

Calendar for August 1912 showing days of the week and dates.

Republican Ticket.

President—Hon. William H. Taft, of Ohio. Vice President—Hon. J. N. Sherman, of New York. State Treasurer—Hon. R. K. Young, of Tioga County. Auditor General—Hon. A. W. Powell, of Allegheny County.

SAYS Abe Martin, "This is going to be a great year for amateurs in politics. Cale Fluhart who was elected treasurer of the Wilson club yesterday, has allus been an editor and has never handled any money before."

It is given out that our aged pensioners are soon to get their vouchers. If Congress had been in Republican hands those worthy defenders of the Union would have had their pension vouchers on the first of July, when it was due, and not been compelled to wait two months for their just dues.

CONGRESSMAN BURLESON, of Texas, made a little speech in the House the other day, and under the unanimous consent privilege to continue his remarks in the Record, introduced seven complete speeches by Woodrow Wilson. That is one way of distributing campaign literature at the public expense.

Hon. C. W. Stone Passes Away.

Many friends in this community will be pained to learn of the death on the 15th inst., of ex-Lieutenant Governor Charles W. Stone, which occurred after a long illness at his summer home, on Stone Hill, overlooking the city of Warren, which had been his home for almost half a century.

January 30, 1868, Mr. Stone was united in marriage with Elizabeth Moorhead, a daughter of Thomas Moorhead, of Erie, and they are the parents of six children: Mrs. William H. Allen, Mrs. Joseph H. DeFrees, Ralph W. Stone, Mrs. Horace Cray, John L. and Clara R. Stone, all of Warren. Two brothers survive, who are Hon. B. B. Stone, of Bradford, and George Stone of Seattle, Wash.

It has been truly said of Mr. Stone that he was "a student rather than a politician, scholar rather than a tactician, a lawyer rather than a legislator. He loved his books and he loved his friends, and for one who was in the public eye for so many years was more retiring than aggressive. He leaves with those whose privilege it was to know him well, a memory of calm temper, pleasant greetings, kindly sympathy, and to those who only knew him through his works, the memory of a painstaking laborer in whatever his duty required him to do."

Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Keedy and children spent Saturday in Tionesta. Miss Hazel Clark of Tionesta is visiting relatives at this place. Roy Grubbs, I. D. Bean and Clyde Preston spent Sunday at Giltontville. Mrs. Dorcas Thompson went to Kane last Thursday to consult a physician in regard to her health, which has been impaired for some time. Merton Klinefister spent Sunday at Church Hill. Miss Carrie Zaek returned to her home at Wolf's Corners on Saturday, after a two weeks' stay at I. H. Allison's. Mrs. Amos Cooper of Butler county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Walter, at the present writing. Mrs. Fred Klinefister and son Gerould spent a few days of the past week at Chautauqua.

Will Meet Party Friends.

The name of the Washington party has been patented for the 28th Congressional district and also for each county in that district. This gives the patentees the control of the nominations for Congress and assemblymen, a responsibility that is quite unexpected to most of the patentees of these papers but nevertheless one that must be met. There is no intention, however, of exercising authority arbitrarily. To this end John L. Morrison, member of the state executive committee and the district organizer, will be glad to meet those friendly to the Roosevelt and Johnson ticket and learn the sentiment regarding what should be done in regard to the nomination of a congressman. First, whether or not any of the nominees now in the field should be endorsed or whether there should be a new candidate. He expects to visit Tionesta, Pierce's Hotel, Thursday afternoon, Aug. 22.

WILLIAMS GROVE PICNIC.

Reduced Rates via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the Grangers' picnic, Williams Grove, Pa., August 29 to 31, the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Williams Grove from stations in Pennsylvania and from Baltimore, Elmira, Frederick and intermediate stations on the Northern Central Railway, August 29 to 30, inclusive, good for return passage to reach original starting point not later than September 3, at reduced rates.

SLEUTH HELD FOR CRIME

Charged With the Murder on Which He Had Been Working. George Greene, who had been active in gathering evidence against another man for the murder at Manifold, Pa., ten days ago of pretty eighteen-year-old Cella Funka, was held for the crime by a corner's jury. The jury action created a sensation. Although Greene was being held as a witness, he was not suspected until he and his wife told widely divergent stories on the witness stand. Green, who is part Indian, was untruthful in his search after the murder. He neglected his work and became an amateur detective. He scrutinized the footprints, made diagrams of the death spot and aided county authorities in their work of unfolding the mystery. Green said he had serious circumstantial evidence against George Duncan.

DANCING TEACHERS BARRED

Allen Township Directors Object to Delights of Terpsichore. There is grief and wrath among the schoolmarm in Allen township, Washington county, Pa., over an edict by the school board that no feminine teachers who dance will be engaged. Each applicant for a position in the schools, it is reported, has been asked to sign an ironclad agreement to refrain from dancing during her service.

Tragedy Takes Family.

The authorities at Shippensburg, Pa., are at a loss to explain the deaths of Bert Dearolph, his wife and daughter, whose bodies were found in the Dearolph home, a half-mile from Wentling corners. Mrs. Dearolph had been choked and the top of her head blown off with a rifle. The daughter had been shot in the breast. Dearolph had one end of a rubber hose in his mouth, the other end being attached to a gas jet from which the gas still was escaping.

Charles W. Stone Dies.

Former Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania Charles W. Stone died at his summer home near Warren, Pa. For the last five months he was in poor health and recently his condition became serious. In addition to having been lieutenant governor of the state he had served four terms in congress, one term in the state house of representatives and one term in the state senate. He was secretary of state under Governor James A. Beaver.

Found Hanging By Belt.

Hanging by his belt from an electric light pole, where he had been working in Greensburg, Pa., John Patty, aged thirty, was found by his companions, with his face and chin burned and blackened and life extinct. Patty had evidently come in contact with a high power wire.

Few of Beber's Troubles.

That his wife killed him in the face, threw a butcher knife at him and cut him below the eye and threw a plate at him are a part of the allegations to support a charge of cruel treatment made by William George Beber of Pittsburg against his wife, in a suit for divorce.

Killed on Crossing.

Charles Stapp, a wealthy contractor and horseman, was killed within sight of his home at Wampum, Pa. He was driving his automobile across the Pennsylvania tracks when a flyer struck the machine. Stapp was a noted advocate and supporter of free thought.

Cud of Tobacco Strangles Him.

At Altoona, Pa., Samuel Smith, aged fifty years, a laborer, fell through the second floor of the majestic theater, which is being remodeled, and a large end of tobacco was jolted into his windpipe, strangling him to death.

Two Perish in Hotel Fire.

In a fire which destroyed the casino at Beach Lake, a summer resort near Honesdale, Pa., Elwood Ives, aged seventeen, son of the proprietor, and John Gow, aged eight, of New York, were burned to death.

Bodies of Mother and Son Found.

The bodies of Mrs. William Hueley and her six-year-old son were found in a barn on their farm in Collier township near Pittsburg. It is believed the woman first shot her son and then herself.

Coal Miner Crushed to Death.

August Gall, aged thirty-six, a miner in the Crescent mines at California, Pa., was killed in a mine by being pushed against the wall and crushed when the motor ran a number of coal cars against him.

Murders Two and Kills Himself.

F. E. Kenyon, who registered as being from Turtle Creek, Pa., shot and killed his wife, his eighteen-month-old daughter and himself in a room of the Hotel Lafayette, Pittsburg.

Buttons Not Union Make; Strike.

Because forty men employed in the Oak Hill colliery near Pottsville, Pa., did not wear union-made buttons on their overalls and jumpers 500 men and boys in the mine went on strike.

Boy Smothered to Death.

Earl Johnson, aged seventeen, employed by the Parkersburg (Pa.) Mill company, was smothered to death in the sawdust bin. He had fallen in as the result of slipping.

Tough Skull Has This Man.

Shot three times in the head by two highwaymen, John Yammick, a Pittsburg, is suffering from scalp wounds only. The bullets failed to penetrate the skull.
