CONGRESS IS DEMOCRATIC

Senate, Too, Will Likely Be in Hands of Democrats-Pennsylvania Electoral Vote is Won by Roosevelt.

Fuller election returns indicate that CENTRAL HOUSE,

Tionseta, Pa. This is the most centrally located hotel in the place, and has all the modern improvements. No pains will be spared to make it a pleasant stopping place for the traveling public. Woodrow Wilson carried forty states and will have 442 electoral votes. This leaves Roosevelt second with states and 77 electoral votes, while President Taft has but 3 with 12 votes | nor. to be cast for him. The returns show that the next house will have 290 Democrats, 129 Republicans and 16 Bull Moose members. This gives the Democrats an impressive plurality of 161 over the Republicans in the house and a majority of 145 over the combined Republican and Bull Moose strength. The Democratic margin over the Republicans in the present house is only 71. The Democrats appear reasonably certain of controlling the United States senate, although it will be very close, as late figures stood.

Pennsylvania Won by Teddy. Roosevelt's vote in Pennsylvania continues to increase by additional returns from missing election districts. The complete vote from all but four counties in the state and with those estimated shows that Roosevelt's plurallty over Wilson is 46,491. The vote now stands: Taft, 273,041; Wilson, 392,928; Roosevelt, 439,419. The counties which have not yet completed the count are Blair, Tloga, Warren and 119 districts in Allegheny. The legislature will be Republican. The returns are not complete, but it is believed that the Republicans elected 17 of the 26 senators and the Democrats 9. There is still a question about couple of the districts.

Robert K. Young for state treasurer, A. W. Powell for auditor general and John M. Morin, F. E. Lewis, A. H. Walters and A. R. Rupley for congressmen-at-large are easy winners.

The complexion of the next congressional delegation from Pennsylvania will be 23 Republicans and 13 Democrats as against a present representation of 24 Republicans and 8 Democrats.

TURKS BRACE FOR DECISIVE BATTLE

Fate of Constantinople Depends on Fight Now Raging

KOLY WAR IS BEING URGED

Fear of Massacres of Christians in Capital Increases Hourly-Capture of Salonica by Greeks Is Confirmed.

Across the line of the Tchatladja defenses, the last to be taken before Constantinople, there is being fought the decisive battle of the Balkan war. The Tchatiadja fort itself, the key to the whole defensive works, has fallen, but the half-starved Ottomans are still holding grimly to the remaining defenses while Constantinopie awaits the outcome with despair. It does not now seem as if anything can stop the victorious advance of the Bulgars and the commanders of the foreign warships outside the sultan's city are gravely concerned over the ominous possibility of wholesale massacres when the beaten Ottomans return to the city they could not defend.

Then it is feared will come the kniffing of the Christians and the burning and wholesale pillaging on the part of the troops who have fought without food for days and have grown desperate.

The report that Kurd tribesmen are hastening toward the capital to play their part in those final days has not served to lighten the general fear.

But the Turks have not yet given up their fighting. From all the older statesmen has come the word that Islam will fight to the last. The sultan and his advisers have flung down the ultimatum and there is rumor that the Sheiks are ordering a holy war.

A dispatch to the Daily Chronicie coming by an indirect route confirms the previous report of the Greek occupation of Salonica and says the approach of the Greeks was attended by awful scenes. Before they entered the town a terrible massacre took place and the shooting and looting was general. When the Greeks took possession they imprisoned all the pashas, officials and Turkish officers. The Turks now in captivity at Salonica number 27,000 men.

Servian cavalry, has captured Dajran with a thousand Turks. The third Servian army is well on its way toward the Adriatic, but progress is slow on account of bad roads It is expected that Durazzo will be taken in a day or two. Durazzo is one of the ports which Servia has announced her intention of seizing and holding.

This determination to occupy one or more Adriatic ports against the desire of Austria is absolutely earnest All political parties have announced their readiness to support the government, come what may. The politicians are convinced that the powers, includ ing Germany, will be able to convince Austria-Hungary that Servia, with an outlet on the Adriatic, will not be more dangerous to her than without such an outlet.

No March Into Constantinople. The great powers will prevent the Bulgarians from entering Constantinople. This is the well authenticated report coming from high government circles in France.

The six powers, Great Britain, Russia, France, Germany, Austria and Italy, are agreed on this plan, it is understood, and negotiations are in progress to decide the best means of solving the awkward Balkan situation.

Desires to Spend His Remaining Years in England

NOTIFIES PRESIDENT TAFT

It Is Denied That Bryce's Resignation Is in Any Way Connected With the Controversy Over the Canal Tolls,

James Bryce, Great Britain's ambassador to the United States since 1907, has resigned. It was learned that he has sent his resignation to the British foreign office and has asked to be relieved as soon as possible, Ambassador Bryce has asked to be relieved merely because the has become tired of being absent from his own country and desires to spend the closing years of his life there. The ambassador called at the White House and had a long talk with President Taft. It is assumed that he notifled the president at that interview informally of his intention,

Ambassador Bryce's resignation coms also before any settlement has been brought about of the differences between the United States and Great Britain in regard to the Panama canal tolls. Mr. Bryce's friends denied that there was any dissatisfaction on the part of the British government with his conduct of the Panama canal tolls

In this connection it was recalled that reports were in circulation before Ambassador Bryce sailed to Australia then began firing. Steve Wallick fell last spring that he would not return to Washington.

Ambassador Bryce has been the most popular of Great Britain's ambassadors to this country. It has been said of Mr. Bryce that he not only told a great many thousands of Americans ots of things they never knew about themselves, but unfolded to Englishmen for the first time the real Amerithe board of directors of the interna- can character and more than any other individual now living had condied at his home in Haverford, Pa. He | tributed to develop the good feeling existing between the two countries.
