachusetts entered upon the business of coining money.

The Pine Tree shilling is not only a part of the history, but of the romance of the colonies as well. The officers of the mint, or perhaps it would be better to say the mill, from which it was issued were John Hull and Robert Saunderson. They coined for the colony, but exacted a toll for their work, just as the man who ground grain for his neighbors was wont to do. Their profits were said to be enormous, and more than once it was suggested that a new arrangement should be made. They were satisfied, however, to keep at it in the old way.

After John Hill's daughter had been married to Samuel Sewell the old mint master invited all the wedding guests into one of the rooms of his house, where he instructed his daughter to get on to an improvised platform at the end of a pair of stepladders. In a tub at the other side the old man poured Pine Tree shillings until the scales balanced. "There, Sam," he said, "take her and her dowry. It's not every bride that's worth her weight in silver."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Soft Capped Projectiles.

Many persons know that certain armor piercing shells have soft metal caps on the point, with the result of greater effectiveness over those not so provided, but the way in which the cap acts is not generally well understood. A needle may be driven into a board with a hammer when it is thrust through a cork, whereas it would break off unsupported. Many have thought that the soft cap supports the hard point of the projectile in the same way. A British authority who has given much study to the mutual action of the projectile and armor states that a shell frequently fails because of the fact that a very small piece of the point is forced back into the mass, thus splitting it. A larger piece is then similarly forced back, and so on. The main advantage of the soft cap, in the opinion of this authority, is to prevent such splitting.—Harpers Weekly.

Big William Penn.

The statue of William Penn at the city hall in Philadelphia weighs thirty tons and is thirty-seven feet high. Some other dimensions are: Hat rim, twenty-three feet in circumference; nose, thirteen inches long; eyes, twelve inches long and four inches wide; hair, four feet long; arms, twelve feet six inches long; waist, twenty-four feet in circumference; legs, from ankle to knee, ten feet; calf, eight feet eight inches in circumference.

Beats a Good Wife.

An orator holding forth in favor of woman—dear, divine woman—concluded thus: "Oh, my friends, depend upon it, nothing beats a good wife."

"I beg your pardon," replied a woman. "Sure, a bad husband always does."—London Telegraph.

Early Rising.

The difference between rising in the morning at 5 and 7 o'clock in the space of forty years—supposing a man to go to bed at the same hour at night—is nearly equivalent to the addition of ten years to a life of three-score years and ten.

Where is the man who has the power and skill to stem the torrent of a woman's will?—Old English Proverb.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.
