Have You Protection AGAINST LOSS BY FIRE? You cannot afford to take your own risk against loss by fire. Remember that we represent and will be glad to call on you when you want fire insurance that really protects. Drop us a card and we'll do the rest. We are agents in this county for the TITLE GUARANTY AND TRUST CO., and can furnish security for County officials, bank officials, etc.

14 OF THE BEST COMPANIES IN THE WORLD.

TIONESTA and KELLETTVILLE, PA

The people are taking notice of the wonderful results derived by our students during the short time they are with us. This is a good time to start a course in Warren, Pa.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Levi & Co. Lammers. Ad. H. C. Mapes. Ad Harvey Fritz. Ad. The Printz Co. Ad. Boggs & Buhl. Ad. The Kinter Co. Ad. D. S. Yager. Local. Robinson & Son. Ad. G. F. Rodda. Reader. Penn'a Ry. Two Ads. Oil City Trust Co. Ad. Grant Shuster. Reader. Smart & Silberberg. Ad. Forest Co. Nat. Bank. Ad. Sigworth Hardware. Locals. Warren Business College. Ad. New Castle Portland Cement Co. Ad. The Kinter Co. Ad

1.19

-Oil market closed at $2 50

-Is your subscription paid? -You can get it at Hopkins' store. If --F R. Lanson sells oleomargerine. tf -Adv.

-See the New Boss Washer, at Sigworth's. adv -Baled Hay and Straw, at S. S. Sigworth's. adv -WANTED.-Railroad Cross Ties. We buy all kinds and pay cash. The Berry Co., Oll City, Pa. adv L. A. DAVIS, Agt., Tionesta, Pa.

-A fire Friday afternoon in one of the Tannery dwelling houses occupied by J. D. Snyder, at West Hickory, was ex- ceived the sad news Monday that his tinguished before much damage was done

-Rev. I. E. Rossell, of Garland, Pa., is assisting in the special meetings at the M. E. church. Mr. Rossell has charge of the music and is a live wire. Everyone invited.

-FOR SALE. - A combination saw me chine for ripping, crozing, dadoing, buzz planing and bandsawing. Just new and in good condition. M. N. Hepler, Tionesta, Pa. adv2t

-There will be an entertainment at the Shriver school house in Tionesta township, Saturday evening, March 1st. Everybody cordially invited. Admis-

-Ralph Armburger, while cutting wood near his home a' Hunter Station, by a misstroke of his axe cut a three-inch State bridge in Green township. Jamesgash in the instep of one of his feet one town, N. Y., parties are doing the operatday last week. The young man was ing and the land is owned by Hon, N. P. some distance in the woods, and before Wheeler. Drilling was suspended at a reaching home suffered considerable loss depth of 1,521 feet, the operators b lieving of blood, but the wound seems now to be they had gone far enough to strike a pay healing all right.

-Thursday night was perhaps the oldest we have had this winter, the most onservative thermometers in the place indicating a temperature four degrees below zero, while some dropped to eight below. Could we have had a few inches more snow during the past two weeks of would easily have gone down in history as an ideal one after all.

-Evidently Editor Bowen of the Blizzard has gotten in wrong or has been up against it some time or other. Hear what he says: "The man who saturates himself with stale beer, before going to a moving ricture show, should endeavor to get a seat adjoining that occupied by a woman who has been eating onlons. As measure to neutralize the other." -The adjustment of the recent fire losses in Tionesta and vicinity was says: The legal battle between heirs of am'cably and satisfactorily made last Warren Business College, week by the Arner Agency in this place. The loss on Mr. Rodda's house was adjusted for the full amount of the insurance, $1,100, as was also that on the Kellettville school building, which amounted to $1,500 on the old building and contents, and $200 for damage to the new building.

This is prompt work, and speaks well for the sgency of C. M. Arner & Son. -The Corn Exchange National bank of Philadelphia has inaugurated a corn raising contest for the coming year and asks the co-operation of all who are in any way interested in education along agricultural lines. The bank offers $1,250 in prizes for the best corn grown during 1913 in Pennsylavania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. The Forest County National Bank is prepared to give you any information desired and will cheerfully answer all communications relative to this splendid enterprise.

-Acknowledgment of subscription re newals is made as follows, with thanks: D. S. Yager, Mrs. Robert McMillen (new) Endeavor, Pa; Dr. S. G. Dixon, Harrisburg, Pa; A. H. Bubl, Marienville, Pa. (new); Byron Walter, Nisgara Falis, N. Y.; Emma E. Arner, Erie, Pa. (new); Wm. Sibble, Lims, Ohl ; Pritner Agnew, Youngsville, Pa.; O. A. Jones, West Hickory, Pa; M. W. Squire, Lexington, Wash.; John Watson, Kellettville, Ps.; W. H. Harrison, Judge Irwin,

J. B. Cottle, Harrison Swab (new), Tio--Kenneth Carson, a young man who has been employed as a lumber grader at the Coleman, Watson & Co, mill, remother had died that day in Williamsport, Pa. The news was made doubly saddening to the young man in that he eastern Crawford, and was a lady whom was unable to attend the funeral, being confined to his bed at the Stahlman boarding house with a bad attack of the measles. Sidney Stabiman, a son of the proprietor, is also down with the measies. Both the young men were very sick but are now improving.

-There is considerable activity in the are plenty of oil men thereabouts at eral brothers and sisters. About four -Drilling has been resumed on the well located on the Duncan tract near the streak if one existed in that territory, but they have taken on new inspiration and hope, and will now sink the well to the Sunday. 2,000 foot depth if oil is not sooner found. -The special meetings in the Presbyterian church this week are being at town Friday. tended by good congregations. Rev. Mr. Tait, pastor of the Presbyterian church of cold weather the winter in this latitude | Wampum, Pa., and a classmate of Rev.

Mr. Bailey, is assisting that gentleman in the meetings, and is preaching some very telling sermons which you will want to hear, so accept the invitation to ham's over Sunday. attend. The services begin at 7:30 and last about one hour. Mr. Bailey expects the meetings to close with communion services Sunday morning. -According to the following dispatch from Philadelphia, the affairs of the like begets like, one odor may serve in a Economites, supposed to have long since been settled and closed, are again to be brought into the limelight. The dispatch George Rapp, once leader of the Econo-mite Society of Beaver county, and John S. Duss and Susie C. Duss, will be in the March list of the United Stales Court of Appeals for argument. The appellants are Ada J. Everitt of Jersey City and

Louisa R. Tryon of Bayonne, N. J. -Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shewman and son Alon, will leave Saturday evening for California, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. Mr. Shewman, who is editor of the Western Stock Journal, in this city, goes in the interest of that magazine. He will visit many of the stock ranches as well as the dairies in that state, and upon his return he will visit the State of Washington and probably other states of the Northwest. The Western Stock Journal is a magazine published in the interest of the stockmen and dairymen of the Northwest, and is Michigan lumber regions. one of the highest class publications of the Pacific Northwest, Los Angeles will be their headquarters while in California. -Oregon City Courier. -Mrs. Lovicy Adelia Carpenter died

Feb. 17, 1913, at the family homestead two miles west of Townville, Crawford county. She had been in ill health for some time and her death had not been unexpected. Mrs. Carpenter was born in Richmond township, Oct. 23, 1826, and was the daughter of John and Lydia (Lother) Pratt. Her whole life was spent in this township. Early in life she was united in marriage to Riley Carpenter, who died about three years ago. She is survived by six children, one of whom, James E. Carpenter, has been a resident of Forest county for many years and at present resides at Endeavor, Pa. Mrs. Carpenter was a lifelong christian and one of the best known church workers in | into the Wenk old homestead house.

everyone loved and respected. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCool attended the funeral of the latter's uncle, Maurice Soyder, at St. Michael's church, Fryburg, last Wednesday morning Mr Snyder died Feb. 10th in the Oil City bospital, after a long illness. He was Forest county oil fields since the price of For the past 15 years he was proprietor George Grove, of Titusville, were among crude oil has ascended to the $2.50 mark of the Eiserman hotel at Fryburg, where the relatives who attended the funeral of and one of the Republican's correspond- he was a highly respected citizen. He Mrs. Homer Johnston, at Tylersburg. ents from that section writes that there leaves a wife and five children; also sev- Tuesday.

Mrs. Homer Johnston.

PERSONAL.

-Joseph Green, of West Hickory, gave us a pleasant call yesterday.

-Mrs. Charles Hunter is visiting he son George S., at Sheffield, this week. -Miss Kate Reed, of Oil City, was guest of Miss Ruth Dimond, Monday, -Miss Norma Perrine, of Oil City, was the guest of Miss Hazel Fones over

-W. P. Crouch and Charles Gesin of East Hickory were business visitors in pany with--Mrs. G. T. Anderson and daughter Maude Elizabeth were in Oil City, shopping, Saturday,

-Mrs. S. W. Farmer and two sons, of Tidioute, were guests at Edward Gra-The next morning McMichael was found dead. His two companions and the man

-A. L. Thomson is slowly recovering at whose house they were put him in a from a crushed foot which he received hack, without a coffin or box and brought about three weeks ago. him home, a distance of 25 miles, arriv-

-William and Chester Mealy, of Tioing about 6 o'clock in the evening. The marks on his face indicated he came to nesta township, went to Kane Friday for a visit with their sister.

fully removed from Venango county to -Mrs. Lucy Thomson and friend, Miss Clarion county without a doctor's certi-Cora Maurer, of Bradner, Ohio, spent ficate or burial permit. You will notice Saturday in Oil City with Mrs. H. H. that the death certificate claims he died in Bruner. Farmington township, Clarion county, al-

-Mr. and Mrs. R.O. Carson drove over so that he died as the result of a drunken from Neilltown, and were guests for the debauch, having been drinking hard for day at the home of their son, Samuel T., four weeks. These are false statements. Saturday. If this matter is closely investigated it

-Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rodgers and son will show that he was removed and Thomas, of Louisville, Ky., are guests at buried and the permit was trumped up the home of Mrs. Rodgers' mother, Mrs. afterwards." A. B. Kelly.

A telephone message to Dr. Kable, o -Miss Ruth Dimond and Miss Hazel Knox, who signed the certificate, was to fones entertained a large party of their the effect he found no marks upon the young lady friends at the latter's home, man that would indicate he had met with Friday evening. foul play .- Oil City Blizzard. Very small credence is given the above story by peo--Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Gaston were ple acquainted with the facts, and hardly alled to East Palestine, Ohio, last week any one credits the story of foul play, by the illness of the former's mother, Mrs. Frances Gaston.

-W. G. Wyman spent Sunday at home having returned from a lumber purchasing trip extending over six weeks in the county, and about five miles from -O. A. Jones, of West Hickory, was Marienville, where the Central Pennsyltransacting business in town yesterday vania Lumber Co, has been operating for and found time to give the REPUBLICAN the past four or five years. The large office a pleasant call while here.

tract of land which a few years ago was -Fred. Slocum, who is back at his covered with choice virgin hemlock, has ormer position as traveling engineer for now been denuded, and the lumber has the Heisler Locomotive Works, in Erie, been sent to all parts of this broad counwas home to spend Sunday with his try. The village of Loleta has been a family. prosperous one, and is on the borderland

-Mrs. J. R. Morgan was seized with a of Elk county, just within the confines of avere attack of heart weakness while at- the lines, which separate that county tending services at the M. E. church from Forest. It was founded by Col. Monday evening. Friend+ will be glad to learn that she is much improved this morning.

-Isaac Thomas of Williamsport has ccepted the position of bead sawyer on the Coleman, Watson & Co. mill, under the superintendent, Mr. Seewald, and is now a resident of Tionesta, having moved

-Hugh Miles of Fagundus last week Tuesday, suffered a slight attack of paralvais, but h pes are that he will rally, although we are under the impression that it is his second attack. We sincerely hope he will make good.-Tidioute News. -Mrs. S. C. Johnston, Barvey Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston, Mrs. near Ridgway, where there is said to be a aged 56 years and was born in Lucinda. George Henshaw, of Tionesta, and Mrs.

-Mrs. Forest C. Proper entertained at present, leasing all the land that at pres- years ago Mr. Suyder was held up and an elegently appointed six o'clock dinner shot in a lonely part of the road on the at her home Friday evening. Twelve of way to Clarion by one of three foreigners her intimate lady friends were seated at he noticed standing by the roadside. The the prettily decorated table while the sixman suddenly sprang to his horse's head course menu was served, the favors btand grabbed the bridle, while another ing beautiful pink rosebuds. fired the builet intended for his temple, -John M. Wagner, proprietor of the which only made a small wound on his Red Lion Hotel at Lickingville, was forehead, with force to knock him untaken to the Kane hospital Monday for conscious from his buggy, where he was an operation for hernia, which was perfound some time afterward. His watch formed Tuesday morning. He was getand considerable money he had along to ting along nicely, according to a report from his home this morning.

Foul Play Is Alleged. County Detective Hiram B. Brown, of

Franklin, has forwarded to Coroner Mc-Elroy a copy of a letter he received Thursday from a resident of Lickingville, Clarion county, who is evidently much concerned regarding the death of Edward M "Michael, of that place, which occurred April 21, 1912. The writer says:

"I send you a certificate of the death of Michael. I am well acquainted with the case and parties concerned in this matter. The facts are that on the morning of Holly Stationery. April 20, McMichael left home in comfor a horse deal. Everything in China. That evening they stopped at a house in Comb and Brush Sets. Rockland township, Venango county. McMichael and another fellow went to Knight's still house and got whiskey. Cigar Cases.

> Toilet Sets. Music Rolls.

> > Framed Pictures

One-Fourth

Off

his death by foul play. He was unlaw- Pictures for Framing. Books.

25c Books 20c.

50c Books 40c. New Editions $1.10

The Leading Jeweler,

please you.

32 Seneca St.,

Repairing.

Our repair department is or equipped to do the most difficult repairing

At Reasonable

Prices.

We use only the Best of Material

And take a pride in our workmanship.

Once we have done your repair work you'll not have it done anywhere else.

Try us and see if we cannot more than

HARVEY FRITZ,

Oil City, Pa.

Cushion Sole Shoes.

Good health demands that your feet be kept warm and dry. Our Cushion Sole Shoes for Men and Women afford the greatest comfort for winter wear. In these Shoes your foot rests upon a soft insole of fine felt covered with kid-Eye Opener Prices under which lies a layer of cork, followed by a heavy outer sole.

Cushion Sole Shoes afford an equal foot pressure at every point. A sure cure for corns and bunions

Try a pair of our Cushion Sole Shoes, and see what an ocean of comfort lies in LEVI & CO. Corner Center, Seneca and Sycamore Streets, OIL CITY, . PA.

Farmers' Institute Program,

large body of hemlock still standing.

Loleta To Be Abandoned.

Last week the last log was sawed on the big mill at Loleta, a bustling lumbering town located just over the line in Elk

Following is the program of the Farmers' Institute to be held at Clarington, Monday and Tuesday, March 3d and 4th:

on all Odds and Ends

This Is It.

-FOR SALE-Sears Motor Car, run one season, in good condition. Canvas cover for same, and a 60-gallon gasoline tank, Write or inquire. D. S. Yager, Endeavor, Pa. ndvät

-Oleomargarine always fresh, always the same price and making new friends each day, at 20c per pound in nine pound lots, at the Salmon Creek Mercantile Co., Kellettville, Pa. ad v.

-Why pay an agentaix or seven dollars for a National Vacuum carpet cleaner when you can get one for four dollars with a year's subscription to the best paper published in Forest county thrown into the baryain.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Siggins and family, of West Hickory, wish to express their thanks to the friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown them during their bereavement, the death of disappearance. their beloved son and brother, Wm. W. Siggins.

-Committee No. 4 of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold a market in the basement of the church Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Give the ladies your patronage and at the same time get something good for your Sunday dinner.

-Every ice house in town is now chuck full, the extra freeze last week coming in just right to make the harvest complete, and an excellent quality of 10-inch ice. clear as crystal was garnered. The fear of an ice famine next summer is thus happily dispelled.

-E.E. Douty, who has the contract for stocking the Coleman, Watson & Co, mill, lost another good horse by death last week, making two within a few weeks. Another horse on this job had * one of its legs badly injured Monday, but it is thought the animal can be saved.

-WANTED-A reliable, capable man or woman in Tionesta or vicinity who is able to devote whole or part time to solicit fire insurance at reduced rates and health and accident insurance by old established companies. Apply James Wilson, 512 Trust Co. Bidg., Franklin, Pa. adv.tf

-The second quarterly meeting of the burg, and brank B. of Woodlawn, Pa., M. E. church will be held Thursday eve- and two daughters, Mrs. Mark W. Graning and Sunday. Dr. A. R. Rich, of Oil ham of Grove City, and Miss Deborah at City, District Superintendent, will preach home. on Thursday evening and will hold the quarterly conference. Love Feast and of William P. and Elizabeth (Walters) Communiou service on Sunday evening. Siggins, died at his home in West Hick-The special meetings will continue all of ory, Pa., Tuesday morning, Feb. 11, 1913, this week.

-The fourth annual Farmers' Week complication of diseases. He was born will be held at Greenville, Mercer county | at West Hickory 45 years ago, and with March 2 to 7 inclusive. During this the exception of a short period spent in week the farmers of Western Pennsyl- Canada in oil well drilling, which was vania are invited to spend four full days his occupation, his whole life had been with the scientists from State college, who spent in his native town. His wife and are working upon sgricultural principles two children survive, besides his parents and their application to farm practice, and the following brothers and sisters: These men have spent years of time in Mrs. Nettie Agnew, Mrs. Pearl Carson, special phases of agriculture so that their Mrs. Emma Shaw, Mrs. Bertha Young, training and experience make them more and Truman, Earl, Isaac and F. E. Sigor less authorative in that particular of work. The discussion and # will take a wider range so the in all its phases will be brough ent is not under lease. This same correspondent, who resides at Pigeon, writes that the well being drilled on the Crawford lands, west of Frostlown, is producing 650,000 feet of gas a day in the Clarion sand and that the flow is increasing the deeper they go. - Kane Republican, 14th. -Marie N. Dunn, daughter of P. R. R. Conductor James Dunn, of Oil City, has been a issing from her home since a week ago Sunday, night, 9th inst., and al-deposit in a Clarion bank was taken. though diligent search and inquiry has been made by the distracted parents, police and friends, not the slightest clue Mrs. Maude Johnston, wife of Homer as to her whereabouts has been dis-C. Johnston, and daughter of Amos and covered. It is feared she may have fallen through the Valley railroad bridge into the river, as she had intended crossing Pa., June 18, 1883, and died of heart failthe river to call at the home of friends of ure at her home in Pittsburg, Pa., February 14, 1913. She was united in marher family. She was a young woman of riage with Mr. Johnston, who was then a refinement an culture, and had a bost of resident of Tionesta, about & years ago, triands who are distracted at her strange and for a short time made their home here, afterwards moving to Marienville, and about three years ago removed to

-Herman Aulbach, aged 55, a native and life-long resident of Fryburg, Clar-Pittsburg, where Mr. Johnston was enion county, and for the past tifteen years gaged in the jewelry business. employed as manager of the old Washthe parents she is survived by her huslogton Hotel there, died at the Oil City band and two children, A mos and Helen, Hospital at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, aged respectively 7 and 5 years. The following an operation for an obstruction body was brought to the old homestead of the bowels. He had been sick for four on Monday, and vesterday the funeral days previous to being taken to the hospital, and the operation had been decided upon as the last resort. He was never married and his parents died many years ago, He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Al. Smover, of Sugarcreek, and Miss Elizabeth Aulbach, of Oil City; a half-sister, Mrs. Frank Siegel, and a half-brother, Julian Beichler, both of Fryburg.

their irreparable loss, -Mrs. James B. Pearsall, for many years a resident, with her husband and family, at Clarington this county, died at the family home in New Wilmington Lawrence county, Pa., Tuesday of last this vicinity. week, Feb. 11, 1913, aged 60 years, Mrs. Pearsall was a native of Jefferson county where her younger days were spent, and after leaving Clarington, where her husband was engaged in mercantile pursuits for about ten years, the family moved to Grove City, Greenville, and lastly to New cemetery at West Hickory.

Wilmington. She is survived by her husband, two sons, William B. of Pittsing the speaker.

-William Walters Siggins, eldest son for dinner. after nearly two years of ill health from a this place at present.

Miss Anna Agnew, of Fisher, is work-

ins. Funeral services were held Thurs-Ala day afternoon, Rev. W. W. Dale officiating, followed by interment in the Siggins

-Selden S. Benedict of Titusville was Friday while attending to business maters in Tionests. Mr. Benedict bas some gasoline plant.

Franklin News says: "Dr. George Sigins is slowly improving, but it may be a ong time before he will be able to reome his practice, Dr. Henry is still here and is doing good service in his prolession. His intention is to return to Oil City as soon as Dr. Siggins is sole to resume his practice."

-J. R. Squire, whose farm is up near the County Home, was one of our genial business callers vesterday. He says the services were held in the Hagan church. being conducted by Rev. Mr. Wygant. people up in his neighborhood are keeping a close watch on the well drilling on The deceased was universally respected Sibbald run, with high hopes that the and loved for her many good traits of ingular may be tapped by the operators character, and her death is sincerely mourned by all who knew her. To the causing rivers of oil to gash forth from parents, husband and children the symthe bowels of the earth. pathy goes out in heartfelt sincerity in -Mrs. Cora Watson Feit delightfully entertained about forty friends at her home last Friday evening, the amusement feature of the evening being pro-Clode Ward and family are down from gressive "500." The decorations of the Kane visiting friends and neighbors in rooms were pink rosebuds and St. Valentine fancles and the valentine designs John Hall fell from a car at Marienwere also artistically carried out in an elegant two-course lunch served at midville, recently. The distance was about eight feet and he was quite badly hort. night. The gas field on Hominy Ridge caused -Miss Adelya Randall and Dr. F. J. quite an excitement last week. Bovard, as officers of Sylvania Chapter, Gladys Braden received quite a num-Order of the Eastern Star, were in Tiber of post cards on her birthday. dioute last Wednesday night and had a There will be a lecture in the M. E. part in the exercises when a new chapter church at Clarington, Saturday evening, known as Economite Chapter, No. 144, Feb. 22, R. D. Wolff, of Greensburg, bewas constituted. A large number of the state officers were present and the degrees

Besides

Mrs. John Knight was called to Bedwere conferred by Holly Chapter, No. clyffe unexpectedly Saturday, her daugh-91, of Oil City. ter and grandson being seriously ill.

Cooksburg.

-Harrison Swab of Hunter Station was The quilting at Gus. Cook's was well attended, there being twenty-seven there Mrs. Gurr is head cook at the hotel at Cook's teams are busy hauling lumber to Vowinckel.

ing at T. B. Cook's.

The Best Cough Medicine.

Remedy ever since I have been keeping edies I ever used. My children bave all

General Farming Session, Monday Afternoon, March 3d.-2:00, Music; Prayer, Rev. D. O. May; Address of Welcome, Hon. A. R. Mechling; Response, J. A. Runk: The Need of Lime in the Soil, E. L Phillips; Soiling Crops-How to Handle and Feed Them, L. W. Lighty; Alfaifa, J. A. Runk.

Educational Session, Monday Evening. -7:30, Music; Question Box; Beginning the Poultry Business, E. L. Phillips; Essay-Attractive Country School Grounds, Mrs. Jennie B. Potter; Central Township High School, Prof. Roy S. Brader; The guest of his uncle, Judge Irwin, last Rural School As It Should Be, L. W. Lighty; Reading.

General Farming Session, Tuesday and interests in this county. He is also Morning, March 4th .- 10:00, Soil Manage interested in oil operations about Enter-prise, where he also has an up-to date cial Excliner and How to Use It, E. L. Phillips; Maintaining and Improving the -The Venus correspondent of the Fertility of the Soil, L. W. Lighty; Discussion Open.

Tuesday Afternoon,-2:00, Question Box; Music; Lime, J. A. Runk; Good Roads-How to Get Them, E. L. Phillips; Culture and Feeding of the Coin Crop, L W. Lighty.

Ladies' Session, Tnesday Evening .--7:30, Music; Question Box; Home Sanitation, J. A. Runk; Our Boys and Girls, Mrs. A. R. Mechling; Construction of Poultry Houses, E. L. Phillips; Essay-San tary Arrangements of Country Homes, Mrs. A. B. Braden; The Farm Home As It Should be, L. W. Lighty.

Horses! Horses!

Two carloads. The greatest opportunity of your life to get a good horse, cheap, at Edelblute's barn, rear of New Jefferson Hotel, Brookville, Pa., Monday, Feb. 24, 1913. This will be the finest lot of horses you ever saw together. Light and heavy horses. Will sell and trade. All horses guaranteed as represented. I will stay two weeks.

adv2t GRANT SHUSTER, Brookville.

Wanted for Cash.

White Oak Spoke Timber, delivered at Mantel Works, Tionesta, Pa. adv EAGLE SPOKE WORKS.

Flour and Feed Prices.

Retail prices for Flour and Feed at Lanson Bres.' Grist Mill, Tionesta, Pa.: 1.50 per anck 1 25 per sack

Monday. He it is who furnishes pretty much all of our residents with milk, and Cotton Seed Meal. Buck wheat Middlings 1 50 per saci a good quality it is, too. Harrison is on Cracked Corn ... 1 30 per sack the job early in the mornings and finds Oyster Shells and Mica Grit that he has about all the custom he can Shelled Corn65 per bu. .45 per bu. Oats probably take on a few more, even if he Best Crescent Portland Ce-... 1 60 per bbl.

Adv.-If

Don't You Believe It.

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others -why not you? Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by sil dealars.-Aiv.

G. F. RODDA.

867

We Put On Sale Monday Morning 76 Long Trouser Suits for Boys

Youths.

These suits are made of handsome worsteds and cheviots in medium light colors every suit offered is made from absolutely all wool cloths, and tailored in first-class manner and as good clothing as we ever sold-sizes are 32 to 37 chest measure for boys from 16 to 20 years old, but there is only one and two of a sort, which only hurts selling qualities as all sizes are not in stock to fit a customer.

Suits up to $12.00 are now

$6.50

Suits up to $20.06 are now

$12.75

Boys' Overcoats.

3 to 16 sizes.

We will save you some money on a Boys' Overcoat if he can use one. We have more than we need in our business and plenty of opportunities to make a dollar or two at least.

Notice to Trespassers.

Tionests, Feb. 18, 1918.

handle, although in a pinch he could

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Any person trespassing upon or molesting anything upon the property of the undersigned on River street, will be

