Have You Protection AGAINST LOSS BY FIRE?

You cannot afford to take your own risk against loss by fire. Remember that

14 OF THE BEST COMPANIES IN THE WORLD.

and will be glad to call on you when you want fire insurance that really protects. Drop us a card and we'll do the rest. We are agents in this county for the TITLE GUARANTY AND TRUST CO. and can furnish security for County officials, bank officials, etc.

Our efforts have been realized. We have produced the champion student penmen, stenographers and accountants in Northwestern Pennsylvania during the last year. Every graduate has been employed, and we have proven ourselves leaders in Enroll now for our fall opening, Sept. 3, 1912,

Warren Business College,

C. W. Smith, President, Warren, Pa.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Levi & Co. Ad. Lammers. Ad. Penn's Ry. Ad. The Printz Co. Ad. Boggs & Bubl. Ad. The Kinter Co. Ad. J. B. Pierce. Local. Pitteburgh Post. Ad. Robinson & Son. Ad. Somart & Silberberg. Ad. Forest Co. Nat. Bank. Ad. Monarch Clothing Co. Ad. and Local. Dr. M. W. Easton. Professional Card.

-Oil market closed at $1.60, -Is your subscription paid? -You can get it at Hopkins' store. If -Fertilizer and Lime in stock at Sig-

worth's. adv -Keen Kutter and Knot Klipper Axes

at Sigworth's. ndv -You can get best Portland Cement,

Agricultural Lime, Corn and Potato Fertilizer at Lanson Bros. adv -A newsy letter from Guitonville went into the waste basket this week because the writer failed to sign it.

-J. A. Lawrence and crew left Saturday for Pittsburgh with a fleet of three barges, the last run of the season for the Forest Barge Co.

-FOR SALE .- A fully equipped Bowling Alley, in Tionests. Price reasonable, Inquire of Joseph B. Pierce, Hotel Wesver, Tionesta, Pa adv

-A number of auto loads from here attended the Clarion fair Thursday and witnessed a good scroplane flight by Earl afford. Sandt, the daring aviator.

-F. R. Lanson at his store is selling oleomargarine. None but the fresheat and purest article will be handled, and at a price within reach of all. adv

-WANTED.-Railroad Cross Ties. We buy all kinds and pay cash. The Berry Co., Oll City, Pa. adv L. A. DAVIS, Agt., Tionesta, Pa.

-Sick headache is caused by a disor-

-Figuring on the levels of the P. R. R. -Rev. J. H. Lavely, of Meadville, Pa., the Tionesta dam would make the water Temperance Evangelist of the M. E. seven feet deep on the breast of the dam church, will give a series of lectures in two miles above Tidioute. This would the M. E. church of Tionesta, beginning make the depth of water at Tidioute Monday evening, October 7th. The leccreek bridge about twenty-five feet. The tures will be under the suspices of the figures are compiled from the old levels W. C. T. U. Mr. Lavely is a specialist Mrs. W. F. Blum, of the W. N. Y. & P. R. R. and are thereand has a very carefully selected temperfore only approximate. But they are ance library. His addresses are new, accurate enough to show what the dam up-to-date and nothing hackneyed about projects would do for us .- Tidioute News, the man or his message. No charge for admission, no collections taken. Special -The first killing frost of the season same Friday night last, and pumpkin, music provided. Everyone invited. cucumber and squash vines went the way -Route 93 is the proposed State road of all the earth, out on the hills. Corn via Tidioute between Tionesta and War-fodder was also nipped, but the corn in most localities is out of danger. Another, still harder, freeze occurred Sunday night, laking in the valleys and low lands, and the chances are the vegetable growers will find little growing substance left in the garden crops and that the same may as well be garnered.

say.-adv.

diameter, are dead or dying.

be invaluable to the traveling public, especially those who drive the country districts in rigs and automobiles.

fine road as far as Nebraska, there's bus--The Monarch Clothing Co., of Oil iness splenty, those living on the road City, issues an invitation to the public to are losing no tricks and it is evident they call and in spect its great stock of Fall have the ear of the powers that be. A and Winter goods which has just arrived concerted move in the interest of Route ready for all comers. Ladies, Misses, 93 needs to be made and made quickly. men and boys, are fitted out in wearing Will it be done? - Tidioute News, Acapparel by these enterprising merchants cording to our understanding of the sitfrom stocks that have the wearing qualiuation both these routes have already ty as well as elegance of style perfection been taken over by the State Highway that stamps them as the very finest. And Department and are State roads right now. always at prices that please the economic-At any rate the department made all real buyer. Always glad to see you, they pairs during the summer. It is not a question of one route superseding the other. Both will be built as soon as -A condition startling in the extreme has been found in the chestnut timber to funds are available, provided, of course, the northeast of St. Marys, in the woods that we are not flooded out. belonging to Francis M. Frey, lour miles from the town, the Elk county repre-Arthur Ludwig Takes Own Life. sentative of the Pennsylvania Chestnut Lying across the grave of his infant son Tree Blight Commission has just dis-hose death occurred two years ago the body of Arthur Ludwig, a sulcide was found by caretakers of the Woodlawn caught in the trigger guard after the pis- eon, Pa., (new.) tol had been discharged. Overwork and worry seem to be the only causes that can be assigned for the tragedy. His wife and one daughter aged five months survive; also five brothers and two sisters. Mr. Ludwig was a former resident of his family were very highly respected. Allio-Wolf.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated Christmas Stamp campaign will be at the home of Mrs. Jacob Wolf, of Wolf's Corners, Clarion county, Monof the greatest means for raising money day, September 30, 1912, when her daughfor the fight against tuberculosis. It ter, Miss Harriet Ann Wolf, was given in gives everybody an opportunity to help, marriage to Ms. Orion Allio, son of Mr. little or much, as they feel they can. All and Mrs. John Allio, of Tionesta townthe money raised in this district is used ship. The ceremony took place at high assist in maintaining this fine institution. five of the near relatives of the contract-Buying Red Cross stamps is like paying ing parties. The house was beautifully a premium on an insurance policy, the decorated with flowers and at the aponly difference being that you pay the pointed hour the wedding was solem sized premium that you feel you can nized in the parlor, the yows being re-

-Arrangements have been made by Postmaster General Hitchcock for the Lickingville. The bride was gowned in engraving and manufacture of a series of twelve stamps, unique in size and novel Mealy, and the groom by Mr. William PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Clark Morgan, of Oll City, visited Tionesta relatives Thursday.

-Mrs. Anna Hassey, of Oil City, spent Tuesday and Wednesday as a guest of -Mr. and Mrs. George F. Watson are at Cambridge Springs for a two weeks recreation and rest.

been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Harry Craig, for the past week. -Miss Lizzie Randall left for Tarentum

Friday to pay a two or three weeks' visit ren. The other day we went over the to her sister, Mrs. Harvey Kiser. route between the same points via Shef--Mrs. Claude Hepler and two children field and the Tionesta valley. And we returned to her home at Akron, Ohio, confidently state that if route 93 is built Thursday after a two weeks' visit with within the next twenty years those inter. Tionesta friends. ested want to get busy, and busy very -Jacob Siggins and son Ralph have hard. The Sheffield route is already a been home for several days past from their drilling operations in the Clarion county gas field. -Mrs. George Coe and children, who have been guests of her parents for a O. S. Winslow; J. J. Zahniser, Elder month past, returned to their home in Bradford district; Bradford, F. W. Me-Buffalo Monday.

children returned last week to their D. Call; Erie and North East, A. G. Crill, southern home in Lamison, Ala, after a pleasant summer's sojourn with friends in the north. -Mrs. J. W. Adams, of Chattanooga, Tenn., has been north on a visit to relatives for several weeks, and spent a few schemes: days of the past week here visiting her brother, W. G. Wyman. -Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Flowers have rented their house at the lower end of town to Mr. Zents and moved to West Hickory, Tuesday, where Mr. Flowers is employed at the tannery.

-Subscription renewals as follows are cemetery in Titusville late Tuesday thankfully acknowledged: J. R. Squire, atternoon. There was a bullet hole in Tionests; Mrs. Anna Hassey, Oil City; his head and the weapon that had inflicted W. W. Grove, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. it, a 32 calibre revolver, swung from the S. H. Secor, Nebraska, Pa ; Orion Allio, forefinger of the right hand which had Deer Creek, W. Va.; Harl Zuendel, Pig-

-Orin Anthony was down from West Hickory Monday a few hours and gave us a friendly call while here. The barge yard at which he had been employed during the summer has shut down for the season, having launched the last blg boat, No. 29, on Thursday.

-At the annual session of the Detroit Conference held at Alpens, Mich., last water powers, and that with full knowlweek, Dr. J. R. Rankin, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Corry, was transferred to the Detrott Conference and appointed to Houghton. Mich. Dr. Rankin was tormerly a popular Tionesta minister. -Mrs. M. Ittel, of Bradford, Pa., acompanied by her granddaughter and great-grandson, Mrs. Bazel Hollenback and Master Brooks Hollenback, also of Bradford, were guests of Tionesta friends | week. Mary Winebrenner was born in Sunday. Mrs. Ittel is pleasantly remembered by our older citizens as a former 1831, and in 1848 was married at Orville resident of Tionesta and found many here to greet her.

-The Clarion Normal has quite a good sized enroliment of pupils from Forest county for the present term, as follows: Flossie Braden, Cooksburg; Mabel Baughman, Mary Brown, Clara DeSmet, Hazel in design, for the exclusive use in the Wolf, a brother of the bride. Miss Elda Morrison, Bessie Songer, Marienville; forwarding of packages by the new par- Frank, of Strobleton, played the wedding Lulu Crossmun, Nathan Crossmun, Redcels post. The special parcels post stamps march. Following the ceremony and clyffe; Delbert Decker, Whig Hill; Janet will be larger than the ordinary at-ups congratulations a sumptuous wedding Haugh, Wilda Thomson, Nebrasks; Clare and will be so distinctive in color and dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Henry, Florence Maxwell, Bertha Scow- At the time of her death she was visiting design as to avert any possible confusion Allio left for a short trip, after which den, Tionesta. a niece at New Alexandria, Westmore--Mrs. W. F. Hurlbut and little daughters Grace and Goldie left Newmansville Monday for Tacoma, Wash., where they will join Mr. Hurlbut, who has been employed there during the past three years. The trip is a long one and tedious, but the joy of meeting with husband and papa will doubtless be sufficient compensation for the tiresome journey. Many eastern friends will wish them great bappiness in their new home. -R. J. Shawkey was a visitor in town with his brother-in-law, Ralph Cook, a short time last week, going on to Nebrasks, where he was a guest of Mrs. Shawkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Blauser, The Sheffield Observer notes that "Bob had a good season pitching for the Baltimore team and some of the major league managers are willing to pay big money

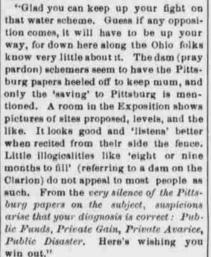

O. Whitford. Other appointments of interest here are: full line of M. B. Miller, Elder of Meadville and New Castle districts; New Castle, Arlington avenue, E. L. Monroe; Grove City and Bullion, J. M. Critchlow; Marienville and Tylersburg, W. O. Webster; Brockwayville, R. B. Brewster; Tyrone and Juniata, A. T. Sager; Philipsburg and Gearbartville, H. M. Hepler; Loleta, Clelland; Ridgway, A. H. M. Zabolser, -Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Buzard and two Coudersport, F. W. Parks; Ulysses, H. &C

> tal Powder. All Silent Down The River.

Colgate's Violet Talcum Powder, In a personal communication from a also Cashmere Boquet, Dactylis, &c. riend living near Pittsburg the following trite reference is made to the hideous dam

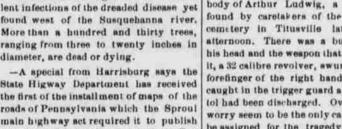

Each day brings forth new evidence that the whole scheme is a plot to grab the edge that the public will receive not one farthing of benefit, Surely the gigantic Water Trust is back of it all.

> Recent Deaths. LONGSTRETH.

Mrs. Mary Longstreth, a former well known resident of Nebraska, this county, died Monday, September 23, 1912, at New Alexandria, Pa., after an illness of a the eastern part of Pennsylvania, July 2, Furnace, Armstrong county, Pa., to William H. Longstreth, The family came to Forest county in 1874, settling in Green township, where they cleared up a large farm in the theo wilderness. Mr. Longstreth died there eighteen years ago. For the past fifteen years Mrs. Longstreth resided at Nebraska, beloved by all who knew her. Her home being destroyed by fire last spring, she went to live with her children in the vicinity of Pittsburgh.

for sale to the people of the state. The maps are arranged by countles and show every road. These maps are to be issued for every county in the state and under Marienville, this county, where he and the law are to be sold at cost. They will

-In a short time the annual Red Cross opened. This campaign has become one at Bon Air Sanatorium, near Bradford, to noon and was witnessed by about twenty-> ceived by the Rev. J. C. Wygant, pastor of the United Evangelical church at white silk and was attended by Miss Tula covered one of the largest and most virudered stomsch. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and correct that and the headaches will disappear. For sale by all dealers, adv

-All members of the Methodiot congregation are invited to attend a reception in honor of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burton, Friday evening at eight o'clock, in the church parlors

-Oleomargarine always fresh, always the same price and making new friends each day, at 20c per pound in nine pound The man had been in Tidioute, Monday, lots, at the Salmon Creek Mercantile Co., Kellettville, Pa. ndv

-Chestnuts are ripening and bursting their hurs, but they are not large, not very good and not "overly plenty." Butternuts, however, are a fine crop, and the boys are after them.

-It is reported that snow fell Monday morning out on the river hill toward Stewart run. This is early but it's just such a caper as the fag end of September has often been known to cut up.

--WANTED-500 to 1000 Laborars. Good wages and steady employment, with suitable quarters furnished free. Apply nearest local Agent or Supervisor, Allegheny Division, Pennsylvania R. R. adv

-WANTED-By the Allegheny Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, men to work in train service. Application to be made at any Yard Office, any Station Agent, or Train Master, Oll City, Pa. adv

-The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will gather newspapers, magazines, old books, waste paper in fist bundles, rubbers and cotton and woolen rage in bags, on Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 1 p. m.

-James Runyan, the Clarion liveryman, who lost a team of horses through hiring them to a thief, has recovered the team at Dunkirk, N. Y. The thief has not been apprehended, but the authorities are hot on his trail.

-The grape barvest will be at its height up in the Chautauqua and Lake Erie region by the middle of next week, when there will be a demand for pickers. Some young fellows from here who went up last week found they were ten days or so too early and have returned. The crop it is said will be a large one, notwithstanding earlier reports to the contrary.

-An evidence of the splendid Republican times we are all enjoying is reflected in a couple of local items published in doubtedly bring additional information. this issue by the P. R. R. company, which wants 500 to 1000 men to go to work for them at once. And yet we hear of those who are clamoring "for a change." What would be the result if they should get it? Have you seriously considered this point?

-Capt, H. C. Fisk, a United States Enand pheasants. The first named are now gineer from Pittsburgh, was here Saturquite plentiful, but by the time the seaday and in company with U.S. Engineer son is on you'll travel a day before seeing C. E. Ashcraft, of Pittsburgh, T. D. one-they are either in winter quarters or Coliins, of Nebraska, D. W. Clark and have skipped the country for a warmer Wm. Smearbaugh, of Tionesta, made a clime. The pheasant season is just right trip in the latter's auto over the territory | for the game hog-leaves all off, woods in Forest county that would be affected bare and the weather stormy and disby the proposed big dams of the Pitts- agreeable enough to drive the birds into burgh Flood Commission. From the coveys of six to a dozen or more where number of men the national government an expert "pot hunter" can well nigh government will know all the facts by indeed, calculated to aid greatly in the the time a decision should be given. complete extermination of the game.

with stamps now in use. The stamps they will be at home at Deer Creek, West will be ready for distribution Dec. 1st, in Virginia, where the groom has a lucraorder that the 60,000 postoffices may be tive position with the Range Lumber Co. supplied with them before the law be-The best wishes of a host of friends will go with them. comes effective Jap. 1st.

-Policeman Grandin Henry and Dan-Rudolph Family Reunion. lel Carmichael, of Tidioute, were in West Hickory Tuesday looking for a man who The fifth annual reun ion of the Rudolph is alleged to have passed a forged check family was held on Saturday, Sept. 28, at on Henry Ewald, a Tidioute leweler. the home of Mrs. R. Rudolph, Newtown Mills. Thirty-one relatives were present. gone down the river and back to West The occasion was one of much pleasure, Hickory Tuesday morning, where he as the day was an ideal one, and every registered at the Globe Hotel as "Fettes, one voted the affair a great success. Those Buffale, N. Y." The officers arrived at present were, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hunter noon but the suspected man dodged them and son Chester, of Penn Station, Pa, at the toll house of the river bridge and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rudolph and family, made his escape. He is described as a of East Hickory, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ruman of 30 or 35 years, weighing about 190 dolph and son Frank, of Whig Hill, Arpounds, and wearing a blue suit. thur Rudolph and Ed. Weller, of Pine -Conservation is an alluring sort of Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berlin, of word. It somehow has come to mean Endeavor, Mr. and Mrs. Will Watson much to the American people. It is apparently coming to mean much more. and family, Mrs. David Storer and daugh-When eople begin to talk about conserving the water, and incidentally grabbing Wortzkey, of Whig Hill, Harry Rudolph everything in sight, it is time to be alert. The plans that have been made for the vast undertaking in which this community is interested are not to be put aside by a little flurry of public interest. It means something serious to every man, woman and child in this part of the country. At the dinner hour a most substantial There will have to be concerted action and a broad understanding of the matter. -Oil City Blizzard. Right you are. The vigilance of the people must not be al-Prof. Keister, of Kellettville. The re- crew. lowed to lag for a single moment if this mainder of the day was spent in running ho ror is to be averted. races and visiting. If you think they were not a jolly crowd, or fall into the -There is going to be a splendid opportunity for some of our lovers of horse- error of thinking they did not have a good time, you are very sadly mistaken. If flesh to possess themselves of excellent property in this line in a short time, the Lord is willing we expect to have Earl C. Huidekoper, manager of the fa- many more such happy times. mous stock farm at Conneaut Lake, Pa., has issued a catalogue describing many fine Percheron mares and stallions, all Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gifford and Mis registered stock, which will be offered at Cora were Sheffield visitors Saturday. public sale at their stables beginning on Miss Flossie McMichael of West Vir-

Tuesday, Nov. 12, next. This is what is ginia is the guest of Miss Gertrude Hanknown as a dispersion sale and is intended son a few days this week. to scatter this splendid stock over a wide Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gibson of Warren range of territory. Should any of our were guests at her home Sunday. readers feel interested they should make O. E. Rupert was in town Sunday. a note of the date and be on hand when Wm, Johnson has purchased a fine the sale begins. A line dropped to Mr. team from G. W. Gifford, and the latter Huidekoper at Meadville, Pa., will unhas a larger team in its stead. -The season for slaughtering woodcock and bear is now (n, and you are at household was asleep and took two watches. Entrance was gained through a liberty to kill all the bear you want, but pantry window. No one is suspected. you must quit at ten in one day when it comes to the little long-billed fellows. urday. Along about a month from now another Harry Christenson came up on his batch of game will be in season, squirrels motorcycle Sunday from Mayburg. Mrs. Henry Deshner is spending a few is doing the housework during her absence. Miss Gertrude Cousins spent Sunday with Mildred Platner at Pine camp. S. A. Allaire has a telephone installed wook.

Cherry Grove.

-Subscribe for the REPUBLICAN.

for him, but we predict that he will be with the Philadelphia Athletics next and family, of Kellettville, Chas, Grant year."

-A jolly party of young folks went ter Avadna, of Mayburg, Mrs. Joseph up to West Hickory Friday evening and tiff for $401.97. This was a suit for an enjoyed a moonlight ride home on a fleet and family, J. H. Rudolph and family, of the big barges. They carried with and marked the closing of the September Mrs. R. Rudolph, Fred. Rudolph, of them a lot of good "eats" to help along court.

Newtown Mills, Miss Emma Rudolph, of the good time. The members of the party Franklin, Pa., J. T. Nulph, of Scotch | were Misses Kate Arner, Emma Arner, Hill, Miss Katherine Babb, of Mayburg, Lenore Ritchey, Genavieye Doutt, Colyn and Miss Myrtle Decker, of Whig Hill. Clark, Florence Hagerty, Bertha Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Craig, Perry ignored.

and well prepared repast was served, to Berringer and M. A. Carringer. J. A. which ample justice was done. After Lawrence was pilot on the fleet and Ed. dinner several pictures were taken by Lawrence and Charles Charleston the

> -Wilbur W. Grove was a welcome visitor to old triends and his former home in Tionesta last week, a guest of his of cultivation. We visited the different brother, J. P. Grove, remaining over Wednesday. His home is in Jamestown, N. Y., but the most of his time is spent in Ohio, where he is associated with his brother in oil operations near Portsmouth. Mr. Grove and his son Gartield also manage two hotels in Columbus, Ohio, doing a prosperous business, but with all that our good friend is never too busy to entertain and enjoy a visit from any Tionesta friend who may look him up when to connect with borough sewer on May in the Ohio capital city.

-William Richards, Esq., who has for grounds stand too thick; would recommany years so ably superintended the mend the removal of a sufficient number Cook oil lease at Mayburg, has retired and trimming of others to allow grass to from business and moved to Warren, grow and a sod to form beneath those rewhere other members of his family are maining. We recommend that a new One night last week thieves entered the located. He has purchased the Andrew linoleum be placed in the Prothonotary's home of Mrs. Henry Deshner while the Wickstrom property on Herizel street. office. There are some supplies needed Frank Richards expects to move to Iowa, for the jail, bedding, etc. We recommend ly attractive. where he will enter a medical schoot and the painting of eave troughs on jail and fit himself for the medical profession. court house. We further report the roof Carl Christenson was at Sheffield Sat- Charles expects also to leave Mayburg in on the main building of the county home the near future, we understand. We re- is in need of repairs; it leaks and is deluctantly bid good bye to these excellent | stroying the plaster; also roof on old barn citizens, regretting exceedingly their de- is in need of repairs.

We, the Grand Jury of September parture from our county, yet we join days at Mayburg. Miss Blanche Howard their host of friends in wishing them Term, 1912, do protest against legislation abundance of happiness in their new for or building of dams in the Allegheny homes.

-When you have a bad cold you want best interests of the people and destructthe best medicine obtainable so as to cure ive of the best agricultural lands in Forin his home. Work was completed this it with as little delay as possible. Here est county. That said operations would is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold destroy, in our opinion, about one-fourth Miss Minnie Hanson, who is teaching Chamberalin's Cough Remedy for fifteen at least of the arabie or agricultural terrihas had on the job it is certain that the clean out a whole flock. A wise (?) law, at Hatch Hollow, spent Sunday at home. years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, tory and be destructive of the lumber Ind., "and consider it the best on the interests, our railroads, our highways market." For sale by all dealers. adv and be in short a calamity to our county.

land county. She was the mother of eleven children, six of whom survive her, as follows: John Longstreth, of Salemville, Pa.; Peter W. Longstreth, of East Pittsburgh, Pa.; Stephen Longstreth, of Oakdale, Pa: Orlando Longstreth, of Newmansville, Pa.; Mrs. Dellie Walters, of Newmansville, and Mrs. Viola Carbaugh, of Colville, Wash. Mrs. Longstreth united with the church in childbood and at the time of her death was a member of the Nebraska M. E. church, The body was brought here Wednesday and the funeral was held Thursday in Amity Evangelical Lutheran church at Newmansville, her sons and grandsons acting as pall bearers. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. S. Burton.

September Court Minutes.

The case of Elmer Walters vs. Dunn. Landers & Co., which was on trial when our report closed last week, ended on Wednesday with a verdict for the plainamount due on a lumber hauling contract

GRAND JURY REPORT. The Grand Jury reported that they had acted upon four bills of indictment, of which two were found true bills and two

They further reported as follows: That we have visited and inspected the county buildings and find the court house and jail in good condition, interior and grounds well kept. We visited the county home and found the farm in a good thrifty condition, apparently in good state rooms and wards and found them nice and clean; the inmates well cared for. We further report of the need and building at once of a fire proof vault sufficient for the storing of books of record. We find those now in use in the court house not sufficient or safe. The need of repairing the walks on east side of Elm street on court house grounds. The need of a ditch on east side of court house grounds street. We find the trees in court house river and Tionesta creek. We further report that it would be injurious to the

TIONESTA, PA.

We Give "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps.

The Champion

Gas and

Coal Range.

all changes are made in a minute.

and trouble.

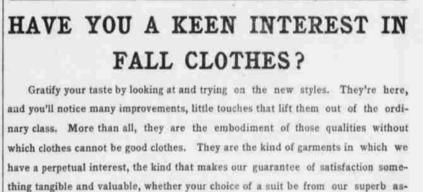

Can also be fired with Wood and

Guaranteed to save fuel, time

We claim it to be the best Range on the market and would like a chance to demonstrate its good sortment of Adler-Rochester models at from $18.00 to $27.50, or whether you select fiom our lower-priced lines, in which the values at $12.00 and up are corresponding-

SHORT BOSOM STIFF FRONT SHIRTS

Is the natural change for a man to make for fall and winter wear, as you wear the negligee in summer because of its coolness, therefore wear the stiff bosom because warmer

