Dr. M. W. Easton, Osteopathic Physician, of Oil City, will visit Tionesta every Wednesday. See him at the Central House. Settling bones and the treatment of nervous and chronic diseases a specialty. Greatest success in all kinds of chronic diseases.

Many friends in and around Mayburg will sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donley in the death of their little son, Frank Hartman. The burial took place Monday in the cemetery at Sheffield, and was attended by a number of the friends of the stricken parents.

Robert A. Fulton found a man's new rubber in his chicken park at the Central House last morning last week. He says if the owner will come around and claim the rubber he'll promise not to say anything about the two fat hens which were found to be missing the same morning.

A new time card went into effect Sunday on the P. R. R., but the only change at this point is in No. 34, the night train south, which now leaves four minutes later, or at 9:02. The time of the other trains here is: North, No. 31, 7:48 a. m., No. 33, 4:45 p. m.; south, No. 32, 11:01 a. m.

A new certificate five dollar silver certificate, a crude imitation, has appeared in circulation, and the secret service has sounded an alarm. The counterfeit is a poorly executed photograph on two pieces of cheap paper, the back being colored with green water color paint. The note bears check letter "A," series 1599.

Don't forget the bazaar to be given a week from Friday evening, Dec. 8th by the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church. It will be a good place to get the Christmas gift.

Hon. W. D. Hinckley, candidate for President Judge in the Warren-Forest district, filed his campaign expense account last week with Prothonotary Putnam. Judge Hinckley expended $225, of which $125 was a contribution to the Warren County Republican Committee, and $75 to the Republican Committee of Forest county.

On Nov. 21st the Nebraska W. C. T. U. held a Sunday School and Evangelistic Meeting at the home of Mrs. Harriet Cook. Several very interesting and helpful papers were read on the subject. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Cook, assisted by Mrs. Viola Reed and Miss Mary Thompson, served an excellent three-course lunch.

A state demonstration will be held in the model orchard of J. E. Gaul, near Marienville, Monday, Dec. 4th. Every person interested in farming and fruit raising should attend these meetings. The state is expending a great deal of time and money to demonstrate the best methods and is doing a great work for the farmer and fruit raiser.

Blanks will soon be sent out upon which to make application to the state highway department for the registering of motor vehicles for 1912. The sooner applications go in now the smaller number the applicant will receive. The state highway department will not accept personal checks in payment for the amount due commonwealth unless the same be certified.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 tomorrow evening, Rev. R. F. Feit delivering the sermon. Everybody invited to attend. The usual offering will be taken and the fund devoted to the Austin relief fund, so if for any reason you cannot attend, send your contribution. After all you have much to be thankful for. "Count your blessings."

Revival meetings have been in progress for the past week in the Tionesta Free Methodist church, under the direction of the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett, and will be continued for a number of weeks. Services each evening at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all. On Friday, Dec. 8th, Bishop Wm. Pearce will arrive here to conduct the meetings and expects to remain for ten days.

That the Clarion State Normal School is abreast of the times is evidenced by the special courses offered for the Winter Term. Classes will be organized in Agriculture, Rural Sociology, Methods of Teaching Music and Drawing, and the new School Code will be studied in connection with the work in School Methods. Tuition free; other expenses low. Write to The Principal, Clarion, Pa., for further information.

Somehow we sort of like the way Br'er White of the Tidoute News speaks about it: "We don't see any turkey in sight just now, but we are trusting to our enemies and luck. But even if it's liver and bacon we're going to 'give thanks' Thursday, Nov. 30th. A Republican President and a Republican Governor both suggested that we do so, and we're a Republican. And so, turkey or liver, we're going to play the hand."

Write to The Principal, Clarion, Pa., for an Outline of the Special Courses offered at the Clarion State Normal School during the Winter Term. All regular classes will be carried as usual but, in addition, special classes in Rural Sociology, Agriculture, Methods of Teaching Music and Drawing, and a class in School Law will study the new School Code in connection with other work. Plan to attend the Winter Term which opens January 2nd.

The first quarterly meeting of the Lickingville circuit will be held at Church Hill, Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 2d and 3d, by Rev. J. W. Richards, of the Pittsburgh District of the Evangelical Association. Services Saturday evening at 7:30, with the quarterly conference following. Preaching Sunday morning at 10:30. Communion services will follow the sermon. Services also Sunday evening at the usual hour. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Some scribe well observes: Every old maid knows exactly how to rear children. Every old bachelor knows all about the troubles of the turbulent matrimonial sea. Every subscriber knows how to run a newspaper. Every farmer knows how a merchant should sell his goods, and every merchant can see where the farmer could make more money on the farm, but after all there are rough places in the road that you will never discover until you get hold of the lines and try to drive.

Much has been said of the possibilities of the scrap-bag, some of it is true and some of it exaggerated, but I have proven to my own satisfaction that a long list of Christmas presents can be completed with practically no material other than that the average scrap-bag contains. The bunch of violets for corsage or muff, for example, was made from violet satin ribbon that once adorned a violet-box and wire from an old hat frame. The maiden-bair term was also taken from a discarded hat.—The Ladies' World for December.

The families of Endeavor will enjoy their usual Thanksgiving treat tomorrow at the hands of the Wheeler & Dusenbury company, which has distributed upward of 170 fine fat turkeys among the employees, the combined weight of which is about 2,000 pounds. It has been a custom with this enterprising firm for many years past to remember in this substantial way the men who have been with them during various terms of service, and many families are thus made happy, while the good will between employer and employed is perpetuated and appreciated.

Mr. Range of Stewart Run, near Pleasantville, who was in the city yesterday, was inquiring whether or not there are game wardens in this vicinity. He stated that Sunday hunting has become an intolerable nuisance in his community. Men and boys with guns and dogs make every Sunday in that section resemble an Italian charge against a Turkish embattlement. He said that steps will be taken if possible to cause the arrest of the next Sunday visitors to that section.—Tionesta Herald, Friday.

A few applications of the law, as Mr. Range seems to know how to administer it, might cure these ills.

Isaac McCoy found a pair of gold bowed spectacles in the fodder while husking corn at the livery stable one day last week, which the owner can have by proving property. The corn was grown on the lower islands, but Isaac isn't claiming that the soil is rich enough yet to produce gold bowed spectacles or other jewelry and thinks possibly some weary pilgrim lost the "eyes" while sleeping in the shed where the corn was stored.

Automobile licenses are now being taken out by owners of machines for the year 1912. The 1911 tags cannot be used after Dec. 31, on the pretext that the owner has not had time to get a renewal. Figures on the registration of automobiles in this state have been given out at Harrisburg, which show that up to the present licenses have been issued to 43,074 owners, 15,483 drivers, 3,990 dealers and 4,727 motorcycles. At this rate the number will total far above the 50,000 mark before the year 1912 is ended.

The concert given in the Methodist Episcopal church last evening by the chorus choir, assisted by Mrs. Medora Goettel Hood and Mr. Lee Barnes, of Oil City, was one of the fine musical treats of the season and was largely attended. Mr. Barnes demonstrated his ability as a director and the choir showed the result of careful training, all the choruses being exceptionally well rendered. Mrs. Hood and Mr. Barnes, whose abilities as vocalists are well known to our people, delighted the audience with their numbers.

If you weren't at the court house Monday evening you should kick yourself for missing one of the best lectures ever heard in Tionesta, and Tionesta has had some of the topmost platform orators. Dr. H. J. Whalen of New Castle, though not aspiring to great oratory, is yet most eloquent and intensely interesting in his "Sunny Side of Life" lecture. It is one which every youth in the land should hear and heed. It would make a better world and therefore a far happier. And happiness, as Dr. Whalen easily proved, is what every human being is striving for.

E. H. Foreman and A. A. Anderson, of Endeavor, are the proud owners of a fine black bear which they brought down by their trusty Winchester rifles Monday afternoon. The two hunters found the trail of the bear in the morning on Camp run and after following it all day came upon the animal about a mile and a half down Ross run. The bear was lying down and as the hunters approached arose to his hind feet to look at them. Both men fired at the same time and the bear dropped dead with two bullets in his body. The bear is a fine specimen, weighing about 200 pounds. It was brought to the home of Mr. Anderson the same evening and a rug will be made from the hide.

Hunting notes from the Warren Mirror: Wednesday at Mayburg one of the largest bears killed this season was captured by a party of hunters.—Earl Roberts killed a deer at Brookston Wednesday. The animal weighs about 125 pounds and is a fine specimen.—Mike Keil killed a bear Wednesday on Tionesta Creek, which weighs between 400 and 500 pounds. He has gone after the animal with a team today and will bring it to Warren. Mike has killed many bears in his day, but this one is the largest, he says. He was armed with a 38-55 and it was necessary for him to shoot brain five or six times before he got up the fight. "And even at that, he had me taking back track once," he declared.

George Klinefelter, manager of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co.'s operations at Kellestville, had a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday morning, while he was helping to start a broom handle lathe in the old mill at that place. His left arm was caught in the machinery and badly wrenched and bruised below the elbow, but no bones were broken. His overcoat sleeve, as well as his undercoat and shirt sleeve were torn to shreds. He is not able to use his arm yet but is over-seeing his work. Alton, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter, fell on a cup at his home Thursday, cutting a bad gash over his left eye and severing an artery. The boy lost a great deal of blood. Dr. Serrill was called and sewed up the wound.

Two Pittsburg hunters were halted into Squire Randall's court Friday morning last on a charge of trespassing. The arrest was made under the act of 1905, and is the first conviction in this county under the law, but if farmers and others stick to what they say in the future it will not be the last, as the county is being overrun by foreign hunters who seem bent on slaughtering all the game in a single season. The complaint in this case was made by M. L. Range of Harmony township, who had through his agent warned the party verbally not to trespass upon the property which had been legally posted. The squirrel imposed a fine of $7.50 each upon the men, which, with costs, amounted to about $23.00. This fine goes to the school treasury of the township in which the law was infringed.

The Tidoute company composed of Len Snyder, John Cotter, Charles Caraban, Harry McGill, George Nelson and A. Hanlon, which has two good gas wells on the Baughman farm, near Marienville, on Monday sold their gas to the Forest Gas Co., of Tidoute, which now has a line at Gilfoyle, within three miles of the Baughman lease, to which they will on once lay a six-inch line. The two wells are said to be good for 2,300,000 feet per day, which ought to put the gas company in fine shape as far as an adequate supply for the winter is concerned. The same parties mentioned above have leases on 489 acres, in which is included the Sutton and Stonecipher tracts, adjoining the Baughman, and they will drill at least three more wells as soon as arrangements can be made. The gas on the Baughman was found in the Clarion sand at 950 feet. Wm. Caraban, Charles and Harry McGill, all of Tidoute, have a lease of 225 acres on the Berier tract, in the same territory, and are beginning a well this week.

COLEMAN & WATSON'S LUMBERING OPERATIONS.

A Complete Equipment Is Ordered And Its Installation Is Begun.

Messrs. Coleman & Watson will have one of the finest equipments in this section when they start operations on the Clapp timber tract covering over two thousand acres of most beautiful virgin pine. They have taken over the complete outfit of the Cook company at Mill Creek, near Strattonville, a modern sawmill plant, with logging engines, cars, etc., and are now dismantling it preparatory to having it shipped to this place and transported to the new location at the mouth of Johns run. The equipment consists of one of the latest in band mills, with live rolls, automatic feeds, log turners, etc., and having an almost unlimited capacity for turning out lumber products. There will be no wastage, everything being utilized and put in shape for the market. The construction of a dam across the mouth of Johns run for retention of logs as they are taken from the cars will be one of the first matters to engage the firm's attention, much of the work on which will be done this winter. Another feature will be a dam across Tionesta creek, over which a railroad track will be built for the transportation of the mill's output to the Collins railroad on the east bank of the creek. A barge yard above the dam will be maintained, and the company expects to utilize much of its long timber in the construction of these large coal craft for which there is always a lively demand and a ready sale on the river at Pittsburg and down the Ohio.

It is expected to have the plant in full operation in the early summer, possibly by the first of July, and when once under way upward of a hundred people will be steadily employed in and about the institution, and while a commodious boarding house will be maintained at the plant for the single men, most of those with families will make their home in Tionesta, where rents are reasonable and houses available.

Of Interest to Directors and Teachers.

County Superintendent J. O. Carson, in answer to queries made to the Department of Public Instruction at Harrisburg, has received the decisions quoted below from Deputy Supt. A. D. Glenn. In view of what is said in regard to the treasurers, it would no doubt be a wise thing for the various school boards of the county to re-elect their present treasurers. It will be a wise move as a matter of economy, for by so doing they will avoid the trouble and expense of an audit of the school accounts at this time, which would be necessary were a change made. The regular audit is made at the end of the school year, July 1st. The decisions follow:

"The term of the treasurer of school boards who were elected in June or July, 1911, expires on the first Monday of December, 1911, but the new board can re-elect the treasurer, whether he is re-elected as a director or not, and he can then continue in office until July, 1912.

"A county superintendent has no authority to permit a teacher engaged in teaching in his own county to attend an institute in another county. The teacher could not receive remuneration for attending in another county, and, in addition, would be subject to a fine of three dollars per day for every day absent from his own county institute."

Red Cross Christmas Seals.

MONDAY marked the opening of the Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign in Pennsylvania. From now on in every city, town and hamlet the Christmas Seals will be bought by persons interested in the prevention of tuberculosis in this State. The Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of Tuberculosis has ordered 3,000,000. A million and a half of these have already been distributed, and during the next month the remainder will be placed throughout the State.

The seal used this year is better looking in design than last year's. It shows a snow scene with a farmhouse in the center. Near it are two Christmas trees. Above the farmhouse are the words American Red Cross and the Red Cross itself, while below are printed Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. This year's seal, therefore, will make an attractive addition to Christmas presents and all packages.

The United States Government has given permission for the placing of the seals on the back of letters. From now on the mails will be full of the spirit of Christmas. Thousands of letters will carry on their backs the seal of the red cross. It is expected that this year's sale will exceed all others. Anybody can enlist in the fight against tuberculosis by buying one or more seals.

Last year 10,285 persons died of the White Plague in Pennsylvania. Every year the number is decreasing. The success of the fight against it depends upon the support given by the people. Every seal placed upon the back of letters, on packages and on Christmas presents makes a step forward in the struggle against the White Plague.

The headquarters of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis are at 1701 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.
