THEODORE ROOSEVELT for President in the National convention.

SPRING, astronomically speaking, is here, but the curtain raiser is perhaps lost somewhere in the snowdrift.

In view of some of the oratory of the day Col. Bryan must begin to feel like a Hard Shell Conservative.

THE Mexicans are about ready to give the world a practical example of how the recall works, and President Madero is to be the first victim.

IDAHO is booming one of her sons for president. Nothing but maidenly modesty prevents New Mexico and Arizona from trotting out their favorites.

In a speech in North Dakota Senator La Follette predicted that he will be in the White House next year. This is a busy time for the microbe of political egotism.

AS THE wise Pundit Spirit views it "the Republicans have plenty of splendid Presidential material, and whoever the assembled wisdom at Chicago sees fit to select will, in all probability be our next President."

Porkey.

F. A. Littlefield was home from his job at the Watson Farm to spend Sunday with his family here.

E. L. Littlefield has completed the addition to his house and it looks fine with the new porch, and inside with new paper and paint.

Henrietta Kifer is doing the housework for Mrs. F. A. Littlefield for a few weeks, and is company for the Mrs. while F. A. is away from home.

The National Transit Co. had a line broken in Minister dam during the late flood and were unable to repair it until Friday on account of high water. The loss of oil was slight.

James Spencer living near Fools Creek was compelled to vacate his home last week when the ice gaged at the head of Minister dam and the water backed into his house, soaking the beds on the first floor. The Fools Creek bridge was moved a few inches by the ice but did not leave the foundation.

George Welsh of Balltown spent Sunday with friends at Sheffield, traveling by rail this week.

The National Transit Co. station run Saturday night and Sunday, having been detained by the ice flood of last week.

The local camera friends got some fine post cards of the late water and ice flood. The S. & T. only missed two trips from Kellerville to Sheffield during the last week, and it was a lucky thing they were off the old grade at Balltown for it was under the ice full length, a gorge having stopped on Green Island throwing back water to Balltown. We are informed that "Tip" Hunter was completely surrounded by water for a couple of days at his home in Nebraska.

Our people are talking of fencing the burying ground at Minister and we hope it will come to pass. As a rule the resting places of the dead are neglected and fences are generally unknown around these places. It will not be necessary to fence all of the country-side adjacent to these graves, but a neat fence of small dimensions allowing room for a dozen or more graves will answer for the present and we can enlarge it should it become necessary to do so later on.

It seems that the winter is hanging on a long time but of course it won't last all summer. There was a nice flock of wild geese passed over the mountains and were seen by a number of people, so there is no doubt that this is correct. They were going west.

There was a small attendance at the Sunday School on Sunday, owing to the bad weather, but there was service just the same.

Thos. Miller was home over Sunday and found his family in good health, but Gertrude was sick Sunday evening and the doctor could not be reached by telephone as usual. This shows our need of a service that we can depend upon.

Wm. Haight has lately returned from Clarion county and reports a great flood there, taking saw mills and all movable and unmovable things down the valley. He says he was told this and cannot say it is sure. We are of the opinion he has met Ananias in his travels.

Wm. Wheeler of Mayburg gave a very interesting talk to the people of Minister in the M. E. Church of that place on Saturday evening last. We are glad to have these extra services as our preaching service is two weeks apart and some times four. In a general estimation the poorest people on the face of the earth live at Porkey and Minister but they seem to pay up, for they have credit. Of course some are well to do. Your scribe is one of the poorest of them all having to borrow postage.

Cherry Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pope of Kellerville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pope, Sunday.

Harry Christensen was over from Hart & Henderson's camp, Sunday.

John Christensen was a Sheffield visitor Sunday.

Mrs. N. A. Christensen is slowly improving in health.

E. M. and Clarence Farnsworth were Sheffield callers Saturday.

Mrs. Christ Johnson had the misfortune to fall on the ice and receive serious injuries, Friday evening. Her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Johnson, is caring for her. Mrs. Harry Sweet is on the sick list.

Mrs. Wm. Lawson was a Clarendon visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pope were Sheffield visitors Wednesday.

G. W. Gifford went to Kellerville Wednesday.

Mrs. Louis Johnson returned from Warren, where she has been having dental work done, Saturday.

N. A. Christensen was a Warren visitor Monday.

Martin Christensen came up from Warren to spend Sunday with his parents.

Dr. Hyer of Warren made professional calls at the homes of N. A. Christensen and Christ Johnson, Friday.

S. A. Allaire was in Sheffield Friday.

John Paul came up from Mayburg Sunday, and Mrs. Paul, who has been staying with her mother, Mrs. Deshner, for a few weeks, returned home with him. She leaves Mrs. Deshner in an improved condition.

We are sure the weather man is annoying some of our folks by persisting in sending so much snow. One especially, James Cousins, who is particularly anxious to try a spin in his new touring car. Mrs. Russell Kea of Saybrook was in town Saturday.

An Important Decision.

The court today rendered an opinion in the case of John A. Day vs. C. A. Swanson. This case was tried at the January term and the jury found in favor of the plaintiff. The defendant then made a motion for the court to enter judgment in favor of the defendant notwithstanding the verdict and the court today granted the motion of the defendant and entered judgment in his favor against Mr. Day.

This suit was an action of ejectment to recover 120 acres of land in Brokenstraw township, near the village of Irvinston. Mr. Day claimed the land under a treasurer's sale in 1906 as sealed land for the taxes of 1904. The defendant, who was the former owner of the land, raised a number of questions, but the one upon which the court decided in his favor was in substance, that an act of the legislature passed in 1901 repealed the law permitting treasurer's sales of sealed lands for taxes, and instead thereof, required liens filed in the office of the Prothonotary and proceedings taken upon such claims just the same as upon all other municipal claims. The court held that the act of 1901 repealed the act of 1844, authorizing the sale by the treasurer of sealed lands for the non payment of taxes assessed upon sealed assessments. The effect of this decision, if sustained by the Supreme Court, will be to render void all treasurer's sales of lands upon sealed assessments since the passage of the act of 1901. —Warren Mirror.

Back to His Wild Life.

"Hook" the pelican is free. He was unannounced last Friday evening at the dock in the presence of a large crowd of admirers and well-wishers. But the big-billed fellow did not seem to rejoice over his emancipation; on the contrary he appeared reluctant to accept the liberty proffered. He had to be forced into the water where he remained but a short time, preferring to swim out and take up a position on the breakwater rocks. Toward evening he paddled out into the bay and with the aid of a favorable wind began his pilgrimage in search of a sheltered and secure perch.

All day Saturday and Sunday Mr. Chadman was on the lookout for him but no trace of the interesting bird could be seen. Doubtless he reached the long point to the east of the city, and is spending his time recounting to his erstwhile companions the story of his adventures while in captivity.

It may be that he will journey to New Orleans where the Pelican base ball team is in need of recruits. "Hook" would be a valuable addition to the team as he possesses great talent as a hitter. While on his perch one evening Dr. Green of the Whidden sanitarium staff happened to pass too near and "Hook" made a strike. He hit the sphere all right and a large lump arose over the doctor's left eye.

The story of his capture with hook and line, as first printed in this paper, was copied far and wide and Punta Gorda received considerable free advertising. A number of letters were received by Mr. Chadman from parks and zoos asking about "Hook" and making offers for his purchase, but it was not deemed advisable to send him north at this season of the year.

"Hook" added quite a little to the diversion of the tourists during the past few weeks. All the fishermen agreed that it was too much of a job for a bachelor to furnish food for the family with the appetite "Hook" had. Each day a number spent part of the time in catching yellow tails and carrying them to him. "Hook" appreciated the kindness very much and no doubt, if he could talk, would express his sincere thanks to all. —Punta Gorda (Fla.) Herald.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

In the year 1890, Charles Best of Pollock, Pa., was accidentally shot in the leg near the ankle. Six inches of the smaller bone was removed from the leg, leaving him in a serious condition. Two doctors insisted on amputating the leg. Mr. Best said: "No, I will try ASIATIC BALSAM first." Three bottles healed the wound entirely in two weeks time. ASIATIC BALSAM is the wonder of the age for healing Cuts, Burns, Scalds and Frost-bites and has stood the test for 50 years. Try it for Muscular Soreness or Stiffened Joints on man or beast; for Horses' Sore Shoulders, Sore Backs, Kicks or Cuts. Progressive Livemen and farmers keep Asiatic Balm on hand for the many injuries their stock is liable to. It never fails. Try it and be convinced.

Mr. J. L. Findley, proprietor of the Ford City, Pa., livery stables, says under date of 1902: "We had a lame horse become entirely useless. We tried everything under the sun to cure this lameness and failed; we considered the horse a total loss. Weisfeld's Asiatic Balm was recommended to us. After using a short time all lameness disappeared and the horse was entirely well. I consider it my duty to recommend Asiatic Balm to all horse owners."

Mr. H. T. Farley, livery and sales stable owner, of Kittanning, Pa., says: "After giving your Asiatic Balm a trial I find it the best remedy for Cuts or Bruises I have ever used. One of my men while clipping a horse had his lip cut entirely through. We applied the Balm which healed the cut almost immediately. One of my horses received a deep cut on his leg, laming him badly. A few applications of your Balm removed the lameness and healed the cut in a very short time."

Mr. F. K. Weaver, of West Penn Junction, writes under date of Jan. 1, 1899: "I have used Asiatic Balm for years and it is the best remedy for cuts, bruises and bruises known. It is healing, relieving the pains without smarting. I have always kept a bottle on hand."

Pollock Pa., April 14, 1910.—"We consider A-siatic Balm a world beater for all cuts, burns and sores on man or beast." —Best Brothers.

Mr. B. Steiguer, of Hornum, Pa., writes: "My son Christian, aged 12, fell from a tree, striking on a broken bottle, cutting a gash in his foot four inches in length and to the bone. We used Asiatic Balm, three bottles of which healed the wound sound and well in two weeks."

We are placing Asiatic Balm on sale in all stores. If your dealer does not have it, ask him to get it, as we will have a ready sale for it when once used. The Weisfeld Manufacturing & Chemical Company,

Parkers Landing, Armstrong Co., Pa.

HARMONY NEEDED IN HOME

Illness and Disturbed Nerves Are the Sure Result if It is Lacking There.

The imperative need of harmony in home surroundings as well as in business life is being felt by thinking more every day. It is impossible to do our best work in any atmosphere of confusion, and it is an almost invariable rule that illness and disturbed nerves are the penalty exacted if we allow ourselves to be drawn into conditions that do not spell harmony. Our home is our castle, and nothing should be allowed to enter therein that makes us unhappy.

If one is obliged to take strangers into the home on account of financial consideration it is wise to make sure that they are not antagonistic in any way that will affect the family relations, otherwise it is better to give up the extra profit and do with less if it means peace of mind. There is no price too great to pay for harmony, for it means health, happiness, financial success to you and yours, the ability to help others, and all through the gaining and holding the mental peace which is the peace of understanding. Some of us have to be beaten with many stripes before we realize the need of and grasp the knowledge of harmony, but those who have already felt a longing for it and pause to listen will get the revelation and receive its gospel like benediction.

His Was Laziness.

When an Indian candidate for the ministry was asked to define original sin, he said he didn't know what other people's might be, but he felt sure his was laziness.
