A FIELD OF AUTUMN FASHIONS.

Women desirous of knowing the garments and fabrics that are going to be worn this fall, find this store a source of ever increasing interest and delight. They know that this store is, above all, a store that prides itself on giving the first authoritative glimpse of every new idea which emanates from Paris and New York.

Today, and every day for a long time to come, new arrivals find the way to our shelves and counters, in the form of

Silks, Dress Goods, Trimmings, Neckwear, Millinery, Gowns, Tailored Suits, Coats,

Every one of which is representative of the latest mode, and the excellent value, price considered, which you have learned to expect when you deal with this store.

MANY WOMEN CHOOSE THE NEW SUIT EARLY.

And surely it's the sensible course to adopt, to have the suit to wear at the first opportunity, and get the good out of it.

All of which accounts for your finding this representative garment action October-like in its readiness with new things, and as interesting, from a fashion standpoint, and almost as busy as you would look for it to be a month later.

This store, as usual, takes pleasure in bringing to you the new things to enjoy the wear before the novelty wears off. Particularly is this true of the New Tailored Suits for Women, brimming with style, radiating new fashion thoughts, yet priced within the reach of very modest pocketbooks. There are fine values, indeed, for the woman who elects to purchase now,

At $15, $20, $25, $35.

OHIO MOCSERS NAME TICKET

Garford For Governor, Taber For Lieutenant Governor

STRAUS CHOSEN IN NEW YORK

Election of Governor in Vermont Thrown Into Legislature—Republican Will Be Elected Chief Executive.

After nominating a state ticket and adopting a platform the Ohio Progressive state convention adjourned. The ticket follows:

Governor, Arthur L. Garford, Elyria. Lieutenant governor, L. J. Taber, Belmont.

Secretary of state, John L. Sullivan, East Liverpool.

State treasurer, William Kirtley, Jr., Defiance.

Attorney general, Robert B. Nevin, Dayton.

State auditor, Charles L. Allen, Marion.

Congressman-at-large, Randolph W. Walton, Columbus.

Dairy and food commissioner, E. E. Baker, Athens.

Supreme judges, E. E. Erskine, Steubenville; R. M. Wanamaker, Akron.

Sullivan, who was the Republican nominee for secretary of state, immediately resigned from that ticket.

Political bosses and machines, crooked business and unenforced legislation are condemned in the platform.

Theodore Roosevelt and Governor Hiram Johnson were endorsed and the Republican and Democratic parties charged with "seeking to fasten the attention of the people upon the issue of a bygone age."

Porter was especially displeased weeks ago when Jacobs and his vice squad in daylight raided the tender-join and arrested about 100 men and women and hauled them through the streets in open patrol wagons to city hall, while women and girls on their way to work watched the spectacle. Most of those arrested were released for lack of evidence.

Resigns as Superintendent of Philadelphia Police

J. B. TAYLOR.

COPS' HEADS FALL

Shakeup in Philadelphia Following Sensational Raids.

Rumors of a big shakeup in the police department in Philadelphia as a sequel to the recent scandals surrounding wholesale raids in the tender-join began to take shape when Police Superintendent John B. Taylor and Detective Harry D. M. Jacobs, head of the "vice squad," handed their resignations to Public Safety Director George D. Porter.

Porter was especially displeased weeks ago when Jacobs and his vice squad in daylight raided the tender-join and arrested about 100 men and women and hauled them through the streets in open patrol wagons to city hall, while women and girls on their way to work watched the spectacle. MARTIAL LAW IN W. VA.

Soldiers Rule in Strike Zone in Mountain State.

Martial law was declared last Tuesday in Paint and Cabin creek districts, West Virginia. The territory embraces a mountainous stretch of about twenty miles from the Kanawha river to the Payette county line and about eight miles wide, covering the territory between the two streams and a mile on each side. This is the first time martial law has been declared in West Virginia.

"I have endeavored vainly to quiet the situation and I issued a proclamation calling on all persons to lay down arms in the hope that all engaged in this struggle would obey it in the spirit in which it was issued," said Governor Glasscock, "but this was not done and I determined to take this drastic step to promptly and effectively stamp out all lawlessness in this section. I hope the significance of martial law will be appreciated."

Nine companies of state militia are scattered along the two creeks, Paint and Cabin, covering every section of it. The territory has been divided into districts under the provost marshal, Major Davis.

40,000 DROWNED

Typhoon, Rainfall and Abnormal Tide Engulf Chinamen.

A disaster, causing, according to native estimates, between 30,000 and 40,000 deaths, occurred in Chekiang province, China, Aug. 29. It was a combination of a typhoon, an enormous rainfall and an abnormal tide which swelled the Wensho river, flooding a great area.

The flood occurred with amazing suddenness. The cities of Wensho, Chouchow and Tsungjen were largely ruined and Koneo was obliterated. Numbers of small towns and villages were demolished. Among the uncountable victims of the catastrophe a thousand were washed out into the sea.

Not Yet Qualified as Citizen.

A Boston man who declared that the American flag was green, white and blue and insisted that Theodore Roosevelt was a selectman of the town of Dedham failed to get his citizenship papers.

"She took offense when she was called on to act as a picket."—Judge.

BOAT UPSETS; TWO DROWN

Youth Rescues One Person, But Is Unable to Save Mother.

Two women were drowned in the Allegheny river near Freeport, Pa. Two other persons were rescued in a most thrilling manner from the swollen river by two youths in a frail canoe, but one of the rescuers was compelled to watch his own mother drown, though able to save the life of the mother of his companion.

The dead are: Mrs. Grace Grafton, aged sixty-five, of Freeport, and Mrs. Kate Horning, forty-eight, of Freeport. Mrs. Ryan and William Grafton of Freeport were dragged from the river unconscious.

An unidentified person is missing. The boat left Freeport with five persons in it on a pleasure trip, although the river was swollen to such an extent as to be very dangerous. Lewis Horning, son of one of the women drowned, saw the boat capsize.

Young Horning, with a son of Mrs. Ryan, who was drowned, started across the river in a canoe to the rescue. When they reached the place where the boat sank they saw several forms struggling in the muddy water.

It was impossible to pull them into the unstable canoe in the swift current. The two boys leaped overboard and each swam ashore with a victim. The persons rescued were unconscious when dragged ashore, but were restored to consciousness by physicians. The two youthful rescuers also needed medical attention.

SAY ENGINEER WAS ASLEEP

Going Too Fast into Harrisburg Station Causes Wreck.

Disregard of speed regulations in approaching the Harrisburg (Pa.) station cost Wilbert Stone, a Pennsylvania railroad engineer, his life and wrecked several cars. The train was made up of an engine and express cars, and according to stories told by trainmen Stone was asleep in his cab
