

Republican Ticket. State Treasurer—Hon. R. K. Young, of Tioga County. Auditor General—Hon. A. W. Powell, of Allegheny County.

Republican Committee Meeting. Pursuant to call of retiring Chairman Hon. C. A. Randall, the newly elected Republican County Committee of Forest County met at the court house, Tionesta, Saturday afternoon, May 4, 1912, and organized promptly at 2 o'clock by the election of the following temporary officers:

The meeting was attended by almost the full membership, 12 of the 17 elected being present. A vote of thanks for the able manner in which he had conducted the two last campaigns was tendered to Mr. Randall, and in response to calls he addressed the convention in a ringing speech which bristled with enthusiasm for the ticket and loyalty to the principles of the grand old Republican party.

H. T. Klinefelter of Tionesta, was re-appointed Secretary and Treasurer of the committee, by Chairman Watson. The following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted: We, the representatives of the Republican party of Forest County, in convention assembled, hereby reaffirm our adherence to the principles of the Republican party.

Second. We heartily endorse the wise and business-like administration of President Wm. H. Taft, and recognize in him a man eminently qualified in every way for the important office of President. Third. We endorse the wise and progressive administration of Governor John K. Tener and feel sure that the interests of the whole people will be well guarded under him.

Fourth. We enthusiastically endorse the candidacy of the Hon. Peter M. Speer, as well as his brilliant record in Congress at the present time; we feel assured that in him the old soldiers that stood up in front of the battle for the defense of the flag have a true friend and one that will look well after their interests; also do we endorse his advocacy of the parcels post in the interest of the farmer, and pledge to him our undivided support for reelection.

Fifth. We hereby endorse the ticket placed in nomination by the Republican party at Harrisburg on May 1st, 1912, and pledge to it our earnest support. Sixth. We recognize in President William H. Taft and in ex-President Theodore Roosevelt men both eminently qualified in every way for the important position of president, and hereby pledge to the nominee of the Chicago convention our hearty support.

Seventh. We cheerfully endorse the nomination of the Hon. A. R. Meachling for Member of Assembly and call upon all good citizens, irrespective of party, to assist in his election; we pledge to him our undivided support. Eighth. We are unalterably opposed to, and deplore the tendency of some of our state officials toward granting privileges and franchises conveying to private individuals and corporations the water rights of our public streams, and we emphatically maintain that these privileges should be conserved for the benefit of the whole people of our state.

Following are the members of the new County Committee: Barnett—Clarington, W. M. Coon; Cooksburg, John C. Lyons; Redelys, John McCann. Green—Nebraska, M. C. Jones; Guiltoville, R. W. Guiton. Harmony—West Hickory, W. G. Morrow; Fogle Farm, James Elliot. Hickory—Endeavor, W. O. Fuellhart. Howe—Brookston, John Gildersleeve; Lynch, John Dodge. Jenks—Marienville, W. H. Green; Duhring, B. D. Euminger. Kingsley—Newtown, (Starr) E. E. Zouandel; Kelleitville, W. Leon Watson; Mayburg, George Zuber. Tionesta Township—J. B. Eden. Tionesta Borough—D. H. Blum.

BOTH houses of Congress have agreed on a general service pension bill. The pensions are to run from $18 a month to $30, depending upon the age and length of service of the soldier. It is estimated that the increase in the Government's pension expenditures for five years under the terms of the agreement will average about $20,000,000 annually. WHAT the PUNTSUTWENY Spirit says in the following item fits the case about right: "So far as our knowledge of the character and calibre of the man nominated at Harrisburg last Wednesday is concerned, we have an excellent ticket, and one upon which all Republicans can safely unite. We would have been better pleased if this section of the state could have been represented by a candidate for congressman-at-large, but as there were not enough to go around, and somebody had to be disappointed, we have no greater grievance in that regard than a score of other districts. From a personal acquaintance with former Auditor-General Robert K. Young, of Tioga, we can assure our readers that we have an excellent candidate for State Treasurer, and if the other candidates have been selected with the same regard for ability and integrity, we have a ticket of which the party may be proud."

The State Convention. The Republican State convention which met at Harrisburg last Wednesday was the "cut and dried" affair. The day prior to the meeting the full program was laid out and the delegates had nothing to do but endorse the slate as it had been arranged, and thus they had an easy time of it. The following ticket was placed in the field: Auditor General—State Senator A. W. Powell, Pittsburg. State Treasurer—Robert K. Young, Tioga County. Congressmen-at-Large—P. T. Lewis, Allentown; J. M. Morin, Pittsburg; A. R. Ruspley, Charleis; A. H. Walters, Johnstown.

Twelve delegates-at-large to the national convention instructed to vote for Theodore Roosevelt were elected. Dr. Fred W. Brown, of Franklin, is one of these. Presidential electors were named for each Congressional district and six at large, the nominees for this, 28th, district being D. I. Ball, Esq., of Warren, a most worthy choice. The new State chairman elected by the convention is Henry G. Wasson, of Pittsburg, and the new secretary of the State committee is A. Nevin Dietrich, of Chambersburg. Colonel Fred C. Wilson, of Philadelphia, was appointed assistant secretary and it was announced that the State headquarters will be continued at Philadelphia.

The platform adopted was out of the usual run of such political documents. It contains long quotations from Abraham Lincoln and Colonel Roosevelt. It did not mention President Taft nor Governor Tener and is silent upon conduct of their respective administrations. Neither was there any reference to the initiative, referendum and recall, and local option and woman's suffrage, all of which propositions were expecting favorable consideration, were brushed aside without so much as a mere mention, although the ladies were given a trifling recognition in a recommendation that the next legislature "look into" the matter of giving them the ballot.

The nomination of Hon. Robert K. Young, of Tioga county, for State Treasurer, the only candidate known in this section of the State, will give excellent satisfaction to our people. His record as Auditor General in the Stuart administration is decidedly creditable to him, being clean and business-like, and hampered by no favoritism. As the choice of the convention every candidate is worthy of and will receive the cordial support of a loyal Republican party.

Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Arner were up from Tionesta one day last week. Lory Strikewind of Pigeon spent the past week with friends here. Charles Karns has moved his family from Keppeltown to the Milford farm, near West Hickory. Mrs. Allen Ault and daughter Emily of Tylersburg spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Geo. Young. Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Haugh and son Walter went to Brookville on Thursday, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Haugh's brother, Jay McAninch. Henry Watkins and family of Tylersburg spent Sunday with relatives here. Joseph Pettigrew of Franklin visited with relatives here during the past week. Mrs. J. K. Reedy and baby were visitors in Warren on Thursday and Friday. Ralph Cook is moving his family to Tionesta this week. T. D. Collins has gone to Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the General Conference of the M. E. church. Ed. Bowman of Newmansville was a caller in town Monday.

Cherry Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eckland were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Weaver, over Sunday. Lon Hermanson of Jamestown was calling in town Friday. Andrew Christenson of Kelleitville spent Sunday with his parents. Henry Desher of Mayburg spent Sunday with his wife. Chas. Cole of Gusher spent Sunday in town. Jas. Cousins, who is working in Mayburg, spent Sunday with his family, going back in his auto Sunday evening. Friday evening while shooting at tin cans which Warren Vandenberg was throwing in the air for that purpose, his younger brother Clarence shot and killed him. The bullet lodged in the head, penetrating the brain. Dr. Hyer of Clarion came up in his auto and took Warren to the Warren hospital, but he never recovered consciousness and died Saturday morning. We sympathize with the grief-stricken family, especially Clarence, who is heart-broken. The exact ages of the boys are not known to the writer but they are about fifteen and seventeen years of age.

A surprise party was given for Miss Myrtle Johnson at her home, Monday night. Despite the bad weather a good sized crowd was present and an excellent time is reported. Fred Cooper of Sheffield is visiting J. W. Gifford's team. Mrs. G. W. Gifford and Miss Cora were in Sheffield having dental work done Saturday. Seems quite summer like to see the man with a bicycle hunting cows again. The recent nice weather has dried the ground to a great extent and the man with the plow can be seen everywhere now.

Miss Elizabeth Allaire came home Saturday after finishing a successful term of school at Sheriff. Her sister, Miss Anna, has a week left of her school at Porkey. Misses Bess Sigworth and Lillian Shaw departed for their respective homes Tuesday after finishing their schools. We are very sorry to have these fine young ladies leave us. Too bad the school term cannot last the whole year. But maybe they will call on us again. A farewell party was given them Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sutton. On Saturday afternoon the birthday club surprised Miss Sigworth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sutton and in the evening both the young ladies were included in a surprise party given by the young folks at the Sutton home. All these affairs were very enjoyable. Born, Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson, a daughter. Miss Elizabeth Allaire was in Sheffield Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kinch of near Gusher came up Saturday to attend the funeral of their brother, Warren Vandenberg, which was held Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Orda Vandenberg of Mayburg were also here.

Chadman's Florida Letter. Ordinarily, when an individual changes his location, his position, his manner, method and style of life, and takes up his abode amid new scenes and new environs, and among people of a different race, color and doubtful previous condition of servitude, such individual is much put out and is "in bad," as the saying is, and a good deal of time is required for him to get used to the change. Moreover, he can't seem to admit that things suit him nearly so well as those to which he was formerly accustomed, and he loses no opportunity to bark back to the old times before he is charged, and many a time he is heard to observe that this or that, and some other things as well or different, and so on and so forth, and in other words, he is complaining.

In other words, one likes a change unless the change is one he likes. E converso, any one dislikes a change that he does not like. I hope these propositions will not be attacked and shown to be false, as I have spent much time in testing and demonstrating them. So, to resume, when an individual who was born and reared among the rugged hills and transcendent vales of the foothills of the Alleghenies, and who followed the simple life and a Syracuse plow until it began to tell upon his health, and he was ordered by the family doctor to cease it at once, and to live away to the Coney Islands and the Great White Ways of the earth to renew his strength, which order he reluctantly complied with, but who had been sufficiently alive to his duties as a farmer to take with him the full knowledge that corn is usually planted in the fore part of May, I say when such an individual, used to Central Pennsylvania caprices of soil and habits of climate, suddenly changes his base, and among other marvelous revelations, is invited to sit down to a mess of roasting ears in April, he cancels all other engagements with neatness and dispatch, marked dispatch, accepts the invitation with an unusual multiplicity of thanks, and inwardly, inwardly remembers, thanks Allah for the change.

I tell you, my Countrymen, there are some features and incidents connected with any change which every individual must admit he enjoys; and as for me at least, after I have dined sumptuously on roasting ears in April, no one can ever coax, bribe or compel me to say I do not like the country—the change. Roasting ears in July and August may have their charm; roasting ears all through the fall are entitled to have the big plate and the central position on the table, but roasting ears in April—along about the middle of April—appeal to one's culinary instinct and relish with a force stronger than gravity or cohesion.

And thus it is that contrast is the great teacher, the omnipotent information bureau. If you know and understand all the contrasts there are in the world you can step to the head of old Sam Johnson's class and stay there. What care I that this town is on the boom, that the price of contiguous land is increasing a couple dollars an acre every month, or that little articles like the following are seen occasionally in the Florida press, and a jealous press at that: Fort Myers Press: Congratulations to Punta Gorda and all concerned, as there appears to be a possibility of securing deep water from that fine little city to the Gulf. There is hardly any doubt that the citizens will put up the necessary sum of $20,000 to induce the government to undertake the work.

Or that this county (De Solo) leads all others in Florida in the production of citrus fruits, or that the Everglades are going to be drained and reclaimed just as surely as the Panama canal is going to be opened, or that Punta Gorda, with its 20 foot channel by that time, will be the nearest port to Panama, nearer than Tampa or Jacksonville, near Orleans, Mobile, and all those other joints, I reiterate, what care I for that these things when it is possible to feed on roasting ears in April, and the little school children follow me around and beg me to tell them what a snow ball is like. You may read about the land of the midnight sun, or the wonderfully liberal laws of Canada with reference to its public lands in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and the rush of the people to those places; you will read that they are so eager they will fall over each other; not so here. Here every one outruns the other and all win. And you cannot blame them when all things are considered. Just read Florida literature issued from Chicago and you will get a fair example of fine-writing. But there is no land near this town in the hands of Northern land companies, and that, in addition to April roasting ears, is why I like the change I have made.

WALLACE CHADMAN, Punta Gorda, Fla., April 27. Judge Hinckley's Decision Sustained. Sale of sealed lands in Warren and other counties for taxes not hereafter be made under the act of 1901, which provides that it be done through the prothonotary's office and by the sheriff, instead of by the county treasurer, as heretofore. In Philadelphia Tuesday, April 30th, the supreme court affirmed Judge W. D. Hinckley's decision of several weeks ago, wherein he held that the sale of a tract of land to J. A. Day was illegal in that the sale should have been made under the act of 1901 instead of 1844.

The original case was that of J. A. Day vs. C. A. Swanson. Appeal was taken by the county commissioners through their solicitor, John Higgins, D. I. Ball representing the defendant. Attorney Higgins argued his side of the case and the court took the papers. Mr. Ball was then informed that the court would not care to hear his argument, thus practically deciding in Mr. Ball's favor. By the decision a large number of titles of lands throughout the state are rendered invalid.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Newtown Mills. Fred Rudolph is moving into the house vacated by John Carpenter some time ago. Mrs. John Hunter and son Russell of Ross Run visited Mrs. Al. Smith, Monday. Horton Albaugh was in town over the Sabbath. Mrs. I. J. Flynn and Mrs. W. O. Blauer visited Mrs. Ed. Gillespie at Kelleitville last Thursday. N. P. Wheeler and Ed. Osgood of Endeavor were business visitors in town Monday and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jones. Some of our people went down to Ross Run Sunday evening to attend quarterly meeting.

Cameron Fike of Strattanville is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Al. Smith. Miss Emma Rudolph, who has been visiting her mother and other relatives, returned to Franklin, Monday, where she has employment. The children are delighted to be free, our school having closed last Thursday. Willie Fike, who has been here this winter with his aunt, Mrs. Smith, went to his home at Strattanville.

Rules For Right Living. Frederic Harrison, Who is Alive at Eighty, Gives His Views on Subject.

Frederic Harrison, barrister, historian, philosopher, publicist, positivist and anti-woman's suffragette, celebrated his eightieth birthday recently in London. In spite of his great age, Mr. Harrison is still hale and hearty, and his intellectual activity is occasionally evidenced in acutely reasoned letters to the press. A self-disciplinarian, he attributes his physical and mental fitness to the rigid observance of his own Spartan "rules of life." Here they are: "Touch not tobacco, spirit, nor any unclean thing. Rise from every meal with an appetite. Walk daily two hours. Sleep nightly seven hours. Be content with what you have."

Playing cards and tobacco are Mr. Harrison's aversions. "Men and women eat," he says, "who are too dull to take pleasure in talk, too ignorant to read, too lazy to dance, deaf to music, blind to art, unable to keep themselves awake, betake themselves to cards." As for my Lady Nicotine, he cannot find words strong enough to denounce her with. Smoking is "a beastly disease," to be shunned on grounds medical, moral, social and esthetic.

Mr. Harrison, however, is better known as the greatest living disciple of Auguste Comte than as a social Don Quixote. His presidential addresses to the Positivist society are said by good judges to contain some of the finest "high thinking" in the English language. In view of these and other virtues, people here are proud to hail him a grand old Londoner, born and educated within the sound of the bells of Bow.

CRAFTY PRELUDE OF SHOPPER. Preliminary Skirmish by Which She Insures Best Service When Real Campaign Begins.

Chicago people certainly have the knack of getting on," a shopper said. "In the suit department of a big store I met a Chicago woman who had been in Philadelphia less than a week. She said she wasn't buying anything; just just come to get the lay of the land. In the process of getting it she stopped a cash girl and said: "Is that Miss Blake selling white linen skirts to that fat woman? I understand you have a Miss Blake in this department." "No, that is Miss Barton," said the cash girl. "The Chicago woman wrote the name in her address book. Then she showed me the names of saleswomen in several other stores. "This is only a preliminary to real shopping," she said. "It pays me to take the extra trouble. If I expect to buy more than $5 worth of anything at a strange store I learn beforehand the names of the saleswomen whose looks I like best. "Then when I go back to buy, I can say, as I shall do here tomorrow, 'I would like Miss Barton to wait on me,' and although Miss Barton has never set eyes on me, the fact that I can call her by name gives her the impression that she must have sold me a $100 dress at some time and I get twice as good service as I would get if I knew nobody by name."

Miss Ella E. Latimer, aged 22, of New Bethlehem, has been incarcerated in the Armstrong county jail at Kittanning to serve a sentence of 30 days imposed upon her by the Federal courts. Miss Latimer is a daughter of former Postmaster Latimer, of New Bethlehem, and had confessed to embezzling $6,118.80 of money order funds from the office. The sentence included the imposition of a fine for the full amount of the misappropriated funds and the provision was made that she is to occupy a comfortable room, not a cell, in the jail, due to her being a Federal prisoner.

THE Maryland primaries Monday resulted in a close vote between Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft, the former getting 66 delegates to the latter's 63. The preference is thus given to the colonel, who will get the 16 national delegates. Champ Clark carried the Democratic primaries by a large majority, and it looks as though the cheery speaker would ultimately land the presidential nomination on that ticket. —Lame back is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the back, for which you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. CHARLES W. SMITH, Executor, East Hickory, Forest County, Pa., May 7, 1912. Water Elephants in Africa. The scientific world is still discussing the reported discovery of a new mammal in the Congo state, a mammal known to the natives as the "water elephant." M. Le Petit of the Paris Museum of Natural History recently reported that he saw five of these animals plunging into the water on the northern shore of Lake Leopold the Second. He stated that they appeared to have shorter bodies, smaller ears, and relatively longer necks than ordinary elephants, and apparently were not possessed of trunks. He estimated their height at about six feet. It has been pointed out that the description of the water elephant accords almost exactly with Dr. Andrews' restoration of the paleoastrodont, a creature which dwelt in the Fayoum in the lower tertiary age. A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT. In the year 1899, Charles Best of Pollock, Pa., was accidentally shot in the leg near the ankle. Six inches of the smaller bone was removed from the leg, leaving him in a serious condition. Two doctors insisted on amputating the leg. Mr. Best said: "No, I will try ASIATIC BALSAM first." Three bottles healed the wound entirely in two weeks time. ASIATIC BALSAM is the wonder of the age for healing Cuts, Burns, Scalds and Frost-bites and has stood the test for 30 years. Try it for Muscular Soreness or Stiffened Joints on man or beast; for horses' Sore Shoulders, Sore Backs, Kicks or Cuts. Progressive Liverymen and farmers keep Asiatic Balsam on hand for the many injuries their stock is liable to. It never fails. Try it and be convinced. Mr. J. L. Findley, proprietor of the Ford City, Pa., livery stables, says under date of 1902: "We had a lame horse become entirely useless. We tried everything under the sun to cure this lameness and failed; we considered the horse a total loss. Weisfeld's Asiatic Balsam was recommended to us. After using a short time all lameness disappeared and the horse was entirely well. I consider it my duty to recommend Asiatic Balsam to all horse owners." Mr. H. T. Farley, livery and sale stable owner, of Kittanning, Pa., says: "After giving your Asiatic Balsam a trial I find it the best remedy for Cuts or Bruises I have ever used. One of my men while clipping a horse had his lip cut entirely through. We applied the Balsam which healed the cut almost immediately. One of my horses received a deep cut on his leg, laming his body. A few applications of your Balsam removed the lameness and healed the cut in a very short time." Mr. F. K. Weaver, of West Penn Junction, writes under date of Jan. 1, 1899: "I have used Asiatic Balsam for years and it is the best remedy for cuts, burns and bruises known. It is healing, relieving the pain without smarting. I have always kept a bottle on hand." Pollock, Pa., April 14, 1910. "We consider Asiatic Balsam a more better for all cuts, burns and sores on man or beast." Best Brothers. Mr. B. Steigler, of Herman, Pa., writes: "My son Christian, aged 12, fell from a tree, striking on a broken bottle, cutting a gash in his foot four inches in length and to the bone. We used Asiatic Balsam, three bottles of which healed the wound sound and well in two weeks." We are placing Asiatic Balsam on sale in all stores. If your dealer does not have it, ask him to get it, as he will have a ready sale for it when once used. The Weisfeld Manufacturing & Chemical Company, Parkers Landing, Armstrong Co., Pa.
