SAYS the Tidoute News: Jumping Jehoshaphat—If one-half the "reform" measures introduced at Harrisburg become laws, there'll be no need for churches, Y. M. C. A.'s, W. C. T. U.'s or anything but a lot of reformers with asbestos wings.

Is a bill introduced by Congressman Speer goes through, Franklin will have a new $100,000 Federal building, that amount having been asked for in the omnibus bill now before the House. Mr. Speer does right in looking after interests of his district when it comes to the distribution of the government's funds for public improvements. The Federal government should own its own property in every town of importance, and when Tionesta gets a little bigger we shall expect our Congressman, whoever he may be, to see that our postoffice is housed in its own quarters.

RENEWED interest in the proposition to purchase, for state park purposes, the Cook lands at Cooksburg, has been awakened throughout the state by the recent publication, in the Philadelphia North American, of an article by Leigh Mitchell Hodges, a special representative of that paper, who visited the tract last fall. We have from time to time commented upon the proposition to establish a state park at Cooksburg, and we believe that the purchase of the tract by the state should receive favorable consideration by the legislature. No section of the country is possessed of finer scenic glories than Cooksburg, and at the price at which the tract has been offered to the state, it seems to be nothing short of parsimonious avarice for the commonwealth to permit of the destruction of its sole surviving primeval pine forest.—Brookville Republican.

Flinn's Fight for Rights.

The ordinary celebration of Lincoln's birthday is a dignified occasion wholly devoid of humor or flippancy. Looking back over the intervening years, men of all parties are moved to an attitude of reverence for the mighty dead and of gratitude that this Nation should have numbered among its sons one of such noble attributes. But William Flinn of Pittsburgh, national committeeman of the Progressive party in Pennsylvania, with that keen relish of publicity which is the secret of his remarkable popularity, and yet entirely lacking of funny bone, considered February 12, 1913, a good day upon which to telegraph his associated Bull Moose, in dinner assembled in Philadelphia, to this effect:

We have just begun our struggle for human rights.

To this he added assurance that, when "the Democratic party breaks up, as the Republican party has," there will be a new party known as Liberal, representing the poor man, led by Flinn and others of "the great middle class and working classes," and the Conservatives representing "aggregations of capital."

It is the personal aspect of this bit of Lincoln's day politics that possesses real interest. Mr. Flinn has begun his "struggle for human rights." Good! In the old days, when he was dominating as a Republican, he was a busy little -trugler for franchise rights, contractors' rights, property rights, employers' rights, convention delegate rights, rights involving the control of members of legislatures and of councils, rights which entitled him to name city and county officials, and all manner and degrees of rights as long as they weren't too sympathetically human in their tendencies. When he paid out $24,000 to secure power of life and death over a majority of delegates to last year's Republican state convention it will be recalled there was not much said about human rights, but a great deal for state ticket rights, state committee rights and Chicago nomination rights. Now, happily, Mr. Flinn has come around to a profound appreciation of moral forces and the recognition of human rights. This shows us that while the lamp holds out to burn there is a chance for all to be worth something to their fellow men. Mr. Flinn has begun his struggle for human rights, and it behooves any such rights as may be lying around loose, or are not effectually nailed down, to have a care. For Mr. Flinn has a taking way.—Pittsburg Gazette Times.

Stop The Inhuman Practice.

In the State Senate a bill, No. 46, is under consideration to forbid the sale in this State of the plume known as the egret, and worn only on the hats of the most fashionably dressed ladies. These feathers are grown only by the parent birds during the time when they are mating and raising their young, and they retain their lustre and are valuable only after being torn from the warm, quivering body of the freshly murdered bird, the young birdlings being thus bereft of their parents are permitted to perish by the slow and inhuman process of starvation and exposure. The tales as told of the manner in which these feathers are procured are most pathetic and heartrending indeed, and all for the purpose of "adorning" the head or hat of thoughtless women, and the enrichment of the dealers. It is said the Senate bill has been held up for a time in order that a few millions may be heard in opposition to its enactment into law. Many states have already adopted the law, among which are New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Missouri, Louisiana, Oregon and California, and unless this bill passes Pennsylvania will continue to be the head quarters of this inhuman egret trade. By all means let this bill pass. Write your Senator and Representative urging his support of this humane law. Do it today.

Kellewille.

A meeting of the Ladies Aid is called for next Friday evening at the M. E. church.

Alta Senon, who we reported as having returned to her work at Corry several weeks ago, was unable to go and is at home with a very bad case of grippe, which has kept her in bed for the past three weeks.

Mrs. E. E. Daubenspeck has been a sufferer with neuralgia for the past week. A post card shower was given Monday for Mary Harrington to celebrate her birthday. Mary has had measles and as a result is unable to walk but it is hoped she will soon regain her usual health.

At the communion services held at the M. E. Church Sunday morning six adults received the ordinance of baptism. Eleven were received into the church in full connection, and thirteen on probation.

Mrs. E. M. Porter and daughter Bessie returned to their home in Tionesta Friday.

Mrs. C. P. Cloak has been suffering with grippe the past week but is improving.

Mrs. Charles Mimm is quite sick, having taken cold while suffering with the measles.

Mrs. Albert Dunkle went to Tylersburg Saturday to attend the funeral of her niece, who died at her home in Pittsburgh.

Mr. McKenale is visiting his daughters, Ivan Carbaugh and Blanche Hendricks visited friends at Crown Sunday.

Wm. Fitzgerald, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Wm. Maxwell was off during the week on account of sickness.

An engine was run up the creek Sunday to pick up a freight car that had been upset during the week.

Mrs. Chester Pope returned from New York during the week. She reports her mother much improved.

Eva Blum and Wayne Cunningham were victims of measles this week.

The insurance inspector was here during the week looking over the rates of the fire.

Friday of this week is appointed as directors' day, when the directors will visit the school and inspect the work done by the pupils.

So many of the little folks being unable to attend school on account of sickness it was found convenient to combine rooms No. 1 and 2 for the present. Both teachers have charge of the work and things are moving along smoothly.

Those who had ice houses to fill have put in a busy week harvesting a good quality of eight and nine inch ice. A large quantity was harvested both from the pond and off the creek, and it looks as if there will be an abundance to supply all needs for the summer.

Twenty-two of the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and friends of Mrs. H. E. Murphy met at the home of Mrs. Dottser, Monday afternoon, to tender her a last farewell before she left for her home in Ridgway. The report of the National convention, as written by Mrs. Verna Shewman, was read and a dainty lunch was served. A small token of remembrance was presented to her by the ladies. Mrs. Murphy left Tuesday, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson.

Prayer services were conducted by Rev. Bryan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hartman, Saturday, for an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Berlin. Interment was made in the stone church cemetery immediately after.

M. D. Spencer was laid off during the week with a bad cold. He took this opportunity to visit friends at Tiona.

Jacob Dingle's family, of Buckmills, have all been having a severe attack of the measles.

Whig Hill.

Yes, we have had some snapping cold weather. Don't just know how cold it was but think it was down to zero, and seven notches below. Yes, the gas lines were frozen up and the old fellows were out with their little tallow dips thawing them out, humped up over the line like a bound over a mush pot, and when they got them thawed out there was no gas. Well, I just stood back in my shirt sleeves and laughed—I had lots of wood. Yes, it is warmer now, but while some growled about it being so cold and I did not like it any too good myself, yet we realized it would fill the ice houses and stop a threatened ice famine. The jobbers made the little snow that came go a great ways, yet there was no sleighing. It has been everybody's weather; those who had no sleighs or sleds could go with wagons and buggies, and those who did not have those conveyances could go on foot, and those who could not walk could stay at home, but thank fortune we have none of the latter. Some are grumbling, as it is getting near seed time, and say we will get our pay then. But the writer is learning to take it as they do out west, just as it comes. Every warm, sunshiny day is one less bad day. We are going to pull through and there is always a seed time and a harvest.

Not much doing on the bill. A few hogs to kill and a little butchering yet to be done. W. A. Kribbs has some monstrous big hogs to kill that will have to be handled with the blocks. "Billy" is onto his job; he doesn't raise 1,800 bushels of corn for naught.

Jeff Barber has been making quite a few trips out over the bill lately. He is a good sensible fellow and knows what is for the best. He has our best wishes.

The death at his home in Wilkes-Barre on Saturday of Henry W. Palmer, who was Attorney-General under Governor Hoyt, and has represented Luzerne county in Congress for the past five terms, removes one of Pennsylvania's notable men of brains, who was respected for his sterling honesty and incorruptibility in all the walks of life. He was aged 73 years.

Teachers' Local Institute at Clarington.

The teachers of Barnett township, Forest county, have arranged for a Local Institute to be held at Clarington, Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday evening, Feb. 21 and 22. Many teachers from other townships and counties have promised to help, and in order to make room for all, the local teachers will speak on Friday evening. This also gives beginners a chance to "break in." Some of the teachers who will be present are: Supt. J. O. Carson, of Tionesta, Prof. Strawbridge, Williams, and Black, of Marienville, Cook, of Ward Schools, Pittsburgh, R. D. Henderson, of Lake City, H. W. Henderson, of Summerville, Chitester, of Nebraska, and possibly J. J. Vandervort, of Sigel, Dr. Wolf, who gives the afternoon session of the Institute. Saturday evening Dr. Wolf will give his famous talk, "My Best Girl." Dr. Wolf has been on the lecture platform more than twenty years and has repeated this lecture three times in his home town of Greensburg. In this lecture Dr. Wolf will picture as his "Best Girl" the girl who is true, womanly and tender, at the same time calling attention to the abnormal specimens of femininity as he has observed them in real life. While praising his "Best Girl" for her many virtues and graces, he places strictures on the other girls, condemning their faults and failures. These word pictures are not only true to life but exceedingly funny. If you want to be entertained as only Dr. Wolf can entertain you, come to hear this lecture, which is unique and the equal of any popular lecture on the American platform. All the single fellows will certainly fall in love with his "Best Girl." The local teachers are sparing no efforts to make this institute the greatest educational feast ever gathered at Clarington and all patrons of the school, directors, and all others interested in the promoting of education are urged to be present. Teachers, pupils, parents and directors of other townships and counties are invited to attend all sessions of this institute. Program as follows: Friday Evening—8:00, Devotional, Rev. D. O. May; Preparation for High School, Roy S. Braden; The Teacher, a Missionary of Peace, Miss DeVilder; Singing; Some Facts in Astronomy, Dr. J. J. Brewer; Five Points in Discipline, Miss Matthews; Singing; Nature Study, Miss Faineky; Opening Exercises, Thos. R. Knight; Singing; Paper, Miss Eki; Course of Study, Supt. J. O. Carson.

Saturday Morning—8:15, Devotional, Rev. D. O. May; Round Boys in Square Holes, Prof. Chitester; Teaching, Studying, Testing, Prof. R. D. Henderson; Singing; Essay, "Am I to Blame," Miss Mary Cohn; The Boy at Home and at School, Prof. Cook; Singing; Essay, "Who Is Really Interested," Mrs. G. K. Braden; School Equipment, Prof. Black.

Saturday Afternoon—1:15, Agriculture in Public Schools, Prof. Williams; Essay, Mrs. Meckling; Singing; The Teacher, Prof. Strawbridge; Reading, Miss Dunkle; Singing; Life and Works of Paul Lawrence Dunbar, Prof. H. W. Henderson; English Literature, Supt. J. O. Carson; Reading, Miss Braden; The Successful Teacher and His School, Dr. Wolf.

Saturday Evening—8:15, "My Best Girl," Dr. R. D. Wolf.

Free Roads For The Farmer.

There seems to be considerable objection to the passage of the $50,000,000 bond issue for road purposes especially in the agricultural districts. This opposition arises to a large extent, no doubt, from the fact that the people do not fully understand it. The bond issue will not impose any tax upon any individual in the state, except stockholders in corporations. There is now no State tax on real estate although many people imagine that there is. The expenses of the State are borne almost exclusively by the receipts from corporate taxation and the bond issue will be cared for in the same way. It will not cost a farmer in Franklin county or in the State a single cent, but, on the other hand, will give him most excellent roads to his county seat and to other places in his county.

When the people fully understand conditions and realize what they are receiving in return for the expenditures of the money derived from the bond issue, we feel quite certain that they will regard this important matter from an entirely different view point. Surely if the Commonwealth wants to come into Franklin county and give us good roads with money paid into the State Treasury by the large corporations of the State our people would be most foolish to offer any objections by their votes.

The bond issue should pass by all means.—Franklin Repository.

The same holds good in every county in the state for every county is included in the good roads proposition, and just why any community or individual should think of refusing to accept what practically amounts to a free gift, especially one so great as good roads and the maintaining of them, is past comprehension.

Guess at Philanthropist's Identity. John M. Longyear, of Brookline, is now thought by his friends to be possibly the mysterious contributor of $2,500,000 to "Tech." Henry C. Frick, Thomas A. Edison and Andrew Carnegie are previous guesses. The list bids fair to resemble a directory of philanthropic multimillionaires. Mr. Longyear, who thus has greatness thrust upon him, made his money in ore and timber lands in Michigan and elsewhere in the west.

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effectual and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. Halsey.

Ernest Barber and sister Helen, of Hazelhurst, were visitors at the home of Mr. Goodwin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns were in Wilcox on business, Saturday.

J. J. Kane, Jr. and Elmer Wamsley were in Mt. Jewett, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kane attended church in Mt. Jewett, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts went to Oil City to spend a few days with their daughter.

Miss Desais Hottel, Miss Mae Eshelman and Harry Hottel went to Mt. Jewett Wednesday evening. A fine sleigh ride was included.

About fifty of the young people enjoyed themselves by taking a sleighride to Kane Saturday evening. Every one had a good time. The party had supper at the New Fleming Hotel at midnight.

Miss Helen Kane returned to Mt. Jewett Monday for school.

The young people have been enjoying themselves by coasting. It has been good and is still getting better.

Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This in almost every instance is wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. Sold by all dealers.—Ad.
