 —The log loader and a car of logs indulged in a little runaway on the Coleman & Watson railroad Friday and the mill was obliged to shut down for a few days on account of a lack of logs. The big whistle blew again this morning.
 —According to the monthly oil report of the Oil City Derrick 534 wells were completed in Pennsylvania during October. There were 761 rigs and drilling wells. This is a decrease of 41 wells and a decrease of 3,651 barrels new production, and a decrease of 122 in new work.

—Hallowe'en was pretty generally celebrated Thursday night in Tionesta, about two-thirds of the citizens, old, young and middle aged masquerading the streets, having a barrel of fun and furnishing a lot more for those who contented themselves as onlookers. The show was a good one, worth all it cost and more too.
 —The Warren Times in its account of that city's big celebration of Hallowe'en says of the Endeavor band, which was one of a number furnishing music for the blow-out: "The Endeavor band then swept past leaving in its wake some really classy music and loud applause. Leader F. B. Robbins returned home to Kellestville this morning, and is justly proud over the appearance of his fine band from Endeavor. The boys made a good creditable appearance, and returned home on the early train this morning."

—Jack Stroup, employed at the Cummings saw mill, near Plummer, met with a distressing accident Thursday which very nearly cost him his right hand. Mr. Stroup's hand got in the path of a saw in some manner and the muscles of the thumb were severed and the bone of the first finger was cut in twain and the hand otherwise lacerated. Stroup was taken to Oil City, where he was attended by Dr. Siggins. He is aged sixty years and was very weak from loss of blood. Stroup lives on Pitloch creek, about one and one half miles from Plummer.
 —John Allio, whose farm is located out in the red brush section of Tionesta town, caught a Hallowe'en murderer in a novel manner last Thursday night. Mr. Allio has been losing chickens of late and setting a watch found that a big owl was doing the mischief, and after gobbling a nice fat "springer" would perch himself upon the top of a telephone pole near the house to dress his chicken. Mr. Allio conceived the idea of setting a trap upon the pole and it worked like a charm. On the evening in question an unusual flapping of wings attracted John's attention and he went out to find that Mr. Hooter had "put his f in it," and was securely fastened. The bird was a whopper, measuring nearly five feet when his wings were spread, and now all is peace again in John Henry's henery.

PERSONAL.
 —The following committees will serve for the year to be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, Friday, Dec. 6, 1912: Fancy Work—Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Randall, Miss Smearbaugh, Mrs. George Robinson, Miss Katherine Osgood; Aprons—Mrs. Charles Killmer, Mrs. Inel, Mrs. Dickraeger, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. S. T. Carren; Amusement Corner—Mrs. Haelet, Mrs. Jas. Lanier, Miss Margaret Blinn, Miss Emma Arner, Candy—Mrs. George Killmer, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. John Gerow, Miss Kate Arner, Miss Frances Grove; Refreshments—Committee No. 3.
 —Two non-residents of the state who gave their names as J. C. Smith and J. Jones, were arrested at Mayburg last Friday night for hunting without a license. The arrest was made by Robert B. Myers, of Troop D, State Police Force, of Butler, Pa., who brought the men to Tionesta Saturday for a hearing before Squire C. A. Randall. They plead guilty to the charge and were each fined $25 and costs, which totaled $180 for the two. We understand they then went to the office of County Treasurer Brazee and took out hunting licenses and hiked back to the woods. These licenses cost $10 per.

—Six children in a little over 13 months is the remarkable record of Mrs. Stephen Nageotte, of Frenchtown, Crawford county. She has borne 15 children in 12 years, and 13 of them are living. On September 10, 1911, she gave birth to triplets, two girls and a boy, and yesterday three sturdy boys arrived, just 13 months and 20 days after the other trio. The first children came single, five years ago came twins, to be followed by two single children, and then the triplets in 1911. One of the three born last year died a few months ago. Mrs. Nageotte is a small woman and does all her own work.
 —Hunters! Holy Moses, yes, a car load on every train. That's the record since the opening day. But they're a mighty poor lot, or else there's an unusual scarcity of game, for the hills seem few and the bags small. Up to the hour of going to press no casualties have been reported, although Charlie Lanson did but his brain was gone the first day out, but as the explosion was off at the side and no one near a juicy new item was spoiled, glad to say. It will be a miracle, however, if the season passes without a bad accident, with so many firearms scattered indiscriminately through the red brush in the hands of careless men and boys.
 —Representative George H. Utter, former Governor of Rhode Island, died at his home at Westerly, R. I., Sunday last. Ex-Governor Utter was a candidate for re-election as representative from the Second Rhode Island District. Mr. Utter was 83 years old. After graduation from Amherst College in 1877 he entered the publishing business as owner of the Westerly Sun. He was elected governor of his state in 1905 and again in 1906. Mr. Utter's daughter, Miss Mary Starr Utter, a schoolmate at Lesell Seminary, Massachusetts, of Miss Josephine Siggins, will be remembered by many of the younger social set as a last summer's visitor at West Hickory.

—The denizens of these whereabouts awoke Saturday morning to look out upon the first real snow of the season. There wasn't much of it, to be sure, but in spots the ground was fairly covered, while out on the hills one could have "tracked" a deer had there been any moving. Of late years, along about this time the rough weather has begun, as is shown by the following record kept by an observing citizen: The first fall of snow in 1907 was on October 20th; in 1908, November 4th; 1909 October 12th, with six inches in Buffalo; in 1910, October 28th; in 1911, November 2nd, the same date as this year. However, after these dates there has usually been some good weather, but of short duration.
 —Don't forget the lecture by Dr. Branfield at the court house next Tuesday evening, Nov. 12. Of the speaker of the evening no less an authority than F. S. Phelps of the Erie Daily Times, has this to say: "In these busy times when the average man and woman feels as if it were almost a sin to waste an hour they can well afford to go and hear Rev. William Branfield, D. D., of this city, whenever an opportunity presents itself. He is of a wide range of subjects. He is helpful, entertaining and eloquent in all of them. He is a self-made man pure and simple and every person is always helped whenever he listens to such men, as they invariably have a message and know just how to best deliver it. By all means hear Branfield."

—Saturday evening about 6 o'clock George and Henry Rhodes were driving into town in a buggy, their horse became frightened at an approaching automobile and ran away. The mixup occurred almost directly in front of the court house on Elm street. The horse made several plunges and as he jumped over the curb the buggy upset and the occupants were precipitated to the ground, being thrown clear of the sidewalk. Henry Rhodes struck his head against a sharp stone cutting a deep gash down the left eye, which Dr. Bovard later dressed and the injured man seemed little the worse for the hurt. George escaped injury although being considerably shook up by the tumble. The horse plunged on and coming in contact with the porch in the rear of the old Forest House, left the buggy there, badly wrecked, but was not injured any himself, and was caught before going much farther.
 —The Derrick of yesterday contained the following rather sensational item: "E. R. Fitzgerald, of Nebraska, Forest county, was held up by highwaymen on Thursday night of last week. He had gone to Marienville and his business detained him in a nightfall. He was driving along the highway about two miles from Marienville when two men confronted him. One held the horse and the other ordered him to vacate the buggy. Fitzgerald started to obey orders and as he was stooping over to step from the buggy wheel to the ground he was knocked senseless by a blow on the temple. Two hours later he was found by two men driving towards Marienville who took him in their wagon to that place where he received surgical attention that was greatly needed. He discovered that the highwaymen had robbed him of $20, all he had in his possession. After knocking their victim stiff and robbing him the highwaymen drove off with the horse and buggy abandoning the outfit in the vicinity of Muzette, nine miles away from the scene of the holdup."

—Subscription renewals as follows are thankfully acknowledged: Mrs. M. E. Sibble, Nebraska, Pa., (new); John Muenzenberger, Chicago Heights, Ill.; Frank Bowman, Quincy, Ill., (new); Miss Nettie Markward, Girard College, Philadelphia, Pa., (new).
 —Samuel D. Irwin, of Tionesta, was in town today and called and paid his subscription to the Citizen-Press. He is honest, he is as much so as his comrade, Jonathan Grindler, whom Mr. Irwin's brother, H. May Irwin, once said was so honest that he would not haul a load of hay to town on a wet day to cheat the people in a small matter of weight.—Franklin News, Wednesday.
 —Rev. J. F. Scherer spoke the words on marriage afternoon last which united in marriage Mr. L. L. Lynch and Miss Mabel Barnes, both popular young people of Endeavor. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Chas. Hilliard, and on Monday evening the friends of the newly-weds tendered them a reception and miscellaneous shower at which a splendid time was had by all present.
 —From announcements received by friends we learn of the wedding of Mr. J. T. Stair, of Altoona, Ill., and Mrs. Mollie Hunter, of Weston, Ill., which took place Wednesday, Oct. 30th, 1912. Mrs. Stair is well known in this community, as she was formerly a resident of Endeavor and a frequent guest of her niece, Mrs. J. P. Huling, and other friends in town. After an extended tour they will reside in Altoona, Ill. The REPUBLICAN joins with many friends here in extending congratulations.

John is Still a Democrat.
 In remitting the "cart wheel" in renewal of his subscription our old friend John Muenzenberger, of Chicago Heights, Illinois, jubilates over the prospects of another Democratic regime through the election of Wilson to the Presidency. That ought to make you sad, old friend, for surely you haven't forgotten the last Cleveland times, have you? But why dwell on unpleasantness, when better things are in store. Mr. Muenzenberger says: "As for me and my family we are all well at present, but have had a good deal of trouble. A year ago on the first of August I was knocked out of business, though I did a good deal of work about the house last summer, but my earning power is practically gone. Mrs. M. is not in robust health, but our boys are all right and working every day. Charlie has one of the liveliest little girls you ever saw. She was a year old Friday. John Muenzenberger, the III, was born four months ago; he is Otto's boy. With these little grandchildren to cheer me in my old days what need I more to make me happy, especially since my health is good and I am gaining in flesh right along, my only trouble being that it tires me to walk much. Well, old friend, with a hope that the best man may win, which I think is Mr. Wilson, of course, and kind regards to you and all my friends, I will close."

Recent Deaths.
CONFER
 Harold Franklin Confer, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Confer, of Tionesta township, was born September 23, 1912, and died October 28, aged five weeks. He was laid to rest in the Mount Zion cemetery, Rev. J. C. Wygant conducting the funeral services.
MERRIAM
 Mrs. Ardella Pierce Merriam died after a long and painful illness of tuberculosis, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce, near Grand Valley, Pa. Funeral services were held at the home Oct. 29th, conducted by Rev. N. J. McIntyre, of Corry, Pa. The choir sang "Lead Kindly Light," "Beautiful City of Gold," and "It is Well With My Soul." The flowers were many and beautiful, testifying to the love and esteem in which she was held. Interment was made in Sandford cemetery.
 Mrs. Merriam was born at Garland, Pa., Sept. 4, 1883, and died Oct. 25, 1912, at the age of 29 years, 1 month and 21 days. She was married to A. E. Merriam, Feb. 6, 1903. To them four children were born, Mildred, aged 8 years, Willard, aged 6, Lela, aged 3, and Paul, who died in infancy. Besides the husband and children, she leaves her parents, one brother, Clara V. Pierce, and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. She bore her suffering patiently, dying in christian hope and faith in her Redeemer.
 Those from a distance in attendance at the funeral were, Mrs. G. W. Drake, an aunt, of Cambridge Springs; Mrs. Lawrence Lindberg, of Warren; Mrs. S. J. Grove, Mrs. Sidney Mong and J. D. Dawson, of Tionesta, and Mrs. Goodwill, of Youngsville.

HARRISON
 Mrs. Sarah Jane Harrison, widow of the late Joseph L. Harrison, died after a brief illness at the home of her son, Charles Harrison, Green township, Forest county, Pa., on Friday morning, Nov. 1, 1912. The deceased was born near Helen Furnace, Clarion county, Pa., on Nov. 20, 1832, her maiden name being Miss Sarah Jane Porter. She married Joseph Harrison in 1854, by which union four children were born, but one of whom, Mr. Chas. Harrison, survives. One child by a former marriage, Mrs. Joseph Brothers, of Leeper, Clarion county, is also living. She was the step-mother of County Commissioner W. H. Harrison, of this place, John H. Harrison, of Cadillac, Michigan, Samuel P. Harrison, of Marienville, Pa., and Mrs. John Lusher, of Tionesta, Pa., children of Mr. Joseph L. Harrison by a former marriage. Throughout her life she was a kind mother, both to her own children and those motherless ones confided to her care. A large circle of friends who loved her as a friend and neighbor regret her death and will hold her in fond memory. Funeral services were conducted at the home of her son by her pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett, of the Free Methodist church, of which she was a member, on last Sunday afternoon, followed by interment in Riverside cemetery here.
DANIELS
 We are called upon to record the death of a young man of this community, the circumstances surrounding which are of peculiar sadness to our people. Cyril Franklin Daniels, son of our townsman, A. E. Daniels, passed away at 3:20 Monday afternoon, Nov. 4, 1912, in the City Hospital, Akron, Ohio, after suffering for nearly three weeks from an operation for strangulated hernia complicated by pneumonia. It was nearly six weeks ago that he, with a party of young men from here, went to the grape country intending to remain for the season but found they were too early and all but Cyril returned in a few days. He went to Akron, Ohio, and had secured employment with the Goodyear Rubber Co., but was soon stricken with illness. When it was discovered that an operation was necessary his father was notified and went immediately to his bedside, finding his homesick boy overjoyed to see him. The father remained to the end to comfort the suffering boy, the news of whose death has greatly saddened our community, for the young man was much esteemed by all. The deceased was born at Garland, Pa., Feb. 3, 1893, and came to Tionesta with his parents about 8 years ago. He was graduated from our high school with the class of 1911. His quiet, unassuming manners made him a general favorite with his young companions and won the respect of the older members of the community, who sympathize deeply with the family in their loss. He was a regular attendant at the M. E. Sabbath school while here, being a member of Mrs. G. F. Watson's class of boys. While lying sick at the hospital he was converted and died trusting in the Savior for salvation. Besides the parents, he is survived by two brothers, Charles and Carl. The funeral will be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon in the F. M. church, Rev. G. A. Garrett officiating.

WELLER
 After a long and painful illness of cancer of the stomach which she bore without a murmur or complaint, Mrs. Weller, wife of our worthy old friend, Andrew Weller, passed into rest at her home near Starr, Pa., Friday morning, Nov. 1, 1912, at 7 o'clock.
 Abigail Truby, daughter of Jacob and Lucy Truby, was born Sept. 28, 1855, near Emulston, Pa., where she grew to young womanhood, and where, on March 4, 1883, she was united in marriage with Andrew Weller. Very soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Weller moved to this section, and for a number of years lived at Buck Mills, Kingsley township, where her husband was employed at lumbering for the firm of Hall & May. After a few years then employed Mr. Weller purchased a tract of land on Whig Hill which he cleared and cultivated into a productive and well ordered farm. It was there that most of their lives were passed, and their children were born, six in number, and all but one, together with her husband, survive, as follows: John W., of Endeavor; Abraham L., deceased; George W., of Zanesville, Ohio; Benjamin J., Mrs. John Burdenn, Mrs. Maude Berlin, of Kingsley township. One sister, Mrs. Samuel Crawford, of Emulston, and two brothers, J. B. Truby, of Nowata, Oklahoma, and J. M. Truby, of Starks, Pa., also survive. Mr. Weller sold his Whig Hill farm some years ago and for a brief period the family resided in Tionesta House. Thereafter they returned to the peaceful vocation of the farm and for a long time have lived on German Hill, near Starr postoffice.
 Mrs. Weller was one of the most kindly and lovable women, a true Christian in spirit although not uniting with any church until recently, when she was baptized by Rev. H. A. Bailey, pastor of the Tionesta Presbyterian church, and her end was one of peace and unflinching faith in a blessed immortality. Many hearts are saddened by the passing away of this excellent woman, and to the aged husband thus bereft of his beloved companion the sympathy of a whole community goes out in sorrow.

 Funeral services were conducted at the Zion church, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Bailey, followed by interment in the cemetery connected with the church. Her sister, Mrs. Jane Crawford, H. J. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fox and E. S. Weller, of Emulston, were in attendance at the funeral. Mrs. C. Y. Detar and Miss Nellie Detar furnished the music, and the pall bearers were Dr. C. Y. Detar, E. L. DeWoody, George, John and Howard Zuenkel.

Bromley-North.
 A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. North, of North Main street, Meadville, Pa., Wednesday evening, Oct. 30th, when their daughter, Ethyl Mae, became the bride of H. M. Bromley of Grant street, the same city.
 The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk voile over cream silk messaline, and she carried a huge bouquet of white rose buds, while the groom wore the conventional black. They were unattended. Rev. J. F. Barkas, of New Castle, Pa., performed the ceremony. The simple but attractive decorations were white and yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Only the immediate friends of the family were present, the only out of town guests being Mrs. L. W. Barnhart, the groom's sister, of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. Leonard H. North, brother of the bride, of Ellwood City, Pa.
 The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts; many solid silver pieces. Among them were a four piece silver set, knives and forks, tea, desert and table spoons, cake and pie knives, meat and bread knives, silver brad tray, linens etc., as well as a greenback of a goodly size. After congratulations were tendered a bountiful wedding supper was served by a Meadville caterer, and the happy couple left on their wedding trip. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue serge. She was one of Meadville's talented and popular young ladies and a favorite among her college friends, while the groom, since coming here from Seattle, Wash., has held a responsible position with the Meadville Telephone Co., and has made a host of warm and true friends among the people of Meadville. Mr. and Mrs. Bromley will be at home to their friends at corner Grove and Walnut streets, Meadville, Pa., after November 15th.

Plain Facts About Tuberculosis.
 Karl de Schweinitz, executive secretary Pennsylvania society for the prevention of tuberculosis, says: Right now more than forty thousand persons in Pennsylvania are suffering from tuberculosis—ten thousand die every year. Consumptives, through their sputum, scatter everywhere billions upon billions of bacilli (germs). Most people have breathed into their lungs some of these germs. As long as you keep your body in good physical condition and do not associate to intimately with careless consumptives, you are not likely to contract this disease. But overwork, drink and dissipation, impure air, unsanitary houses, poor and insufficient food, irregular hours, by undermining your health, will allow the germs of consumption to multiply and kill you with their poison.
 If you think you have the disease, don't take patent medicines. There is no medicine that will cure tuberculosis except plenty of open air, good food, rest and regular hours. The most evident symptoms of tuberculosis are: cough lasting a month or longer, loss of weight, afternoon temperature, night sweats, spitting of blood, streaks of blood in the sputum, a run-down feeling. Tuberculosis is not inherited. Observe clean, healthy habits of life, and you will have every chance of escaping this disease.

—Thursday Curtis M. Shawkey, Esq., attorney of Warren borough, received a telegram from New York to the effect that his son, Charles M. Shawkey, had died in that city as the result of injuries he had received some time ago, when he was struck by an automobile, when he rushed in front of it to prevent its crushing a little street waif and threw the child to the curb. The information in the message proved to be false and the father is now bending every effort to ascertain the identity of the sender of the telegram and states that prosecutions will follow if the guilty person is apprehended. In no sense of the word could so serious a matter be considered a joke. The mother, who is in ill health, was rendered most critically ill by the shock, but her condition Friday is more favorable. "God be thanked," she exclaimed when told that her son was not dead. So overcome with joy was she that for a few minutes she was unable to restrain the tears that welled up into her eyes.

—An important decision has been handed down by the Superior Court of this state, which holds that burghesses of burghs in order to enforce the collections of fines imposed on automobile drivers for exceeding the legal speed limit may imprison persons brought before them for a period of not more than ten days in the county jail. Previous to the decision rendered it was believed that, under the state automobile law of 1909 burghesses had no such power, lower courts having so decided, but the opinion of the high court now holds good, until it is reversed by the Supreme Court.
