TAFT AND SHERMAN.

After a week's stormy session of the National Republican convention at Chicago, the result is the nomination of William Howard Taft for President, and James Schoolcraft Sherman for Vice President. This result was foreshadowed when Colonel Roosevelt decided that his name should not go before the convention. A number of his delegates, however, one hundred and seven, voted for him when their names were called, the balance of the delegation remaining mute and refusing to vote, the final roll call resulting as follows: Taft 561, Roosevelt 107, Cummins 17, La Follette 41, Hughes 2, not voting 344, absent 2.

There is no denying that a large element of the Republican party is dissatisfied with this result. Disappointment there is bound to be, and there would have been in any action the convention might have taken. Whether this disappointment should go to the extent of inducing any loyal Republican to leave his party is very questionable to say the least. It is significant, in this connection, to note that many of the eminent men that were ardent supporters of Colonel Roosevelt in this convention have refused to follow him in his efforts to form a new party, and whether such purpose shall succeed to the extent of defeating the Republican nominee is very doubtful indeed. We think the "sober second thought" will prevail in the end.

Hadley Will Stay With Republicans.
Gov. Hadley of Missouri, one of the most persistent of the Roosevelt delegates at Chicago, on his return home from the convention declared his intention not to join Roosevelt's third party movement. "I believe I can render more service to the people as a member of the Republican party than joining in the formation of a third party," he said. "While I have in no way changed my mind as to the correctness of that for which I have contended, I undertake to say that no political party ever did or ever will exist in which at times men will not use authority unfairly to accomplish improper and selfish ends.

"In my opinion, the best way successfully to fight such men and methods also the best way in which to fight for correct principles of government is within the party, rather than by leaving it.
"There were some planks which were omitted from the platform which I should like to have seen adopted, but there will be found, I believe, in the platform nothing that is objectionable to any Republican, and on the whole it is the most progressive platform we have ever presented to the American people."

The sudden death of former Lieut. Governor Robert S. Murphy occurred at his home in Mondavick, a suburb of Philadelphia, Monday night, of apoplexy.

The Baltimore convention will not be able to point with pride to the reckless manner in which the present House mixes outside legislation with appropriation bills.

In the Democratic convention at Baltimore Bryan lost the first skirmish Tuesday, when Judge Parker defeated him for temporary chairman by a vote of 579 to 510, after a bitter fight.

In so far as they are able the Democrats are having as big a row in Baltimore this week as the Republicans had in Chicago last week with Bryan as the leader of the opposition to Judge Parker, who has, notwithstanding, landed as chairman of the convention. Keep your eye on Billy. He'll have his way or there'll be the nether regions to pave with no pitch hot.

To meet the Fourth of July demands, large supplies of tetanus antitoxin have been ordered for the sixty-seven distributing stations throughout the commonwealth, by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Commissioner of Health. Despite the nation wide movement for "A Safe and Sane Fourth", which has been steadily growing during the last few years, the total number of accidents resulting in the dreaded tetanus or lock-jaw, is greater on that day than any other in the three hundred and sixty-five. The serum which the Department of Health distributes to the poor is used to immunize the victims of fire-cracker, gun shot and other wounds. When it is used immediately following the accident or within twenty-four or even thirty-six hours thereafter, the danger of infection is reduced to a minimum.

Chicago, June 23.—The platform on which Taft and Sherman were nominated is in part as follows:

The Republican party, assembled by its representatives in the national convention, declares its unchanging faith in government of the people, by the people, for the people. We renew our allegiance to the principles of the Republican party and our devotion to the cause of Republican institutions established by the fathers.

The Republican party looks back upon its record with pride and satisfaction and forward with confidence to the responsibilities with hope and confidence.

The Republican party reaffirms its intention to uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts, both state and federal, and it will ever insist that their power to enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property shall be preserved inviolate.

Upholds Authority of Courts.
That the courts, both federal and state, may bear the heavy burden laid upon them to the complete satisfaction of public opinion we favor legislation to prevent long delays and the tedious and costly nature of the suits, both state and federal, and to have so often amounted to a denial of justice in civil cases and to a failure to protect the public at large in criminal cases.

Since the responsibility of the judiciary is so great the standards of judicial action must be always and everywhere above suspicion and reproach. While we regard the recall of judges as unnecessary and unwise, we favor such action as may be necessary to simplify this process by which any judge who may be incompetent or derelict in his duty may be removed from office.

Together with peaceful and orderly development at home the Republican party earnestly favors all measures for the establishment and protection of the peace of the world and the development of closer relations between the various nations of the earth.

The Republican party is opposed to special privilege and to monopoly. It placed upon the statute book the interstate commerce act, the antitrust act and the anti-trust act of 1890, and it has consistently and successfully enforced the provisions of these laws. It will take no backward step to permit the re-establishment in any degree of conditions which were intolerable.

For Stronger Anti-trust Law.
The party favors the enactment of legislation supplementary to the existing anti-trust laws which define and prohibit the various specific acts that uniformly mark attempts to restrain and monopolize to the end that all who obey the law may have a guide for their action and that those who aim to violate the law may be more surely punished. The same certainty should be given to the law prohibiting combinations and monopolies that characterizes other provisions of commercial law, in order that no part of the field of business may be restricted by monopoly or combination; that business success honestly achieved may not be converted into crime and that the right of every man to acquire commodities and particularly the necessities of life in an open market unimpeded by the manipulation of trust or combination may be preserved.

In the enforcement and administration of federal laws governing interstate commerce and enterprises impressed with a public use engaged therein there is much that may be committed to a federal trade commission, thus placing in the hands of an administrative body many of the functions now by necessity exercised by the courts. This will promote promptness in the administration of the law and avoid delays and technicalities incident to court procedure.

The Tariff Problem.
We reaffirm our belief in a protective tariff. The Republican tariff policy has been of the greatest benefit to the country, developing our resources, diversifying our industries and protecting our workmen against competition with cheap labor abroad, thus establishing for our people a standard of American industry. To accomplish this correct information is indispensable. This information can best be obtained by an expert commission, as the large volume of useful facts contained in the recent reports of the tariff board has demonstrated.

We condemn the Democratic tariff bills passed by the house of representatives of the sixty-second congress as sectional, as injurious to the public credit and as destructive to business enterprise. The steady increase in the cost of living has become a national calamity and a worldwide concern. The fact that it is not due to the protective tariff system is evidenced by the existence of similar conditions in countries which have a tariff policy different from our own, as well as by the fact that the cost of living has increased while rates of duty have remained stationary or been reduced.

For Safe Banking Methods.
The Republican party has always stood for a sound currency and for safe banking methods. It is responsible for the resumption of specie payments and for the establishment of the gold standard. It is committed to the progressive development of our banking and currency system. Our banking arrangements today need further revision to meet the requirements of current conditions. We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of this country by producing constant employment.

It is of great importance to the social and economic welfare of this country that farmers have facilities for borrowing easily and using the money. It is important that financial machinery be provided to supply the demand of farmers for credit. Therefore we recommend and urge an authoritative investigation of agricultural credit societies and corporations in other countries and the passage of state and federal laws for the establishment and capable supervision of organizations having for their purpose the loaning of funds to farmers.

The party stands committed to the maintenance, extension and enforcement of the civil service law, and it favors the passage of legislation empowering the president to extend the competitive service as far as practicable. We favor legislation to make possible the equitable retirement of disabled and superannuated members of the civil service in order that a higher standard of efficiency may be maintained.

We favor the amendment of the federal employees' liability law so as to extend its provisions to all government employees as well as to provide a more liberal scale of compensation for injury and death.

For Clean Campaigns.
We favor such additional legislation as may be needed more effectively to prohibit corporations from contributing funds, directly or indirectly, to campaigns for the nomination or election of the president, the vice president, senators and representatives in congress.

In interest of the general public, and particularly of the agricultural or rural communities, we favor legislation looking to the establishment, under proper regulations, of a parcel post, the postal rates to be graduated under a zone system in proportion to the length of carriage.

ed from thirty-one states and the Dominion of Canada, constitute an overpowering force which breaks the levees and pours its torrents over many millions of acres of the richest land in the Union, stopping mails, impeding commerce and causing great loss of life and property. These floods are national in scope, and the disasters they produce seriously affect the general welfare. The states unaffiliated cannot cope with this great problem; hence we believe the federal government should assume a fair proportion of the burden of its control so as to prevent disasters from recurring.

Republican Accomplishment.
The approaching completion of the Panama canal, the establishment of a bureau of mines, the institution of postal savings banks, the increased provision made in 1912 for the aged and indigent soldiers and sailors of the republic and for their widows and the vigorous administration of the laws relating to pure food and drugs, all mark the successful progress of Republican administration and are additional evidence of its effectiveness.

We challenge successful criticism of the sixteen years of Republican administration under Presidents McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft. We heartily reaffirm the endorsement of President McKinley contained in the platform of 1900 and of 1901 and that of President Roosevelt contained in the platform of 1904 and 1908.

Kellettville.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham and children, Mabel, Mildred and Halsey, spent Sunday with Mrs. Graham's parents at Helen Furnace.

Mrs. E. Kilne and two children of Blaisdell, N. Y., are guests of the former's father, Jacob Wolfe, and other relatives and friends for a short time.

Geo. Wolfe drove over from Sistersville, W. Va., in his auto Sunday and took his father home with him for a short visit.

Mrs. M. F. Catlin, Mrs. F. J. Henderson, Dr. H. L. Davis and C. P. Cloak took in the Sunday school convention at Tionesta last week. Dr. Davis read a very good report of the convention at the local Sunday school Sunday morning.

Henry Parker was over from Golina Thursday and called on his son George. After a rousing serenade by the Kellettville Cornet Band, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Foreman, who were married at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning, June 19th, in the presence of immediate relatives only, were assisted into a rickshaw and taken, amidst the shouts and laughter of their neighbors and friends who showered them liberally with rice and confetti, to the station, where they boarded the train for Perry, N. Y., where they will make their home for the present.

Mrs. M. Andrews of Cleveland is a business visitor in town this week.

The Young Women's Christian Temperance Union met in Johnson's hall, Tuesday evening, and selected a cast of characters for a play to be given in the near future. After the business of the evening a dainty lunch was served. They have a good play and a fine cast of characters and give promise of furnishing a pleasant evening for all those who avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing them.

Milo and Francis Ault are spending a few weeks with relatives at Hickory.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Murphy spent several days during the week with friends at Sheffield.

The young people of the high school who are connected with the play, "The Freshman," drove to Hickory Saturday evening and presented their play.

John Blum and M. F. Catlin are ditching to a spring on Mrs. Tobey's farm, where they expect to get water to supply their houses.

Porkey.
Quite a number of our drummer friends are now traveling with their motor cars and they find we have fine roads in this part.

Cecil and Elmer Blum were up from Kingsley last Wednesday calling on friends and had a fine time. They think Porkey beats Kingsley.

Sherman Hissell of Hastings was down on a fishing trip last week and dined with the Kupert boys while here.

Last week while fishing at the mouth of Fools Creek a small boy named Eddie Smith caught several nice trout from six to ten inches long and he felt very well pleased with the time spent, and we think he did well for a little chap.

The Potato Company did the machine work on their field here last Tuesday and Wednesday and the outlook is very good for a big crop. James Walsh's white steamer furnished the motive power for the work.

There is a Weary Willie begging bread in our town last week but seemed to be in too big a hurry to stay at the houses to get the grub asked for, and when the people brought the stuff he was on his way. Seemed to be afraid of pursuers and will stand no show of getting anything next trip.

We saw a lot of rice on the S. & T. train last Tuesday and learned that Mr. Foreman had been united in matrimony to Miss Zora Hartman of Kellettville.

Gertrude Miller returned from a visit with her grandma at Henry's Mill. She was away about a week and did not get home sick.

F. D. Williams, wife and daughter, and R. Huyek and wife drove through our town in Mr. Williams' car and stopped to look at the National Transit Co. plant here. Both gentlemen are officers in this company's employ.

Maurice Burdick of Henry's Mill was the guest of his sister over Sunday, Mrs. Thomas Miller.

The two young missionaries from Kellettville were at Minister Saturday night as usual. Come again and again, gentlemen. We are pleased to see you.

—There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly tending to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Sunday School Convention.

The seventeenth annual convention of the Forest County Sabbath Association met in Tionesta, June 18th and 19th. The sessions of Tuesday were held in the M. E. church, of Wednesday in the Presbyterian church. The program as published was carried out and was very enjoyable as well as instructive to the delegates and others in attendance. The outside talent consisted of the state workers, B. S. Forsythe and Mrs. Maude J. Baldwin, who gave very interesting talks each session.

Miss Minnie Holden, who gave a beautiful demonstration of "How to Teach Beginners," Mr. L. O. Brown, of Franklin, who entertained us with a talk on "Visions," and Mr. Frank Kehill, of Warren, who gave a number of talks that were a source of inspiration. The evening sessions were enlivened by music by the choirs of the churches, the musical features of Wednesday evening being a beautiful solo by Miss Lenore Ritehey and a quartet by the Messrs. J. N. Bankhead, F. W. Gill, H. A. Bailey and F. J. Bovard. At the close of Wednesday it was decided to pay $50 to the State Sabbath School Association, the same as last year. The time and place of next meeting be left to the Executive Committee.

The beautiful banner awarded to Forest county for having reached the "Front Line" in Sunday School work was on exhibition in the convention and attracted much attention.

RESOLUTIONS.
Your committee on resolutions most respectfully submits the following:
Resolved, That the seventeenth annual convention of the Forest County Sabbath School Association has been a success, and that we congratulate all concerned in making it so.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the churches and pastors of Tionesta for their aid and to those presiding over the sessions, President T. F. Ritehey, Hon. F. X. Kreidler, Rev. H. A. Bailey and Rev. W. S. Burton, for the able manner in which they conducted the deliberations and the devotional services, and also to all who took part in the exercises of the convention.

Resolved, That our heartfelt thanks be extended to our State workers, Mr. Forsythe and Mrs. Baldwin, for their earnest and excellent instruction in this convention, to Mr. Brown, Mr. Kehill, and the Rev. Mr. Fenton for their most helpful talks, and to Mrs. Holden for her interesting demonstration of primary work.

Resolved, That we thank the citizens of Tionesta for their hospitality and for the entertainment of the delegates to the convention.

Your committee congratulates the Sunday school workers who attended, upon their interest in the great work as shown by their attendance and active participation in the discussions which have been so beneficial and useful.

Eat Properly And Avoid Indigestion.
Karl de Schweinitz, executive Secretary, Pennsylvania society for the prevention of tuberculosis, says: Make it a point to eat properly. Most cases of indigestion are directly due to carelessness in this respect. Food should be taken regularly. The nearer your meals are scheduled by the clock the better. Late suppers should be avoided. Heavy food should not be taken late at night. Your digestion is least active during the later hours of the day and in the night.

Eat slowly and don't over eat. Chew each mouthful at least a dozen times. A half a meal eaten slowly is better than a whole meal taken in haste. No matter how good the food, even if it be bread and butter, too much of it will cause indigestion.

Most people do not drink enough water. An adult should take at least two and one half pints in twenty-four hours. Where possible drink water between meals. This is better than to drink great quantities of water during meals.

Wholesome food eaten leisurely and in moderation will maintain your health better than any kind of medicine, especially if your body is well irrigated by pure, fresh water.

—When your child has whooping cough be careful to keep the cough loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as it is required. This remedy will also liquefy the tough mucus and make it easier to expectorate. It has been used successfully in many instances and is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.
