It's Time to Prepare for Cold Weather Needs.

It is past mid-October, drifting rapidly into late fall. Mrs. Housewife, planning to lay in the supplies for fall and winter, needs no prompting as to where the selection can be most satisfactorily and economically made.

The volume of business done by this store is greater than that of any other establishment in this part of the State, and with the enormous purchasing power which it enjoys in consequence, it can offer the broadest and carefully selected stocks, at prices far and away the lowest that can be met with for scores of miles around.

The pleasantest and surest way to save money is to deal at Smart's.

Corduroy--Favored by Fashion and Good Taste.

Not for years has corduroy, as a material for fashionable suits and costumes, been so sought after as it is this season. In Paris, in London, and in the large American fashion centers, it is everywhere in evidence.

Women who have learned to look to this store for a complete representative showing of every new fashion that's good, will nevertheless be astonished at the wonderfully complete assortments to be had here. They include a variety of splendid materials, in every new shade, and at prices which put a fashionable new corduroy suit or gown within the reach of folks of even the most limited incomes.

Charming Autumn Millinery.

Millinery section is fast leaving even the proud records of former seasons.

It's safe to say that such a wealth of stylists, distinctive hats have never before been gathered together in this vicinity. And at the enticing prices which have already aroused such favorable comment, they make the selecting of a new hat a most enjoyable task to any woman.

Clocks Worked by Air.

Fans actuated by currents of air have from time to time been used as motors for running clocks. One, by Lepaute, is in the Louvre, Paris. Benjamin Hanks of Litchfield county, Connecticut, patented one in 1783. In a more recent patent the weight is wound up by the current of air in a chimney which is stopped by a self-setting brake as the weight nears the top of its course.

Luck of a Windfall.

The harsh forest laws of William the Conqueror are responsible for the meaning of good luck now so often associated with the term windfall. Under the Norman it was a criminal offense to cut down timber in the forests; but as the peasants were allowed to gather whatever wood the wind had blown down they always hailed a storm as an omen of good luck.

To Whom It May Concern.

It was the new janitor in the apartment house where the Browns live who tucked up the following subtle notice inside the dumbwaiter. It was hand painted, every S being a capital and carefully turned backward: "You must not put nothing on the dum water you can put bottles on win I call for the gabbig I know who put it on."

Those Were Happy Days.

A well-known Bostonian recently found in his trunk an old diary with the entry: "August 10, 1887. Went to the railroad station to see my sister off, and by some chance Harry Blank was there to see his sister off, and in the rush and noise and confusion we got mixed and I hugged his sister and he hugged mine."—Boston Transcript.

TAILORED SUITS

That excel in the one most important essential, fit.

The distinguishing mark of superior tailoring.

What matter how handsome the fabric or attractive the price if the suit doesn't fit?

And so in this advertisement special attention is directed to the fit of Tailored Suits here.

The superior fitting qualities of our suits add daily to the growing prestige of our suit department.

For we do not permit the showy, ill fitting, low priced suits of irresponsible suit makers to enter our store.

But from such makers as command the trade and respect of a "Wanamaker," a "Lord & Taylor," or a "B. Altman," come the suits we present to the women of Oil City.

Be assured of this fact, that The Kinter Co. are satisfied only with the very best American suit market affords.

And if you will pay $22.50, $25.00, $27.50 or $32.50 for a suit we guarantee to show you suits that will compare favorably with suits sold anywhere in America at those prices and suits vastly superior in value to suits sold in many stores at from $2.50 to $5.00 more the suit. It is not alone that we desire to present suits that excel in the matter of fit but to convince many that modern suit making has reached a degree of excellence that makes it possible to secure a suit to fit their figure as perfectly as though made to order over special measurements. You can be fitted here at moderate cost.
