New Party Nominates Leaders by Acclamation

"PROGRESSIVE" OFFICIAL TITLE

Payne-Aldrich Tariff Bill Condemned in Platform, Also Canadian Reciprocity and Aldrich Currency Plan.

The Progressive party the official name of the new party adopted by the convention in Chicago, completed its ticket and nominated:

For president, Theodore Roosevelt of New York.
For vice president, Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California.

Both nominations were made by acclamation amid stormy scenes of enthusiasm. The convention had been in session ten hours. The delay in making the nominations was caused by exhaustive discussions over the platform in the committee on resolutions.

From the very first moment to the last this convention has had the appearance of a great religious revival. Senator Dixon and others remarked at the close of the convention:

"This is not politics; this is religion."

A platform which differs drastically from those adopted at the Republican and Democratic conventions was endorsed by the new Progressive party delegates. It follows in part.

The party declares for direct primaries for candidates for the presidency, for the direct election of United States senators by the people, and we urge on the states the policy of the short ballot with responsibility to the people secured by the initiative, referendum and recall.

The party pledges itself to provide a more easy and expeditious method of amending the fundamental constitution.

Equal suffrage to men and women is pledged.

The Progressive party, in order to secure to the people a better administration of justice, pledges itself to work unceasingly for the reform of legal procedure and judicial methods.

Injunctions in cases arising out of labor disputes should be prohibited when no labor disputes existed. Jury trial is favored when contempt was not committed in actual presence of court.

We pledge ourselves to work unceasingly in state and nation for:

Legislation looking to the prevention of industrial accidents, occupational diseases, overwork, involuntary unemployment and other injurious effects incident to modern industry.

The fixing of minimum safety and health standards for the various occupations, and the exercise of the public authority of state and nation, including the federal control over interstate commerce, and the taxing power to maintain such standards.

The prohibition of child labor.

Minimum wage standards for working women.

Prohibition of night work for women and the establishment of an eight-hour day for women and young persons.

One day's rest in seven for all wage workers.

The eight-hour day.

The abolition of the convict contract labor system.

Standards of compensation for death by industrial accident and injury and trade disease.

Protection of home life against sickness, irregular employment and old age through the adoption of social insurance.

Organization of the workers is favored.

To remedy the high cost of living conditions requires the fullest information and based on this information effective government supervision to remove all the artificial causes. We pledge ourselves to such inquiry and to immediate action dealing with every such need inquiry discloses.

We demand a strong national regulation of interstate corporations. To that end we urge the establishment of a strong federal administrative commission of high standing which shall maintain permanent active supervision over industrial corporations engaged in interstate commerce or such of them as are of public importance, doing for them what the government now does for the national banks and what is now done for the railroads by the interstate commerce commission.

We pledge our party to secure to the interstate commerce commission the power to value the physical property of railroads.

We demand the abolition of the commerce court.

We are opposed to the so-called Aldrich currency bill because its provisions would place our currency and credit system in private hands not subject to effective public control. The control should be lodged with the government.

We believe in a protective tariff which shall equalize the conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries both for the farmer and the manufacturer and which shall maintain for labor an adequate standard of living.

Primarily the benefit of any tariff should be disclosed in the pay envelope of the laborer. We declare that no industry deserves protection which is unfair to labor or which is operating in violation of federal law.

We demand tariff revision because the present tariff is unjust to the people. We pledge ourselves to the establishment of a nonpartisan scientific tariff commission.

We demand the immediate repeal of the Canadian reciprocity act.

We believe in a graduated inheritance tax as a national means of equalizing the obligations of holders of property to government.

We pledge the party to use its best endeavors to substitute judicial and other peaceful means of settling international differences.

We favor an international agreement for limitation of naval forces. Pending such an agreement the policy of building two battleships a year is favored.

We pledge ourselves to a wise and just policy of pensioning American soldiers and sailors.

We pledge our party to the immediate creation of a parcels post.

STRAIGHT TICKET IN PENNA.

Keystone Leaders Bow to Wishes of Colonel.

After conferring with William Flinn and other Pennsylvania leaders, Colonel Roosevelt announced that there would be a straight third party ticket in that state. He said:

"I have held a conference with the Pennsylvania people who have been extremely kind and have said that they would accept my wishes and we are to run a straight party ticket in Pennsylvania."

It was learned that Roosevelt has been told that since the national Progressives hold the balance of power in Pennsylvania they will name Senator Penrose, Senator Oliver and their friends to fill the vacancies on the electoral ticket made by the resignation of the Roosevelt men.

BROWN FOR OHIO GOVERNOR

Taft People Name Their Man—Bull Moose Ticket Now Certain.

Taft and Roosevelt men reached the parting of the ways in Ohio when, following the nomination of General R. B. Brown of Zanesville for governor at a meeting of the Republican state central committee, eight members of that body, led by State Chairman Walter E. Brown and Secretary I. M. Foster, resigned. Brown also gave notice of his resignation as a member of the Republican national committee for Ohio.

Following the split Walter Brown and other supporters of Colonel Roosevelt said that they expected that a complete Progressive state ticket would be placed in the field at once.

QUAKE KILLS 1,000

5,000 Injured and 15,000 Homeless in Turkey.

Unofficial reports estimate that the earthquake in Turkey killed 1,000 persons, injured 5,000 and made 15,000 homeless.

The official reports when the telephone lines have been restored are likely to reduce these figures considerably, but enough reliable information is at hand to justify the most serious view of the disaster.

Water springs have dried up on some of the islands and the survivors are suffering from thirst as well as hunger.

IRON AND STEEL EXPANDS

Dun's Review of Trade Notes Very Active Demand.

Dun's Review of Trade says this week:

"The expansion in iron and steel continues with activity especially marked in finished lines and with additional price advances. Increasing difficulty is experienced in obtaining deliveries and in some instances large premiums are being paid.

"Plate mills are crowded with orders, while prominent rail manufacturers are booked up to next February. Of the 300,000 tons of rails for which inquiries were in the market, contracts for 180,000 tons have already been closed, one railroad alone taking 80,000 tons.

His New Job.

A colored shoe shiner at a hotel barber shop here had been after Representative Steenerson of Minnesota, one of his customers, to get him some kind of a government job. He said he had a political job that paid him well. His impression was that his brother made something like $1,500 a year.

"What does your brother do?" asked Steenerson.

"Don't know just exactly what his duties are," replied the boy, "but he's been appointed what they call a ward beeler."

LECONTE DIES IN EXPLOSION

President of Haiti Perishes; Palace Destroyed

General Cincinnatus Leconte, president of the republic of Haiti, perished in a fire which destroyed the national palace at Port Au Prince. It was caused by an explosion of the powder magazine attached to the structure.

The palace, which was of wooden construction, was consumed within half an hour. During the fire there were many explosions of munitions of war which had been stored in the cellars below the palace. All the houses nearby were damaged.

The family of the president, all of whom were in the palace at the time were saved.

Consternation reigns among the population, but no disorders have occurred.

Warship Sent to Haiti.

Following a dispatch from Minister Furniss telling of the death of President Leconte of Haiti the state department asked that a warship be sent to Port Au Prince at once. The gunboat Nashville, at Guantanamo, Cuba, was ordered to that port.

Haiti and the Dominican republic have been near war for some time and it is feared serious consequences may ensue.

Whether there was a plot against Leconte's life or whether he was a victim to the extraordinary precaution he had adopted for his own protection has not been learned. He kept a large store of arms and ammunition near his palace, where they could be available immediately for his own use in case of an uprising.

White Specks in Butter.

White specks in butter are sometimes simply fine particles of milk curd, resulting from lack of care in skimming. Sometimes they are small specks of dried cream, having been scraped from the sides of the pan and being too dry to thoroughly soften and mix with the rest.
