—Lewis Cook has three loaded boats, three empties and four barges owned by Collins, Darrab & Co., of Nebraska, lying at the mouth of the creek, waiting for a rise in the river to send them out for Pittsburgh.

—Acknowledgment of subscription renewals is made as follows, with thanks: E. F. Merchant, Mayburg, Pa. (new); O. C. Stroup, Tionesta; W. A. Kinch, Kellettville, Pa. (new); H. S. Suley, West Hickory, Pa.; L. G. Mervin, Endeavor, Pa.; Mrs. Julia Rudy, East Hickory, Pa. (new).
—James Leopardo, aged 9 years and 11 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leopardo, who reside a mile and a half above Tionesta on the Nebraska road, died at 6 p. m. Tuesday, May 20, 1913, after a week's illness of croup and bronchitis. The body was taken to Fryburg Thursday morning for interment in the Catholic cemetery.

—The name of Thomas McGuire has been sent to the Senate for confirmation as Pleasantville's new postmaster, succeeding L. L. Shattuck who has held the office many years. The salary is $1,000 a year. This is the first change in this neighborhood under the Wilson administration, and doubtless they will be coming thick and fast before the year is up.
—While attending court last week A. K. Braden of Clarington was taking some instructions in manipulating a handsome Rambler cross-country touring car which he had bought through the Leathers agency at Brookville. The new car had all the accessories of an up-to-date machine, including electric lights, starter, etc., and was admired by all who saw it.

—The congregation of Mt. Zion Evangelical church is rebuilding and remodeling its church edifice located out in Tionesta township. Several large loads of material, windows, doors and pews, were taken through here last week intended for the new building. These accessories were taken from the Franklin Evangelical church, and are all in good condition. The new church will be considerably larger and much more comfortable than the one it is to replace.
—Rattlesnakes are in good condition and unusually fat this season, it would seem. Contractor George Holeman, who has just finished moving his machine and will begin drilling a third well for Elmer Fleming up in the Jamieson run district today, tells of one which two of his crew, Phil Blum and Clifford Foreman, slaughtered within a rod of the rig, that was four feet long and as big around as a small sapling. That is what George would probably call a dambsnake.

—Mrs. R. A. Buzza, wife of Rev. Buzza, a former pastor of the Tionesta M. E. church, died at her home in Edinboro on Sunday afternoon at the age of 54. She was born in New Castle. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. George Davis, of Meadville; Mrs. Stephy, wife of Rev. D. D. Stephy, of West Springfield, Pa.; and Dorothy, at home. She also leaves one brother, Edward Weriz, of Sharon, and six grandchildren. The funeral services were held at the family residence in Edinboro at 1 p. m. yesterday with interment in Greendale cemetery, Meadville. Mrs. Buzza is kindly remembered by many Tionesta friends who will be pained to learn of her death.

—The union memorial services at the M. E. church Sunday morning were attended by a large congregation, and the sermon by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Burton, from Acts 22:28, "With a great sum obtained I this freedom," was an appropriate discourse and highly appreciated by all present. The choir led in the singing of several patriotic and appropriate hymns, and a duet by Mrs. Cora Pitt and Mr. Jeff Henry was most pleasingly rendered. Capt. Stow Post G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief Corps attended the impressive services in a body.

—The will of the late Capt. Cummings of Tidonle was probated in Warren last week from Mrs. Cummings who is named as executrix. To Mrs. Cummings is bequeathed the bulk of the estate, which is valued at from $750,000 to $1,000,000. The will provides that one-seventh of the dividends of the Louisiana Lumber company and the East Brady Fuel Gas company shall go to Mrs. Cummings and the remainder is to be divided among the children of the deceased, Emily Cummings Ellis, Charles A., Henry H., and Ralph Cummings, Laura Cummings White, and Abigail Cummings.

—Tuesday evening of last week Mrs. Frances Hoover of Stewart Run gave a birthday party in honor of their son, Clarence, which was doubtless one of the most largely attended gatherings of the kind ever held in a private home in the country. By actual count the number was 140 exclusive of small children. A most enjoyable time was had by all present. A sumptuous supper was served, including ice cream, cake and coffee. Before taking their leave the guests wished the hostess and guest of honor many happy returns of the day, and expressed a wish to come back soon.

—A. Newton Zahniser, who sailed from New York April 1st, three years ago, in the employment of the Burma Oil Co., has put in his time in the foreign oil field, mostly in Burma, India, and is home again, coming on the "Upton Myre" by way of Honolulu, arriving at San Francisco, May 6th, having made the trip around the globe. Newton, accompanied by his wife, spent last week with his sister, Mrs. H. S. Canfield, at West Hickory, and circulating among old friends here. He says he never enjoyed better health than while in the foreign countries. They left Monday for Bridgeport, Ill.

—Noting a recent change in one of its wide awake real estate firms, the Daily Outlook, of Santa Monica, California, has this to say of our former townsman, K. C. Heath: "The business will be handled hereafter by Heath & Gosling, a firm organized recently and composed of two live wire hustlers who will do a general real estate, insurance and loan and home building business. Mr. Heath has been engaged in the real estate business in this state for some time, coming here from Pennsylvania where he was a successful business man. He is finely equipped for the place and has a wide knowledge of California real estate and especially of bay district values and is wide awake and thoroughly reliable. Mr. Gosling for the past six months has been in charge of the real estate department of the Golden West, he is a lawyer and a member of the California bar and treasurer of the local Elks lodge. He came here from Ohio where he had just completed a term of office as county clerk. He is a popular and energetic man and with Mr. Heath will make a big success of the realty business, we are assured."

Court Cleans Up Business.

When our report of the court's proceedings closed last week the case of George Dejar versus the Kerr Lumber Co. was on trial. The jury rendered a verdict in this case in favor of the defendant. The plaintiff moved for a new trial. The evidence in the case of Commonwealth versus M. M. Rook, charged with obtaining goods under false pretense, A. M. Duntt prosecutor, was concluded on Wednesday evening about four o'clock, and at the conclusion of the Judge's charges the jurors retired for deliberation. They remained out nearly 24 hours and then rendered a verdict finding the defendant "not guilty," but to pay court costs, which amounted to $100.00.

The case of J. L. Kubus versus the Greenwood Oil & Gas company went to trial Wednesday evening and on Thursday forenoon, after considerable evidence had been heard, the trial was postponed to September term of court at the request of the plaintiff.

The case of Elmer Walters versus Duan Landers & Co., was quickly disposed of Thursday afternoon, the jury rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $27.42.

This being the last case on the list court adjourned.

A Musical Treat.

Last Saturday evening our music-loving people listened to one of the best concerts ever given in the town. The concert was given at the Court House by the MacWaters Male Quartette of Boston. The numbers on the program consisted of solos, duos, quartets and readings and every number was of high class and exceptionally well given. The MacWaters Quartette is composed of the following members: Rev. J. Adams Oakes, tenor, Frank R. Evans, pianist, Rev. Wm. E. Thomas, baritone and humorist, and Rev. Arthur E. Schultz, basso. Very recently these young men completed a tour of the world, visiting all the important cities and mission stations, having for their object the advancement of Christ's kingdom. Three of these young men enter the ministry the middle of June. That they are fitted for their life's work was clearly proved Sabbath evening.

Rev. Mr. Oakes gave a very interesting talk on missions at the Christian Endeavor meeting and Rev. Mr. Schultz gave an instructive talk at the Epworth League meeting. At 8:30 a union meeting was held at the Methodist church and the church was packed to the doors. The quartette sang a number of fine selections, Mr. Evans, a pianist of unusual ability, played several beautiful selections on the piano, and then followed an address by Rev. Mr. Thomas, who, in a forcible and pleasing manner, gave a short account of their trip. Surely the talks of these consecrated young men were an inspiration to all who were fortunate enough to hear them.

The quartette also held a meeting in the Nebraska M. E. church in the morning and another in the West Hickory M. E. church in the afternoon.

In passing it is only fair to say that the quartette came here through the strenuous efforts of Rev. W. S. Burton. The genial minister has brought a great many good things to the town since he located here and deserves great praise.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Katharine Osgood is visiting relatives in Ashabula, Ohio.
—Mrs. Clark Morgan, of Oil City, visited Tionesta relatives Friday.
—Sam Haslet was home from Sheffield a few days the first of the week.

—Miss Florence Dale, of West Hickory, was a guest of Miss Olive Lanson, Sunday.
—L. G. Mervin and daughter, of Endeavor, were visitors in Tionesta yesterday.

—Miss Rachel Albaugh, of East Hickory, Pa., has gone to Clarion State Normal to enroll as a student.
—Miss Ruth Diamond, of Oil City, was a guest of Misses Hazel Fones and Colyn Clark during the past week.

—L. C. Graves, of Springboro, Pa., was a guest of the late J. B. Pierce, at the Hotel Weaver, during the past week.
—Mrs. Charles H. Hunter returned Saturday evening from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter, in Sheffield.

—Mrs. R. L. Thomas and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Tidonle, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burton over Sunday.
—Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hepler left this morning returning to Akron, Ohio, after spending several months at their home here.

—O. C. Stroup was home a few days last week from Enterprise, where he is kept quite busy as a gauger for the Willburine pipe line.

—Married, in Clarington, Pa., May 25, 1913, by Charles E. Matthews, J. P., Mr. Clyde Rossey and Miss Jessie N. Haines, both of Day City, Pa.

—E. F. Merchant of Mayburg, who served on the jury here last week, called to have his name added to our steadily growing subscription list.

—Mrs. A. C. Brown and Ellnor are visiting the former's mother at Brookville this week. Mr. Brown accompanied them but returned yesterday.

—W. A. Kinch of Kellettville, while attending court last week as a juror, dropped into the sanctum to get the best paper in Forest county for a year.

—Mrs. Will H. Clark, called here by the death of her sisters, Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald, went to Kane Monday for a few days' visit before returning to her home in Schenectady, N. Y.

—W. M. Porterfield, uncle of Mrs. S. S. Sigworth, visited the family here over the Sabbath. He resides in Colorado, and is visiting his old home and friends at Emlenton and vicinity.

—W. E. Morgan is here on a visit to old friends. "Billy" looks hearty and is as jovial as ever. He likes his new home at Syracuse, N. Y., but thinks he never will cease to prefer the country to city life.

—Albert Blum of Newtown Mills left for Deer Creek, W. Va., Friday, where he takes employment with Siltzinger Bros. in the lumber woods. He will work with his brother who runs the steam log loader.

—Mrs. Joseph Morgan and granddaughter, Miss Ruth Bell, are visiting the former's daughters, Misses Mary and Bessie Morgan, at Monaca, Pa. Miss Ruth expects to remain with her aunts for the summer.

—The matrimonial bans of Frank Edwards, of Kane, and Miss Loretta Casner, of Crown, a former Marienville girl, were published Sunday morning at the 10 o'clock mass at St. Callistus church, Kane, Pa.

—Capt. William McCann, who spent a part of the past winter at Bridgeport, Ill., returned to this section last week and has been shaking hands with and receiving a warm welcome from his many old friends hereabouts.

—Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Bailey and Horace, Martha and Josephine went to Emlenton yesterday morning to enjoy the week at the old homestead farm. Mr. Bailey expects to be back for the regular services next Sunday.

—Mrs. W. A. Shewman and son Alon left their home at Oregon City, Ore., Sunday and expect to arrive in Tionesta tomorrow, where they will spend the summer months with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Watson.

—Mrs. Fred Slocum entertained a select few of her lady friends at a dinner party last evening. The guests were, Mrs. B. M. Dewees, Mrs. Sallie Jackson, Mrs. G. F. Watson, Mrs. J. C. Partridge of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Rebecca Downing of Kellettville.

—A. H. Pettigrew, one of the old and respected residents of East Hickory, is critically ill, having suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday evening. His advanced age, 78 years, makes his recovery a matter of grave doubt, his many friends will be sorry learn.

Sudden Death of Landlord Pierce.

This community was greatly shocked yesterday morning upon hearing that death had claimed Joseph B. Pierce, proprietor of the Hotel Weaver. The summons came at ten minutes past 10 o'clock, before half a dozen persons were aware of his illness. He arose from his bed and came down stairs as was his custom about 7 o'clock, but ate no breakfast, saying he did not feel well enough, and mentioning to one or two persons that he was bothered by a little pain or burning sensation in his chest. After walking about for a short time he returned to his room and about 9 o'clock, still feeling much pain, Dr. Bovard was called to see him, and after prescribing for his patient the doctor left him, as he expressed it himself, relieved of all pain and feeling all right. In a few moments, however, there was a recurrence of the trouble and the physician was again hurriedly summoned, and when he reached his bedside Mr. Pierce was breathing his last. Acute indigestion is assigned as the cause.

Mr. Pierce was a man of fine physique and he seemed always to be in the enjoyment of perfect health. His habits of living were of the best. He rarely if ever complained of illness of any sort, so that his death, coming with such suddenness is all the more shocking and regrettable. Coupled also with this address is the absence of Mrs. Pierce, his devoted wife, who has for two weeks past been at the bedside of a critically ill sister at their former home in Toronto, Ohio. The shocking news was broken to her by telephone through a friend at that place a few moments after its occurrence. Mrs. Pierce is now prostrated by the great weight of sorrow that has so suddenly come upon her and is unable to leave her bed, and could therefore not be here. In consequence of this sad condition of affairs her friends advised that the body be brought to Toronto. Brief services were therefore held at the house last evening, conducted by Rev. W. S. Burton, after which the remains were conveyed to the station, from whence they were taken on the 9 o'clock train to Toronto, accompanied by Charles McCool, of this place, and undertaker J. Wade Osneider, of Oil City, who will go through to the end of the journey.

Joseph B. Pierce was in the 51st year of his age, but in the absence of all near relatives, we have no further data as to his antecedents. He came to Tionesta from Toronto, Ohio, and assumed proprietorship of the hotel property on the 6th of January, 1912, to the proper conducting of which he gave his best attention, making it one of the most popular hostleries in this section. By his genial personality, kindly, generous and hospitable manner, he early won the respect and good opinion of the people of Tionesta and vicinity, and his surprisingly sudden death is most sincerely regretted by all in this community. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge at his former home. Besides his wife, who was Miss Emma McFadden, we know of only one other relative, a brother, F. R. Pierce, of Thompson, Ohio, surviving.

Thirty-Two Years Ago.

Items taken from the files of the REPUBLICAN issue of June 1, 1881:

Judge Proper now drives the handsome draught mare that has yet come to this place.

Darickson & Co. are erecting a new mill on Bates run, and will saw the balance of the oak timber on their tract into lumber, having already stripped it of all stove-bolt timber.

Mr. H. H. May returned yesterday from his Louisville trip, whither he has been in the interest of his lumber business.

Decoration Day in Tionesta, we blush to say was allowed to pass without observance. In all the surrounding towns the day was appropriately observed.

Holeman & Hopkins raised the timbers for their new store building Friday and Saturday last. While aiding in the work of erecting the heavy beams, one of them gave way and severely injured Prothonotary Justice Shawkey.

Robinson & Bonner are digging up and relaying the Central House drain. This is about the fourth overhauling of this drain, and we suppose they'll make an everlasting job of it this time. [The drain continues to act unruly to this day.]

Henry Shoemaker returned to Tionesta with his family Thursday from Atchison, Kansas, where he has lived for the past two years. He didn't like the country, and last winter froze his feet so badly that he was laid up for several weeks.

W. W. Thomas' shingle mill, on a branch of Little Coon creek, was destroyed by fire Tuesday of last week. Loss, $500 with no insurance.

Alexander Harkerider, aged 13 years, was killed by lightning Monday evening. He lived with his widowed mother on a farm near Fryburg. She was within 20 feet of the boy when the bolt struck him.

Memorial Day Program.

The following arrangements have been made for Friday, May 30th, for the proper observance of the day. It is above all others our best beloved holiday, filled with memory of our departed worthies who have passed away and are revered as heroes:

1. The Comrades, old soldiers and Sons of Veterans will assemble in front of the hall, Keppel Block, at 12 o'clock sharp. Signal, tolling of bell for five minutes, during which time those assembled will stand with uncovered heads.
2. The usual banquet will be arranged by the W. R. C. from 12:15 to 1 o'clock, which will be attended by all soldiers, veterans and their wives, and S. of V.'s wearing badges, the speaker, band, editors and ministers.
3. The school children of Tionesta are to provide flowers, both for strewing on the waters and adorning the graves of our fallen heroes, and will report at 1:15 p. m.
4. A martial band composed in the vicinity is expected to assist in the patriotic exercises.
5. After assembly call at 1:15 sharp, march to river bridge, from which flowers will be strewn on the waters in memory of sailor dead; from thence march continued to Riverside Cemetery, conducting services according to the ritual of the G. A. R.; from thence march to Court House, where the address will be made by Hon. John L. Mattox. Choirs of the churches requested to sing patriotic odes.
6. The following details have been made for floral decorations of other cemeteries, who will attend to their duties early in the morning of the day, so that they can attend the general services at Tionesta. Mt. Zion, Samuel I. Zuck, Lyman Mong; Evangelical and Bartholomew, C. Zuendel, Fred Weingard; Tyroler, Jeremiah Greenewalt; Newmansville and Lickingville, H. O. Blocher, John Carl, Jr.; President, Alex. McCalmont, C. C. VanGiesen.
7. Marshal of the Day, Geo. W. Robinson, who will be obeyed and respected as such. SAMUEL D. IRWIN, BENJ. F. FRITZ, H. W. LEDERER, Post Committee. MARIE HOPKINS, GARRIE HOLEMAN, EMMA DUSS, W. R. C. Committee.

Our Honored Dead.

Below we give a complete list of the dead heroes who sleep in the cemeteries in this vicinity and whose memories will be honored in the observance of Memorial Day by Capt. Geo. Stow Post, No. 274, G. A. R., Friday, May 30.
