lieut. BECKER PLACED ON TRIAL

Accused Policeman Says He Will Prove His Innocence

ZELIG KILLING BEING PROBED

Police and District Attorney Are Not Willing to Accept Slayer's Story That He Killed Zelig to Settle Grudge.

The trial of Police Lieutenant Charles A. Becker, accused of instigating the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, was begun in New York Monday before Justice John W. Goff of the supreme bench. A special panel of 250 "struck jurors" was in court.

Behind the entire prosecution is the alleged graft of the police in allowing gamblers to ply their vocation because of tribute paid which it is alleged totaled more than $2,500,000 yearly.

Becker before the trial began said: "I am innocent and I can prove it." District Attorney Whitman said: "My case is complete. The revelations will astound the public. We will convict Becker and send him to the electric chair and will develop evidence that will send many high police officials to Sing Sing."

It was officially announced that whatever motive was back of the killing of "Big Jack" Zelig, the gang leader, by Philip Davidson, a bowery baker, the murder removes one of the best witnesses against Lieutenant Becker.

Zelig had promised District Attorney Whitman that he would testify that "Jack" Rose told the truth when Rose said that he went to Zelig, at Becker's request, to get the gunmen to kill Rosenthal.

Zelig would not have admitted that he had rounded up the murderers, but his testimony, in the opinion of Mr. Whitman, was corroboration of the part of Rose's story incriminating Becker.

It was freely admitted at the district attorney's office and at police headquarters that no serious flaw had been found in Davidson's story that he had gone to a pawnshop in Jersey City after being beaten and robbed by Zelig and bought a revolver that once had been the property of a policeman named Chris F. Maher, but had been lost by the policeman some months ago; that Davidson had then come back to Manhattan and had killed Zelig solely because of this private grudge.

"But," so ran the substance of remarks by Commissioner Dougherty and Mr. Whitman, "if the shooting of Zelig on the eve of the Becker trial is a coincidence it is a most remarkable one. We are open to conviction in view of many things that the killing of Zelig at this time is much more than a coincidence."

"City the Blood," "Lefty Louie," "Whitney" Lewis and "Dago Frank" broke their rule of not seeing reporters to voice the opinion that Davidson had been prompted by "someone" to kill Zelig. Lewis said with fine scorn:

"It wasn't Davidson's head that thought of croaking 'Jack.' We could tell you what's back of it, but we won't say anything about that now. Davidson has been a cadet all his life. He's a bum and never was in Zelig's class. Why, I'll bet that was the first shot he ever fired in his life."

EUROPE AWAITS WAR

Fearful Nothing Can Prevent Hostilities in Balkans.

Europe is awaiting word that war has begun in the Balkans. Serbia, Bulgaria, Montenegro and Greece have formed an alliance against Turkey and it is believed that no influence can now avert a conflict. While the countries have many grievances against the Porte the holding up of munitions of war on the Turkish frontier and which were bound for Serbia has brought about the present crisis.

Whatever optimism is felt as to the outcome of the complicated affairs in the Balkans is based on the fact that in the first place the little states will have great difficulty in raising funds from the banks of Europe for the financing of any war against Turkey and in the second place that the bigger countries look with disapproval on such a war. France is urging definite action on the part of the powers looking toward intervention.

The Turks are infuriated by the hispingers of a fight between Turkey and Bulgarians north of Adrianople and the further rumor that the Bulgarians are marching toward that city. War and nothing short of war is all that will satisfy the Turkish people, the papers say.

Dives Into Cistern. Despondent over the loss of her position and the fact that she had no friends in this section was the cause given by Miss Magdalena Cooper, aged twenty-four, for her attempt at suicide by drowning in a cistern in Chartiers township, near Pittsburgh. Her screams attracted two pedestrians, who rescued her.

What Was Left of Cars After Wreck in Connecticut

Passengers Burn to Death; Seven Are Killed

DISASTER ON NEW HAVEN ROAD

Grade Crossing Accident at Wilkinsburg, Pa., on Pennsylvania Causes Deaths of Four and Injuries to Five.

Seven persons were killed, many burned to death, and about forty injured, twenty of them seriously, when the second section of the Boston express on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad jumped the tracks a short distance from the station at Westport, Conn.

The following were said to be among the dead: Mrs. James Brady, Wilkinsburg, Pa.; George R. Clark, engineer; Mrs. Palmer Gavitt, Albany; Miss Mary Hamilton, Albany; Motrich, Springfield, J. J. Moiser, freeman; Mrs. K. S. Ranson; Mary A. Wheeler, mail clerk; Unidentified man.

The cars which were in the wreck are burned to ashes. They were wooden parlor cars of ancient construction, and the hot coals of the engine over which they were jammed exploding the gas with which they were lighted caused the fire to spread from one end of the train to the other.

As it turned out only the parlor cars were destroyed and only those riding in the parlor cars were burned or injured, with the exception of the engineer, freeman and other trainmen, one mail clerk and his assistant. The passengers of the still flimsier day coach only sustained bruises and jars.

Four Killed at Grade Crossing. At the deadly Wood street crossing over the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at Wilkinsburg, Pa., a fast passenger train crashed into an automobile, killing four persons, fatally injured two and seriously injured three others. The impact of the collision tossed the bodies a distance of forty feet and few bones were left unbroken.

The dead are: Rev. Dr. W. L. Nicholson, pastor of First Presbyterian church, Wilkes-Barre; Charles Nicholson, four years old, son of Dr. Nicholson; John R. Beck, Wilkes-Barre, connected with the Westinghouse Machine company; Sarah Ventrice, sixteen years old, Wilkes-Barre, an Italian bride of one year.

The most seriously injured are: Mrs. John E. Beck, Wilkes-Barre, leg fractured; Mrs. Elizabeth Tolomeo, thirty-six, Wilkes-Barre, fatally injured; Dominick Tolomeo, two, cut about head and numerous bruises, may recover.

The automobile came down the slight grade of Wood street, seemingly under perfect control, toward the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, and was flagged. Unable to stop until the front wheels of the automobile were about three feet across the first rail of the track and unable to reverse his machine because it went dead on him at the critical moment, Mr. Beck sprang from his seat and attempted to push the car back off the tracks.

Mrs. Ventrice was killed and four other persons were injured by flying pieces of the automobile.

WALSH DROPS 2,000 FEET

Aviator Killed While Exhibiting at Trenton, N. J. Plunging from a height of nearly 2,000 feet in a Curtiss biplane Charles F. Walsh was dashed to death at the interstate fair at Trenton, N. J. The breaking of the lower plane as Walsh was beginning a circular downward flight was the cause of the accident.

Hardly had his body been extricated when hundreds of spectators pounced upon the biplane and literally tore it apart in their madness to obtain souvenirs. When the crowd had finished only the machinery was left.

Sulzer Named For Governor. William Sulzer was nominated for governor of New York by the Democratic state convention on the fourth ballot. Glenn was declared the unanimous choice of the convention for lieutenant governor.

NO COMPLAINTS HEARD

Trade Revival Seems to Be Pretty Well Distributed—Dun's Review.

Dun's Review of Trade says this week: "In no section is definite complaint of deficiency in trade now heard, while in most sections there is pronounced buoyancy, with the volume of business in excess of former years, an urgent demand for immediate delivery and a satisfactory demand for future delivery reaching well into next year."

"A slight check is noted in new business in finished steel, but specifications continue heavy and the rate of production is close to capacity. Activity is now well distributed, with the smaller plants busier than for two years and middlemen report inability to fill orders."

FIVE MARINES WOUNDED Thirteen Nicaraguan Rebels Killed in Latest Battle. News of another clash between American marines and rebel forces in Nicaragua was received at the state department in a further dispatch from Admiral Southerland.

As a result of the fight five Americans were slightly wounded while thirteen of the rebel force were killed and a large number wounded. The Americans, it is said, will recover. Admiral Southerland further reports that the rebels lost more than forty dead in the assault upon Barranca, in which engagement five marines were killed. Twenty of their number are known to be seriously wounded and fourteen were made prisoners.

DE PALMA WINS TROPHY Vanderbilt Cup Goes to Him—Time Slower Than Last Year. Ralph De Palma, with a Mercedes car, won the eighth running of the classic Vanderbilt cup automobile race on the road course near Milwaukee, Wis.

His time was 4 hours, 29 minutes, 31.54 seconds for a distance of 299 miles, 2,764 feet. This was at a speed of sixty-nine miles an hour, or five miles per hour slower than last year's Vanderbilt at Savannah.

Caleb Bragg in a Fiat car won the Grand Prix race on the Wauwasuta (Wis.) course. Bragg's speed for 410 miles averaged 59 3-10 miles an hour.

AUTO RACER BROWN KILLED Machine Loses Tire While Being Driven at 100-Mile-an-Hour Gait. David Bruce Brown, a millionaire, while breaking all records for road driving was hurled to death near Milwaukee, Wis., and his mechanic, Anthony Scudera, was probably fatally hurt when the loss of a tire threw Bruce Brown's machine through the fence surrounding the track.

It is estimated that Brown was traveling nearly 100 miles an hour when his machine threw its tire.
