—The Alumni reception at Howard's hall last evening proved to be an enjoyable event to a large number of our young folk and a few of the older ones as well. And with fine refreshments, good music and agreeable company what matters it if some did not spend their way homeward till the small hours of the morning. Many guests from out of town were also present.

—Considering the unusually dry weather of this season it is a satisfaction to note the absence of forest fires in this immediate vicinity up to this time. The few that have broken out have been controlled before doing any considerable damage to growing woodlots. One of these was burning quite briskly Friday afternoon over on Little Tionesta creek, but the farmers and men from the Ogleman mill soon put it out, with little damage. A good rain is now the pressing need of the hour.

—Harry M. Smith, and Minnie E. Powell, both of Oil City, were married at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, by Rev. Cyrus H. Frampton, pastor of Bethel M. E. church. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom, No. 137, Colburn avenue, Tenth ward. There were no attendants. The couple left on the Pennsylvania Flyer for Buffalo and Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside at the above address. Mr. Smith is a conductor on the Pennsylvania R. R. His wife was a former resident of West Hickory.—Oil City Derrick.

—Greeted by a congregation which filled the spacious M. E. church to overflowing Sunday night, Rev. W. S. Burton delivered a fine baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Tionesta high school. He chose as his text I Chron. 12:2, "They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow," and in an eloquent and forcible talk urged his hearers to prepare likewise for all the battles of life. The choir rendered some splendid music and Mrs. Cora Watson Feit sang a fine solo.

—John Wolfe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wolfe, of Tionesta township, is now on his way to the Island of Java, having sailed from New York Tuesday on the steamship Prince Frederick Wilhelm. In Java and also in Borneo Mr. Wolfe will act as a superintendent for the Dutch Oil Company, the position having a good fat salary attached and all expenses paid. He returned recently from the California oil field and paid his parents and friends here a farewell visit last week, leaving for New York on Saturday. His friends will wish him good health and prosperity on his long journey.

—Arrangements have been completed for the establishment of an emergency hospital of 175 beds to care for the thousands of visitors from every State in the Union who will attend the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the Battle of Gettysburg. The hospital will be conducted by the State Department of Health and will be under the personal supervision of Commissioner Samuel G. Dixon. The State G. A. R. Encampment begins on June 29th but the greatest crowds are expected on July 2, 3, and 4th. It is estimated that there will be 55,000 visitors in addition to the 32,000 Union and Confederate veterans who will be present.

—Just now those lovers of dandelion greens fixed in their numerous appetizing mixtures are having their fill of the delightful spring dish. Like the mushrooms, fresh strawberries and various other popular eatables, the dandelion greens have their day, and when they are in "season" those who relish the dish must make up for lost time. Fortunately the supply is not limited and there are no wholesalers, commission merchants, traveling salesmen, retailers or peddlers to get a rake-off through their appearance in the home, hence the greens can reach every table without cost.—Franklin News. And next in line as a splendid relish is the succulent milkweed, which comes on a little later, but just in time to save the day, when the dandelion has grown tough and bitter.

—Last Friday, May 24, marked the closing of the Tionesta public schools and at two o'clock in the afternoon the board of education, patrons and friends of the schools met on the school grounds to unite with the faculty and pupils in celebrating the occasion by raising a large flag pole. Promptly at the appointed hour the pupils marched from the building in double file, took their appointed places and sang "America." The flag pole, a magnificent specimen of pine sixty-five feet in length, was then raised and the new flag was soon at the top floating in the breeze. The pupils sang two other patriotic selections, "The Star Spangled Banner," and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." Linas Ledebur gave Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, and short speeches were given by Rev. H. A. Bailey, Rev. W. S. Burton and Judge S. D. Irwin.

—Trampling on the property of the P. R. R. is to be punished hereafter to the full extent of the law and irrespective of persons. Some time ago the company placarded its tracks not only inside of the cities and boroughs entered by its lines but along through the country districts as well, the action being inspired by a desire to save the lives and limbs of the public. There has apparently been no attention paid to the printed warnings and the edict has gone forth to the company's policemen to arrest all trespassers. Monday afternoon six men were placed under arrest while walking from Duncomb street north through the Oil City yards and ordered to appear before the squire. Five of them appeared and four of them paid fines and costs amounting to $3.75 each, and the fifth, who refused to pay a like sum, was committed to jail for a term of 10 days. The sixth man will be arrested on a warrant. Looks as though the company meant business.

Robert Mealy's House Burned.
Thursday as farmer Robert Mealy and family were about sitting down to the noon repast it was discovered that their house was on fire, having caught from a spark from the chimney falling on the dry shingle roof. The house was located on the right of the road going out past the Smokey Hill school house, two miles from Tionesta. The flames spread very rapidly and it was impossible, with the means and help at hand, to save the building or any of the household effects on the second floor. About all of the goods on the first floor were saved. The loss will be between $800 and $1,000, which falls heavily upon Mr. Mealy as he carried no insurance.

—Prof. and Mrs. W. N. Strawbridge, of Marienville, were guests at J. B. Cottle's Saturday.

—Miss Gladys White, of Barnes, Pa., was a guest of her brother, Prof. L. P. White, Tuesday.

—Mrs. Mary Glening went to West Hickory Tuesday for a week's visit with Mrs. Joseph Green.

—Miss Marie Mealy came down from Kane Saturday to be present at the commencement exercises.

—Miss Dora Lohmeyer has been a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Dickraeger, the past week.

—Mrs. Geo. B. Robinson spent a few days of last week as the guest of Miss Virginia Siggins at Oil City.

—Miss Bessie Sigworth came home from Edinboro Normal to be present at the high school commencement.

—Miss Hazel Clark is home from Meadville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, for a few days' vacation.

—Hon. C. A. Randall left for Pittsburg Sunday evening in response to a jury summons from the U. S. District court.

—Thomas Cowan and son Samuel, former residents of Tionesta, were here the first of the week shaking hands with old friends.

—H. R. Weaver and Merton Klinefelter, of Nebraska, were visitors in Tionesta Tuesday evening and gave us a short call.

—Miss Evelyn Grove, teacher in the Rousseau schools, was home over the Sabbath with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Grove.

—Mrs. W. E. Darts and her mother, Mrs. Frances Korb, of Tionesta township, are paying a two weeks' visit to friends in Pittsburg.

—G. F. Watson, H. H. Watson, Mrs. Fred Slocum and Mrs. Cora Feit made an auto trip to Erie and return Friday, exchanging the old car for a new one.

—Prof. F. W. Gill, Vincent Hawkey and Marshall Hill came down by canoe from Tidouste Tuesday afternoon to attend the commencement exercises of our high school.

—Joseph A. Kelly of Pittsburg, and H. E. Kelly of Philadelphia, are enjoying an outing with Tionesta friends, and may be getting lots of trout for all we know. Leastwise we hope they are.

—Miss Nancy Morrow, teacher in the Rocky Grove schools, Franklin, visited Tionesta Thursday as the guest of Mrs. A. B. Kelly, going from here to her home in Tidouste for the week end.

—Caldwell Overlander of Pittsburg was a visitor with Tionesta relatives Thursday and attended to some business matters connected with the estate of his father, the late Jacob F. Overlander.

—Many friends will learn with regret of the severe illness of Rev. B. F. Feit at his home in this place, and will look anxiously for a change for the better in the condition of the old war veteran.

—Henry Lusher, a brother of S. H. Lusher of this place, died on the 28th ult. at the Mt. Alto sanatorium, of tuberculosis. His remains were brought to East Hickory, his former home, for interment.

—J. Scott Bell of Erie, a former well known Forest county citizen, was visiting his mother in Kane last week, and the Republican of that place says he expects soon to leave for South America, where he is interested in a large tract of timber land.

—Mrs. W. A. Shewman, of Risley, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Mrs. Shewman and son, Alon, will soon leave for Tionesta, Pa., where they will visit Mrs. Shewman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson.—Oregon City (Ore.) Courier.

—Prof. Elia W. Chitester, principal of the Nebraska school during the past winter, and Miss Willa Kerr, one of Nebraska's popular young ladies, were united in marriage Wednesday, April 30, 1913, at the M. E. parsonage, Tionesta, the pastor, Rev. W. S. Burton, officiating.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilkins, of Titusville, former residents of West Hickory, have been called to Winter Park, Fla., to the bedside of their daughter, Miss Marjorie, who is seriously ill with typhoid fever. At last accounts there was a slight improvement in her condition.

—James G. Carson, whose serious accident at the Forest Barge Co.'s yard, when he sank the blade of a foot-co-into his left knee joint, was noted last week, was in town Saturday feeling tip-top. His wound is coming on all right and the knee will not be permanently stiffened, glad to report.

—T. D. Collins was down from Nebraska Wednesday afternoon mingling with friends and attending to business matters. Although not as robust in appearance as usual Mr. Collins seemed to be perfectly at home in the activities of life, and discussed business affairs with his old time vigor and alertness.

—Samuel Clark was over from Meadville a few days last week trying out the troutling stunt in our surrounding streams. Before leaving for home he demonstrated that he was an expert with the rod and worm as well as the gun and dog, and can easily "put it over" the balance of that Meadville bunch in either science.

—Our Floyd Clinger is making his mark at the University of Pennsylvania. He has been made editor-in-chief of the "Red and Blue," the official organ of the university. He was also a delegate of New York to the National Civic League, besides being Secretary of the Warren county delegation to the university.—Tidouste News.

—Relatives here received a message yesterday morning stating that Mrs. E. W. Fitzgerald was seriously ill at the Kane hospital, the cause being the breaking of a blood vessel. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence were driven to Kane in their auto on receipt of the message. Word from Mr. Fitzgerald this morning is to the effect that the physicians are hopeful of saving the life of his wife.

Recent Deaths.

BROWN.
Mrs. Esther Brown, mother of our townsmen, Attorney A. C. Brown, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Baughman, No. 804 East Third street, Oil City, April 30, 1913. She was born at West Sunbury, Pa., January 28, 1837, and was therefore in the 77th year of her age. Although for a number of years in delicate health her death was quite sudden and unexpected. The deceased was a highly esteemed Christian woman, whose death is greatly regretted by a large circle of old friends and former neighbors. Besides the son residing in Tionesta, Mrs. Brown is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Baughman of Oil City, one son, J. F. Brown, a resident of Vermont, and one sister, Mrs. James A. Miller of Grove City, Pa. Funeral services in memory of the deceased were held at the home of William Baughman, Friday afternoon, with interment in Grove Hill cemetery, Rev. W. S. Mitchell officiating. "Asleep in Jesus," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," were beautifully rendered by a trio, Miss Lucille Green, Mrs. Charles Richards and Mr. Frank James. The pall bearers were, C. J. Baughman, Frank James, James Thomson, C. R. Holtzworth, Henry Vickers and Theodore Glenn.

GORDON.
Mrs. Mary (McBride) Gordon, widow of the late Alexander Gordon, died at her home in Elkhart, Indiana, Sunday morning, May 4, 1913, aged about 82 years. The deceased was a daughter of Robert and Mary McBride and was born at Glade Mills, Butler county, Pa., and came with her parents to Tionesta when a young lady. About the year 1855 she was united in marriage with Alexander Gordon, for many years a prominent lumberman on Tionesta creek, their last residence being at Nebraska, this county. Disposing of his interests at that place about forty years ago the family moved to Elkhart, which had since been their home, and where Mr. Gordon died about nine years ago.

Mrs. Gordon was a woman beloved by all who knew her because of her many admirable traits of character, a kind neighbor, a faithful, loving and affectionate wife and mother. She is survived by four sons and two daughters, all of whom were fortunate in being able to reach her bedside before she passed away and receive the blessings of a revered Christian mother. These are Allen H., of Fremont, Ohio, Albert, at home, William, of Medford, Oregon, Alexander, of Indiana, Mrs. Samuel Murdoch, of Lafayette, Indiana, and Mrs. Benjamin Shaffer, of Goshen, Indiana. Two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Davidson, of Washington state, and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence, of Tionesta, also survive.

Teachers' Institute October 20-24.

Supt. J. Orr Carson has arranged for an earlier institute of the teachers this year than usual, having fixed October 20 to 24, inclusive, as the dates, which it is believed will be a much more seasonable time than in December when weather conditions are not nearly as dependable. The sessions will be held in the Court house, Tionesta, always a pleasant meeting place. At this season of the year it is also possible to get a better array of talent, both as to instructors and evening entertainers, than later in the year, and in this instance Prof. Carson has been peculiarly fortunate in his selections, having perhaps the ablest corps that has ever been brought to the county, and going to much greater expense to secure the talent than has heretofore been expended. The instructors engaged are as follows:

Superintendent A. S. Martia of the State District of Norristown, one of the state's best educators.
Dr. J. G. Carter Troop, professor of English in the University of Toronto, whose fame is nation wide.
Prof. Harry M. Shafer, the popular principal of Clarion State Normal school, whose talents are known to many Forest county teachers and students.
Prof. I. D. Greah, of Milton, Pa., instructor in music, one of the finest in the state.

For the evening entertainments Prof. Carson has been especially happy in his choice:

For Monday evening the services of Miss Marie C. Brehm, one of the ablest lecturers in this country and whose talents are known and appreciated on both sides of the Atlantic, has been secured. This lecture is free to the public, and her subject will be "The Voice of Science."

Tuesday evening the DeKoven Male Quartette, a high class organization, will furnish the entertainment.

Wednesday evening Edmond Vance Cook, poet and humorist, will occupy the platform, and if reputation as a lecturer goes for anything, it will be worth going a long way to hear him. His subject will be "Nineteen Hundred and Now."

Thursday evening the Metropolitan Musical Club will give one of its famous entertainments. This is one of the leading musical organizations of the country.

Superintendent Carson aims to give the people of Forest county the best teachers' institute they have ever enjoyed, and is sparing no trouble or expense in his effort.

Magnificent Gift of Memorial Windows.

Former Congressman N. P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, Pa., and Hon. E. G. Dusenbury, of Portland, N. Y., have joined in the gift to the Presbyterian church at Olean, N. Y., of three handsome memorial windows. These are in memory of the founders of the Presbyterian church organization which dates back to 1839, when Judge Atkins who was the grandfather of Mr. Wheeler, invited Rev. Samuel Cowles to come to Olean, the organization being effected in the home of Judge Cowles, Judge Atkins and Henry Dusenbury of Fortville being elected elders. In 1873, the present site of the church was purchased by Hon. Henry V. Dusenbury paying one-half the cost, Hon. W. F. Wheeler and Hon. James G. Johnson the other half.

The three memorial windows will look from the entrance cloister into the church auditorium and will depict three impressive scenes from the life of Christ. The central group will be in memory of Judge and Mrs. Atkins, in whose home the church was organized in 1839. The window at one side of this will be in memory of Hon. Nelson P. Wheeler's father and mother, Hon. and Mrs. William F. Wheeler; the window at the other side will be in memory of Hon. E. G. Dusenbury's father and mother, Hon. and Mrs. Henry V. Dusenbury, who were also charter members of the church.

The High School Commencement.

The annual commencement exercises of the Tionesta High School were held in the Court House, Tuesday evening, May 6, 1913. The graduating class, composed of ten members, was an unusually strong one and reflected great credit not only on themselves but on their teachers, Mr. L. P. White and Miss Ruth Dimond. Their subjects were new, very interesting and well discussed. The decorations, which consisted of ferns and other potted plants, flowers and pennants, were simple but very effective. The music was furnished by Coleman's orchestra, of Titusville, and was up to their usual high standard. Rev. W. S. Burton, pastor of the M. E. church, gave the invocation.

Artie Dreyer gave an oration on "Eugenics," the science of being well born. Our latest census reports show that there are three million people in the United States not fit to be citizens. The science of eugenics contends that these three millions must be eliminated and none allowed to survive but those morally, mentally and physically strong. If this could be done we could rid ourselves of 75 per cent. of all the drunkards, the lawless, criminals and idiotic persons. By that time we should have an ideal race possessing all the essentials of a sound soul, mind and body, and conditions existing in our cities would be changed.

Ruth Foreman followed with a reading, "A Sisterly Soliloquy." The selection was well given and showed that the speaker had great talent.

Mildred Thomson then gave the "Class History," which covered the three years of high school work. It was very interesting and was given in a charming manner.

"Modern Agriculture" was the subject of Irvin Kelley's oration. The progress which agriculture has made is in proportion to other industries. Agriculture is coming to its own through the application of scientific study and improved methods. The farmers of Pennsylvania should not be discouraged. Their land and climate are adapted for profitable production and they have good markets for all their products. Let them remember the words of the poet: "And I have said it and I say it ever, As the years go on and the world turns over, 'Twere better to be content and clever In the tending of cattle and the tossing of clover, In the grazing of cattle and the growing of grain, Than a strong man striving for fame or gain."

In the "Class Prophecy," dated 1942, Arthur Zaver told very cleverly in rhyme the occupation of his classmates: Irvin Kelley, president of the United States; Artie Dreyer, a successful preacher; Gwendolyn Hill, school teacher in Tennessee; Arthur Carson, college professor; Edna Rodda, housekeeper in Lawrence county; Robert Sigworth, manager of store in Kalamazoo; Ruth Foreman, prima donna in New York; Mildred Thomson, trained nurse; Alice Decker, governor of Idaho.

The essay, "Woman as a Factor in Civic Improvement," by Alice Decker, was especially good. She gave a complete account of the work done by women all over the United States and closed with an appeal to the women of Tionesta to follow the same lines of work. Robert Sigworth delivered an interesting and instructive oration on the "Pioneers of Forest County," in which he traced the history of the locality from the earliest times known to the white man down to the present. This subject was especially appropriate from the fact that nearly every one present was a native of Forest county and naturally interested in its history. Gwendolyn Hill discussed "Education—Its Advantages." The very process of education is action, for we learn only as we use our power. The chief purpose is that we may do more worthy and fruitful work in the world, that we may serve our fellowmen and fulfill a higher mission in life. Knowledge, expression, thought, character and service are the elements of education and are open to all of us. In and through these we should strive to grow into fuller and finer life. Webster has said: "If we work upon marble, it will perish; if we work upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon mortal minds, if we imbue upon them principles with a just fear of God, we engrave upon these tablets something which will brighten through all eternity."

A decidedly new and pleasing feature of the evening was the "Class Will," read by Edna Rodda. In this very clever production the Class of 1913 bequeathed all their desks, books, good nature, money making propensities, theatrical talent, etc., to the Juniors.

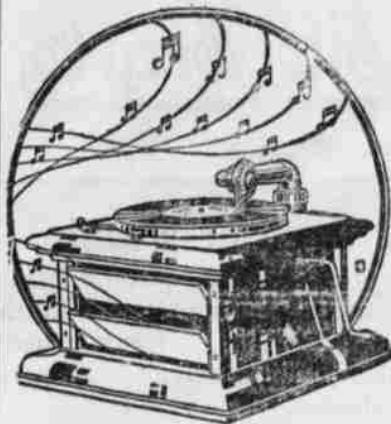

In the Valedictory, the president of the class, Arthur Carson, made an earnest appeal to all interested in the high school to give their hearty support. He paid a glowing tribute to the teachers, directors, and county superintendent, all of whom have helped raise the standards of the school to its present state of efficiency.

The diplomas were presented in a good speech by the President of the Board of Education, W. C. Inel. Then followed the class address by Supt. J. J. Palmer, of Oil City, who proved himself a pleasing and very interesting speaker. A pleasant feature not set down on the program was a very appropriate speech by Prof. F. W. Gill, of Tidouste, who said he held a two-year interest in the class and was there to claim his interest. Rev. G. A. Garrett, of the Free Methodist church, closed the exercises with the benediction. Altogether it was an enjoyable evening, one long to be remembered by the large audience. That the people of Tionesta are justly proud of their schools is always manifested at these annual commencement exercises.
