—Among the Crawford county friends to receive distressing news from the Dayton flood is Mrs. Joseph Seelye of Greenwood township, who on Saturday was informed that her sister, Mrs. Owens, and family had all been drowned. While details were very meagre, Mrs. Seelye takes the information to mean that her sister, her husband and son all perished in the terrible floods.

—A public demonstration of orchard spraying will be held at the orchard of Mrs. Mary M. Maza, at Hordville, Barnett twp., on Wednesday, April 10, at 11 o'clock p. m. The demonstration will be given by an expert of the State Agricultural department, and will take place rain or shine, so that the public need not fear disappointment on account of weather conditions.

—Many friends will learn with regret of the critical illness of Daniel Walters, one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens. Early last week he was taken ill with pneumonia, which, complicated with heart weakness, has rendered him a very sick man, but friends are somewhat encouraged by a slight improvement in his condition. Mrs. Walters was also very ill but is now much better.

—Christina, the 72-year-old wife of August Peters, near Chandler's Valley, is dead, and Willard Ash, about 45 years old, of the same community, is in the Warren county jail under suspicion of having been the cause of the aged woman's death, which is thought to have followed a criminal assault believed to have been committed on her by Ash, at the Peters home between 4 and 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Coroner DeForest of Warren county has impounded a jury and is investigating the case.

PERSONAL.

—Farmer J. H. Allio made us a business call Monday.

—L. H. Menach of Marienville is a visitor in the city today.

—Edward Rudolph of Whig Hill was a friendly caller yesterday.

—Harry H. Smith, of West Hickory, was a business visitor in Tionesta yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. W. Reck and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Reck came home yesterday from their winter's sojourn in balmy Florida.

—W. J. Miller of Kellettville was a business visitor in town Monday and found time to give us a pleasant call while here.

—Mrs. George W. Warden and daughter, Miss Mary Alice, who spent the past winter in California, have returned to their Enslaver home.

—Delbert Decker and Robert Sigworth pleasantly entertained the high school graduating class at their homes, the former on Thursday evening and the latter Friday evening of the past week.

—John G. Hunter is moving his family to Oil City this week, where he is employed on the P. R. R. Sorry to lose our good citizens but wish them prosperity and happiness in their new home.

—Miss May Lanson is home on a short vacation from Oberlin, O. College. Miss Olive Lanson had been visiting her cousin and they came home together, but the flood held them at Oil City for two days.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Shadel of Brookville were over the first of the week to visit Mrs. Shadel's sisters, Mrs. Joseph Morgan and Mrs. H. E. Moody, the latter of whom has been seriously ill for many months.

—Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Donley have returned from Williamsport and again taken up their home in Tionesta. Mr. D. will keep the big saws in condition at the Coleman, Harter & Co. mill this season.

—J. T. Flick, who has had a tie job out on the Curran tract, Tionesta township, the past year, and lives on the Wm. Nicol farm, gave us a call Monday. He expects his job to last him through the coming summer.

—Our veteran friend George Swab of Hunter station gave us a pleasant call yesterday afternoon. Mr. Swab is one of the survivors of the great battle of Gettysburg in 1863, and if he keeps his health will attend the fiftieth anniversary of that momentous event next July.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, who reside on the Hopkins farm, were made happy last Friday morning when the stork brought them a fine healthy boy. On Sunday the stork performed the same service for Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Carbaugh of Newmansville, except that in this instance the newcomer was a pretty little daughter.

—James F. Jones, of East Hickory, gave the REPUBLICAN office a pleasant call Monday afternoon. He says they had water plenty last week up in his town, but it was "lack water" and very quiet, doing little or no damage, unlike the terrific flood of July 3, 1908, which wrought great havoc to public and private property in that community.

—J. B. Hagerly has moved his family into the Hepler house on South Elm street. The Urey house which he vacated will be occupied by Sam. T. Carson's family. James Canfield will move into the house vacated by Carson, on West Walnut street, and Clifford Foreman will occupy the house vacated by Canfield, corner of East Bridge and Vine streets.

—Mrs. G. W. Bovard and son, Dr. Bovard, were in Oil City Sunday to attend the funeral of the late George W. Parker, who was a cousin of Mrs. Bovard. Mr. Parker was one of Oil City's pioneer bankers, as well as one of the city's most prominent and enterprising citizens. He was aged 72 years and leaves two sons, William M. and Harold T., surviving.

—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shewman, and son Alon, who left here about a month ago for California, where the former went for the interest of the Western Stock Journal, of which he is the editor, are for the present at Bakersfield but will soon leave for Fresno, and will visit the Sacramento Valley on their return trip. They have been at Los Angeles and at Long Beach since leaving here.—Oregon City Courier.

—Mrs. L. W. Barnhart and two children, Margetta and Walter, who have been visiting Mrs. Barnhart's uncle, Rev. A. H. M. Zahniser of 308 Metcalf street, left Wednesday afternoon for Port Allegheny, Pa., where they will visit other relatives. Mrs. Barnhart has spent the past five years in the west and is visiting relatives in the east before taking up their residence in a new home in California.—Ridgway Democrat.

—W. G. Wyman was home over Sunday with his family. It is his intention to move to Erie within the next ten days or two weeks where his interests have been for the past year and a half. Many Tionesta people will regret exceedingly the removal of an excellent citizen and family from their midst, and as our next door neighbor the REPUBLICAN shares especially in this regret, yet we hope their new home proves one of pleasure and profit to them. We understand Dr. Gregg will move into their pretty home here.

—Hart Lawrence came home from Perry, N. Y., last Wednesday morning, having by mere chance caught the last train to reach Tionesta prior to the shutdown on account of the flood. He left Buffalo Tuesday morning reaching Perry several hours late, and from there the train was sent to Erie, thence to Ashabula, and from there over the Lake Shore to Oil City, where it landed in the evening. A gas famine was on in that city and it was "nip and tuck" to get a morsel to eat. He managed to survive the night and reached home in the morning in time to get a good breakfast of ham and eggs.

—Straight at It.

There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as we can see why you should need so. This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by all dealers.—Advt.

The Great Flood Now History.

The States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have just emerged from the greatest floods in the history of the nation, the two latter states having borne by far the greater part of the brunt.

While the loss of life has been great, yet happily, as the flood waters recede, it is shown that the early reports of deaths were greatly overestimated, and it is now thought that the number of drownings in Ohio and Indiana may not exceed 500, while first reports ran the number up into the thousands.

The property losses are simply appalling in the cities and towns that were located near streams in Ohio and Indiana, the greatest, of course, being in Dayton, Ohio, which is almost wiped off the earth.

Other towns in that state which suffered terribly in both loss of life and property are Columbus, Mansfield, Hamilton, Mount Vernon, Chillicothe, Venice, Piqua, Fremont, Middletown, Tiffin, Massillon and Zanesville, Peru, Brookville, Fort Wayne and Terra Haute in Indiana were the greatest sufferers in that state, but the loss of life was nothing like the number first reported, and it is thought the total may not reach a hundred.

In Pennsylvania Sharon suffered the most damage, the loss of life being between five and ten and the property loss something enormous.

The country is responding nobly to the calls for help. The general government has taken up the work and is aiding with money, clothing and food supplies, while every state in the union is raising and sending funds to the stricken districts both as private and public contributions.

Locally there was slight damage as compared with other sections, the flooding of cellars and houses comprising the only damage sustained to speak of. The interference with railroad traffic was the most notable inconvenience which our citizens had to contend with, and the most complete shutting off of the mails for the greater portion of the week made us all lonesome and hungry for news.

The river at this point reached its highest mark about the noon hour on Wednesday, and it then still lacked 18 to 21 inches of reaching high water mark in March, 1865. It had fallen only 4.5 inches up to midnight, Wednesday, when it began to rise again and by Thursday afternoon was within three inches of the original mark. From that time on the Allegheny receded rapidly.

Kellettville.

Last week was noted principally in Kellettville, as well as other places, by the amount of rainfall and discomfets of the high water. It began to rain Sunday afternoon and continued most all week. On Tuesday there was such a downpour that all outside work had to be abandoned for the day. The creek was bank full all week and at several places it broke over into the road a portion of the S. & T. R. R. was under water. The passenger train was unable to get to Nebraska for several days on account of one of the rails giving way at a place below town where the track was entirely covered with water. Cellars were flooded and the flats were covered but no damage was done more than the dirt which such a flood usually makes. While other places report the highest water in many years, Kellettville escaped with only an ordinary flood, the water not being as high as it has been many times before and not reaching the height that it did in the January flood.

Miss Kate Guenther had an enforced vacation during the week at her school at Porkey, the water being so high the children could not get to the school house, and she spent the week at home.

L. J. Catlin of Jefferson, Ohio, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Tobey, for a few days.

The play, "Between the Acts," given by the Mandolin Club was a success in every way. On Thursday evening the crowd was not as large as it would have been if there had been better heating facilities, but on Saturday evening this was overcome by placing wood stoves and they were greeted with a full house. The different characters were all well represented and the audience was well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

U. S. Day arrived in town Wednesday evening with his family and are at home with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pope, until there is a house vacant for them.

Rev. A. H. Wierzbinski was in town Sunday and conducted services in the Catholic church. It being a fifth Sunday he had the whole day for this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ault entertained sixteen of the boys and girls on Tuesday afternoon, March 25, from two to seven, to celebrate their son, Milo's, thirteenth birthday. After the surprise of the occasion was over the time was spent in playing games and pulling taffy until late, when lunch was served, and at seven they departed for their homes, declaring they had the time of their lives. Although the invitations said no presents, there were a number of pretty presents given.

The W. C. T. U. held a meeting at the home of the President, Mrs. Ellen Catlin, Wednesday afternoon, and the subject of "Mercy" was discussed. The next meeting, April 9, will be the due social and every member should be present.

Harry Smith of Mayburg was a guest at the home of Albert Dunkle, Sunday.

James Blyler went to work again Monday after an enforced idleness of five weeks nursing his sore fingers.

Tena Zuendel of Ross Run was calling on friends in town Saturday. Mr. Zuendel has disposed of his farm at Ross Run and would like to buy a house and lot in Kellettville, but has not succeeded thus far in finding one for sale.

The Ladies' Aid met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. L. Watson and settled up their accounts. They decided to paper the M. E. church and a committee was appointed to secure samples of church paper.

Roy Berlin of Mayburg visited his mother, Mrs. W. A. Hartman, Sunday.

Printz Philips spent several days in Salamanca, N. Y., last week.

M. D. Spencer came home from Mayburg Wednesday.

Cough Medicine for Children.

"I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for that length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Mapleton, Iowa. "I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep or lie still at night. Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since." For sale by all dealers.—Advt.

Recent Deaths.

STRICKENBERG.

On Friday forenoon, March 21, 1913, at about 11:00 o'clock, Harry, the second son of Albert N. and Mary Ellen Strickenberg, former residents of Tionesta twp., died at his home near Marble, Pa., aged 17 years, 2 months, 4 days. He was a kind, noble and affectionate son, and a faithful member of the St. John's Lutheran church at Fryburg. He took sick a few days before his death with measles, which disease overcame him and caused his death. The funeral services were held at the house on Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. Wm. L. Price. The funeral text was taken from the 23rd Psalm, 4th verse.

The stricken parents, two brothers and two sisters remain to mourn his loss. His body was laid to rest in the Fryburg cemetery.

WAGNER.

The following facts additional to those concerning the demise of this citizen are furnished by a friend of the family: John Martin Wagner was born Dec. 1, 1854, in Moushinger, Wurttemberg, Germany, and died at his home in Lickinsville, March 20, 1913. At the age of 17 he came to Shippensville, Clarion county. The first 22 years were spent at Paint Mills as a trusted employe of Hahn, Wagner & Co. In 1884 he removed to Lickinsville and from that time on until overtaken by illness he had been the genial, accommodating proprietor of the Red Lion Hotel. Having been in poor health for some time, he entered Kane hospital Feb. 17, and on the following day was operated upon for hernia. The operation seemed successful and he improved rapidly, so that on Wednesday, March 19th, he was brought home by his son Fred, and he seemed on the road to good health again. At four o'clock on the following morning, Thursday, he suffered a stroke of apoplexy rendering him unconscious in which state he remained to the end, just twelve hours later. "Big John," as he was familiarly called, always had a pleasant, cheerful word for everyone. All who were fortunate enough to be guests at the "Red Lion" found him a most entertaining host and immensely enjoyed his hospital and sumptuous board. In 1881 he was married to Mary Stark. To this union three children, Fred, Agnes, and Clara were born. These children and the wife survive. Funeral services were conducted at his late residence Sunday Mar. 23 by the Rev. A. F. Rohr of Shippensville. Interment was made in the German Lutheran cemetery at Shippensville.

Thirty-Two Years Ago.

Items taken from the files of the REPUBLICAN of April 6, 1881:

The snowfall on Wednesday was the liveliest we have had this winter—six inches in three hours.

The Tionesta creek froze over on Monday and yesterday morning was almost solid enough to carry the weight of an average-sized man. Sleighing since Thursday has been nearly as good as at any time during the winter.

The proposition to build a new school house in Tionesta was voted down by the narrow margin of eight last Saturday.

The following officers of Tionesta Lodge, I. O. O. F., were installed last Saturday evening: N. G. P. M. Clark; V. G. J. D. Dawson; Sec'y Geo. W. Sawyer; Assist. Sec'y, Eli Holman; Warden, T. J. VanGiesen; I. G., W. Y. Siggins; R. S., J. H. Dingman; L. S., John R. Osgood; R. S. V. G., S. H. Haslet.

Thomas Hassey, who purchased the house and lot lately occupied by Mrs. Jam, has given it a thorough overhauling and now occupies it as a residence.

John Sanner of Petroleum Center has purchased the Itter property, at the lower end of town, and is moving his family here.

Cherry Grove.

The Embroidery Circle met with Miss Tillie Cousins Saturday afternoon. A pleasant time was spent between the hours of two and five. At the close of afternoon ice cream, cake and coffee was served.

Raymond Christenson, who had his foot amputated in the Warren hospital a few weeks ago, is much improved in health and returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawson were Warren shoppers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orda Vandenberg of Miller's Camp spent a few days this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Vandenberg. The Birthday Club met at the home of Mrs. Grant Sutton Saturday afternoon and evening. An excellent supper was served at 7 o'clock. The evening was spent playing progressive Caroms. All report an excellent time.

Wm. Desher of Mayburg visited his mother Sunday.

John Christenson was a Shippensville visitor Saturday.

Harry Christenson was home from Hart & Henderson's over Sunday.

Look to Your Plumbing.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.—Advt.

Notice to Stockholders.

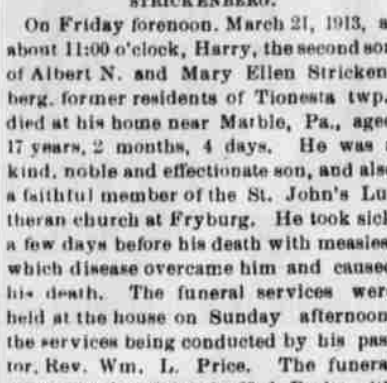

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tionesta Gas Company will be held at the office of the company on Monday, April 21, 1913, at 2 o'clock p. m. advt.
