PIONEER OF
AVIATION DIESTyphoid Fever Kills Wilbur
Wright, Famous Ohioan

OFTEN HONORED BY MONARCHS

Washington Officials Mourn Loss of Inventor—President Says Name of Wright Should Stand With Fulton.

Following a sinking spell Wilbur Wright, the pioneer aviator, died of typhoid fever at his home in Dayton, O.
Wright had been lingering on the border for many days, and though his condition from time to time gave hope to his family, the attending physicians maintained throughout the latter part of his sickness that he could not recover.

When he succumbed to the burning fever that had racked his body for days and nights he was surrounded by the members of his family, which includes his aged father, Bishop Milton Wright; Miss Catherine Wright, Orville, the co-inventor of the aero-plane; Reuchlin Wright and Lorin Wright.

The noted aeroplane inventor was seized with typhoid May 4 while on a business trip in the east. On that day he returned to Dayton from Boston and consulted the family physician.
He took to his bed almost immediately and it was several days before his case was definitely diagnosed as typhoid.

Mr. Wright was born near Millville, Ind., on April 16, 1867. His father was Rev. Milton Wright, a bishop in the United Brethren church, and his mother, Susan Koerner. Of a mechanical turn of mind, he and his brother, Orville Wright, had their own modest bicycle factory and a repair shop in Dayton when the two wheel vehicle was at the height of its popularity and in their less busy moments applied themselves to the study of aviation.

Wilbur, the elder brother, was the leader in the early experiments, but in all their associations it was as the "Wright brothers" that they shared credit for their progressive improvements and neither sought the lion's share of the honors which fell to them.
Wilbur, by his achievements in Europe in 1908 and 1909, compelled the praise and respect of the foreign aviators and students, and kings delighted to do him honor.

Capital Mourns Wright.
In government circles, especially in the signal corps of the army, proud sorrow was expressed at the news of the death of Wilbur Wright.
In connection with the government the early days of aeroplane development was particularly close.
The Wright brothers received a medal and thanks from congress and a medal from the Smithsonian institute for their achievements.
President Taft, who presented the medals granted by congress to Wilbur Wright and his brother Orville at Gettysburg, Pa., said in his address: "The Wright brothers were the first to see the wonderful development that is sure to follow along the primary lines which he laid down.
He serves to stand with Fulton, Fulton and Bell."

Largest Plant

Edison Steel Works in Bradford, Pa., to be improved.
Plans to the Edgar Thomson at Bradford, Pa., has been that will ultimately involve an expenditure of from $8,000, 000 and will make the plant one of the largest steel-producing concerns in the United States. This information was officially confirmed by the steel company.
The men will be employed in the enlarged portion of the plant. The improvements will be several lines so that the plant in all lines will be one of the largest.

LAMB QUIT TAKING SNUFF

Threw Box Away on Hampstead Heath, but Was Searching for It Next Morning.

Hampstead Heath may yet contain a precious relic of Charles Lamb. "One summer's evening," writes Hone, "I was walking on Hampstead Heath with Charles Lamb, and we had talked ourselves into a philosophic contempt of our slavery to the habit of snuff taking, and with the firm resolution of never again taking a single pinch we threw our snuffboxes away from the hill on which we stood, far among the furze and brambles below, and went home in triumph; I began to be very miserable, was wretched all night; in the morning I was walking on the same hill; I saw Charles Lamb below, searching among the bushes; he looked up laughing, and saying, 'What you are come to look for your snuff-box too!'
"Oh, no," said I, taking a pinch out of a paper in my waistcoat pocket.
"I went for a halfpenny worth to the first shop that was open."—London Chronicle.

Expensive Slip.

A well-dressed man was hurrying along the Rue de Passy, Paris, when he slipped, and falling forward dashed his elbow through the window of a wine shop. The proprietor rushed out to claim the price of his window and a large crowd gathered to see the play. The man who had broken the window protested that he had no money. "Search him!" shouted some in the crowd. There were no policemen about, so the wineshop keeper and a few friends took the law into their own hands, searched the man's pockets and found a £20 note.
The crowd advised the wineshop keeper to pay himself well for his broken window. He took £2 to pay for his broken glass, and the unpopular man who had broken it went away with a torn coat and £18 change. The £20 note was a forgery.

The Paper Boat.

Bobby's Aunt Bess had been telling him about her travels in Switzerland, describing particularly her visit to Lake Luzerne. "We got aboard the little newspaper boat that sails all over the lake, Bobby," she remarked.
Bobby listened to this statement in round-eyed wonder, but made no comment. Later he said to his mother:
"Mamma, do you know people go sailing in paper boats on Lake Luzerne? Isn't it awful queer?"
"Nonsense, Bobby; people couldn't sail in paper boats. Where did you get such an absurd notion?"
"Aunt Bess told me that she and Uncle Bill got aboard a little paper boat and sailed all over Lake Luzerne," insisted Bobby. Then Bobby's mother explained.

Burglar Dies From Fright.

ly fell down dead yesterday on being surprised while committing a burglary.

The concierge of a house in Vienna, when returning to her dwelling found a young man engaged in searching a upboard with his back toward the door. She shrieked: "What are you Ancestor of the Dog.

It is supposed by some that the little wolf of India was the original ancestor of the dog. It is the only wild animal possessing the salient eyebrow, or crest of the dog. The little wolf has not only the dog's eyebrow crest, but all the canine characteristics, and none of the characteristics of the wolf.

Lack of Enterprise.

Generally the trouble with a man who doesn't get anywhere is that he has not enough confidence in his judgment to bet anything on it.

COUNCILMEN
ARE TRAPPEDDictagraph Does Good Work at Atlantic City

SEASHORE RESORT SENSATION

One Councilman Prosecuted—Others Said to Have Confessed—Political Ring Alleged to Be in Bribery Plan.

Harry F. Dougherty, one of the councilmen of Atlantic City, N. J., arrested on a charge of having accepted a bribe of $500 in return for his vote in council for the passage of an ordinance providing for a concrete boardwalk along the beach front designed to cost $1,000,000 or more, was arraigned. Through his lawyer he pleaded not guilty and was held in $3,000 bail for the grand jury.

Detective William J. Burns was the chief witness. He related how he had been summoned to investigate alleged corrupt acts and dishonesty in civic matters. He evolved a "fake" boardwalk scheme to catch certain councilmen and city officials. He summoned one of his operatives here and had him pose as "Mr. Harris," a New York contractor, anxious to get a contract to build a new boardwalk of concrete.

"Harris" became familiar with councilmen, offered several of them $5,000 each to pass the ordinance providing for the boardwalk and paid $500 apiece on account.

Later, Burns related, these councilmen were informed of the trap into which they had fallen. According to his story all but one of them confessed and returned the bribe money.
Dougherty refused to give back the money or to confess and he was arrested.

Smiley, a Burns operator, testified to the installation of a dictagraph in a hotel. Smiley said he paid Dougherty the $500 in ten $50 bills.

Five confessions have been made and it is said that before the scandal is fully ventilated between thirty and forty men, political leaders and lieutenants, business men and a number of the seventeen councilmen and other office holders will be under arrest charged with accepting bribes or with extorting money.

There is evidence to show that the political ring and affiliations for three years past has commercialized every municipal appointment. Also by re-fession it has been learned that by the extraordinary powers of the seventeen councilmen or the majority of them there has been a steady traffic in excise licenses by means of hold-ups and extra demands, that all places of amusements have been similarly treated and that the sums received from irregular places brought in large sums continuously to the political powers.

RARE COINS TO BE SOLD

Famous Collection of George H. Earle, Jr., Under the Hammer.

Philadelphia will be the scene this month of the sale of one of the foremost collections of ancient and modern coins in existence. It is the collection made by George H. Earle, Jr., and comprises 2,875 lots, many lots containing eight and ten coins in all.

The sale by Mr. Earle of his wonderful collection of coins comes unheralded and already collectors from all sections of the world are preparing to bid for some of the coins in the collection. The collection is said to be the finest ever offered at public sale in this country.

TWO MILLIONS FOR SCHOOL

Will of Wealthy Coal Operator Filled in Scranton, Pa.

The will of O. S. Johnson, the millionaire coal operator of Scranton, Pa., was filed there. He leaves an annuity of $25,000 to his wife, who has been living in New York, apart from him for twenty years; $5,000 a year to his sister; and $1,000 a year to his eleven blood relatives. To his wife's eleven blood relatives he leaves outright $5,000 each.

The residue of the $2,000,000 or more, which he leaves, he bequeathed for a manual training school for Scranton.

MARBLES AGAINST THE LAW

Dominoes and Euchre Are Also Barred by Ordinance.

Playing marbles "for keeps" is sinful and a violation of the city ordinance at Noundsville, Va., and the police will arrest persons caught in the act.

The city council has just enacted the ordinance, which also makes it unlawful to play dominoes, euchre, pedro, casino, or, in fact, any kind of card games for prizes. The ordinance knocks out the euchre parties and was enacted over the protests of members of many women's clubs.

CONVICTS MAKE "JIMMIES"

Inmates of Ohio Penitentiary Said to Manufacture Burglar Tools.

That burglar tools are made in the Ohio pen by prisoners is the accusation of the Columbus police as a result of an investigation of the charge alleged against Gustav Ohlrich, the prison guard arrested for alleged complicity in numerous burglaries in that city. Ohlrich is charged with having burglar tools in his possession.

The police say they found a "jimmy" in his locker in the penitentiary exactly like one found in the possession of John Schultz, an alleged accomplice of Ohlrich, who was shot by police while attempting to escape from a house he was entering.

SON SLAYS FATHER

Quarrel Between Two Results Fatally.
Younger Man Escapes.

In a quarrel Robert Priem, twenty-one years old, shot and killed his father, Herman Priem, forty-five years old, a merchant of Danmore, Pa.

A tenant of the father's building reported a broken faucet and the two went to repair it. A quarrel began.
The father drove the son out of the house, so the tenants say. The son returned and the father, it is said, abused him roundly and threatened to assault him with a pick handle.
The son thereupon, it is alleged, drew a revolver and shot him. The ball pierced the body and death ensued within an hour. Young Priem is at large.

GERMAN FLEET REVIEWED

President Taft Welcomes Visitors in Hampton Roads.

President Taft welcomed the visiting German fleet in Hampton Roads.
On the Mayflower with the president, besides Mrs. Taft, were Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Count von Bernstorff, ambassador from Germany, and several American naval officials.

The president's yacht reviewed the three German ships and the eight American battleships, constituting the first and second divisions of the Atlantic fleet and the official convoy to the German vessels.

USE OF DEPOT REFUSED

Rental Train Holds Up Chicago and Alton Claims For Fifteen Hours.

Because of an alleged claim for $30, 000 rental on terminals and depot facilities, the Peoria and Pekin Union Railway company prevented Chicago and Alton trains from entering Peoria, Ill.

Passenger, freight and United States mail trains were delayed fifteen hours in Washington and Pekin, awaiting settlement of the difficulty.

T. R. SWEEPS NEW JERSEY

Every One of the State's Twenty-Eight Delegates Won by Him.

Colonel Roosevelt won a clean sweep at the primaries in the state of New Jersey over President Taft.
Every one of the twenty-eight delegates to the national convention will be instructed to vote for Roosevelt.
Governor Wilson got the Democratic vote and he has a majority of the delegates.

Americans Fleeing From Danger.

Americans are reported fleeing from the rebel zone in Mexico.

Suiting the Action to the Word.

At a lecture a well known authority on economics mentioned the fact that in some parts of America the number of men was constantly larger than that of women, and he added humor-ously, "I can therefore recommend to the ladies to emigrate to that part."

A young lady who was seated in one of the last rows of the auditorium got up, and full of indignation, left the room rather noisily, whereupon the lecturer remarked, "I did not mean that it should be done in such a hurry."—Judge.

CENSURE MANY IN
TITANIC REPORTChairman Smith's Committee
Reports to Senate

CAPTAIN ROSTRON PRAISED

Report Does Not Criticize Ismay Personally Nor Captain Smith of the Titanic—Legislation Recommended.

The report of the committee investigating the Titanic disaster was presented to the senate. Chairman Smith also made a speech.

The report and the speech did not exactly agree. Senator Smith laid more blame on the Titanic's dead captain and less on the Titanic's wireless operators than did the committee. The report is comprehensive and recommends drastic changes in navigation legislation and in wireless regulations.
Many individuals and several corporate bodies are deemed blameworthy by the committee.

Captain Lord of the California, for ignoring repeated ice warnings without decreasing maximum speed, doubling lookouts or warning passengers after collision.

British board of trade, for lax inspection and absolute maritime laws.
Shipbuilders, for failing to make "watertight" compartments watertight.

International Mercantile Marine company, for manning Titanic with un-drilled "short" crew.

Survivors of crew, for failing to bunch survivors in half filled boats and return with emptied lifeboats to secure drowning swimmers.

A gold medal and the thanks of congress, carrying with it the privilege of admission to the floor of the senate and house, was ordered by the senate as a fitting recognition on the part of this nation of the bravery of Captain Rostrom of the Carpathia.

J. Bruce Ismay, managing director of the International Mercantile Marine company, is not personally criticised by the committee.

In his speech Chairman Smith declared Captain Smith of the liner was directly responsible, as he failed to heed warnings of other ships about icebergs. Although no general alarm was given and no organized system of safety undertaken, Smith says J.
Bruce Ismay was advised of the danger.

The chairman also criticised officers of the White Star line for juggling with the truth after receiving information from their Montreal office the morning following the accident.

Steel Tariff Bill Passed.

With more than half the Republicans withholding their votes, the amended Democratic iron and steel tariff bill was passed by the senate by a vote of 35 to 22 and now will go to conference, where there probably will be a long struggle over it before it is sent to the president.

Senator Gronna of North Dakota was the only Republican who voted for the bill, while Senators Borah, Bourne, Bristow, Cummins and Works, progressive Republicans, voted against it.

Senator Penrose was one of the many Republicans who joined in the standpat expedient of refusing to vote so that the Democratic bill might go through and thus make it easy for the president to veto it on the ground that it was not drawn in accordance with the Republican principle of protection.

Senate Passes Pension Bill.

The senate passed the pension appropriation bill, already passed by the house. It carried $164,500,000, an increase of $12,500,0
