

Calendar for June 1912 showing days of the week and dates.

Republican Ticket.

State Treasurer—Hon. R. K. Young, of Tioga County. Auditor General—Hon. A. W. Powell, of Allegheny County.

AGAIN the people seem to be reminded of Johnston, and of Austin. It does not appear reasonable that same men will consent to the building of a reservoir which will endanger life and property.

Defective Election Laws.

Judge Criswell, of Venango county, in the case of Willis J. Hulings against Peter M. Speer, recently decided that the State courts have no jurisdiction in Congressional elections.

The law should be amended so as to prevent this. The most practical way to do it that we can think of would be for the assessors to ascertain every man's politics and designate it after his name on the poll books.

There are a number of other important amendments that should be made to our ballot laws, the most vital of which is the restriction of the use of money in elections.

Discord in Both Parties. No effort is being made to conceal the fact that a lively fight is now on for the Republican nomination for President.

That condition does not exist in the Democratic ranks. Pennsylvania Democrats are for Gov. Woodrow Wilson for President.

Those Democrats from Pennsylvania who happen to be members of the United States Congress at this time are not for Gov. Wilson.

In the mean time all indications point to the nomination of W. J. Bryan by the Democrats and history has already recorded that the people of the country are not willing to have Mr. Bryan for President.

While the Republicans are certain of electing their candidate they are making most of the political noise, but the factional feeling among the Democrats is as strong if not stronger than the feeling among the Republicans of the country.

Farmers' Institutes. The County Board of Farmers' Institute Managers will meet at the County Commissioners' office on the second Tuesday of June.

The County Board of Farmers' Institute Managers will meet at the County Commissioners' office on the second Tuesday of June, to arrange for the place where Institutes are to be held this season.

Andrews Goes Free.

"Not guilty," was the verdict rendered Wednesday night at Erie of the jury which tried John M. Andrews, of Warren who was once convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Emil Amann, at Warren, on the night of January 7, 1911.

The court room was filled to overflowing at 8:55 p. m. when the jury was brought in and a cheer arose as Clerk of courts Gillette read the verdict. The cheer was taken up on the street, which was crowded at the time.

Andrews walked to the jury box and shaking hands with each juror fervently thanked them. Later in the evening Andrews and wife were entertained at the Elks club. The acquitted man says he expects to locate either in Erie or Pittsburg.

Hulings Petition Dismissed In Elk.

In a lengthy opinion handed down at Ridgway Wednesday, Judge Harry Alvin Hall, dismissed the petition of Gen. Hulings for a recount of the votes cast at the recent Republican Congressional nomination in Elk county. The Court stated that after careful consideration of the petition for the opening of the ballot boxes he has decided that the petition does not set forth any specific act of fraud committed in any election precinct of the county as required in said act.

Perkey.

The old stork visited the family of John Phillips on Hell Hill and left there a fine boy baby on Saturday, and all are doing well.

The older Geo. Blum children were up from Kingsley Saturday to visit the children of this place.

Marion and Lyle Rupert attended "The Freshman," played by the Kellestville High school at Mayburg Saturday evening, and report it a fine entertainment.

The E. L. Littlefield family of this place and the Frank Rayburn family of Mayburg, spent Sunday with the James Mansfield family at Endeavor, returning on Monday.

Mrs. O. E. Rupert and children were out to the Memorial services at Sheffield, and Mrs. R. returned Saturday, but the two oldest girls remained to make their relatives a visit before coming home.

R. W. Burdick, who was spending a few days with his daughter here, Mrs. Thomas Miller, was called to Hickory by the severe illness of his aged father, Nathan Burdick. His condition at six o'clock Sunday was very serious.

Since our last writing there was a social dance given at Fools Creek and as is the custom, after drinking a lot of artificial "courage," in liquid form, one fellow wanted to eat someone alive, but as all are still living we judge no one was even hurt.

Mrs. Grace Miller was a visitor at Kellestville Saturday last, traveling by rail. O. E. Rupert attended a school meeting at Frost on Friday last, where the Howe and Jenks township boards met in joint session to consolidate two schools.

Next Saturday the Howe school dads will meet at Blue Jay to sort over their peaches for the coming term.

Mrs. Harkins of Buck Mills spent Saturday and Sunday with the John Brady family at Balltown.

There has been a lot of nice trout taken in the streams around here this season but they are getting scarce, according to last reports. The last caught were at the mouth of the streams in the big creek. They are rain-bow trout and very large, the last one we heard of being sixteen and a half inches long. There is a photo of this one to prove our statement.

Mrs. Ethel Hall and Mary Brown of Endeavor are visiting at the home of John McDonald, expecting to stay a week.

A. H. Heath returned with his bride to Olean the fore part of last week, where they expect to take up housekeeping in the near future.

Mrs. Mary Hunter and her friend of Tionesta spent Sunday with the former's parents at Beaver Valley.

Kellestville.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Porter, Monday.

Mrs. John Blum and children and mother, Mrs. H. H. Dorrer, spent Memorial Day at Galtionville, the latter remaining for a short visit with her son there.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of the President Wednesday afternoon and discussed the subject of medical temperance. They will meet June 12th at Mrs. H. B. Dorrer's for a business meeting, and on the 29th, at the home of Mrs. George Klinefelter, they will hold a regular meeting.

We neglected to mention last week the arrival of a fine young daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson.

Jonathan Albaugh and Charles Smith of East Hickory were calling on friends in town Wednesday.

Mrs. R. Butler visited her parents at Tylersburg the last of the week.

A number of the people of town visited the different cemeteries where they have friends buried, Wednesday, for the purpose of fixing up their graves.

Quite a few of both grown people and children have been afflicted with bowel trouble during the week, both Gordon and Alton Klinefelter being quite sick most of the week.

Mrs. C. Y. Dejar and daughter Margaret spent several days in Fryburg during the week.

Seven of our young boys have formed a company and pitched a tent in the school yard, where they give a typical "Wild West" show each evening. They charge one cent admission, and two and three cents for reserved seats. They have taken in between three and four dollars during the week and furnished innocent amusement for the children each evening. They expect to earn enough to procure a camping outfit for the troupe.

Miss Helen Paul of Franklin was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Cullin and Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Davis on Friday.

Mrs. George Parker spent the week in Brookville visiting her parents and attending commencement there, her sister being one of the graduates.

Frank Nash went to Frost Saturday and spent Sunday with his mother on the farm.

Mrs. W. S. Hendricks went to Warren Saturday to see the airship, and remained over for the circus Monday, Mr. Hendricks going over for her.

Dr. C. Y. Dejar and son Reed, W. L. Watson, Dr. H. L. Davis and Charles Russell composed an auto party who drove to Warren Saturday in the former's car and took in "Booster Day."

Ralph Whitehill and Dr. W. W. Serrill went to Warren Sunday and remained over for the circus. A number of other people went out on the excursion Monday, also to take in the circus.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pope and son of Frewsburg, N. Y., were guests of the former's brother, Charles Pope, over Sunday.

J. R. Black of Shippensville is visiting his daughter.

The senior class went to Mayburg Saturday evening and presented their play, "The Freshman."

About four million feet of lumber was shipped from the local mills during the last month.

Cherry Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pope and son of Floyd of Frewsburg, N. Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pope a few days last week.

Thomas Gifford of Mayburg was visiting relatives in town Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Deshner of Meadville have been visiting relatives here the past week.

Miss Helen Deshner of Mayburg returned home Saturday after a short visit with her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Christenson and Miss Minnie were Warren visitors Memorial Day.

Miss Nellie Marlock of Warren spent Sunday with her mother.

Miss Gertrude Hanson went to Warren Thursday.

Miss Tillie Cousins is visiting in Clarendon for a few days.

Grant Sutton went to Warren Saturday to see the aeroplane flight.

G. W. Gifford went to Sheffield Wednesday.

R. D. and Harlow Mead of Sheffield were calling on town Saturday.

WOMAN IS DEPUTY SHERIFF

Mrs. Doran the Second One to Be Appointed in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Sadie Doran, wife of Jack Doran, who has been a policeman and constable for almost his entire life, was sworn in by Sheriff Mart A. Kiefer as deputy sheriff of Fayette county, Pa.

Mrs. Doran is forty-five years old and weighs 190 pounds. She is the second woman deputy sheriff in the state.
