The FOREST REPUBLICAN is authorized to announce that Peter M. Speer, of Oil City, Pennsylvania, will be a candidate for election to Congress from the Twentyeighth Congressional District, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the coming primary election.

Assembly. We are authorized to announce A. R. Mechling, of Barnett township, sa a candidate for Assembly, subject to the de-cision of the Republican voters at the primaries, April 13th.

SPEAKING of the political embroglio engendered by Gov. Wilson's brutal turn-down of his friend, Col. Harvey of Harper's Weekly, the New York Evening Journal recently said: "The sad story of colonel Harvey is this: He made himself very useful to an ambitious gentleman up to a certain point-and that is all be remembers. When he came to be was lying in the hospital for broken ladders, with a note pinned to his pillow, saying: 'I am done with you; please don't support me any more, and don't appear to know me. Yours truly, Governor Wilson.' Colonel Harvey is the half-prother of every ladder that was ever kicked down when the climber was done with it. Colonel Harvey without a stumble or a buck was careering on his flery course, carrying his precious freight toward the White House, when suddenly he was 'restrained.' The freight said, "Whoa! Let me get off.' Harvey knows how Caeser felt when Brutus so unkindly knocked, 'It is one of the saddest stories in politics."

Political Calendar for 1912.

The 1912 Republican State Convention, which has been called to meet in Harrisburg, Wednesday, May 1st, will consist of 382 delegates, according to the political year book issued by the Republican State Committee. The book was prepared by Geo. D. Thorn, chief clerk of the State Department, who is an authority on such matters.

The convention delegates will be elected on April 13, when all primary nominations will be made, and the convention will nominate candidates for Auditor General and State Treasurer, 4 candidates for Congress-at-large and 38 Presidential

The political calendar for 1912 is as follows:

Last day for filing petitions for nomination for spring primary with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Saturday, March 16.

Last day for filing petitions for nomination for party offices and for delegates to National and State conventions for spring primary with the County Commissioners, Saturday, March 23.

Last day for filing certificates of nominations by State Conventions, Tuesday, September 24.

Situation Is Clearing.

The discovery within the week that the co-called Progressive Republicans in Pennsylvania were out for no other purpose than to capture the Republican organization of the State and to do that were endeavoring to keep Col. Roosevelt before the public until after the primaries at least, has clarified the political situation in Pennsylvania immensely.

Col. Roosevelt has been informed of the trick of his pretending friends and those in his confidence have been assured that he will not be a party to such trickery. To one recent visitor Col Roosevelt simply pointed to a statement made on the evening of his election to the Presidency in November, 1904, which follows:

"On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and one-half years, and these three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits a President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

Aside from President Taft no other Republican is talked of for the Presidency now that Col. Roosevelt has practically taken himself out of the contest.

Those who are expected to manage the Taft contest including Senator Boise Penrose have deciared their confidence that Mr. Taft will be without material opposition in the nominating convention and that his reelection is practically assured.

Tionesta Alarmed.

The citizens of Tionesta are alarmed, and their fears are shared by the residents of Oil City and Franklin, by the plan to erect on Tionesta creek a large dam, which scheme is proposed by the same parties who failed last year in their attempt to get control of the water power o nthat stream. On Feb. 1 Governor John K. Tener will take final action on the petition for a charter now under application by this company, but before that time he will receive the protests of the three municipalities mentioned.

It is argued by advocates of the dam that the promoters of the water power company are prepared to furnish ample bond to indemnify anyone who may sufier. Such a bond would, no doubt, be required, but no bond will bring back the lives of those who are borne away in the swirling waters of a broken dam. Tionesta creek does not at ordinary times look like a dangerous stream, but in the spring when the slopes of all the mountains send all their streams to swell its torrent it is not to be be regarded too chesply. A broken dam at such a time would sweep Tionesta off the map, inundate Oil City and Franklin, tear out every bridge across the Allegheny and do like to say so much about such a little damage that ten years would not replace. damage that ten years would not replace.

A protest, and a vigorous one, backed with influence, should be brought to ing that the cold weather is not all past, bear against this proposition. Pennsylvania has little need of another lesson like those of Austin and Johnstown. - fering with cold on the lungs for the Titusville Herald.

Big Lumbering Company Formed.

The Tidioute News says that for some time movements looking to an organization of a lumber company to enter the North Carolina field have been under way under the direction of W. J. Grandin of Tidioute. Such a company has now been completed under an act of corporation at Lenoir, N. C., dated Nov. 20, 1911. It is to be known as the Grandin Lumber Company and has a capital of $1,950,000. The company has taken over about 70,000 acres of land in northwestern North Carolins, on which it is computed that there is 800,000,000 feet of lumber, about onehalf white pine, the balance being yellow popular, oak, hemiock and chestnut.

A steel frame, concrete floor, two-band mill, with an annual capacity of 40,000,000 feet, will be erected, as also a box factory, planing, lath and shingle mills and a dimension mill to utilize all waste. The principal office of the company is at Lepoir, N. C.

Mr. Grandin is also promoter of a new railroad in the vicinity of the lumbering interests.

The road, capitalized at $2,000,000, will be ninety-one miles long, running from Lenoir and Wilksboro, N. C., to Butler, Tenn. It will be equipped with eightypound rails, steel cars and all the equipment of a modern railroad, including logging cars of special construction. It is expected that enough of the work will be done by next spring to allow the transportation of material for the big mill of the Grandin company, and that by the time the mill is ready for business the railroad will be in shape to put the man-ufactured lumber on the market.
