Sword Imbedded in Plank.

Today the Appointed Time.
"The future is an illusion; it never arrives; it flies before you as you advance. Always it is today—and after death and a thousand years it is today. You have great deeds to perform and you must do them now."—Charles Ferguson.

Covered the Ground.
A man who was dunned by a book seller for a book delivered some time before, returned the bill with this written on it: "I never ordered this book. If I did, you did not send it, if I got it, I paid for it. If I didn't, I won't."

Unpeptic.
"I shall leave footprints on the sands of time," said the idealist. "What for?" asked the crudely practical person. "Nobody will want to go round looking for footprints. What we want to do for posterity is the help build some good roads."

FRIEDMANN "CALLED"

Government Health Service Criticisms Slowdown of Berlin Physician.

The United States government made public its first comment on the work of Dr. F. F. Friedmann in administering his treatment for tuberculosis. This is a severe criticism of the German doctor's procrastination in treating patients under observation of a special board of the United States public health service.

The government's comment is in the form of a letter written to the doctor by Passed Assistant Surgeon John F. Anderson, director of the hygienic laboratory and chairman of the board of investigation. It is practically an ultimatum requiring the tuberculosis specialist promptly to comply with promises made to the medical authorities that he would expedite his treatment in order that the government may reach a verdict for the benefit of American people as soon as possible.

SITUATION UNCHANGED

Outlook Reassuring For Business. Dun's Review. Dun's Review of Trade says this week:

"While the principal industries and trades are still experiencing some abatement of activity as a result of the recent floods and pending tariff readjustment, there is apparently no fundamental or permanent change in the situation.

"The easier tendency of money is one of the most favorable developments of the week. Moreover, winter wheat conditions are all that could be desired, foreshadowing a very large yield, and while seeding of spring wheat has been somewhat delayed by the recent wet weather, cotton planting is progressing favorably. These factors account for the feeling of confidence which generally prevails in mercantile circles in spite of the reduction in current consumptive demands."

In defense of herself and her children, Mrs. Nicolena Guilla, aged thirty-five, shot her husband John to death in their home in Wyano, Westmoreland county, Pa.

Guilla, a miner, aged forty-five, came home intoxicated, according to his wife and twelve-year-old daughter Katherine, and after breaking the furniture threatened to kill them. Mrs. Guilla, holding her ten-month-old baby in her arms, fled into a bedroom. Laying the child on the bed she drew a revolver from under the pillow.

Guilla followed her and as he rushed toward her the revolver was discharged. The bullet entered Guilla's heart and he died instantly.
