Another rise in the price of Pennsylvania oil was announced Monday by the Seep purchasing agency. This time the lift was 7 cents, making the price $2.12. And again yesterday another seven-cent raise was added, so that today the standard price is $2.19, and with the 10c premium paid by the Wilburine company brings the price up to $2.34 to many local producers. The two-fifty mark is freely predicted to come in a short time by the knowing fellows.
Announcement has been made that Henry Cobham has given his fine farm near Irvinton, Pa., to the Salvation Army, and that organization will find there a farm for boys. Its operation will be under the direction of the national organization in New York City. There are two buildings on the property, one a magnificent residence of brick and the other, which was erected 50 years ago after the style of architecture of that period, is of frame and castle like in architecture and dimensions. The farm was originally the home of Lord Henry Cobham.

Harry Nelson, a young man of Stewart Run, will be laid up for a few weeks from the result of a bad cut on his right foot, which he inflicted on himself Saturday afternoon while scoring ties on a job near Cashup. The blade of the axe entered his foot just back of the great toe, making a gash nearly two inches deep. He was brought here to the office of Dr. Bovard, who gave him the necessary surgical attention.

Some midnight marauders with no fear of the law's penalties before them, raided Robert A. Fulton's henney in the rear of the Central House, Friday night, and made away with a lot of nice fat chickens. These raids are becoming altogether too frequent to be funny and the raiders should bear in mind that a judge out in Ohio a short time ago gave a chicken thief an eight-year penitentiary sentence for stealing six chickens.

A company composed of a number of young men from Jameson, Pa., headed by W. F. Fessler, has secured a lease of the Clapp tract of 350 acres, lying on the hill east of the Hopkins farm, in Hickory township, and is preparing to drill a well at once, the location being made on Sibbald run. S. H. Lusher has the contract to drill the well. This company has a number of other leases in this vicinity, but will first give the Clapp property a good test. Here's hoping for good luck, boys.

Sherman Grubbs, the seven-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grubbs, who reside on the Fox creek road, in Green township, had his right hand badly injured in a feed cutting box last Friday. The boy and his sister were playing with the machine when he got his hand under the knife. A bad gasb cut diagonally across the hand just back of the knuckles, severing the tendons of all the fingers and the bones in the little finger. He was brought here, where Dr. Bovard sowed up the wound, and hopes to save the hand without crippling if no complications arise.

Wm. J. Breen, the well known Oil City lawyer, is critically ill in the hospital at Mercer, Pa., whether he had gone as attorney for some of the license applicants at the court now sitting in that county. Upon his arrival he was stricken with what seemed a heavy cold, but which rapidly developed into pneumonia. Sunday a consultation of physicians was held which included Drs. Higgins and Coulter of Oil City, and little hope was held out to the friends for Mr. Breen's recovery, but since then his condition showed slight symptoms of improvement, raising the hopes of friends that he might recover.

Farmer Fred Weingard who has passed practically his whole life on the old homestead farm which he has owned for many years, on German Hill, Green township, passed his sixtieth birthday last Friday, Jan. 24, 1913, and celebrated the event by helping to take out five dozen railroad ties on his place. Fred is one of our most successful farmers, making a study of the scientific principles involved in his occupation, and does practically all his own work. By correct living, active employment and steady habits he has managed to keep young and hearty, and bids fair to round out the other forty years and reaching the century mark in good condition.

An expert hunter of woodchucks who for years has made a study of the habits of the animal that is supposed to tip off the weather on Candelmas day, asserts that the ground hog calendar has been shot to pieces by the contrary performances of the winter season. "Woodchucks are now gamboling o'er the sea," said the hunter. "They are supposed to be snugly ensconced far underground at this season of the year, but instead of performing their usual stunt, the chucks are abroad looking for green grass or budding trees. Unless the groundhogs are wonderfully mistaken in weather conditions, residents of this locality may now abandon their bridge parties and return to the croquet ground."

Tionesta Chapter of the D. A. R. held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Shaw, Tionesta, Tuesday afternoon of last week, with Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Orion Higgins of West Hickory as hostesses. Prior to the rendering of an interesting program a short business session was held at which delegates and alternates were elected to the Continental Congress to be held in Washington the week of April 19th. The delegate elected beside the Regent, Mrs. Lillian Hunter, is Mrs. E. B. Grandin. The alternates elected for the Regent were Mrs. Nellie Conn, Miss Ida Higgins, Mrs. S. H. Evans, Mrs. S. F. Marks and Mrs. Paul Gappert. The alternates for the delegates are Mrs. B. S. Magill, Mrs. Bleakley, Mrs. G. F. Watson, Mrs. J. F. Proper and Mrs. J. F. Shansley. At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served.

Special meetings will be held at the M. E. church, beginning Sunday evening, Feb. 24. The pastor, Rev. Willis S. Burton, will be ably assisted during the meetings and the church is looking forward to a series of fruitful services. Mr. Clyde Wright, of Chaotauqua, New York, graduate of New England Conservatory of Music, has been engaged as musical director. The following will be the program for the first week: Monday evening, Feb. 24, sermon by Dr. N. A. White, pastor of the First M. E. church of Warren; Tuesday evening, sermon by Dr. H. A. Ellis, of Franklin; Wednesday evening, sermon by Dr. W. W. Dale, of West Hickory; Thursday, sermon by Dr. A. C. Ellis, of Oil City; Friday, sermon by Dr. S. H. Day, of Tionesta. These men are among the strongest preachers in western Pennsylvania. The public can not afford to miss an evening next week. Services will begin promptly at 7:30. The special music each evening under the direction of Mr. Wright as leader and Miss Olive Lanson as pianist will be a special feature. The program for the week to follow will be announced in next week's issue of the REPUBLICAN.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed.
"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and I believe I was rid of the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawville, Cal. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

PERSONAL.

Harrison Blum was up to spend the Sabbath with his parents.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lowers, of German Hill, Jan. 28, a son.
Miss Bessie Sigworth is home for a short time from Edinboro Normal.

Harry Thompson, of Nebraska, was one of our pleasant callers Friday.
Mrs. M. E. Abbott visited her husband at Kellettsville during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Robbins of Kellettsville were visitors in town Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Rich, of Dayton, New York, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Burton.
Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Killmer were guests of friends in Warren a few days last week.
Mrs. Lee Andrews, of Youngsville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hood, last week.

Mrs. A. C. Brown spent Sunday and a few days the first of the week with her mother in Brookville.
Jas. T. Brennan was down from Warren yesterday transacting business at Forest county's capital city.
Ex-Sheriff G. W. Sawyer visited the family of his grandson, George Carson, in East Brady, Pa., last week.

Miss Ida Paup pleasantly entertained a score of her lady friends at dinner Monday evening at her home on May street.
F. K. Stewart, manager of the Bell telephone in this district, was up from Oil City Wednesday to visit the company's patrons in Tionesta.

Mrs. H. E. Moody, who has been confined to her home for upward of a year by illness, seems not to improve as her many friends would like to see her do.
Misses Katharine Osgood and Blanche Pease were visitors in Tionesta Saturday and had prominent parts in the program of a teachers' local institute held in the high school building.

Friends of M. L. Range of Stewart Run will be sorry to learn of his serious illness from leakage of the heart. Report from him this morning is that there is little change in his condition.
Walter Sibble of Rocky Grove was up a part of last week visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sibble, returning Saturday accompanied by his father who remained his guest over Sunday.

Frank Hood was home from Van, Pa., several days last week to see his father, John Hood, who is improving from his recent critical illness. Mrs. Frank Hood came up Monday for a visit with friends here.

Dr. J. C. Dunn returned Monday from a two weeks' trip in the southwest, spending most of his time in Kansas City, Mo., and Bartlesville, Okla. He also visited his sister at Sioux City, Iowa, for a short time.

A. J. Burbon, of Warren, was looking up some business for his company, the J. H. West Lumber Co., in this vicinity the last of the week, and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Burbon, on German Hill.

Geo. H. Thompson, representing the Children's Home society of Pennsylvania, paid an official visit to this vicinity last week in the interest of the society for which he has accomplished so much good in the past two or three years.

County Auditors Gregg of Brookston and Warden of Endavor, were in town Monday to "sign up" on their work of going through the accounts of the county officials. The report of their findings will be published next week.

The arrival Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blum, on Pigeon Hill, of a pretty eight-pound daughter, makes ex-Commissioner Philip Emert grandfather for the first time, and the old codger is very much puffed up over the happy event.

Miss Benlah Amsler celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of her birth with a party at her home Saturday evening, in which a few of her young lady friends helped her spend a very pleasant evening with games, music and refreshments. Those present were Misses Marion Carson, Margaret Bowman, Elizabeth Bowman, Anna Mary Huling, Elsie Wolcott, Ruth Jones, Marie Abbott, Viola Sibble, Bessie Sibble, Twila Beers and Josephine Sanner.

Dr. M. C. Kerr, presiding coroner of Forest county, who has been practicing his profession at West Hickory for a number of years, has closed a contract with the Grandin Lumber Co., formerly of Tionesta, but now of Lenox, North Carolina, whereby he will go to that southern city on March 1st to take charge of a hospital and drug store for the lumber company, the position having a good fixed salary attached. The doctor's many friends will wish him and his family abundant success in their new home.

Mrs. Wm. Beer and daughter, of Starr, spent Sunday with her husband at Pine Grove Camp, in Hickory township, and on Saturday evening the young people gave Mr. and Mrs. Beer an old-fashioned serenade. Both the martial and brass bands furnished fine music, followed by hearty congratulations to the happy bride and groom, all present wishing them a long and happy wedded life. May their path be strewn with ever-blooming roses, and no sorrow ever darken their home, is the wish of the writer and their many friends.

The Mozart Club gave a delightful "open meeting" at the home of Mrs. J. F. Proper last evening at which the following program was exquisitely rendered: Piano Duet—"Polka Elegante," Franz Behr Mrs. Fulton, Miss Smeaarbaugh "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," Ingraham Mrs. Bull and Chorus Piano Trio—"Polonaise," Kramer Mrs. Robinson, Miss Herman, Miss Olive Lanson "From the Land of the Sky-Blue Water," Cadman Mrs. Bull "Sleep Baby Sleep," Strain Mrs. Feit "Valse de Dreams," Miss Davis, Miss Hunter and Chorus Piano Trio—"Polonaise," Dietrich Miss Fern Dunn, Miss Fones, Miss Olive Lanson Reading—"The Old Red Cradle," Grannis Miss Dotti "Segnorita Mims," H. ### Florida Fruit For Friends.

Ex-Mayor Reck, who is basking with his family in the glorious sun-kissed climate of Florida these days, does not forget old home friends in the northland while drowsily drinking in the ozone of the Everglade State. Accompanying a generous consignment of freshest fruit is this characteristic note: I am sending you box of fruit today, which I appreciate will not freeze as it is 83° in the shade here. We are all well and in good health, with the finest weather I ever saw. Plenty of good fruit and fish to eat, good salty air to breathe, and land boomers as busy as heck selling land to us "northern suckers." Dallas and three other men were out fishing last night and got a good scare from a big shark 10 or 12 feet long. He came up to the surface to see what they were doing, I think, and in doing so got tangled up in their net tearing it into shreds, and after eating all their mackerel sank out of sight again. I don't think the boys had any nerve left in them when they got ashore. Kind regards to all. J. D. W. RECK.
Ozma, Fla., Jan. 22, 1913.

Industries of Forest County.

To the Editor of the Derrick:
Please allow a word regarding timber, oil, gas and farm lands in Forest county, bordering on Tionesta creek and its tributaries that would be destroyed and cut off from market by the proposed dams of the Pittsburg Water Commission: Collins, Brown, Kreidler & Co., who own about 50,000 acres of timber land in Forest county. They have four large saw mills in operation, also a large chemical plant in process of construction. They have enough native timber to work upon with their present force at least 15 years, and by that time there will be a second growth on a large portion of this land that will keep them busy several years more. Had forest fires been kept out, nearly all of these lands would have grown a splendid crop of second growth timber by this time. They are natural timber lands and could be perpetuated as such. On one tract now owned by this company, containing about 2,000 acres, my father cut all the marketable pine, removing the last of it in 1865. Another party lumbered off the same tract, removing most of the large hemlock up to about the year 1870. Now there is standing upon this same tract at least 15,000,000 feet of splendid pine and hemlock timber. This company has now arranged to keep forest fires out. It is keeping men to watch the timber, and also preparing to reforest a portion of it. These lands have rich deposits of oil and gas. The company is using its own gas, producing large quantities of oil, and has a good gasoline plant in operation. A large percentage of the land has not yet been drilled or tested for oil and gas. The large chemical plant in process of construction, under the supervision of Frank K. Brown, is one of the most expensive plants in the State, costing approximately $200,000. It can be supplied with chemical wood from the company's own lands for a period of at least 25 or 30 years. It has a standard gauge railroad from Nebraska to Sheffield, a distance of about 33 miles, and is extending it to Tionesta, six miles further; besides several miles of railroad used to haul the logs, bark, wood etc., to the several plants. The company owns its rolling stock and carries an extensive freight and passenger traffic. The promoters of the Pittsburg Water Commission, in making up their list of estimated values only take into account that portion of this valuable territory that would be submerged by their dams, while in fact the Tionesta valley is the one and only outlet for this entire property and also for the vast properties of Wheeler & Dusenberry and others, which we will consider later. Practically, a large dam at or near the mouth of Tionesta creek would mean the annihilation of the entire valley with its rich timber, oil, gas, farms, railroads, etc. By the way, there are better turpentine roads extending all over this county than in any adjoining counties. It would be impossible to operate these railroads. They could not climb the hills and successfully handle the product of the county. With your permission I will have more to say again. D. B. TOBEY.
Franklin, Pa., Jan. 24.

Kellettsville.

The wet, changeable weather has caused many colds and a great deal of gripe in town for the past week. Mrs. E. A. Hisecock, Mrs. F. E. Harless, H. E. Gillespie, John Olson, George Porter and Charles Daubenack are reported on the list of those afflicted this week. There has also been quite a number of new cases of measles in the past week. Wm. Hopkins has eight members of the family down with them. Other victims this week are Ruth Sizle, Truman and Ralph Daubenack, Floyd Mimm, Esther Swallenberger and Marjorie Nash.
Mrs. Ella Wilson spent several days in Warren during the week.
Roger Lee, a fine young man weighing eight pounds, came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hendrickson, Thursday morning, seeking admission and was given a royal welcome and is very contented and happy in his new home.
Margaret Detar has been very sick since Thursday with pneumonia.

Relatives and friends of Ronald C. Spangler received cards announcing his marriage to Miss Ida C. Shaffer, of Derry, Pa., which was solemnized at the M. E. parsonage in Derry on Wednesday, Jan. 22. Ronald has purchased a house and lot in Derry and they will make that place their future home.
Mrs. Fred McNaughton was up from Nebraska Wednesday and spent the day with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Dotterer.
Rachel Hunter of Nebraska visited Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ault.

Mrs. M. D. Spencer returned from a two weeks' visit in Oil City, Saturday. She was accompanied by her two grandsons, Wayne and Clifton Cunningham, who will visit here for a short time.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Berlin were down from Mayburg visiting their parents over Sunday.

Fit His Case Exactly.

"When father was sick about six years ago he read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Tablets in the paper that fit his case exactly," writes Miss Margaret Campbell of Ft. Smith, Ark. "He purchased a box of them and he has not been sick since. My sister had stomach trouble and was also benefited by them." For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

Recent Deaths.

DAWSON.
Miss Maria H. Dawson died at her home in Tionesta Tuesday of last week, aged 72 years. She was a daughter of George H. and Maria D. Dawson, and born near Stewart Run, Forest county, then Venango, Nov. 22, 1840, and lived there until 1865. Her sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Reaser, died some years ago, and with Miss Dawson's death that immediate branch of the Dawson family becomes extinct, although she is survived by relatives, among them a cousin, W. R. Dawson, of Tionesta. She was a lifelong member of the M. E. church and a faithful follower of its teachings.
RODGEY.
J. Frank Rodgey, of Oil City, who was visiting his mother in Boston, his native home, dropped dead Friday morning, 24th, inst., at Meredith, N. H., as he was purchasing tickets for home for himself and wife. Mr. Rodgey was a painter and grainer by trade, and 22 years ago came to Tionesta where he was employed in the chair factory for a number of years. He lived in Tionesta about a year, being connected with his brother-in-law, Clark Brown in the meat business, shortly afterward moving to Oil City, where he followed his avocation as a painter. He was aged 45 years, and besides his mother is survived by his wife and two sisters. His body was brought to Tionesta for burial.

ROSEY.
Peter Rossey, aged 77, died at his home in Clarion, Pa., Tuesday evening, January 14. He was born in Clarion county, 1836, where he lived until four years ago, when he moved to Clarion, Pa. June 17, 1869, he was united in marriage with Ellen Hannold, who, with twelve children, survives him, as follows: Mrs. George Hoff, Raughis, Pa.; Mrs. Daniel Cook, Cooksburg, Pa.; Mrs. David Walters and Mrs. A. Bailey, Clarion, Pa.; Mrs. Harry McKendree, Mrs. Wm. Walters and Wm. R. Rossey of Blue Ridge, Pa.; C. B. Rossey and Mrs. Monroe Fitzgerald of Marienville, Pa.; Melvin, Clyde and Orion of Clarion, Pa. The deceased was a veteran of the civil war, and was highly respected in the community in which he lived.

HUNTER.
Mrs. Sarah J. Hunter, widow of the late William Hunter, died about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Haas, 103 Poplar street, at the advanced age of 85 years. Mr. Hunter died about 14 years ago and for the last 10 years Mrs. Hunter has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Haas. She was well known and very highly esteemed. She is survived by five children, Mrs. Morgan Shoppert of Ashtabula, O.; M. F. Hunter, Akron; Mrs. Claude Hollister, Medville; Elmer Hunter, Warren, Pa., and Mrs. Haas, with whom she resides. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. Julia A. Sutley, Oil City, and Mrs. Susan A. Beatty, Ashtabula, Ohio.
Crawford Journal, Medville, Pa., 23d.

The Hunter family were old-time residents of this community, they having at one time owned the James Carson place on Hunter Run, which farm they cleared and occupied for many years. The family sold the place for oil purposes in 1865, and moved to near Mill Village, Erie county. William Hunter was a son of the late William Hunter, head of the well remembered family by that name and who built the first bridge over the Allegheny river at this place.
RECOR.

The funeral of Mrs. Frances T. Secor, who died Thursday evening, Jan. 23, 1913, at the home of her son, Herbert S., of Ridgway, Pa., was held from the Albert Secor home, Sheffield, Pa., Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. H. M. Conaway, of Ridgway, officiating, assisted by Dr. T. F. Phillips, of Sheffield. In his address Rev. Conaway paid high tribute to the beautiful Christian life of the deceased who has passed on to her reward. Her life was one of devotion to her home and family and was lived in such a way that the influence will be felt for generations to come. The deceased was born in Sullivan county, N. Y., Jan. 18, 1844, where she spent her younger days and received her education. For several years before her marriage, she spent her life as a school teacher in her home county. In 1867 she was married to Lorenzo Secor, who was also a native of Sullivan county, N. Y., where they lived until they came to Sheffield, Pa., in 1880. From this time until 1905 the deceased made this her home, for the first 17 years until the death of her husband in 1867 as a happy and contented wife and mother. For the next eight years after the death of her husband she retained her residence at Sheffield, making a home for her daughter Marietta and two sons, Sanford H. and Edwin M.
In 1905, shortly after the death of her daughter she took up her residence with her son, Herbert S., of Ridgway, Pa., where with the exception of spending a few months each year with her son, Sanford at Nebraska, Pa., she has since made her home. She is survived by three sons, Sanford H., of Nebraska; Herbert S., of Ridgway, Pa., and Edwin M., of Toledo, Ohio, all of whom attended the funeral.

How to Bankrupt the Doctor.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the 'buck stoppers' and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and pleasant and safe to take.
