THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK. - EDITOR & PROPRIETOR. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 1913

PRESIDENT WILSON on Monday issued a proclamation calling an extra session of Congress to assemble April 7th. The President specified no subject for the extra session, but it is fully understood that his message to Congress at its opening will dwell upon the need of tarifl revision. And now maybe he'll have "a Congress on his bands," as a certain other President had.

THE generous approval of the project to the northern markets. A mighty profit purchase, for state park purposes, the was made by all the past winter on ac-Cook tract at Cooksburg, given by the count of the bounteous crops and the press and public of the state, leads to the good prices. All the truck land is being hope that the Legislature will authorize replanted, and I notice that where a crop the purchase at the present session. We feel that there is little that we can add to taking its place, and in some cases potawhat we have already said at various toes. Trucking is a science here and any times concerning the wisdom of such old kind of a farmer won't succeed. One purchase. Having stood beneath the arch. must know how to cultivate the soil, what ing boughs of the virgin pines which to plant at each particular spot, how clothe a portion of the tract as one who much fertilizer to use and when, and then had suddenly left the world behind him how to look after the plants while they and stood, indeed, in God's flist temple, are growing. Irrigation and drainage we deem it sacrilege to think of touching enter into the business too, and taking it these majestic trees with the ax of the all together there is something more than lumberman. To know the Cook tract is just hard work in trucking in Fiorida. to love it, and we have sinall wonder that The thousands of graduates of the norththose who know it best are willing to ern colleges who took agricultural sink the thought of larger personal profit courses can put to good use all the knowlwhich might come to them in the cutting of the timber thereon, in the hope that it may be preserved to the people of the state as a perpetual reminder of the state's sion. Really Interesting Item.

"A newspaper receives daily for publication," says the Berliner Tage blatt, "a lot of stuff which has about as much literary value as a laundry slip. But occasionally something comes along which, unknown to the writer, is so funny that it sees the light of publicity. Thus, a corresspondent calls attention to the fact that the drama 'Royal Love,' which was seen for the first time at the Gira Theater, is by Baron Rosenkranz who is a direct descendant of Rosenkranz and Guildenstern, known to the world through Shakespeare."

fiends. People who are borrified by the of Dr. Kerr. The Endeavor orchestra tales of opium eaters are often bound to some babit which is almost as bad. The man who is constantly taking medicine to "tone up his system" is just as much a victim of the drug habit as if he were taking cocaine.

The best man, like the best horse, is the one who works without the whip. Unless a doctor prescribes, avoid all tonics. If you use coffee and tea as stimulants instead of as beverages you had better give up both. If you are tired and sleepy it is because nature needs a rest, not the whip. Stimulants should be used only in great emergencies; and remember that emergencies occur rarely-not every other day.

Insanity is increasing at a fearful rate. Tuberculosis kills more than ten thousand people in Pennsylvania every year. Both diseases readily take hold of systems which have been overworked by the use of drugs and stimulants. If you teel in need of an impetus to help you work, turn to nature. Make this your motto:

"The best tonic is fresh air. The best restorative is sleep.

The best stimulant is exercise. Fatigue calis for rest, not the spur".
