—Following is the list of letters lying unclaimed for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending August 21, 1912: Mrs. A. D. Dewalt, Mrs. Lottie Dale, Mr. W. S. Watson, T. B. Howland.

J. W. JAMESON, P. M.

—One of the most common ailments that land working people are afflicted with is lame back. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day and massage the parts thoroughly at each application, and you will get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

—Dr. M. W. Easton, Osteopathic Physician, of Oil City, will visit Tionesta every Wednesday. See him at the Central House. Setting bones and the treatment of nervous and chronic diseases a specialty. Greatest success in all kinds of chronic diseases.

—Congressman Speer has been notified by the Pension Bureau that an increase of pension has been granted under the Act of May 11 to our townsman, Comrade W. W. Walford. Mr. Speer is looking faithfully after the interests of the veterans of the civil war.

—There is a mild epidemic of whooping cough prevalent in town, many children and some older grown having been attacked. Unless there is considerable abatement in the disease it is likely to interfere with the opening of the schools in the borough.

—Harvey Fritz, Oil City's well known jeweler and all round good fellow, was injured in an auto accident Tuesday of last week to the extent of having his left shoulder blade broken. He will be laid up for several weeks. None of the other occupants of the car were seriously injured.

—At a meeting of the directors of the Forest County National Bank of Tionesta, yesterday, James H. Kelly was elected cashier to succeed his father, the late A. B. Kelly. This choice is a good one and assures to the bank the same efficient management that has characterized its affairs in the years that have passed.

—FOR SALE.—The vacant lot, known as the Mary Whittekin lot, on the east side of Elm street, between the Hill and Grove properties, is for sale at a bargain. The lot is a large one, containing about two acres of ground, is most favorably located on a paved street, and is a very desirable lot for residential purposes. Inquire of C. M. Arner, Tionesta, Pa.

—For the third time in as many months the large touring car owned by A. W. Richards, superintendent of the Jefferson County Gas company, figured in an accident. The front wheel of the machine caught in the car tracks at the Crescent street switch and broke the front axle of the car. Fortunately Mr. Richards was driving slowly. Outside the broken axle the car was not damaged.—Warren Times.

—Misses Mary and Bessie Morgan, who went from here about two years ago to Alliance, Ohio, to engage in the millinery business, have disposed of their interests in that city, and are now similarly engaged in the flourishing town of Monaca, near Beaver, Pa., about thirty miles south of Pittsburgh. They have purchased a well established millinery store there, and friends will be interested to learn that they are doing well.

11th inst., and whose former home was at Parker, Pa. The young man was aged 20 years.

—Russell, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Hunter, of Tionesta, was operated on Thursday morning at the Oil City hospital for appendicitis. The little chap is one of the youngest to be operated on for that disease at the local institution. He had never been separated from his mother before and his grief for her yesterday was pitiful.—Derrick. The little fellow is coming on nicely.

—Friends of Clinton Fitzgerald, one of Marienville's prominent citizens, will regret to learn that he suffered a partial stroke of apoplexy Friday afternoon last. He was at the tennis court watching the play when seized and friends conveyed him to his home and he has since been confined to his bed. Although unable to talk he is conscious, and his recovery, though somewhat doubtful, is earnestly hoped for.

—A party of a dozen or fifteen men employed in the shops and mills of Oil City, were through here Sunday on an outing for the day, the Enterprise Milling company's auto truck being pressed into service for the occasion. Although not exceeding the speed limit they were making good time and seemed to be enjoying their novel style of locomotion. Adolph and Harrison Blum were among the joy riders.

—Col. Bowen of the Oil City Blizzard, accompanied by his wife and a friend, leisurely motored through here Saturday afternoon and graciously stopped long enough in front of the REPUBLICAN man's home to let him feast his eyes on the handsome new car, and with stinging envy we admired the pretty machine. There is only one other indignity that could have added to this piece of irony—that of the Colonel sitting at the wheel and himself guiding the car. Tell us not in mournful numbers, editors can't own automobiles.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Gaston are home from the farm this week and have as their guests, Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Hollister, daughter Marian, and maid Miss Nettie Gill, of East Palestine, Ohio, and Mr. Gaston's mother, Mrs. W. G. Gaston of Meadville. Glenner R. Law, of Sharpsville, Pa., nephew of Mrs. Gaston visited them at the farm last week, and is also their guest here this week. Sunday evening Rev. W. P. Hollister very acceptably filled Mr. Bailey's pulpit at the Presbyterian church. At the morning services Mrs. Hollister favored the congregation with a beautiful solo.

—Saturday was the 39th birthday of Archie W. and Asa W. Heath, twin brothers, when about fifty of their neighbors and friends called at the latter's pleasant home, on Hunter Run, to assist them in celebrating the event. It was a complete surprise to Asa, and the company found him plowing in the field when they arrived. Well filled baskets were brought by the guests, and the day being a pleasant one a royal picnic dinner was enjoyed. Among the pleasing things that will remind the twins of this joyous occasion was the presentation to each of a handsome bible. The guests dispersed to their several homes late in the afternoon wishing their hosts many happy returns of the day.

—Obsequies for the late Mr. Kelly.

—Funeral services in memory of Mr. A. B. Kelly were held at his late home Thursday evening at 4:00 o'clock, being attended by well nigh all the adult people of Tionesta, and by very many friends from surrounding towns and cities. All the business places of the town were closed while the obsequies were being held. The services, conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. A. Bailey, of the Tionesta Presbyterian church, were most impressive indeed, and many were the tears that were shed at the pier of this splendid fellow citizen. The Presbyterian choir, composed of Miss Lizzie Randall, pianist, Mrs. Alice Swanson, Miss Leora Ritchey, Miss Kate Arner, Prof. F. W. Gill, Dr. F. J. Bovard and Mr. Jay Bankhead, sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "Come Unto Me," and Prof. Gill rendered the solo, "I'm a Pilgrim." Rev. W. S. Burton of the M. E. church, and Rev. G. A. Garrett of the F. M. church, read the scripture lessons, which were favorite passages of Mr. Kelly in his life time, from a bible which was used by him in his pew at the church; Rev. B. F. Felt of the Evangelical church, offered a most profound and inspirational prayer; Rev. Mr. Bailey's remarks over the death of his friend were most appropriate and moved many to tears; he would sadly miss the man who had been an inspiration to him in every meeting he had held in the church since his ministry began in Tionesta; Rev. S. F. Marks of the Tidouste Presbyterian church spoke most feelingly upon the loss of a friend of almost a quarter of a century's standing.

—The remains of the deceased reposed in a magnificent mahogany casket, whitout ornamentation save the silver plate upon which was engraved the name of Archibald Bennett Kelly, but on top of this beautiful casket and banked up all about it was a wealth of lovely flowers, wreaths and set pieces such as has never before been seen at a funeral in Tionesta, these being tokens of love and esteem sent by friends from far and near. The active pall-bearers were Messrs. A. Wayne Cook of Coombsburg, Charles Clark, Wm. F. Killmer, Charles A. Randall, Wm. Smearbaugh and J. E. Wenk. The honorary bearers were Hon. N. P. Wheeler of Endeavor, Mr. George W. Robinson, Revs. G. A. Garrett, W. S. Burton, B. F. Felt and H. A. Bailey.

—Besides the children of the deceased, mentioned in his obituary last week, relatives and friends from a distance in attendance were: J. B. Legnard, Chicago; Mrs. Laura Montgomery, Philadelphia; Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Miss Lydia Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Charles A. Black, Titusville; Mrs. W. J. Bleskley and son Orrin Bleskley, D. F. Tobey, Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamb, Pleasantville; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Orton Siggins, Miss Frances B. Siggins, Miss Martha Morrow, West Hickory; James T. Brennan, Key, Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Cook, Hon. F. N. Kretler, Miss Dona J. New, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stowart, Titusville; Mrs. J. B. Siggins, Oil City; Miss Nancy C. Morrow, Mrs. L. L. Hunter, Mrs. W. R. Dawson, Miss S. J. Everson, Rev. S. F. Marks, Tidouste; Mrs. George W. Warden and son George H. Warden, Hon. N. P. Wheeler, Endeavor; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook, Coombsburg; Mrs. Dr. Price, Miss Rachel Frick, West Chester.

Recent Deaths.

—Samuel W. Farmer, of Tidouste, Pa., formerly a resident of this place, died at the Warren Emergency hospital, Tuesday, August 20, 1912, at eleven o'clock a. m. Mr. Farmer had been suffering from a complication of diseases for the past year, and though his illness caused much anxiety, yet his sudden death was a severe shock to his many friends in Tionesta.

—The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer, and was aged about 37 years. He was taken into the home of the late Charles A. Hill at the age of six years, where he was reared to manhood, and was always affectionately regarded as a son and brother.

—Eleven years ago he was happily united in marriage with Miss Lena L. Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graham, of Tionesta, who, with two sons, Arthur and Edward, mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. He is also survived by two brothers and two sisters, namely: Charles and Avery Farmer, Mrs. E. A. McPate and Miss Marjorie Farmer.

—Mr. Farmer spent most of his life in the vicinity of Tionesta, where he was highly respected. He was of a kindly, genial disposition, and will be mourned by a large circle of friends. About six years ago he moved with his family to Tidouste, where he became a prosperous and highly respected citizen.

—The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows fraternity and of the Maccabees, in which latter order he carried an insurance of $2,000.

—The body was brought to Tionesta Tuesday evening and according to present arrangements the funeral will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock, at the home of Gordon Haslet.

—The Coon-Turner Wedding.

—From the Tidouste News of the 15th inst. we take the following account of a notable wedding. The contracting parties being former residents of West Hickory, and the bride being especially well known and a favorite among Tionesta people, a number of whom attended the splendid function, they feel they have a special interest in the happy event:

—The wedding event of the season in Tidouste this year was the marriage Wednesday evening of Miss Nellie Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Turner and William Wallace Coon of Manila, Philippine Islands.

—The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Turner was tastefully and artistically decorated, the color scheme being pink and green, and before over 150 guests was recited the solemn vows that not only united two loving hearts, but underdrew the bride, like Ruth of old, strays far from the roof tree, as Prof. and Mrs. Coon leave for San Francisco Saturday evening, sailing from that port August 23 on the S. S. Manchuria for Manila where the Professor has an important position under the government, being in charge of the pedagogical department of the Philippine Normal School.

—At the hour set for the ceremony the ribbon bearers Miss Josephine Siggins of West Hickory, Miss Mary Alice Siggins of Oil City, Miss Edith Turner of Wilkinsburg, Miss June Dykes of Kane and Miss Margaret Conise of Cleveland opened an aisle through the throng of guests. Down this aisle to the bay window in the front parlor came Rev. S. F. Marks; then the groom accompanied by Dr. Morrow of West Hickory, his best man. Then came the bridesmaid, Miss Alice Siggins accompanied by Raymond Myers; then the maid of honor, Miss Winifred Noyes of Pleasantville and lastly the bride on the arm of her father. At the bay window Mr. Marks took the vows of "this woman and that man," and the old yet ever new ceremony was complete. Following all joined in hearty congratulations and the great event of the evening, at least to two lives, was complete.

—At the close of the ceremony and congratulations the bridal party partook of a two course luncheon from which the bride and groom went in an auto to Warren, while the guests were served in the dining room until a late hour.

—The bride's gown was a creation of white meter, trimmed with Irish lace. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses with lilies of the valley.

—The maid of honor was attired in a gown of pink crepe meter trimmed with shadow lace, while the bridesmaid wore a gown of pink marquisette over pink mesaline with shadow lace. Both carried bouquets of pink roses.

—To those of you who know the bride, who have seen her grow up among us, who know her sterling worth, her gentle womanliness, comes a pang that the parting of the ways has come. That to many of us who will bid her a God speed and a life of unalloyed happiness, as she sets out on her long journey it will be "good-bye and farewell." When again she returns to this country many familiar faces will be missed and many places vacant. And that is the undercurrent of sadness. But the joyous features overbalances all else. To her life is just opening, and in her fullness of love and confidence in him to whom she has pledged her troth, an Orient sun is dawning. May it never be dimmed is the fervent prayer of all.

—To her new home she carries a wealth of gifts showered on her by her hosts of friends, running from chests of silver to the ordinary events articles of daily household life. And in her far east home each gift will be a remembrance of those back in the States."

—In Memoriam.

—At a meeting of the directors of The Forest County National Bank of Tionesta, Pa., held August 20, 1912, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased God in His almighty power and wisdom to remove from us our Cashier, A. B. Kelly,

Resolved, That in his death the bank loses a most efficient, trustworthy, industrious and honest official; one who carefully guarded the interests of the bank and those of its patrons; and while we deeply regret and mourn the loss we submit to the Divine will, who doth all things well.

—Mr. W. S. Gutschalk, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all dealers.
