Centre Street at Elm, Oil City, Pa.

Make Your Summer Shopping Pleasant and Profitable.

Do Your Purchasing Here.

It's almost as simple as stepping across the street. You can get the train at a convenient hour of the morning, and be taken almost to our doors before noon. That gives you three hours in which to shop before the train leaves at a quarter of three; or, if you prefer to spend a little more time in town, the 5:15 will take you home in time for the evening meal. Could a railroad schedule be more convenient?

We'll take care of the expense of the trip. On purchases of $10 we'll pay your fare one way. Purchases of $20 or over mean that we pay for your round trip ticket.

Can't we become better acquainted, Mrs. Housewife?

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IS STARTED

Bryan and Anti-Bryan Factions Go at Each Other

FIGHT TO FINISH OVER PARKER

National Committee Overrides Nebraskan's Wishes

BALTIMORE SEETHING TODAY

Straight Issue Between Conservatives and Progressives

Baltimore, June 25.—The Democratic national convention was called to order shortly after the noon hour today. The galleries of the great Fifth Regiment armory were packed almost to the straining point and people were still pouring in when Chairman Mack of the Democratic national committee dropped his gavel. All the delegates were not yet in their seats on the floor.

When quiet had been sufficiently restored Secretary Urey Woodson read the convention call. Cardinal Gibbons of the Roman Catholic church then offered prayer. It was then Chairman Mack's duty to announce the national committee's selection for temporary chairman of the convention. The chairman said Judge Alton B. Parker, presidential candidate in 1904, was the committee's choice and the first fight of the convention was precipitated.

Judge Parker's selection was ratified at a session of the national committee by a vote of 31 to 22. Ollie James of Kentucky got 20 votes and Judge O'Gorman of New York 2.

Later this afternoon a committee on credentials, consisting of one member from each state, will be appointed. Its work will be almost perfunctory as there are only a few contested seats. A committee on resolutions, which will draft the platform, with a similar representation, will be named. Bryan will be named as the Nebraska representative on the resolutions committee and as such will lead the fight for a progressive declaration of principles for the party.

The Democratic campaign is seething with excitement this morning over the contest that the Commoner has precipitated upon what promised to be a notably harmonious meeting. Lines are forming sharply between the radicals and conservatives in the party and there is certain to be bitter fighting which will knock into a cocked hat all the plans that had been carefully laid for pointing to the country the spectacle of a sane and united Democracy.

The anti-Bryan forces led by Charles F. Murphy have made a careful canvass of the delegates and declared that they would elect Judge Parker by at least a majority of 150. It was said this morning that Bryan might run against Parker. There was, however, one serious objection to this. Colonel Bryan will not be able to make a speech in behalf of himself and in this opening struggle in which a nomination of himself may be involved he desires to exert to the fullest extent his well known oratorical power.

Bryan men, however, were absolutely confident of being able to defeat Parker on the floor of the convention. They were not as exacting in their figures as the opposition but they said they would control the convention by a safe majority.

The hopes of the conservatives to control the convention against Bryan lie chiefly now in the attitude of Speaker Champ Clark. Mr. Clark undoubtedly has it in his power to save the day for Bryan. He may also—but of this there is a good deal of doubt—have the power to throw enough votes to Parker to see him through safely. However the situation is viewed, though, Speaker Clark finds himself between two fires. If he throws his support to Bryan, he will, in the opinion of leaders, be committing political suicide.

On the other hand, if Mr. Clark lines up firmly for Parker he will be face to face with a threatened revolt in his own ranks, as many of Bryan's friends are among the Clark delegates.

While the Clark boom has been hard hit by recent developments a good many people were wondering what Woodrow Wilson expected to get through the stand that he has taken at Bryan's side. The Wilson people, however, are banking on the hope that while the convention will be controlled by radicals it will demand some progressive other than Mr. Bryan.

There will be a bitter fight in favor of the delegates instructed in the primaries and against the unit rule. Said a New York delegate:

"The tactics of the Harmon managers in regard to the delegates from Ohio will not be tolerated. The voters rejected nine of Harmon's delegates at the polls and he must abide by the result. We have in our organization some delegates instructed for Clark and some for Wilson and they will vote for our candidates as soon as Clark and Wilson are withdrawn."

Uses Belt to Strangle Himself.
Hilton W. Rinehart, aged thirty-three, ended his life in Pittsburg by hanging himself in his room. Rinehart used his belt with which to strangle himself. The man took his life after returning from a visit on his fiancée.

Ends Life Over Wife's Grave.
Knelling over the grave of his wife, who died two years ago, Fred Holzappel, aged fifty-eight, a farmer of Washington county, ended his life by shooting himself over the grave in the James Chapel cemetery.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

From All Sections of the Country Come Fine Reports.

Dun's Review of Trade says this week:

"Rarely are the reports from leading trade centers in different sections of the country so uniformly satisfactory. In most cases an actual widening demand is noted and in others there are clear signs of preparation for an active fall trade. The weather is ideally favorable both for wholesale and retail distribution of merchandise and for the growing crops."

"The gradual movement toward a higher price basis in iron and steel denotes unusual activity. In eastern territory the situation reflects increased strength, with pipemakers continuing steady buyers. The demand for basic materials is taxing capacity, and orders for structural steel thus far received in June show a substantial total."

VOTE FOR IMPEACHMENT

House Committee Finds Against Commerce Judge Archbald.

The house judiciary committee voted unanimously to recommend an impeachment proceeding against Judge Archbald of the United States commerce court.

The report of the committee will not be reported to the house until after July 1. As the vote in the committee is unanimous it is expected that the house will concur in the report of the committee and draw up specifications against Judge Archbald.

The senate will act as a court to hear the impeachment case and the concurrence of two-thirds of the members will be necessary. W. P. Boland of Scranton, Pa., a coal operator, charged improper business transactions against the judge.

HARVARD HOGS IT ALL

Yale Beaten Three Times in Annual Regatta on Thames.

Harvard, with the American stroke, scored a triple rowing victory over Yale, employing British methods, on the Thames River at New London. Having won the freshman eight-oared event and the varsity fours, the Crimson came back with a varsity eight-oared crew that rowed away from Bob Cook's pupils from the start and came down to the judges' booth nearly five lengths to spare.

Harvard covered the four miles in 21 minutes, 43 1/2 seconds, while Yale was timed in 22 minutes, 4 seconds. It was the opinion of rowing sharpsharps that Yale will go back to the Cook stroke.
