Ill., have announced that 40 new stills will be erected at Wood River during the coming summer to manufacture motor spirit, the newly discovered substitute for gasoline. The first of the 40 stills will be in operation by April I, and others will follow in rapid order. Motor spirit, sccording to the manufacturers, can be obtained for 3 cepts less a gallon than gasoline and will run a motor car 25 percont further than gasoline. It is designed especially for use in motor trucks. The new oil does not evaporate as readily as gasoline. The officials say that the scarcity of crude oil is becoming alarming, and that unless the process proves successful, it will be but a few years when all the oil fields are dry. A gentleman who has seen a sample of this new essence says as a producer of smells it being far more pungent and disagreeable than gasoline.

I. O. O. F. Installation and Banquet.

Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. O. F., held an open-house session Tuesday evening, the occasion being the formal opening of their newly refinished quarters in the Partridge block, now the sole property of the lodge under a recent purchase. The members have a justifiable pride in -Miss Jessie Mitchell, of Decatur, Ill., their new home, which will be second to none in all this section of the state when all contemplated improvements are completed. The regular meeting place has been retained on the third floor, which has been their abiding place for many years. The second floor of the building has been transformed and now kitchen, lavatory and cloak room.

Last night marking the time of the anqual installation of officers, it was decided to hold a public installation, and an audience of about 125 was present, consisting mainly of members of the local lodge and visiting members, with their wives and sweethearts. The installation began at 8:30 and was in charge of L. L. Zuver, District Deputy Grand Master. who was ably assisted by T. F. Ritchey, District Deputy Grand Warden, C. A. Randall, District Deputy Grand Secrewere duly installed with impressive cermonies: N. G., Harry Jamieson; V. G. D. H. Blum; Sec'y, W. H. Hood; Warden, Chas. Carlson; Conductor, J. G. Jamieson; R. S. N. G., T. F. Ritchey; L. S. N. G., C. A. Randall; R. S. V. G., S. R. Maxwell; L. S. V. G., Frank Armstrong: Chaplain, C. A. Childs: O. G., Wallace Mealy; I. G., Chas. Clark; R. S. S. R. L. Haslet: L. S. S., Jesse Graham. Following these ceremonies a number of an Oil City physician and has been in the bright and interesting speeches were given by T. F. Ritchey, Esq., Hon. C. A. Randall, Rev. W. S. Burton, Rev. H. A. Bailey, F. R. Lanson, W. C. Imel, and Samuel D. Irwin, E-q., which were much enjoyed.

An adjournment was then taken to the dining room where all did full justice to an elegant banquet until near the midnight hour. The culinary arrangements were made by wives of the members of the order under the capable direction of Mrs. R. L. Haslet, and from the preparation in the kitchen to the service by the handsome young ladies in the dining room the banquet was perfect in all its appointments, being only another eviladies in this line. As a social and fraternal event this installation and banquet will go down in the annals of the lodge as one long to be remembered.

Recent Deaths.

MOODY. Orphia Jan: Smathers, daughter of Daid and Martha Smathers, was born at Helen Furnace, Clarion county, Pa., August 8, 1855, and died at Tionests, Ps., April 3, 1913. She was married in Deember, 1883, at Corry, Pa., to Harry E. Moody. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Moody made their home for about three years at Beaver Valley, then moved to Hickory, where they remained about the same length of time. From here they took up their residence at Little Tionesta for a time and then moved to Tiopesta, where they have resided for a number of years. Mrs. Moody was of a Methodist family, her father and mother being well number of years ago she united with the Methodist Episcopal church of Tionesta were guests at the New Thomson last and remained a member of the church of night. They left on the early train this her choice until her death. For many morning for State College to resume their months she had not been able to attend At the time of the last quarterly meeting she requested her pastor to call and administer the Sacrament, and after her death her husband found her church envelope containing her subscription for the benevolent collections of the church. She was a deeply religious soul and extremely patient in her suffering. Her sickness manifested the truth of the scripture "He is a present help in time of need." The last time her pastor called, only a couple days before her death, she expressed her desire to depart this life and be at rest.

Mrs. Moody was one of a family of thirteen children and is survived by four sisters and four brothers: Mrs. Joseph M. Morgan, of Tionesta; Mrs. D. R. Shadel, of Brookville, Pa; Mrs. W. A. Dahle, of Tylersburg, Pa; Mrs. W. H. Weiser, of Helen Furnace, Pa; Albert Smathers, of Foxburg, Pa.; William C. Smathers, of Cooksburg, Pa; H. G. Smathers, of Helen Furnace, and W. S. Smathers, of Indians, Pa. The devotion of Mr. Moody to his suffering wife was an impressive sight. Her every wish was gratified and everything possible done to relieve her suffering.

The funeral service was held from her late residence on South Elm street, Saturday atternoon, April 5, at two o'clock, ber pastor, Rev. W. S. Burton, and Rev. G. A. Garrett, of the Free Methodist church, participating in the services.
