—On account of revival meetings at Newmansville during the past three weeks the preaching services in the Free Methodist church of Tionesta have been dispensed with. Next Sabbath evening the regular preaching services will again be taken up. The revival at Newmansville will continue for the balance of this week.
—Dr. J. R. Borland, of Franklin, father of Editor Jim Borland of the Evening News, and who is known to some of our readers, was struck by a street car one day last week and so violently thrown to the pavement that his right leg, color bone and one rib were fractured. The venerable physician is 84 years old and still in active practice.

Clarion Dams Approved. Tionesta Creek Held Up.

A dispatch from Harrisburg dated last night says:
The State Water Supply Commission has approved applications for charters for the following water power companies along the Clarion river, subject to the receipt from the applicants of their written consent to be bound by certain restrictions to be imposed by the commission: The Licking, Monro, Barnett, Highland, Mill Creek, Millstone, Paint, Heath, Perry, Richland and Clarion. The following applications for water power companies along the Tionesta creek were held under advisement: The Green, Sheffield, Tionesta, Howe and Kingsley.
This looks as though the Water Commission will finally give its consent to the entire hideous project as proposed by the applicants.
—March 13th, and still the ice in the creek and river is about as solid as ever, though in spots much weakened by recent thaws. Up to last week the sleighing was still good, after practically eight weeks of as fine sledding as one could wish to see. But everybody, nearly, is now hopeful of a change to warmer weather and spring conditions.
—A public demonstration for the treatment of orchards will be held by officials under State Zoologist Surface in the orchard of H. H. Harp at Marienville next Monday, March 18th, beginning at one o'clock p. m. All persons who are planning to undertake the work of spraying and pruning during the present season should make a special effort to attend.
—Committee No. 4 of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church, will give an entertainment in the lecture room on Saturday evening March 16th, at 7:30. Miss Good, of Oil City, has kindly consented to use her microscope in presenting views of Ireland and other interesting pictures collected in her travels. A silver offering will be taken. Immediately after the entertainment ice cream, cake, and coffee will be on sale in the basement. Your patronage is solicited.
—A railroad department meeting of the Nebraska W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Wave Weaver, Nov. 7, 1912. A very interesting program on railroad work was rendered, consisting of music, reading and discussion. It was decided that a good woolen blanket should be furnished by this Union for the railroad men, to be used in times of emergencies. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wave Weaver, Mrs. Anna Allison, and Miss Louise Gaiser.
—Although St. Patrick's day is not what may properly be termed a legal holiday, it will be quite a surprise to many to learn that on that day this year, the parks will be closed and the rural free delivery service will be suspended. Nine-tenths of all business places will be closed, and there will be a general suspension of work on that day, and, toughest of all, the lid on every bar-room in Pennsylvania will be down tight. St. Patrick's day happens on Sunday.
—Instead of the regular services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening, the choir will render a special program of sacred music, which will include a piano and organ duet by Mrs. James D. Davis and Miss Lizzie Randall. Those who have heretofore heard these ladies will be especially attracted by this announcement. The choir has had in preparation the program for some time and it goes without saying that all who attend will be edified and pleased. A silver offering will be taken.
—Down at Franklin the executive committee of the Men and Religion Forward Movement have voted to increase the scope of the campaign that has been planned against the granting of liquor licenses. It was the original intention of the organization to oppose only the applicants for wholesale licenses in Franklin, but the executive committee has decided to oppose, also, the wholesale licenses in Oil City and the retail licenses in Franklin. A special remonstrance will be circulated, it is said, against each applicant.
—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolph, whose dwelling at Ross Run was consumed by fire a week ago Sunday, together with practically all of the contents, have fared well at the hands of sympathizing friends and while they have not so much as hinted at their loss, many acts of kindness have been shown them in this dilemma, and bed clothing and other immediately needed household articles have been carried to their home, while others have liberally responded with cash as a means of quick relief. For all of these considerations the recipients feel most grateful, and desire to sincerely thank the generous donors for their thoughtfulness and liberality.
—Mrs. Anna Fayette Stow, wife of the late Daniel Stow, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Flora S. Huddart, Berkeley, California, Thursday, March 7, 1912. Mrs. Stow was a sister of the late Mrs. Frances A. May, and leaves three daughters and a son. She was formerly a resident of Tionesta, Pa., and the owner of the farm known as the Stow farm, on Tionesta creek, just above the borough line. She was one of the fortunates to sell her farm during the oil excitement of 1895, for a large sum. She removed from Tionesta to Cincinnati, and when her daughter, Mrs. Huddart, went to California, she went with her and has remained a member of the Huddart family ever since.
—J. H. Donley, aged 75 years, died at the home of his son, H. H. Donley, Mayburg, Pa., Tuesday, March 5th, 1912. Mr. Donley, whose wife had passed away several years ago, came to Mayburg four or five years ago, to be with his three sons, H. H., Charles and Bert, all of whom reside there. His home had been in Williamsport for many years, and there his remains were taken on Thursday for interment beside those of his wife. Services in his honor were held the evening previous, at which Rev. W. E. Frampton officiated. The deceased was respected by all who knew him as an honorable, upright citizen, and as such his memory will be revered. He was one of the State's oldest Odd Fellows, having been a member of the order for 44 years. One daughter, Mrs. Gebhart, also survives, and came on to nurse her father in his last illness.
—Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatsoever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.

PERSONAL.

—F. F. Whittekin came home from Florida, Saturday.
—A. C. Uray, of Sandy Lake, is visiting old friends in town.
—Ray Cole of Nebraska was one of our brief callers yesterday morning.
—Mrs. J. J. Connelly of Pittsburg is paying a visit to her father, G. W. Robinson.
—W. F. Jones of Newtown Mills was a welcome caller at the REPUBLICAN office Wednesday.
—Thomas Sibble of Green township, was a welcome caller at the REPUBLICAN office yesterday.
—Fred Rathfon of Lickingville was a Tionesta visitor Thursday and dropped in to say "howdy" to the REPUBLICAN force.
—A. J. Fleming of Warren was circulating among friends here Wednesday, and didn't forget to give us a friendly visit.
—Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Calhoun, of Linesville, Pa., are visiting Tionesta friends.
—I. M. Fox, Earle Boughton, Geo. H. and Gus Warden, of Endeavor, were fraternizing with brother Masons here Monday evening.
—Mrs. H. H. Watson entertained a large party of ladies at her home Saturday evening, progressive flinch being the amusement.
—O. C. Stroup, the busy gauger for the Wilburne Oil Co., was one of our callers Tuesday evening and left a dollar to help grease the wheels.
—W. S. Palmer of Sharon, Mercer county, announces his candidacy this week for delegate to the National Republican convention at Chicago.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown were in Clarion a few days of the past week attending the obsequies of the late John P. Brown, which were held Friday.
—Prof. W. M. Cook, of Mayburg, teacher of the Porkey school, spent the Sabbath in Tionesta as the guest of Supt. Carson and Profs. Gill and Smith, of the borough high school.
—A sleighing party of twenty-one persons from Lickingville and Newmansville, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mills, enjoyed a chicken supper at the Hotel Weaver last Wednesday.
—Miss Hazel Fones returned home Saturday evening, considerably relieved after a visit to "Bonsetter" Reese, at Youngstown, Ohio. He found the trouble in her left foot to be caused mainly by misplaced ligaments.
—There is a new and active Socialist at the home of J. E. Whitmore, the county chairman of that party, since a fine fourteen-pound boy arrived at his home in East Hickory last Thursday. And "Jake" is just about the best pleased man in the township.
—W. G. Wyman, who spent the past six weeks in Michigan in the interest of an Erie firm, was home over Sunday with his family, returning to Erie Monday morning. Mr. Wyman says where he was the mercury never rose above ten degrees below zero, and was about that temperature when he left Michigan.
—Hon. C. W. Stone, who two weeks ago was taken to Bermuda in the hope that the climate would benefit his health arrived home Friday. The climate in Bermuda did not agree with Mr. Stone and it was thought best to bring him home. Mr. Stone was much fatigued from his journey, but as soon as he has had a complete rest it is expected that he will go to some point on the coast of Florida, possibly to Sea Breeze.—Warren Times.
—Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Rev. Horace M. Conaway performed the wedding service which united in holy wedlock Charles D. McKee and Miss Eliza V. Emert, both of Tionesta. The beautiful ring service of the church was used. The future home of the married couple will be in Tionesta where they are well known and have many friends who wish them every joy. The marriage occurred in the parlor of the New Struthers House.—Warren Mirror.
Summer School at Tionesta, Opening May 7th, 1912.
The new School Code requires History of Pennsylvania and School Management as requirements for Provisional Certificates, and two books on Pedagogy and two High School subjects for Professional Certificates, either original or renewal. This will require study in these subjects by the teachers. The Summer School is opened for this purpose. Entire subjects can be taken up and finished. An examination will be held in Tionesta at the close of the session. Address communications to F. W. Gill, Tionesta, Pa.
The Traymore Tailoring Co., of Philadelphia, Pa.
Will have their Mr. Hall at Hopkins' Store on March 22d. Mr. Hall will have a complete line of samples of Men's Clothing and will be prepared to take measures for suits and deliver them in just a few days later. A perfect fit will be guaranteed every time or you don't take the suit. Every garment made to measure. Prices as low as $12.00. You can't afford to miss this chance for a spring suit at hand-me-down prices, March 22d.
Cockrels For Sale.
Single Comb White Orpingtons from imported English cockerel and Kellestville strain of pullets. Also eggs in season. Further information given upon application. H. M. McKEAN, Endeavor, Pa.
—Sunday last death claimed one of Warren's most beloved residents in Mrs. W. M. Lindsey, wife of ex-Judge Lindsey, for ten years President Judge of Forest and Warren counties. The cause of death is directly attributed to a fall which occurred in Warren several weeks ago, when a hip was fractured. She was a woman of classical education and a musician widely known for her accomplishments in that sphere, having for several years served as State vice president of the National Federation of Musical Clubs. She was also prominent in Woman's Relief Corps circles in which work she took great interest being twice elected president of the State department of the W. R. C. Mrs. Lindsey was aged 78 years, and besides her husband, is survived by one son.

RECENT DEATHS.

COPELAND.
George Siggins Copeland, son of Parson and Lucinda Walters Copeland, was born at Little Hickory, Forest county, Pa., Nov. 11, 1865, and died at his home at same place Mar. 7, 1912. He was united in marriage in 1890 with Phoebe W. Groce and to this union was born six children, as follows: Harold L., Constance C., Wm. L., Daisy E., Hazel M. and Gertrude E., all of whom survive him except Daisy, who died in infancy. He also leaves three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Joseph Schwab, Mrs. J. E. Galbreath, Mrs. John Thompson, and Moses Copeland. He was converted about fourteen years ago and joined the M. E. Church at Kellestville, Pa., and continued a faithful member until the last ten years, being deprived of church privileges he had fallen from grace, but had often spoken of it with regret. Ten days before his death he was fully reclaimed and gave bright evidence of a better home and begged his loved ones to meet him there. He was laid to rest in the Zuendel cemetery, Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, where a large concourse of friends and relatives were assembled. Rev. Mr. Dale of the Hickory M. E. church preached a very touching and appropriate sermon from Job, 14:10. S. E. Church, Chas. Shaffer, J. L. Klinefelter, Truman Hill, Will Conger and James Church acted as pall bearers. He was a strong advocate of Socialism.
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love has given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in heaven. ***
The Old Sport Hits Back.
"The wicked flee when no man pursueth," and so it is usually with the fellow who puts up a song and dance about the big egg crop his 'just a few' hens are producing. He is ready to fly off the perch at the least suggestion of doubt as to the truth of their claims. And just because we commented in last week's issue, with merest hint of questioning, on a hen-fruity story of our esteemed friend J. W. McCrea of Reno, he comes back at us with all the fury of a "setting hen," and just to show to what lengths a chicken crank will go when riled a little we give herewith the full text of an epistle he sent us in the subject:
"Most men have enough generosity in their make-up to honestly rejoice in the success of a friend, and even if they can't really enjoy the good luck of an enemy, they usually have the decency to keep their darn mouth shut and refrain from knocking to such an extent as to give themselves away. On the other hand, there are a few whose inflated souls are so obsessed by jealousy and envy that there is no room for a generous impulse. The success of friend or foe is as worm-wood and gall to their perverted palates, I have in mind a notable example of the latter class, a charter member of the 'Knockers' Club,' who if you best him shouting, have a better dog than his, or if you hint at when his don't, there's nothing too mean for him to do to discount your good fortune. He will even go to the length of impugning your reputation for honesty and veracity in the public prints, branding you as a member of the 'Assnians Club,' relying on the court and insinuating diction in which his statements are made to protect him from legal or corporeal redress by the victim. Verily envy is a grievous passion and makes the possessor very sore. The foregoing pious reflections were inspired by reading an item in the last edition of the REPUBLICAN in which my name was taken in vain, and my reputation for 'truth and variety' placed in a very questionable light. Many who read the article would recognize the source of origin and the provocation back of it."

Cherry Grove.
Will Johnson was a business caller at Sheffield Saturday.
Miss Blanche Howard came up from Warren to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard.
Mrs. L. A. Johnson is in Warren having dental work done this week.
Hazel Johnson is on the sick list.
Mrs. Annie Deshner is no better. Friday her condition became so serious that Dr. Hyer of Clarion was called in. He pronounced it a hard cold on the lungs.
Little Lucile Johnson has spent a few days this week in Warren the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. Rowley.
N. A. Christenson was a Warren visitor Monday.
Andrew Christeson was home from Kellestville Sunday.
Myrtle Johnson was up from Warren Sunday.
Simon Allaire went to Mayburg Monday.
Orda Vandenberg of Mayburg was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Vandenberg, over Sunday.
S. A. Allaire has a fine new team.
Wm. Pope went to Kellestville Sunday.
Mr. Robbins of Kellestville was a business caller in town Wednesday.
L. A. and W. P. Johnson went to the horse sale in Warren Tuesday.
In a sleigh load from here to Plattner's home near Pine Camp, No. 7, last Friday, night were the following: Lee Farnsworth, Mrs. Grant Sutton, Minnie Christenson, Andrew Nelson, Bessie Sigworth, Sam Hanson, Lillian Shaw, Ralph Hanson, Mrs. Mae Weaver, Charles Cole, Gertrude Hanson, Warren Vandenberg, Olive Vandenberg, Eliza Sutton, Geo. Vandenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pope. A very pleasant evening was spent playing games, and a feature of the evening was the flash-light photographs taken of the crowd by Sam Hanson. Five-hirty a. m. found a sleepy crowd rounding Vandergrift corners on their way homeward.
L. A. Johnson was in Warren Saturday.
Henry Sorenson was a Sheffield visitor Wednesday.
G. W. Gifford went to Sheffield Saturday.
We are glad to note some improvement in the condition of Mrs. N. A. Christenson Harry Christenson of Hart & Henderson's camp spent Sunday with his parents here.
—Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by all dealers.

Kellestville.

Martin Ray, who was called from Chibalis, Wash., on account of the serious illness of his mother at Kossuth, visited his brother, J. F. Ray here during the week.
Mr. and Mrs. L. McDonald of Warren were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Blum Wednesday.
Marie Collins of Celoron is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kezlie.
John Kezlie left for Meadville where he has a job on the railroad.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hartman and daughter Zora, Miss Edith Gayley and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Grove attended the funeral services of George Copeland at Starr, Saturday.
George Good, an employee of the Kindling wood factory, was found dead in his bed Thursday morning. He had an attack of the grippe about five weeks ago which affected his heart and he had been in poor health ever since. He visited with his children till about ten o'clock on the evening previous, and on retiring at his wife's urgent request, he remarked, "I have not felt so good for a long time." When she woke the next morning Mrs. Good could not hear him breathe, and on investigating she found that he was dead. She gave the alarm, the doctor was called and an examination proved he had died apparently without a struggle. He was 62 years old and leaves his wife and four children, two sons and two daughters, to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held at the family residence Saturday morning. Rev. W. E. Frampton officiating, and interment in the Whig hill cemetery immediately followed. A number of beautiful flowers were given, among which was a very beautiful pillow by the high school of which the youngest son was a member, and a broken wheel by his co-laborers at the factory. Mrs. Good and family desire in this connection to sincerely thank the many friends who gave them aid and comfort in this great bereavement, and for the very beautiful floral offerings in token of friendship for husband and father.
The W. C. T. U. held a mother's meeting and due social in Johnson's hall Wednesday. A prohibition club was organized at this time, with Mrs. W. A. Hartman as president, the other officers being the same as in the W. C. T. U. with the addition of Mrs. M. F. Catlin as chaplain. The first meeting of the club to be held Saturday evening in the hall was called off on account of the death of Mr. Copeland. The gentlemen will be invited to join with the ladies in this club, which hopes to instill prohibition principles in the heart of each voter. After the business of the afternoon Mrs. H. E. Murphy favored the ladies with a beautiful piano solo, after which a substantial lunch was enjoyed by all. The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of the President, Mrs. Catlin, Wednesday, March 20.
Andrew Spangler is entertaining his mother and sister from Buffalo for a short time.
Ronald Spangler is home from South Carolina where he has spent the winter.
Sager Watson is having some repairs put on the house owned by Mrs. Fode Shaw and will move into it when the repairs are completed.
The quarantine was lifted from the home of C. A. Jenkins Friday.
Mrs. Gertrude Odell of Weston, Pa., attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. Good, Saturday.
Miss H. Kifer of Beaver Valley is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson.
The last number of the League Lecture course, The Jubilee Singers, will be held in Johnson's hall Thursday evening.
Horses for Sale.

We Give "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps.

PRICE!

It isn't so much the price you pay for clothes, as the clothes you get for the price. You'll find that mere price cheapness is apt to get tangled up in the quality of the goods. You know every dollar is going to count you put into things here. However much or however little you pay, there's a difference between our clothes and the others sold at the same price.

Spring Styles Knit Scarfs, 25c.

Cross stripes and plain colors that look and wear like a 50c scarf.

Men's Spring Negligee Shirts, 59c.

Coat style attached cuffs—the best shirt value we have seen or sold in years—very good quality of Garner's fast color percales that we guarantee will give satisfactory service in both wear and color.

Stetson Hats Spring Styles.

Now on sale in either soft or derby styles—another season of rough hats for spring according to all indications, as the rough hat has many good qualities to recommend it, as it does not soil as readily as smooth hat and it's different than the same old thing. $2, $3, $4 and $5.
