VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN CALLED

Expires Peacefully Surrounded by Family at Utica, N. Y.

WAS UNCONSCIOUS FOR HOURS

Body Reposes In State in Utica Courthouse While 40,000 Persons Pass by. President Greatly Shocked by Death.

James Schoolcraft Sherman, vice president of the United States, died at his home in Utica, N. Y., at 9:42 p'clock Wednesday night.

The vice president, who had lapsed into a state of coma, never rallied and passed from unconsciousness to death, Dr. F. H. Peck issued this statement toncerning the last moments of the vice president:

"The vice president died without regaining consciousness. His end was perfectly quiet. He died in the presence of his wife, her brother and sister, his two brothers and his three sons and their wives. He had been perfectly unconscious since 7 o'clock in the morning, when he had a period of partial consciousness for about fifteen minutes. He died in an uraemic coma as the result of Bright's disease, heart disease and arterio sclerosis."

The body of the vice president was borne in solemn procession from his late home in Genesee street to the Oneida county courthouse and from 3 o'clock until 9 lay in state on a catatalque in the routanda of the building. Fifty soldiers from the Utica national guard acted as a military guard. During six hours 40,000 persons passed the bier for a last view of the features of their neighbor, "Jim" Sherman.

Sketch of His Career. James Schoolcraft Sherman was born Oct. 24, 1855, in Utica, N. Y. He attended public schools of his native city and was graduated as a bachelor of arts in 1878-the same year that President Taft was graduated from Yale-from Hamilton college, at Clinton, N. Y., near his home.

Following his graduation he studied aw and was admitted to the bar in 1880. He was elected mayor of Utica, n 1884 and was sent as a delegate in 1892 to the Republican national convention. He served as chairman of the Republican state convention in 1895 1900 and 1908. He had in 1887 been elected to the Fiftieth congress and was re-elected a member of Fifty-first, Fifty-third, Fifty-Fourth, Fiftyfifth, Fifty-pixth, Fifty-seventh, fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth cor

While he was a member of the house of representatives in 1900 the Republi can senators' caucus committee of fered him the position of secretary to the senate and he signified his willingness to accept. President McKinley a little later offered him a post as one of the appraisers of the port of New York. Constituents of his in the Oneida-Herkimer district held a mass meeting and requested him to continue to represent them in the na tional house of representatives, which he accordingly did. While chairman of the state convention in 1900 Mr Sherman was a rival of Theodore Roosevelt for the vice presidential nomination comed for the speakership of the house, but he withdrew his candidacy was the chairman of the committee on

Mr. Sherman succeeded Representcommittee in charge of the campaign. President Roosevelt had suggested that, as so much was being said in criticism of contributions by corporasought among the people generally and the future vice president became famous under the sobriquets of "Dollar Jim" and "Send Your Dollar, Jim." as the solicitor of dollar contributions.

TAFT DEEPLY MOVED

President Hears News of Sherman's

Death at Banquet Table. President Taft was much affected then he received the news of Vice President Sherman's death. The president was seated at the banquet table in the Thirteenth regiment armory, Brooklyn, as the chief guest of the navy yard employes after the launching of the new battleship New York, The message was brought to him by a secret service man.

"Oh, my God!" he exclaimed. Then he told those nearest to him of the death of Mr. Sherman. Tears sprung to his eyes. When the navy yard constructor finished his speech the president arose and said:

"My friends, three years ago, at the launching of the Florida, you all met the vice president of the United States. Word has just come to me that he is dead. Those who knew him, loved bim. His death is a great loss to all. I venture, therefore, to ask

In congress Mr. , Webber and Harry Vallon, the state's Sherman was strongly identified with chief witnesses in the Rosenthal mur-Indian affairs, and at the time of his der case. He uncovered, it is said, an election to the vice presidency in 1908 attempt to bribe into silence William Shapiro, the driver of the gray murder car, who lately became a state's witness. Mr. Whitman is convinced ative Babcock of Wisconsin as chair- that the four gunmen waiting trial for man of the Republican congressional the murder of Herman Rosenthal would have confessed had they not been reached by the "system."

"If the people of New York think the storm has blown over they are tions, smaller contributions should be mistaken," Mr. Whitman said. "The time. clean-up of the police has just begun. Mr. Whitman has a statement from Shapiro that an emissary of the "sys tem" offered him $2,000 if he would stick to his non-committal policy.

This incident is to be made the subject of investigation by the new grand

Mr. Whitman has evidence that the system is controlled by a triumvirate consisting of a civilian employe of the police department, an inspector of police and another civilian once prominent in the city administration. The interests represented by these men, Mr. Whitman believes, are making a desperate fight to have the Rosenthal case closed with the conviction of Charles Becker. Their tactics, the district attorney has reason to believe, aim to break down the strong case that has been presented against all the men under indictment for the murder of Rosenthal.

INCOME TAX ASSURED

Necessary Number of States Will Ratify Constitutional Amendment. At Washington the opinion is expressed that by the first of the new year three-fourths of the states of the Union will have ratified the constitutional amendment granting congress power to pass an income tax law. Notice of approval by thirty-four of the forty-eight states has already been received and it is unofficially reported that Ohio and Louisiana have recently sanctioned the plan.

Only two more states are needed to make the necessary thirty-six, but Secretary of State Knox will not issue the proclamation until one or two more than the number required have arted. Each state has a right to reseind its approval or rejection at any

COAL MEN SUMMONED

High Price of Coal to Be Investigated by State.

Primary reasons for the annual winter coal shortage with the consequent increase in prices are to be investigated by the Ohio public utilities commission.

General superintendents and car service men of eleven Ohio coal carrying roads have been summoned to appear before the commission on November 15.

This winter's car shortage has begun and the price of coal is on the raise. Coal men say that unless the commission can effect some arrangement with the coal carrying railroads this winter the shortage will become a famine.
