REPUBLICANS are reminded that next Saturday is primary day, from 2 to 8 o'clock p. m. Turn out and vote.

If Col. Bryan doesn't let up on his barrooming of Bro. Harmon he'll wind up by seeing the Ohioan nominated by the Baltimore convention.

SOME degenerate son of Baal stole Woodrow Wilson's carpet sack containing all his campaign thunder while he was out in Chicago making stump speeches last week. It knocked Woody's campaign into a "cocked hat," and he had to come home and reload, they say.

THE name of Hon. Peter M. Spear, Congressman from this district, will not appear on the Democratic ballot at the primaries next Saturday, he having asked that his name be stricken therefrom, because he has not in any sense been a candidate on that ticket by act of his own. A petition was filed by some of his enthusiastic friends at the eleventh hour when it was thought there would be no Democratic candidate, and Mr. Spear fully appreciates the good intentions of his friends, but since the Democratic party has filed a petition for one of its own members he has promptly withdrawn his name from the ballot of that party thus relieving a situation that might have caused unpleasantness but for his candidacy in no way responsible, Mr. Spear's was in the Republican nomination, and he will thoroughly appreciate every effort put forth in his behalf.

IN the meantime the nearer summer approaches the less you hear of Smith's Puxsutanway garden patch.

Republican Primaries.

The Republican voters of this county are reminded that on Saturday afternoon next, April 13, the primary election takes place, and that it is their duty as loyal members of the party to turn out and assist in the selection of candidates for the fall campaign. While the canvass among the candidates has been one of exceptional quietness, it is none the less important and a good turnout of the voters is essential in the nomination of an acceptable ticket. A Congressman and Assemblyman are to be nominated, and two delegates to the National Convention and one to the State Convention are to be elected, thus making this one of the most important primaries in recent years. Candidates for all of these positions are in the field, and a contest that has happily been devoid of bitterness of any sort, has been going on for several weeks past. It is now up to the party to choose the men it wants for these places, and it is therefore important that all Republicans should make it their business to go to the polls and vote their choice. No member of the party should need urging in such a case, and while weather conditions may not be just what you would desire, you should not absent yourself on that day. Neither should business matters, unless of the most important character, keep you away. Give an hour or two to this matter and feel that you have had a hand in the naming of the ticket. Remember the hours, Saturday, April 13, from 2:00 till 8:00 o'clock, p. m.

ONE always thinks there is a lot of money to be made in any kind of business that he isn't in.

WITH so many political slides showing going on it is a little hard for some persons to find the main text.

Fishing in Florida.

When the fishing season is open in that land through which the picturesque Allegheny flows, it is not unusual on a pleasant day for a friend to come strolling along and interrupt your maternal diversion in the garden with the rake and hoe by saying, "Come, let's go fishing today." Now, your own thoughts have been centered on the proposition that a rake and hoe aren't in it with a rod and line as a national sporting outfit, and as you are patriotic to a commendable degree it takes you just a moiety of a decimal fraction of a second to bang that rake over an apple limb and sling the hoe in behind the wood-house where you hope you will never be able to find it again. Off you go with the friend and what takes place subsequently is an other story—that nobody will believe.

When the fishing season is open in Southern Florida—and it is open the day long and the year round—a friend will come along and say, "Come, let's go fishing three months," and you lope off toward the house for your tackle and mosquito net with a celerity and avidity equaled only by that displayed in the Allegheny country.

And that's how it comes I am up here in lake Okeechobee. I did not accept the invitation for three months but I shall stay until I gather enough information about the Everglades, the Seminoles, the drainage canals, and the unexplored saw grass region to make a story that will cause the ten thousand pages of the Everglade investigation at Washington to look like a "local."

I do not deny that I am some fisherman. When I first came to Punta Gorda I had good success and I peddled my surplus catch around to my friends. In a short time the marsh came along and made me take out a license as a wholesale dealer. I had either to pay the tax or drop back to a retailer, so I came to this lake. And I am glad I came. I took over a hundred photos on the Caloosahatchee, lake Hickpogee, the canals, and so forth, with which to illustrate my non-official report. I caught a catfish that lay on the bank all night long and mewed so loud it kept us from sleeping in the boat. In the morning I kicked it into the canal and it darted away like the undersized rock bass that Gus Carson threw back in. I have written double "de" so many times that it is about worn off this type machine, and in my next I fear I shall have to use the quotation key in its stead. Compositor, take notice.

I am seeing Florida vastly different from the average Northerner. I do not stroll the beaches of the East Coast wearing a dannel suit and wait for checks to pay my hotel bill, neither do I stop at some hamlet on the West side and make a set of cooking utensils out of tin cans and go to housekeeping. I am hitting the old peninsula all over and where there are things to see. And if you want to know things down here you should see them. If you rely on what is told you you make a sad mistake. I was sad while making such mistakes but I am real gay again. I measure my own alligators and weigh my own fish. I also examine the land I buy and I fell into 40 acres "purty cheap."

I met Judge Lindsey from Warren recently. The Judge said he had been reading my Beran Leaves from Florida in the REPUBLICAN and received exalted edification therefrom. The Judge is a gentleman of the old school, a great lawyer, and with others owns large tracts of valuable lands in this vicinity. I also met J. H. McQuaide, who went to school to Judge Irvin of Tionesta. McQuaide is working the pre-emption act for all it is worth and at the same time working 160 acres of land. He lives in what is called the Vermont settlement out near the center of the county.

It was my intention to end this letter right here. But I feel that all my acquaintances will be rejoiced to learn of my conversion—to the Whale story. No one, having seen the leviathans I have seen, will longer dispute that story. Trolling in lake Hickpogee I hooked something that stopped the boat. Then the good ship began to move in a direction almost opposite to that in which we desired to go. The captain begged me to cut the line, and I finally consented. He said it was a 1000 pound jew fish, while the first mate said it was a shark. Whatever it was I know it was big enough to swallow a man the size of Jonah, though it might not have been able to keep a good man down long.

Take a look at the photo inclosed. These fish are one morning's catch of myself and pal "Joe." The fish hanging next to me weighed 102 pounds and we worked over an hour tiring him out and lifting him upon the pier. Notice my muscles. I developed them pulling in fish. Notice the size of my brain. I did that by eating fish. If Doc Hunter was down here and pulled in fish for a few weeks he'd be able to pull out those troublesome inebriates and six-pronged binoculars with the thumb and forefinger of his left hand. WALLACE CHADMAN, Lake Okeechobee, Fla., March 31.

Commencement at Clarinington.

Barnett township schools closed the last week in March, the last feature of the school work being the commencement exercises of the Clarinington High School, held in the M. E. church at Clarinington, Friday evening, March 29th. Although the weather conditions were unfavorable and the roads were muddy, a large crowd was present and all join in the same opinion, that the exercises were fine. The class that graduated was small, only four in number, yet each member of the class did his part in the exercises in a manner that was a credit to himself and to his teachers. The junior class of 1912 furnished the music for the evening.

At eight o'clock the juniors came up the center aisle and took their places in the choir. They were followed by the seniors, who were seated on the right side of the church. The choir gave a selection, after which came the invocation in charge of Rev. D. O. May, pastor of the M. E. church. Timothy Coon was the first member of the class to speak and his oration on "Labor" was appreciated by all. He showed that everyone must work if he would maintain an existence. Not only the common laborer, but also kings, presidents and all, are subject to this great law.

After another selection by the choir, Cecil Fitzgerald gave the class prophecy. He pointed out the lives of each member of the high school fifty years from now, in a way that caused the audience to laugh. Next Floyd Fitzgerald gave an oration. He took the class motto, "Climb Upward," for his subject. He took as examples some of our prominent men who have reached the topmost round of the ladder of fame after a hard but steady climb, simply because they had the will and backed by the help of Christ they made the way.

Then came the presentation by Zoe Reardon. She first presented to the high school a large wall clock bearing the inscription "Class of 1912." She gave to each member of the high school some little article which was appropriate to each. With each present she gave some advice, which was arranged as a poem. She also presented to the senior class of 1913 the key of knowledge.

The reply from the class of 1913 was given by Susie Black, who thanked the class of 1912 for their advice and help in the past and promised to follow in the footsteps of the seniors of 1912. On behalf of the junior class she wished them all success in their work and hoped to hear of each one some day lifted to a lofty position in the hall of fame.

Next came a selection by the choir, followed by the address given by Prof. Wm. M. Stewart, of Slippery Rock. He spoke along the line of character building. He gave some excellent advice to both young and old and all were pleased with his talk. Diplomas were presented to the members of the class by their teacher, Roy S. Braden. Rev. D. O. May dismissed the congregation.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

In the year 1899, Charles Best of Pollock, Pa., was accidentally shot in the leg near the ankle. Six inches of the smaller bone was removed from the leg, leaving him in a serious condition. Two doctors insisted on amputating the leg. Mr. Best said, "No, I will try ASIATIC BALSAM first." Three bottles healed the wound entirely in two weeks time. ASIATIC BALSAM is the wonder of the age for healing Cuts, Burns, Scalds and Frost-bites and has stood the test for 30 years. Try it for Muscular Soreness or Stiffened Joints on man or beast; for Rickets or Sore Shoulders, Sore Backs, Kicks or Cuts, Progressive Livermen and farmers keep Asiatic Balm on hand for the many injuries their stock is liable to. It never fails. Try it and be convinced.

Mr. J. L. Findlay, proprietor of the Ford City, Pa., livery stable, says under date of 1902: "We had a lame horse come entirely useless. We tried everything under the sun to cure this lameness and failed; we considered the horse a total loss. Weisfeld's Asiatic Balm was recommended to us. After using a short time all lameness disappeared and the horse was entirely well. I consider it my duty to recommend Asiatic Balm to all horse owners."

Mr. H. T. Farley, livery and sales stable owner, of Kittanning, Pa., says: "After giving your Asiatic Balm a trial I find it the best remedy for Cuts or Bruises I have ever used. One of my men while clipping a horse had his lip cut entirely through. We applied the Balm which healed the cut almost immediately. One of my horses received a deep cut on his leg, laming him badly. A few applications of your Balm removed the lameness and healed the cut in a very short time."

Mr. F. K. Weaver, of West Penn Junction, writes under date of Jan. 1, 1899: "I have used Asiatic Balm for years and it is the best remedy for cuts, burns and bruises known. It is healing, relieving the pains without smarting. I have always kept a bottle on hand."

Pollock, Pa., April 14, 1910.—"We consider A-Asiatic Balm a world beater for all cuts, burns and sores on man or beast." Best Brothers.

Mr. B. Steigler, of Herman, Pa., writes: "My son Christian, aged 12, fell from a tree, striking on a broken bottle, cutting a gash in his foot four inches in length and to the bone. We used Asiatic Balm, three bottles of which healed the wound sound and well in two weeks."

We are placing Asiatic Balm on sale in all stores. If your dealer does not have it, ask him to get it, as he will have a ready sale for it when once used. The Weisfeld Manufacturing & Chemical Company, Parkers Landing, Armstrong Co., Pa.

Big Buck Shot in the Adirondacks.

D. P. Webster, Ernest Hendricks and Clarence Lapp returned Monday from the Adirondacks with the largest buck brought from the north in many years. It was shot by Mr. Lapp and weighed 310 pounds, measured nearly nine feet from tip of nose to tail and had a most perfect head, each antler having five uniform and nicely formed prongs. The buck must have been trotting the Adirondacks for years, as it was without teeth and the antlers indicated that he was well along in years.

Mr. Webster, who each year visits the Adirondacks, when he first saw the deer after it had been shot was so startled at the size of it that he gasped and imagined it was a mule. The guides also informed the Forest Planners that nothing to compare with it had been shot in the Adirondacks during the last decade.—Mohawk Valley Register.

Longevity of the Earth.

That the age of primitive man in France runs back at least two hundred thousand years has been satisfactorily proved by Lyell and other geologists, who showed that it has taken at least this long for the rivers to wear away their beds below the caves where they once flowed.
