EIGHT BOYS ARE DROWNED

Three Others Are Missing; Lake Michigan Tragedy

SMALL BOAT HITS SAND BAR

Only Thirty Feet From Shore, Seaside Boys Were Unable to Swim Distance Because of Rough Water on Lake

Eight boy recruits at the United States naval training schools in North Chicago were drowned and three are missing as the result of their boat being tossed by a storm in Lake Michigan.

With a complement of twenty-nine persons, under command of Chief Gunner's Mate William Negus, the boat apparently hit a sand bar within thirty feet of the shore and, although all but one of the twenty-nine on board could swim, none got ashore without assistance and four of them were only revived by use of the pulmotor.

Eyewitnesses of the accident are unable to explain just what happened. When the boat, storm tossed in such a way that most of the boy sailors were made seasick, had made some distance out into the lake, Negus, who was in command, decided to return and when about thirty feet from the shore threw his anchor.

Then, finding there was but one boy on board who could not swim, he started ashore with this youth in the water, which William Stanley, a survivor, declares did not seem to be over his head. Both disappeared and neither body was recovered for several hours. Stanley said:

"We were not ordered out, but were given permission to take the sail. The water was exceedingly rough and most of the boys so new to water experience that they became helplessly seasick after we had gone perhaps half a mile from shore.

"William Negus was in command. He saw that with half the boys seasick and helpless it would be impossible to handle the boat as it should be handled, so we put in toward the shore.

"There was a lot of water in the boat and more of it coming in all the time. We were in danger of being swamped at any moment. Negus would not go to the shore without the lad who could not swim.

"All around the boat the water was alive with boys trying to get ashore. It was a horrible struggle. They could not seem to make any headway at all against the waves and wind."

30 HURT IN TRAIN WRECK

Disaster Near Erie, Pa., May Cost Several Lives.

Thirty persons were hurt when an eastbound Nickel Plate flyer was derailed at the Fagan road crossing near Erie, Pa. Several may die of their injuries.

The most seriously injured are: Mrs. Bertha Cole, Scranton; M. Cole, Scranton; Florence Cramer, Angola; Arthur T. Young, North East, Pa.; Clan Fung, Buffalo, a noted Chinese teacher, and Lauretta and Robert Walker of Brattleboro, Vt.

A broken rail was responsible for the accident. The engine passed over safely but the tender was derailed and tore up the planks that cover this crossing, making the passage of the mail car impossible. This was followed with a sudden jerk that sent passengers flying out of their seats.

VALENTINE RESIGNS

Indian Commissioner Wants to Work For Third Party.

That he may actively support Colonel Roosevelt Robert G. Valentine, Indian commissioner, has sent his resignation to President Taft.

While the commissioner bases his resignation on political grounds it is known that he has been in the bad graces of the administration for many months. The trouble was caused in large part by the action of the commissioner in issuing an order prohibiting the use of religious garb in the Indian schools and missions.

Wool Magnate Indicted in Dynamite Planting Case

WILLIAM M. WOOD.

THREATENS TO REVEAL ALL

Collins Will Not Be Made Scapegoat in Dynamite Planting Case.

An important development in the investigation of the dynamite planting in Lawrence, Mass., during the strike last winter was the report that Dennis J. Collins of Cambridge will tell all he knows about the planting for the purpose of discrediting the union men who went on strike.

Collins was indicted with William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen company, and Frederick Atteaux, head of the Atteaux Mill company, on charges of being implicated, and he now declares that an attempt has been made to fasten all the guilt on him.

Accordingly he offers to reveal all the details and will most probably be the star witness for the state.

BANKS NOTE IMPROVEMENT

This Week's Clearings Show Increase Over Last Two Years.

Dun's Review of Trade says this week:

"A notably uniform improvement over both preceding years is again the most distinctive feature of bank clearings, the total this week at all leading cities in the United States aggregating $2,075,519,698, an increase of 6.9 per cent as compared with the same week last year and of 23.7 per cent as compared with the corresponding week in 1910.

"New York city reports gains of 6.9 per cent and 27.3 per cent, respectively, over the two previous years and the comparison with 1911 is especially gratifying because of the quiet conditions in the stock market."

40,000 DROWNED

Typhoon, Rainfall and Abnormal Tide Engulf Chinamen.

A disaster, causing, according to native estimates, between 30,000 and 40,000 deaths, occurred in Chekiang province, China, Aug. 29. It was a combination of a typhoon, an enormous rainfall and an abnormal tide which swelled the Wensho river, flooding a great area.

The flood occurred with amazing suddenness. The cities of Wensho, Chongchow and Tsingting were largely ruined and Koneo was obliterated. Numbers of small towns and villages were demolished. Among the uncountable victims of the catastrophe a thousand were washed out into the sea.

LYNCH NEGRO IN JAIL

Mob of Georgians End Life of Suspected Assailant.

Bent on avenging the outrage and murder of May Crow, the eighteen-year-old daughter of a prominent planter, a mob of 2,000 persons stormed the jail at Cullman, Ga., and lynched Bob Edwards a negro youth suspected of complicity in the assault on the girl.

The negro was lynched in the jail. Troops withdrawn on Sunday will probably be sent back to prevent race rioting.

DEMS. TURN DOWN FUSION

Nothing to Be Gained by Them, Key-stoners Are Told.

In an effort to have some of their candidates placed on the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania members of the Keystone party conferred with Democratic leaders in Harrisburg. The conference was without result.

The Democrats insisted they would make no deal of any kind looking to fusion. The Keystoners were told that their party existed no longer, except on paper, and that the Democrats, even if they were so disposed, could not hope to gain anything by fusion.

The Keystoners resented this and endeavored by letters to show that their organization was active in many sections of the state.

Stripped to Save Him.
Bert Mack, arrested for drunkenness, made three attempts to end his life in the borough lockup at Monaca, Pa. He first tried to hang himself with his belt. It was taken away from him. Then he tied his coat around his neck and fastened it to the top bars in the cell. The chief of police cut him down and took the coat. Later Mack was found hanging from the top of the iron cage by a trouser leg. He was stripped and left to shiver in the lockup.

Discharged Employee Shoots Four.
Angered because he had lost his position as driver, Jack Keeler walked into the offices of the Clearfield Brewing company at Clearfield, Pa., and, it is alleged, shot Joseph W. Roessner, owner of the brewery; M. R. Ogden, head bookkeeper; John Kirchner, head brew master, and George Carson, an employee. Roessner died in Clearfield hospital. Small hope is entertained for the recovery of the other three.
