Calendar grid for February 1913 showing days of the week and dates.

TURKEY asks the powers for explanations. The point is this: It is better, when helpless, to walk out voluntarily than to bump the bumps.

THROUGHOUT the country the parcel post is adding $1,000,000 a day to the postal revenue. The new facilities will not lack cash to keep them in lively motion.

A YEAR ago there was a deficit of $25,000,000 in the national treasury. Now there is a surplus. Last year ended with a surplus and the Republican record is still in the ascending scale.

AMENDING the constitution of the United States is not as difficult as has been supposed. When the people made up their minds thoroughly the methods now prescribed worked well.

COMPULSORY voting is one of the popular subjects of legislation this year. A song bird that refuses to sing can be made to sing, and on the same theory it is possible that a legal voter who refuses to vote can be made to come across with his ballot.

ARTICLE XVI, just added to the constitution, reads: "The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration." The constitution continues to be one of the best examples of condensed language.

A RATHER incongruous provision in the parcel post law is apparent in the exclusion of books from the benefit of the cheap rates. It has been pointed out that a deck of cards may be mailed by parcel post, while the bible is excluded from its benefits. Just how this discrimination crept into the law no one is able to figure out but that it makes the popular statute appear quite like a "partial" post is the general opinion. This defect should be hastily remedied.

WRITING from the National Capital to his home paper the Brookville Republican, of which he was for many years the able editor, and which paper supported the candidacy of Col. Roosevelt, F. A. Weaver gives this fair and truthful estimate of one of America's greatest presidents: "The deportment of President Taft, since the election of his successor, has been such as to win the admiration of the thinking people of the nation. He accepts the situation with a manly fashion as to disconcert and silence his maligners. If possible he has shown increasing courage in his own convictions, and the ability to defend what he believes to be right. He has, at all times, recognized that he is the president of the whole union of states, that no section or class has a superior claim upon him for consideration. At a recent meeting of an important national organization, composed of ladies from the South, resolutions were passed reciting the many acts of the President demonstrating his consideration for the people of the South, and thanking him for public expressions of sympathy and best wishes. The adverse verdict at the polls is not accepted by him as to the least condemnatory of the principles of the party he has had the honor to represent, but simply a backward movement of the pendulum of time a reversion due to the discontent of the people, who clamor loudest for change while in the enjoyment of the greatest measure of prosperity. Taft is an optimist, has not lost faith in the people or his country, and there is an abiding belief that many who voted for a chance last November will have cause to regret his absence at the White House before the coming four years have been numbered with the past."

Spiking Their Guns.

Governor Tener's answer to the resolutions which have been introduced in the Legislature to start investigations is a fitting one. He calls upon every employe of his administration to be prepared at the end of each day's work to give a complete report of the conduct of his office or department. "We want everything to be done open and above board," says the Governor, "and there must be nothing to hide from anybody." He also adds that any member of the Legislature desiring information concerning any department, who will inform the Governor of his wishes, will be given full opportunity to obtain it directly from the head of such department. This is a plain answer to the insinuations contained in the resolutions and disarms those who prompted them for the purpose of discrediting the administration. Governor Tener has made his administration a business one and today has the confidence of the people. His open proposition to give everyone an opportunity to satisfy any suspicion they may have regarding the conduct of the State's affairs is in keeping with his past record since taking the office, -Oil City Derrick.

The postoffice department is at work on a plan for the adoption of a uniform mail box for the use of rural and star route patrons, special attention being given to the needs of the service in connection with the development of the parcel post. Rural mail boxes at present are of many varieties, but few being adapted to accommodate the larger sized packages. The matter is now in the hands of a committee of postal officers which will recommend a new style of box that will displace all boxes now in use.

Recent Deaths.

BULLDOG. Mrs. Matilda Hulings, wife of A. F. Hulings, died at the Corry hospital on the 6th inst., of cancer of the stomach, aged 39 years and 8 months. The interment was made in the cemetery at Union City, Pa. Deceased had been a member of the Free Methodist church for twenty years. She leaves her husband and six children, besides her father, two brothers, a sister and many friends to mourn her death. Rev. Mr. Hill of the F. M. church conducted the funeral services.

LYON. Elizabeth McBride, widow of the late Daniel Howe Lyon, died at her home in Butler, Pa., Thursday morning, February 6th, 1913, aged about 71 years.

Mrs. Lyon was the daughter of Robert and Mary McBride, long since passed away, and was born April 30th, 1842, in Tionesta, Pa., where the parents were residents for many years. It was here that she met and married her husband, who then drove a stage coach between Bakerstown and Franklin, on the old Warren and Franklin turnpike. Shortly after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Lyon moved to Butler in which city they continued to make their home, Mr. Lyon passing away seven years ago. Mrs. Lyon made her last visit to her son and sister here during last summer, and seemed greatly to enjoy the renewing of old acquaintanceships at that time. She was very highly esteemed by the neighbors and friends in the community in which the greater portion of her life was spent, and was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. She is survived by the following children: Thomas G., Mary B., Hannah J., John M., Samuel H., Lyon and Mrs. Margaret Armstrong, all of Butler; James C. Lyon, of Vancouver, Washington; William Lyon, of Oatlander, Washington; Miss Elizabeth Lyon, of San Diego, California, and Howe Lyon, of Tionesta. Three sisters also survive, Mrs. William Lawrence of Tionesta; Mrs. Alexander Gordon, of Elkhart, Ind.; Mrs. Sarah Davidson, residing with one of her children in the State of Washington. Funeral services in memory of Mrs. Lyon were held at her late home Saturday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. George C. Miller, and her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband in the North Side cemetery, Butler, Pa.

Mr. Campbell of Mayburg was calling in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gifford were calling on friends on Sheffield Hill Sunday.

The recent snowfall and continued cold weather has started work in real earnest. There is a heavy demand for teams for which the increased price in oil is largely responsible.

The Thimble Club met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Cousins, Saturday of last week. Daily refreshments were served and all had a pleasant time.

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effective and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. For sale by all Druggists.—Adv.

Halsey.

As it has been very cold here for some time we are all able to enjoy ourselves by skating.

R. W. Williams returned Monday from a visit with his wife and friends at Wilcox.

Mr. Peterson was called home to Bradford by the illness of his wife.

W. J. Kane was a Mt. Jewett visitor Monday.

Miss Isabel Goodwin came home Friday evening, accompanied by Walter Barber, of Hazelhurst.

Mr. Nichols of Wilcox came up to see his daughter last Tuesday and a short distance from home he saw a large red fox, which he captured and brought with him. After the men of this place saw it they all decided to go fox hunting.

Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This in almost every instance is wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. Sold by all dealers.—Ad.

Porkey.

The stork was at Minister last week and left a boy baby with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith at the Archer home. All are doing nicely and Harry has the smile that won't wash off.

Work on the new chemical plant at Kingsley has shut down for a time until the weather improves, and the three Littlefield brothers are now out of work for a short time, but J. W. Littlefield is still working inside.

The fire at Sheffield claimed one of our boys as a victim and the whole village of Mayburg is in sorrow. Joseph Gregory was one of the best young men in Kingsley township, and has a host of friends in this part also. He leaves a wife and son at Mayburg to mourn his loss. We have known this young man ever since he came to the above place and never knew any bad of him. This is a great loss for the young wife, and she has the combined sympathy of all in this time of trouble.

Rolland Daly of Wellers was a Sheffield visitor Saturday, and E. L. Littlefield of this place was also a shopper at Sheffield. O. E. Rupert was at Blue Jay at a school meeting and after oil at that place. He reports a gas well struck near Frost by the South Penn Oil Co. and Proper Bros.

The state inspection of our school buildings and grounds was completed a short time ago and the report has arrived and is in the hands of the director. We find that very few school buildings are perfect as to lighting but we can easily remedy ours to conform to the requirement. This change will be made at the close of the present term of school.

A telephone was installed in our school building last Friday that is in reality a necessity there for the convenience of the pupils attending our school from Kingsley, and will keep them out of the cold until the trails get near Porkey. They can now remain at the school building until the train reaches Hastings, and then go to the depot. There is no comfort in waiting at our depot in the winter.

George and James Welsh went to Sheffield on Saturday to spend Sunday with their mother before going to West Virginia. George will go back to the south with his brother to work in the oil field.

The daughter of Jake Lindsey is sick with pleuro-pneumonia at the home of Miles O'Donnell, at Wellers, but at the present is resting comfortably and not considered dangerous unless other complications arise.

A RESOLUTION has just been introduced in Congress to make "The Star-Spangled Banner" the national anthem of America. As in the case with other patriots, Francis Scott Key had to wait a long time for popular recognition.

—W. S. Smathers, Sheriff of Clarion County, died last evening at 7:15 o'clock, after an illness of two months. It is probable his son, Milo, who has been his father's deputy, will be appointed to the vacancy.
