-Proper Bros. found a good flow of gas, as well as a good showing of oil in the second sand, in their well on Jamieson run. The well will be finished in the fourth sand, where the oil is usually found in that locality.

-The Warren papers report the arrest, by fishwarden Albert, of a man who owns a sawmill on West Hickory creek and is charged with polluting the stream with sawdust. A fine of $100 was imposed by Justice Wheeler of Warren.

-Ray Birtel has purchased another dray horse to take the place of the one which met with such a bad accident that he had to be shot a couple of weeks ago. The new horse is a mate to the one that was killed and was owned by Philip Wolfe.

-C. F. Whitman, of Akeley, Warren county, formerly of this county, offered to donate fifty bushels of potatoes for the food sufferers in Ohio and deliver them free at the Akeley station, provided a means of transporting them from there was furnished.

-The Coleman Lumber company has been granted permission by the State Water Supply Commission to erect a four-span truss bridge over Tionesta creek at their plant at the mouth of Johns run. We apprehend the structure will be erected during the coming summer.

-The Boro Council requests all property owners and citizens to observe Thursday and Friday, April 17th and 18th, as general cleaning up days and that they collect all rubbish about their properties and place it in convenient position to be lifted by wagons which will call for it on Saturday morning.

-Surveyor D. W. Clark and J. W. Landers have been up in Howe and Kingsley townships the past week or ten days surveying and estimating some timber tracts of the Wheeler & Dusenbury company for the county commissioners, who want the information in order to arrive at a just taxable valuation.

-Dr. Moore Sanborn, who will address the Presbytery of Clarion at the Presbyterian church in this place, on Tuesday evening, April 22d, at 7:30, will be kindly and favorably remembered as the speaker of the evangelistic team who visited Tionesta and held services in all three of our churches. He comes representing the lay membership of our churches and will no doubt have a message for all. His subject will be, "The Church for the Times."

-If reports are reliable, Charles M. Schweb, the noted steel manufacturer and multimillionaire, will have the Titusville forge doubled in capacity and will build up extensive iron and steel mills between the coal regions and lake shores as soon as the new railroad from Cambridge Springs to Titusville is finished.

-The thirty-first annual report of the State hospital for the insane at North Warren has been issued and a copy received at this office. Since this institution has been in existence, 32 years, Forest county has had 74 inmates in the hospital for treatment, 47 males and 27 females. During the past year two—one male and one female—have been admitted to this county.

-The Council run well has reached a depth above 2,400 feet and drilling is still going on with the intention to go as far as 2,600 feet at least. Mr. Richards, the superintendent, is somewhat surprised that no sand formations of any kind have been tapped since passing through what is believed to be the Bradford sand, and it is thought that 200 feet more will take them below any probable oil bearing rock.

-Acknowledgment of subscription renews is made as follows, with thanks: S. L. Vall, West Hickory, Pa.; C. H. Berlin, Coalings, Cal. (new); Harry H. Head, Walnut Bend, Pa. (new); J. N. Heath, Embleton, Pa.; Geo. W. Mong, Maricopa, Cal.; Mrs. John Cooper, Philadelphia, Pa.; F. F. Spencer, Truemsans, Pa.; Will H. Saul, Pittsburgh, Pa.; F. W. Hunter, Penn Station, Pa.; J. C. Sowden, J. A. Adams, J. B. Eden, J. F. Proper, Tionesta.

-The Warren Times has introduced a fair-sized "mad dog" scare for Tionesta, and like most all of the sensations emanating from that source, there's nothing in it. Tionesta has no mad dog, never did have and is never likely to have. No one need work themselves into a spasm over hydrophobia, because that disease is only found in newspaper offices of the sensational stripe—the kind that run six inch scare heads over half-column articles descriptive of how a bareheaded boy stubbed his toe.

-Mrs. M. Frances Gaston, mother of our townsman, G. G. Gaston, whose illness we had heretofore mentioned, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Hollister, East Palestine, Ohio, on the 9th inst. after a long and painful, but most patiently borne illness of cancer of the stomach. The deceased is pleasantly remembered by most of our Tionesta people, she having been a frequent visitor to our town. Besides the son and daughter mentioned she is survived by one other son, Archie E. Gaston of Meadville. We are without further data as to Mrs. Gaston's life.

-It is given out to a number of surrounding towns, and might not be a bad thing for this community, that the cigarette law is to be rigidly enforced, and that persons furnishing cigarettes, or cigarette papers, to minors, boys or girls under 21 years of age will be prosecuted. Many juveniles may be seen on the streets daily, smoking the "cotton-nails" and in almost every instance these are given to them by adults. The penalty for furnishing anyone under twenty-one with cigarettes is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $300, whether it is by gift or sale.

-Frank Klinefelter has solved the way in getting home from the school he teaches in Henry Hill. He has purchased a bicycle attachment and uses the Sheffield & Tionesta railway tracks and from his place of employment. It did not work quite right for Frank in the beginning, because he was off the track more times than he was on and he thought it was too much to have one's constitution lacerated so many times by constantly hitting the ties. But he has at last learned how to get over all the bad spots in the rails and balance himself so that he makes pretty fair time now.—Sheffield cor. Warren Mirror.

-The Coleman Company mill at Johns run started up this morning for the summer run, and, barring unavoidable delays which may happen, will run steadily from this on. Mr. Seewald, who has the contract of manufacturing the lumber at the mill, has expended much time in putting all things in order so as to reduce the delays to a minimum, and it is not expected to have any shutdowns. The cutting of the timber from the stump is in charge of E. E. Douty, and the stocking will be in competent hands, so that there is not likely to be any trouble from that end as there will always be a good supply of material in the big pond to work upon.

-The fans of this section were immensely pleased to read of the record that Bob Shawkey made against the first team of the Philadelphia Athletics last Wednesday at Baltimore, when Bob pitched his team of Orioles to victory 5 to 3 against the American Leaguers, allowing them only three hits. Had his team been playing errorless ball behind him, he would have had a better record. Bob even had the nerve to whale out two of the hits on his side. He is being watched closely and it is thought that if he keeps up his stride he will be in the big league before long. If he takes proper care of himself. It was the first defeat of the once World's Champs in an exhibition game.

-Liverman J. L. Hepler met with an accident Saturday afternoon which might easily have ended fatally for both himself and the companion who was with him. He had started for a drive and to exercise a new and rather speedy horse hitched to a new buggy. With him was George Armstrong of Jamestown, N. Y. When near the Tabbs run bridge he undertook to pass a loaded wagon in a narrow place in the road when the hub of the buggy wheel collided with the tire of the wagon wheel, throwing both occupants out with terrific force. Mr. Hepler was thrown on his face which was badly torn and lacerated on the hard macadam road, and one arm was severely wrenched but no bones were broken. Mr. Armstrong escaped with lesser injuries but was considerably bruised, and both men were rendered unconscious for several minutes. In the collision the horse tore loose from the buggy and ran some distance up the road where he was caught and brought back to town. A passing buggy brought the injured men to town where Mr. Hepler's wounds were dressed, and he is recovering at home. Mr. Armstrong was able to return to his home in Jamestown on the evening train feeling pretty sore in spots, but not needing the attention of a physician. The buggy was badly demolished.

-Christopher Zuendel, one of the pioneer residents of this community, and a veteran of the civil war, was a visitor in town Thursday. He lately sold his farm at the mouth of Ross Run, Kingsley township, to Frank Truelove, a former resident of New York state, and owing to impaired health and advanced years, will retire from active labor and hustle. Mr. Zuendel, who was born in Germany Dec. 4, 1836, came to this country with his father in 1846, when only a little more than three years of age, and has since lived in this community which was then very much of a wilderness. He was one of the boys that shouldered his musket in '61 to do battle for Uncle Sam, serving until disabled by a bullet from the enemy, from the effects of which he never entirely recovered.

-Will H. Hunter, drilling on a lease on Jamieson run for Proper Brothers, met with a very painful accident Saturday afternoon that will likely incapacitate him for work for several weeks. While wiping the pulley of the engine the belt sleeve of his blouse was caught by the belt clamp and he was thrown in such a manner as to draw his right arm under the belt and over the pulley, causing a compound fracture of the right forearm between the wrist and elbow. He walked all the way home, a distance of about three miles, and it was several hours before the services of a physician could be secured and the fractures reduced. Although suffering considerable pain "Billy" is mending all right and will be able to walk out soon, but some time will doubtless elapse before he can again turn the temper screw.

-The preparations for the establishment of the great camp at Gettysburg, where will be quartered the survivors of the battle, and no one else, are well under way, being in charge of Captain H. F. Dalton, of the quartermaster's department of the United States army. This camp is to care for 40,000 veterans and will open at supper on June 29 and close after breakfast on July 6. The plans are to serve 800,000 meals to the veterans, allowances being made for 20 for each man. This will require 800 cooks and as many helpers and 125 bakers, the baking to be done in field bakeries and the preparation of meals in field kitchens. The feeding of this army of veterans will require 40,000 mess kits, comprising one plate, cup, knife, fork and spoon for each man. In the camp will be field 9,500 tents, which will be pitched in fields not far from the scene of Pickett's charge and close to the trolley line. This camp will be exclusively for veterans. Pennsylvania will allot space in the camp by States, the commissioner for each State being in charge of the subdivision of space assigned to him.

On 'Tother Side The Globe.

George W. Mong, mentioned last week as intending to go to India to drill for oil, sends us the route by which he will voyage to that distant land. He has been in the California oil fields for a number of years and it was from there he started on his trip on the 5th inst. his companion being Gene Milholland, who has been employed with him for some time. They arrived at Honolulu on the 12th on the Pacific Mail ship China. They expect to arrive at Yokohama, Japan, April 22; Kobe, April 25; Nagasaki, Japan, April 27; Manila, U. S. A., May 3; Hong Kong, China, May 5; Singapore, India, May 12; Rangoon, India, May 20. This will end their ocean voyage, and from Rangoon a steamer will be taken for the up-river trip to the Burma oil fields, arriving there about June 5th. Mail addressed to them at Rangoon, Burma, India, care of the Burma Oil Co., will reach them.

George is under a three-year contract with this company at a satisfactory salary which began when he first set sail for the opposite side of the globe, and all expense of travel is included. He thinks, if he should like the country and all other conditions, he may make that country his future home, but he will make a trip back to his native home before settling there permanently, and will come back by way of the Atlantic ocean, thus circling the globe.

George sends kind regards to all the boys and inquiring friends, and wishes to remind them that a little chunk of ice will be greatly appreciated to cool off "them little natives." And a letter from home will be always most welcome. Our best wishes for a pleasant stay and safe return home, George.

Great Opportunity To Secure College Pennants.

The latest fad among young people is the collecting of college flags and pennants. Nothing equals the vari-colored emblems of colleges and schools for decorating the den, smoking room, clubs, etc. Through a favorable arrangement with one of the largest manufacturers in the country, The Philadelphia North American is enabled to give these to their readers at a fraction of their regular cost. There will be a different pennant each week. Commencing with Pennsylvania and followed up with Princeton, Lafayette, Yale, Harvard, Army and Navy, Cornell and other state schools and universities. Get started at once and secure the entire set. A coupon from the Sunday North American and 20 cents secures each one. No extra charge for mailing. To avoid disappointment give your order for the Sunday North American to your local dealer at once.

Will has a lot of friends in Oregon City who eagerly wait for hoped-for good news.—Oregon City Courier, 11th. Globe Hotel Barn Burned.

The large barn connected with the Globe Hotel at West Hickory, Harry Canfield, proprietor, burned up at an early hour Monday morning. The origin of the fire is a profound mystery. People who passed in the vicinity of the property between 11 and 12 o'clock Sunday night noticed nothing unusual about the premises. At 1:00 o'clock Monday morning two dogs that were kept in the barn woke Mrs. Canfield by their barking, and it was then the fire was discovered it having originated in the hay in the upper part of the barn. The alarm quickly spread throughout the lumbering village, and it seemed no time until every inhabitant was on the ground and working most valiantly to save adjacent buildings, and by almost superhuman effort the fire was confined to the one building.

Eight horses and two cows housed in the barn were released and saved, as were also three of Mr. Canfield's best buggies and some other articles of less value, but nothing was saved from the upper stories, in which were stored a number of sleighs, robes and other goods for winter use. Several tons of hay and a large lot of grain and feed were burned. An addition, enclosing the barn to double its former capacity, was built only last fall, so that Mr. Canfield estimates his loss at not less than $1,000 upon which he carried but $1,200 insurance.

The barn was almost surrounded by other buildings, some of them within two or three feet of it, and that these were saved is almost unbelievable. The men worked like Trojans for fully three hours before the flames were subdued and other property rescued. Two strings of hose from the tannery force-pumps kept streams of water playing on the fire and other buildings, which contributed largely toward the saving of these properties and the hotel itself. The Wheeler & Dusenbury fire engine was sent over from Endeavor, but the fire by that time was under control.

Mr. Canfield desires to publicly express his gratitude to the men through whose great efforts so much property was saved from destruction.

From Southern California.

SAN DIEGO, CAL., April 10, 1913.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—The balmy climate of southern California has improved my health and I am getting along fine, with the exception of being lonesome without my family and the association of my old friends.

This is a fine county in which to live. Aside from the bad freezes they had about the first of the year when it froze most of the citrus fruits, the thermometer has ranged from 60° to 72° days and from 38° to 50° at night, all winter. The flowers are now blooming profusely again and the gardens are growing fine, although they claim there was not the regular quota of rain this spring and the rainy season is considered now passed.

This is quite a pretty place but somewhat scattered on account of a fourteen hundred acre tract left in the middle of it for park purposes, in which they are now building the Panama Exposition buildings. There is quite a building boom on now. The permits last year amounted to over a million dollars. Beautiful, typical California bungalows constitute the architectural designs for the residences in most part. There are quite a number of apartment, office and hotel buildings under way of construction.

Hoping this will find you and your family well, and with best regards to all my friends, I am, Yours truly, F. M. MORGAN.

Church Hill.

S. E. Church has purchased a fine pair of draft horses, and is now prepared to take any job of heavy team work. He and Chas. Shaffer are now putting a few car loads of pling.

Miss Hazel Stible will soon close her school, and we'll be sorry when she leaves the Hill for she is a very charming young lady.

Clifford Shaffer and Milo Barber drove over to Cropp Hill Sunday.

Nathan Brewster was a caller on the Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes expect to move to Ohio soon. They are on the Hill making a few calls before leaving. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Church and daughter were Oil City callers one day last week.

J. L. Klinefelter expects to build a new barn.

Miss Bertha Barnes is a caller on Cropp Hill.

Mrs. Andrews has been on the sick list for a week or so.

There have been quite a few cases of measles on the Hill, but no one is the worse on that account.

Dan Cropp was on the Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. King were down to Hickory one day last week.

We hope for good weather so we can get our oats sown. Some of our farmers have not done any plowing yet.

Wille Taylor was home Sunday and was looking pretty good after his sick spell.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
