—Hon. C. W. Stone of Warren, who has passed through a serious illness during the past three months, is steadily improving in health, his host of admirers will be gratified to learn.
—When you want a reliable medicine for a cough or cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.
—Park Black, the well known local oilman, Monday on the Cuttle farm, at Fagundas, shot a recently completed well. The venture made a nice response and it is thought it will make an excellent producer for that field.—Titusville Herald.
—Dr. M. W. Easton, Osteopathic Physician, of Oil City, will visit Tionesta every Wednesday. See him at the Central House. Settling bones and the treatment of nervous and chronic diseases a specialty. Greatest success in all kinds of chronic diseases.
—Physicians performed an operation upon Mrs. Robinson of Watson Farm for appendicitis at the Emergency Hospital this forenoon. She has been ill several days, but it is expected that she will now rapidly recover, as all symptoms are favorable.—Warren Times, 10th.
—Bear in mind the County Sunday School Rally tomorrow in the Presbyterian church. Afternoon meeting at 2 o'clock, evening at 7:30. Mrs. Baldwin, State Field Worker, will speak to the evening on the subject, "Working Together to Win." Everybody should attend these meetings.
—A Warren paper Saturday reported that the Collins & Richards deep well at Mayburg to be down 7,000 feet, which comes within 2,000 feet of being correct, as the well was actually about 4,900 feet deep the last of the week. Work is progressing slowly on the well and it is becoming a very expensive proposition. The owners expect to finish the well at about 5,400 feet.
—Again we say, don't forget the little feathered friends in this cold and snow-bound weather, when it is hard for them to get food enough to keep them alive. Do not let one of these little creatures die for want of a bread-crum. "I would not enter on my list of friends, though graced with polished manners and fine sense, yet wanting sensibility, the man who needlessly sets foot upon a worm."

"This, it should be borne in mind, is a purely charitable undertaking, and of course no provision is made for paying for the publication." Ever see anything like this in your mail, brother pencil-pusher?—Oil City Blizzard. Yes, we all get em, and then the ad. goes in, for sweet charity's sake.
—The county commissioners of Elk county have appointed Leo Schoening, of St. Marys, inspector of weights and measures for that county, being the first in that region to take advantage of the law passed at the last session of the legislature providing for such official. The salary, which is to be decided upon by the commissioners, has not yet been fixed.
—O. B. Ewlog of Cooper Tract, this county, was in Sheffield last Wednesday to get medical treatment, having had his finger cut off by one of his working partners. He told his own story of the accident as follows: "It was an awful cold day and we thought that a fire would feel good, so we gathered wood and I was in the act of picking up a limb of a tree when my partner's axe came down on my hand, severing my finger. It happened at Gusher, only a few miles below here."
—Tionesta poultry fanciers were prominent winners of prizes at the Warren County Poultry Show, held at Warren, Pa., last week, thus indicating that our poultry shapers are keeping right up to date. Archie Davis won prizes as follows: First buff orpington pullet; first silver rock hen; first partridge wyandotte cock bird; first partridge rock pullet. Urban Mong's winnings are: Second and fourth barred Plymouth Rock pullets; fifth barred Plymouth Rock cock bird.
—Coleman & Watson are among the lumbermen who are making good use of the present run of excellent sleighing by transporting their mill on sleds from Millersick, on the Clarion river, to the Johns run site. Ice bridges are provided at both ends of the line making any long detours to cross streams unnecessary. They have already brought in twenty loads or more and will have more than double that many yet to haul. Some of the stuff they find it more profitable to transport by rail. It is a big job and gives employment to scores of teams.
—About every ice house in town has been filled within the past week, the cutters, haulers and packers keeping busy up to the first of the present week. The quality is not of the best, showing a good deal of yellow, but will answer for cooling purposes, if not allowed to come in direct contact with eatables and drinkables. Drayman Birtell put up a fine cutting from his pond, and enough has again formed to just about fill up his ice granary, which has a capacity of 150 tons, so that his customers next summer will be well taken care of with the finest to be had.
—Union Evangelistic meetings are now in progress, to be continued until Friday evening, Jan. 26. This week the meetings are being held in the M. E. church, and Rev. H. A. Bailey, of the Presbyterian church, is doing the preaching. Next week the services will be held in the Presbyterian church, and Rev. W. S. Burton will do the preaching. We had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Bailey three evenings. He preached three very strong evangelistic sermons. He does not compromise in the least, but hands out straight truth and lets it strike where it will. The large chorus choir of the Methodist church furnished splendid music on Sunday evening.
—Forest county's oldest resident, Samuel McKee, is again able to walk after being confined to his bed and rolling chair for several weeks with a fractured hip bone. Mr. McKee is 98 years of age and received his injury in attempting to close a barn door after doing the chores in his barn near Tionesta. He is still a patient at Emergency Hospital but his physician states that he will be discharged from that institution within a few days. Remarkable, indeed, has been the recovery of Mr. McKee, and stands almost without a parallel. Despite his age the broken bone knitted and forms a perfect union. He is anxious to return to his home where he will receive a hearty welcome by the entire populace of Tionesta.—Warren Mirror.
—Twenty-five years each at separate and solitary confinement was the sentence meted out to John, better known as "Bull", Trinowski and Frank Winiacki by Judge Charles P. Orr in United States court at Erie at 2:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The two are committed to the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and will be taken there from the Erie county jail within a few days. Trinowski and Winiacki were convicted on all five counts in the indictments against them in connection with the daring hold-up of the Philadelphia and Erie express and passenger train No. 41 at Five-Mile curve, east of the city, the night of June 30 last. William Wolfelt of this place was one of the jurors that sat in that case, who were not long in agreeing on the verdict of guilty.
—Cold? yes, by gum, it was, and then some. Saturday morning last, Jan. 12, 1912, was by far the coldest ever known in Tionesta, all records being smashed into smithereens. At nine o'clock Friday evening thermometers registered as low as 12 degrees, yet people were not counting on as severe a frost as by morning it proved to be, and many households woke to find water pipes frozen tight and there was a big demand for the plumber's services. The lowest that any thermometer registered was Ray Birtell's, which crept almost out of sight, marking 38 degrees below zero. Others in town varied all the way from that figure up to 24 below. One thermometer on the west side of the river, it is claimed, registered 40° below. At nine o'clock Saturday morning, long after the sun had crept up over the hills, many of the weather makers still indicated a temperature of 20 to 24 degrees below zero, and at no time during the day did they get much above the zero mark. So it was cold, you see. And all this time the gas was quite weak making it the more uncomfortable. By midnight Saturday, however, the backbone of the cold snap had broken and there have been a more tolerable conditions since, and the weather has been just about the right sort for winter with abundance of good sleighing. Since the above was in type we learn that James D. Davis' thermometer, opposite the court house, recorded an even 40° below at seven o'clock Saturday morning.

Daniel Donovan Killed by Horse.
Daniel Donovan, a member of the Donovan family, whose farm is located on Stewart Run in President township, Venango county, was killed by the kick of a horse last evening shortly after six o'clock. With two of his brothers he had gone to the barn to attend the stock after the supper hour, and in passing one of the young horses it kicked out landing both feet in the victim's stomach. He rallied quickly and did not think he was badly hurt, being able, with the assistance of his brothers, to walk to the house, where hot applications and home remedies were applied which seemed to revive him. In less than half an hour, however, his heart began to fail and without scarcely a sign of warning the young man expired.
Daniel was born in President township, March 9, 1877, his parents being the late Patrick and Elizabeth Donovan. He is survived by his mother and three brothers, Patrick, William and James. The unfortunate victim was well known here and had many friends throughout this section, being a big-hearted, kindly man, whose jovial nature made him a general favorite.
Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but it is thought the services will be held Friday, with interment in the Oil City Catholic cemetery.
Kellestville.
Dr. J. B. Siggins of Oil City was called to town Wednesday, where, assisted by Drs. Detar and Serrill, he performed an operation on Dewey Detar, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Detar, for appendicitis. Dewey had suffered acute pain in his side for several days, but being a boy of unusual fortitude did not mention it to his parents, who were not cognizant of the fact until the evening before, when he was found to be in a serious condition. He is suffering with a severe cold and cough, which is detrimental to his improvement. He suffers with great weakness at times, then his indomitable will comes to his assistance and he rallies. Dr. Siggins called again Sunday and the boy's condition is considered serious. Dewey has many friends in town who are earnestly hoping for his speedy recovery.
David Detar, the aged grandfather, who was spending the winter with his son, is laid up with grip and cold on his lungs, but his condition is improving.
John Daubenspeck moved his family Wednesday into the house lately vacated by W. L. Watson's family, who are nicely ensconced in their new home on Front street. J. M. Ault will occupy the residence left vacant by Daubenspeck's removal.
Maudie Russell, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Russell, who has been suffering with pneumonia, is much better.
May Showers, who spent the past week in Warren, returned her post of duty in the S. T. Ry office Tuesday.
Mrs. Robert Watson, who had been in Warren for a few days, the guest of her brother Ward, who is a student at Hoff's Business College and who is suffering with an attack of pneumonia, returned home Wednesday.
Six students from the Pennsylvania State College have been spending the week in and around town taking practical lessons in forestry.
Edna Nelson, who has been suffering with a very severe case of tonsillitis, which was feared would develop into diphtheria, is much improved and all fear has been allayed.
Cora Price of Whig Hill, who has been attending high school in town, going back and forth with her father, who is working above town, was taken sick while in school Tuesday. She went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Catlin, where she became ill her mother was sent for. For several days she was very sick, suffering greatly, but we are glad to note that she is much better.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillespie of Erie were guests of the former's brother, H. E. Gillespie, several days during the week.
J. C. Miller spent the week at Grand Valley, where he has been looking after his interests in a timber job. If the snow last-Joe expects to remain for sometime.
About the coldest weather ever was experienced Saturday morning when the thermometers registered anywhere from 20 to 35 below in different parts of the town and it is reported that at Salmon Creek mill it was as low as 40.
While playing by the fire Saturday the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Salmon Creek mill, in turning before an open gas stove, switched her skirts against the flame. Her clothes became ignited, she was so badly burned that it is feared her injuries may prove fatal.
So many of the employees of the tannery deserted their jobs in the hope of finding a more lasting one that the overseers were compelled to import eight workmen from other tanneries to finish the work begun.
—The Daughters of the American Revolution, Tionesta Chapter, are desirous of obtaining copies of the oldest histories of Venango, Armstrong, Westmoreland, Butler, Mercer and Lawrence counties. Any person or persons having such volumes and wishing to dispose of them will confer a favor upon the Daughters by writing Mrs. Orion Siggins, West Hickory, Pa.
—Prof. Archie B. Hillard, principal of the Ambidge high school, encloses the "wherewith" in renewal of his subscription with this characteristic little pleasantry: "You will find inside this envelope somewhere a new literary effort which I hope meets your approval. This style of poem seems to take quite well with publishers and I am sure will not travel the way of the scrapbasket, which is the fate of most of my effusions. It does not rhyme as it is, but with little effort can be changed to jingle somewhat."
—The following item fully explains itself: "EAR MR. EDITOR:—I am your youngest correspondent. My name is Thomas Jacob Fisher, son of a Center county, Pa., fruit grower, one J. Harold Fisher and Mrs. Martha Fisher, and first grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Jacob J. Zahnsner. Center county, my birthplace, is the home of the governors and you may hear from me later. However I have no plans for the future but have settled down on the Fisher homestead and will, should I come to maturity, assist my father in fruit growing.—THOMAS JACOB FISHER, per J. J. Z., Fleming, Pa."

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. Mary Glensing has returned to her Tionesta home from a three month's visit with friends at Clariksburg, W. Va.
—Mrs. J. F. Proper and her mother, Mrs. Sallie Jackson, departed Monday for St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend the balance of the winter.
—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Etnick, of Harmony township, January 11th, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, of Pitohole, January 13th, a son.
—Judge Joseph M. Morgan visited his daughters last week, Misses Mary and Bessie Morgan, who conduct a flourishing millinery establishment in Alliance, Ohio.
—D. T. Zahnsner, of West Hickory, went to Bolivar, Pa., near Pittsburgh, Friday, where he has a good position in the office of the Hammond Coke and Coal Co.
—A marriage license was issued in Franklin Saturday to Earl M. Loveless, of Warren, and Miss Cynthia B. Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Carson, of Neilltown.
—Auditor A. C. Gregg gave us a pleasant call while here Monday. He reports the coldest spot in the county at his home at Brookston last Saturday morning, when the thermometers registered 44 degrees below zero.
—A daughter was born Monday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Henlen, of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Henlen was formerly Miss Cora Kathleen of Oil City, and well remembered here as a visitor at the home of her uncle, S. M. Henry.
—Subscription renewals are acknowledged with thanks as follows: Arch Barnes, Kellestville (new); A. R. Hillard, Ambridge, Pa.; Mr. Adam Sibble, Nebraska; Jonathan Albaugh, East Hickory; A. C. Gregg, Brookston; Mrs. Grace Hughes, Crystal Falls, Wash. (new); M. L. Rhodes, Tionesta.
—Arthur Gregg of Brookston, George Warden of Endeavor, and Van Shields of Clarington, comprising the board of county auditors, met here Monday and officially attached their names to the annual report as audited by them the first of the year. The report will be published during the month of February.
—Mrs. Ivan Zuck of the Township was taken to Oil City hospital Friday where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. Dr. J. B. Siggins, assisted by his nephew, Dr. George Siggins of Venus, was the surgeon. Mr. Zuck and the lady's father, Wm. Nicol, returned from Oil City Monday and reported the patient progressing nicely.
D. A. R. Meeting Here.
The regular monthly meeting of the Tionesta Chapter, No. 522, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at Tionesta, January 10, 1912, at the home of Mrs. J. F. Proper, with Mrs. Proper, Mrs. L. J. Hopkins, and Mrs. Frank E. Chevalier, of Oil City, as hostesses.
Promptly at half past twelve the members and guests were served with a delicious luncheon.
The Chapter's Regent, Mrs. L. L. Hunter, of Tionesta, presided at a business meeting where the following delegates and alternates were elected to the Continental Congress: Delegate, Mrs. J. F. Proper, Tionesta; alternates to the delegate, M. S. Jennie McK. Agnew, Tionesta; Mrs. E. B. Grandin, Washington, D. C.; alternate to the Regent, Mrs. W. R. Dawson, Tionesta; Mrs. Victor H. Barnett, Washington, D. C.
The afternoon's program opened with two brilliant piano solos by Mrs. George Bonner Robinson. Mrs. Sharp read an interesting paper on "Benjamin Franklin" for Mrs. A. B. Kelly. Letters and anecdotes of Benjamin Franklin were read by other members of the Chapter, after which Miss Lenora Ritchey sang, most beautifully, two selections.
Former Townsman Afflicted.
Many friends in this community will bear with regret of the affliction that has overtaken John Muenzenberger, our former townsman, now residing at Chicago Heights, Illinois. He writes us that on the 24 of last August he had a stroke of paralysis which affected his left side. For six weeks he was confined to his bed and had to be fed like a child. He is so far recovered now as to be able to walk about, but his left arm is yet quite useless and he fears he will not again be able to do any work. However, John takes his trouble philosophically, and keeps as cheerful as possible under the circumstances. His son, Otto, was married in June last, and he notes an increase in the family of his son Charles to whom a daughter was born two months ago. Mr. Muenzenberger encloses the following clipping from a recent issue of his local paper, which will interest the friends of the bride in this community:
MUEZENBERGER-KRANTZ.
Miss Martha Muenzenberger and Henry Krantz were united in marriage at St. Agnes church, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Father Welsh performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate relatives and friends, after which a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. The bride wore a blue traveling suit and white plumed hat. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Krantz will make their home in Glenwood, where the groom is employed in Glenwood Schools.
—Mrs. A. R. Tabor, of Crider, Mo., had been troubled with sick headaches for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. Sold by all dealers.

Look Out For Water Pirates.
We note in some of our exchanges the publication of notices of application for charters to be made to the Governor on Feb. 1, 1912, for the incorporation of the "Tionesta Water Power Company." There is a strong suspicion that this is only another attempt to gobble up the water rights on Tionesta creek, and to accomplish by another way what proved a failure last year through the strenuous opposition of the people of this section. The people of Clarion, Elk, Forest, Jefferson and Warren counties will have to be on their guard or these rights will turn up in the hands of other people some day. These water power companies, so-called, seem determined to grasp them if it can be done and they will accomplish their ends unless the citizens rise in their might and oppose them at every turn.
The REPUBLICAN was active in its opposition to the gigantic schemes last year and kept the public fully informed as to what was going on, and for this reason, no doubt, it is sought to punish it by withholding the publication of the notices of application for charters, and running them in other papers who offered little or no opposition. All the same we shall not be deterred in our duty, but shall be loyal to our people whatever the pecuniary loss to us. The publication or withholding of these notices shall not close our eyes when the interests of our people are in jeopardy.
Lookout for water pirates.
Clarington.
Mrs. John Campbell, whose sickness was mentioned in our items some time ago, died last Tuesday and was buried on Thursday in Mt. Taber cemetery. Rev. Humbert, her pastor, preached the sermon. Mrs. Campbell was one of the good women of this community, always willing and ready to do her part in any undertaking that was for the good of mankind. She leaves her husband, two sons, Harry, of Warren, Pa., Robert, at home, and Anna, wife of Rev. D. Reiter, of Joplin, Missouri, to mourn her, besides a number of brothers and sisters and a host of friends.
This is the worst storm for years in this locality and the roads are badly drifted. The Yowinkel mail man failed to get through one day. The thermometers registered along about 38 below Saturday morning. No fatalities in this section. We had plenty of gas, thanks to the gas company.
Van Shields spent a few days in our midst last week, having completed his duties as county auditor.
There will be a local institute held here on February 21 and if the present program is carried out it will be a hummer. Supt. J. O. Carson, of Tionesta, Prof. W. N. Strawbridge, of Marienville, Prof. Vandewater, of Sigel, Prof. Burnham, of Silgo, Prof. Mashey, of Loleta, and our own efficient corps of teachers of Barnett township will take part in the program. The institute will finish up in the evening with an entertainment by Byron W. Kug, the price of entertainment—Don't forget the date and don't fail to attend.
A. R. Slangenbaupt met with what might have been a serious accident. He was helping to move a boiler and in making a hitch the team ahead of him gave a jump and caught his hand with the link and tore it badly. It is getting along all right.
Mrs. Slike and family of Sigel are visiting at P. T. Hottel's.
Our barber, Tommy Williams, is wearing a broad smile over the arrival of a girl at his home and Rev. Hoffman is doing likewise over a boy.
The young people are surely enjoying the ice on the river, if the weather is zero.
Dr. Brewer is quite busy at present. The sickness in town is confined to the women and children, as the storekeeper informs us that not a man has missed a session or received a black mark so far.
The F. M. minister preached up on the Maze bill last Friday night. Several of our lads and lassies attended.
Nebraska.
Silas Nellis departed last week for Deer Creek, W. Va., where he will be employed this winter.
Miss Isabelle Scott went to Warren, Monday.
Addison Reed came home from Oil City, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Connor were visitors in Tylerburg, Monday.
Clevie Richards, Mrs. Chas. Near and little Nora Mitchell have all been on the sick list, but are reported better at the present writing.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grubbs were Tionesta callers Monday.
Mrs. Wm. Green and son of Marienville spent Sunday night with her daughter, Mrs. I. H. Allison.
Wallace Imhoff was a caller in Tionesta one day last week.
To Close Early.
In view of the union evangelistic services, now in progress, we, the undersigned merchants, will close our respective places of business at the hour of 8 o'clock p. m. on each evening until Friday, Jan. 25, excepting Saturday evening Jan. 20.
