-The harvest in the Lake Erie grape belt is fully on now, and the crop is said to be a big one. Pickers are so scarce that officials of county jails have been appealed to to send their discharged prisoners to the vineyards if they are anxious for work.

-Committee No. 2 of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will serve a chicken supper in the dining room of the church next Friday evening from 6:30 till 8:00 o'clock. The committee will appreciate your patronage, and promises you a good supper in return.

-John Bush brought in a fine musculet Tuesday evening, which he caught just below the river bridge, fishing with a chub for bait. The big fish measured an even three feet and weighed 13 1/2 lbs. It took fifteen minutes of lively work to land him. The fish was sold to Dallas Reek.

-The Boston Americans defeated the New York Nationals 4 to 3 Tuesday in the opening ball game of the world's series. Boston scored 1 in the sixth inning and 3 in the seventh. New York 2 in the third and one in the ninth. Batteries, Wood and Cady, Tesrau and Meyers.

-Once more the hills of the majestic old Allegheny are arrayed in most gorgeous and many colored hues. A more sublimely beautiful picture could not be put on canvas, even could old Michelangelo "come back" to work on the job. And the sad part of it is that the scene will soon change again, so enjoy it while you can.

-This is Lovely Week at the M. E. church: Tuesday, Oct. 8, to Sunday, Oct. 13. A lecture each night and three on Sunday. W. L. McDiarmid, evangelist, of Franklin, says: "I have heard Rev. J. A. Lavelly in several of his lectures. I regard all his work as of a very high order, and especially his lecture on 'God's Waste in Men.'" This lecture presents such an array of facts as has nowhere else been gathered together in one article or address. It is a masterpiece."

-The annual dinner at the County Home, given by the Tionesta W. C. T. U. last Friday, was attended by about forty persons. The ideal autumn day, the cordial welcome to the home, the sumptuous repast, and the praise service at the close, led by Mrs. F. R. Ritchey, were the features which made the day a most enjoyable one. These occasions are pleasant memories to both the members of the home and the members of the W. C. T. U., who feel it a privilege to come together each year. PRESS SCRIP.

It Was a Close Call. William Bowers, of Rouseville, a well known oil well shooter, sustained a bad scalp wound and possible skull fracture and a severely bruised left shoulder late Friday afternoon on the Billikin Oil Co.'s property, eight miles from here in Tionesta township. He had lowered all of the shells containing the high explosive and was reeling in the steel line by which they had been lowered into the well, when the clamps that fastened the reel to the flywheel of the derrick engine broke.

Recent Deaths.

Hiram Norton for the past 24 years a resident of West Hickory, died at his home at that place, Thursday evening, Oct. 3, 1912, of cancer of the face. He was born in York State, but had spent the most of his life in Pennsylvania, being aged 64 years, 10 months and 8 days. Mr. Norton had many friends in the community in which he had so long resided. He is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters, Charles Norton, at home, Mrs. Charles Lindel, of Oil City, and Mrs. Albert Armlink of Clymer, N. Y. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. W. Dale, were held at the late home of the deceased on Sunday afternoon, followed by interment in the East Hickory cemetery.

A message was received by relatives last week announcing the sudden death of Isaac W. Shunk, a former well known resident of Forest county, at Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 2, 1912. The message gave no particulars. The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Shunk and was born July 18, 1855, on German Hill, Kingsley township. He grew to manhood in this county and had many warm friends, who will mourn his death. He was a carpenter by trade. About twenty-five years ago he went to Kansas City, but since that time had spent one year on Whig Hill. He had been a resident of Los Angeles for about ten years. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Ella Lorraine, of Marion, Ohio; also by his father, Jonas Shunk, of East Hickory, and two brothers, John H. Shunk, of Whig Hill, and Dora Shunk, of Atlantic City, N. J.

Relatives here received word of the sudden death of Samuel A. Varner, at his home at Litchfield, Illinois, Friday, October 4th. Mr. Varner was born near Rimersburg, Clarion county, about 68 years ago, and when yet a mere boy enlisted as a soldier in the Union cause and served the full term of his enlistment, being severely wounded in the leg from which he always after was a sufferer. Coming to Tionesta in the early seventies he remained until about 1875. It was here he met his future wife in the person of Miss Jeannette Proper, daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. John A. Proper, to whom he was married a year or so after coming to Tionesta, and it was here that their three children, John, Emma and DeForest were born, all of whom, with their mother survive. Shortly after leaving Tionesta the family located at Litchfield where they have since made their home, and where the deceased had many friends who mourn his death.

William Bowen Pritchard, one of the aged residents of this county, died Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1912, at the home of his niece, Mrs. John Praiber, near the mouth of Ross Run, Kingsley township. Mr. Pritchard had been in feeble health for some time and suffered a stroke of apoplexy two weeks before his death. He was born in Venango county, October 1, 1834, his parents being natives of Wales. For many years he was a prominent farmer in Oakland and Cherrytree townships, being one of the largest sheep-railors in western Pennsylvania. He was a man of highest character and always stood high in the estimation of his neighbors. For twenty-five years he had made his home with his niece, the last eleven of which were spent in Kingsley township. He was never married. He was a devout member of the Baptist church, for many years being affiliated with the congregation of that denomination located at Breedtown, Venango county. The body was taken to Breedtown, Thursday, where the funeral services were held in the Baptist church at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Dorcas Thompson, aged 68 years, for more than thirty-eight years a resident of Nebraska, Pa., and one of the best known women in this part of the county, died at her home at 9 p. m., Oct. 3, 1912. She was the daughter of James M. and Dorcas Critchlow. Soon after the close of the Civil war she was united in marriage to James Thompson, of the 83d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. After a few years' residence in Erie county they moved with their family of small children to Nebraska, where Mr. Thompson died in 1876. She is survived by one brother, Wm. Critchlow, of Warren, Pa., and four children, William and Miss Mary, at home, Mrs. Mand Myers, of Nebraska, and Mrs. Emma Young, of Endeavor. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Burton, and her former pastor and friend, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, the burial being in Riverside cemetery, Tionesta, Sunday morning. The pall bearers were E. L. DeWoody, Charles Stitzinger, Robert Walters, Wilbert McKeen, I. H. Allison and Fred McNaughton.

The data of a life can be given in a few words but the good influence of a patient, sacrificing life like that of our sister can only be written in the memories of those who knew her best. Being of a quiet, reserved nature, her deeds of benevolence and acts of kindness were known only to those who received them. Left widowed by the accidental death of her husband, she bravely bent her energies to the care and education of her children. About twenty-five years ago she took the management of the hotel for Collins & Kreitzer and was ever held in the highest esteem by the firm. When a few weeks ago it became evident that her days were numbered the daily solicitude of her neighbors and the inquiries of distant friends testified to the regard in which they held her. About seventeen years ago Mrs. Gertrude McCullough, the eldest daughter of the family, died, leaving three little children. To these orphan Mrs. Thompson gave all the love and care a grandmother could give. The grandsons, William and Ivan McCullough, each met with a tragic death while working on the Sheffield & Tionesta R. R. The granddaughter, Miss Alice McCullough, made her home with the deceased since the death of her father. Mrs. Thompson was a member of the M. E. church, being converted under the preaching of Rev. F. M. Small twenty-seven years ago, and her testimony, "That when she started in the christian life it was for a life," has helped many a seeker at the altar. She was a faithful member of the W. C. T. U. and also of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were, Rev. and Mrs.
