

Calendar for 1913 April 1913 showing dates 1 through 30.

Mrs. Charles Smith of Danby, N. Y., has recently given birth to five children...

The Democratic suggestion that three years should be given an American industry to find some other job is intended to be considered...

The State Senate yesterday passed the woman's suffrage amendment, the vote standing 26 to 22.

It does not seem possible that so evil a thing as the "Water Snake Bill," conferring on a commission to be appointed by the Governor the power to give away the property and control of the state in the public waters and shore lines...

Hunters' License Now Law. The hunters' license bill has received the governor's signature and is now a law in Pennsylvania.

Besides the license, the hunter is provided with a numbered tag, which he must wear upon his arm between the elbow and shoulder when hunting.

Passage of the act is the result of a campaign which began eight years ago and has been waged ever since by the State Sportsmen's Association, the United Sportsmen and the game commission.

Has The Right Ring. Dr. Simon N. Patten, professor of political economy in the University of Pennsylvania, is not inclined to fall in with the free trade procession...

Gold Medal to School Boys. A gold medal to the school boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 15 who writes the best composition...

Found a Cure For Rheumatism. Too much care cannot be used in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful substance and be most effective.

There is no radical difference between the Republican and Progressive parties. Both agree upon the protective tariff theory.

Kelleitville.

Mrs. H. E. Murphy came down from Ridgway Friday to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson.

Mrs. Lobbell and daughter Nellie were down from Blue Jay Saturday to see Mrs. Geo. Shay who is sick. Mrs. Lobbell could not leave for more than a few hours as she is keeping the hotel at Blue Jay.

Recent Deaths.

Mrs. Sophia Mong, widow of the late Michael Mong, died at her home in Tionesta township, April 22, 1913, aged 83 years, having been born near Shippenville, Clarion county.

Her second marriage was with Michael Mong, whose death occurred about ten years ago. By this union the following children are left surviving: Mrs. John Allio, Tionesta township; Mrs. William Nicol, Tompkinsville, Saskatchewan, Canada; Mrs. John Zuck, Johnstown, Pa.; Mrs. Elliott Mealy, Tylersburg, Pa.; John A. Mong, Pleasantville, Pa., and Joseph Mong at home.

The deceased was respected and loved by all who knew her, being a kind neighbor always ready to do a kindness to those in need of assistance.

Funeral services, conducted by her former pastor, Rev. B. F. Feit, were held at Mt. Zion Evangelical church, on Tuesday of last week, followed by interment in the cemetery connected with the church.

J. Tyler Watts, former president of the old village of Jamaica has suffered a deep affliction in the death of his wife, Mrs. Nancy Watts, who passed away early this morning at the family home on Union avenue after an illness of ten days.

Mrs. Watts was in her 72d year, having been born at Stewart's Run, Pa., June 7, 1841. She and her husband had lived in Jamaica for over 46 years and had made many friends.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence. Dr. Curcio will officiate.

Mrs. Watts was a daughter of James and Elizabeth (Allender) Dawson, deceased, who settled on what is still known as the Dawson farm at Stewart's Run, in 1812, over a hundred years ago.

The following obituary of the late Mrs. Gaston, brief mention of whose death was made in the REPUBLICAN last week, is taken from the Cochranton Times of the 16th inst:

Mrs. M. Frances Gaston, widow of the late W. Grover Gaston, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Hollister, at East Palestine, O., Wednesday morning of last week, in her 78th year.

Since leaving Cochranton a number of years ago Mrs. Gaston had made her home in Meadville, and was taken ill while visiting her daughter, who is the wife of the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Palestine.

Mrs. Gaston was born in New York state, coming to the western part of this county with her parents at an early age. She was married to W. G. Gaston in 1858, and the family located in Cochranton in 1858, where Mr. Gaston was engaged in the lumber business until the time of death.

A lady who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her, the announcement of her death was received with sincere regret by many friends.

She is survived by two sons and a daughter, Glen G., of Tionesta; Archie E., of Meadville, and Mrs. Hollister, of East Palestine. Also by one sister, Mrs. A. E. Pinnette, of Linesville and two brothers, Dr. M. B. Naramore, of Conestogueno, and W. W. Campbell, of Jamestown, N. Y.

The remains were brought to Meadville and the funeral was held from her late residence at 10:30 Saturday. Services were conducted by Mrs. Clara Watson, of Jamestown, N. Y., prayer being offered by Rev. H. T. Sechrist, pastor of the Christian church.

The interment was in Cochranton cemetery, the funeral party driving from Meadville Saturday afternoon.

Keeps Threat to Drink Self to Death. True to his often-declared intention of drinking himself to death, a man known only as "Professor" was found dead in the storeroom of a saloon in Philadelphia with two partly filled demijohns of whisky beside him.

Insurance Official Killed by Car. John W. Ohrum, general agent for an insurance company, was run down and instantly killed by a street car in Pittsburgh. His body was dragged more than a square before the motor-man was aware of the accident.

Church Hill.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Hazel Church is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barnes visited Mrs. Nora Barnes over Sunday.

Miss Bertha Barnes came home from Cropp Hill and is now sick with measles. Mrs. Sally Albaugh was up at S. E. Church's one day last week.

Mrs. Ida French called on her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harvey Albaugh. Will Taylor was a visitor at Ira Barnes' Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shaffer drove down to Cropp Hill one evening last week and returned in the cool of the midnight hours.

Clifford Shaffer, Milo Barber and Glenn Klinefelter were down to Tionesta one night last week. They rode down on the nine o'clock train and walked back.

George Norton is now putting the roof on his barn. The wind blew it off that very windy day we had some weeks ago.

We see some of our farmers have their potatoes planted. Straight at it. There is no use of our "beating around the bush."

We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold.
