—New wells were completed and shot last week as follows in the German Hill and Cropp Hill fields, all of which will make average producers of oil: Mrs. Sophia Kiser on her farm; Ledeber Oil Co. on the Ledeber farm; Charles Gasin and others on the Wm. Cropp farm.

Two prominent ministers who will be among the speakers are Rev. E. E. Shelhamer, of Lakeland, Fla., and Rev. C. H. Campbell, of Buffalo, N. Y. A large attendance is anticipated.

—The News gives high praise to Principal Gill and his corps of teachers in the success of the commencement of the Tidouote high school held last Wednesday night. "The class, their subjects, their delivery, aided by the superior acoustics of the church, the music, and everything conspired to render the commencement, positively, the best ever."

—Acknowledgment of subscription renewals is made as follows, with thanks: G. E. Burhenn Starr, Pa. (new); D. F. Copeland, Slonesville, W. Va.; B. J. Clark, Yalesboro, Pa. (new); Mrs. W. A. Fleming, Wattersville, Pa. (new); Mrs. Mary Glening, Tionesta; Henry Armbruster, Tionesta township; G. E. Moug, Toledo, Ohio; Lewis J. Kirk, Kirks Mills, Pa.

—Prof. Charles W. Smith of the Warren Business College was a visitor in this section last Thursday. He reports a most flourishing condition in his school these days, its growth in patronage and popularity being away out of the ordinary. His students seem to be in great demand and are called for by business concerns seemingly faster than the college can graduate them.

—Laying of rails on the extension of the S. & T. road has begun at the Nebraska end and it is thought that by tonight the completed road will have reached about a mile and a half below that point. The track should be completed and cars running as far as the Coleman mill by the last of next week. The new Viela motor car is side-tracked near Trueman's awaiting repairs to an overheated journal. It is believed the car will be a decided success when put in proper repair.

—At the conference of the pastors and laymen of the M. E. church, held in West Sanbury, Pa., it was decided to accept the offer of T. D. Collins, the prominent Nebraska lumberman, to give the conference a tract of land at Kellestville for use as a camping ground. A committee of fifteen members of the church in the district was chosen to act as trustees of the gift. A large amount of money will be spent by the conference to place the grounds in condition, erecting suitable buildings, etc., and the meeting of the conference will be held there next year if the work is completed in time.

—The Jenks township school board at a meeting last Friday elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: Marienville, Principal, W. N. Strawbridge; first assistant, no election; second assistant, M. J. Black; No. 7, Bertha Fitzgerald; No. 8, Clara DeSmet; No. 5, Edith Austin; No. 4, Mabel Baughman; No. 3, Beesie Souger; No. 2, Edna Taylor; No. 1, Jennie Wilton; Gilfoyle, Fred Gaul; Nicolas, Josephine Grolemond; Byromtown, Mary Brown; Duhring, Albert Payne. High school term nine months, other schools eight months, to begin the first Monday in September.

—While a party of Union City residents were returning from a meeting of the Daughters of Rebekah at Watsburg, the automobile in which they were riding collided with a train on the P. & E. crossing at Main and High streets in their home town at 12:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Frank E. McLean, editor of the Union City Times and who was also chairman of the Democratic committee of Erie county, was instantly killed and Miss Bernice Barr was seriously hurt. Others slightly injured were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hays, Miss Inogene Hays and Mrs. Paul Welsh.

—The home of A. E. Daniels, on the West Side, was burglarized some time after 12 o'clock Saturday night and $16 in bills disappeared with the burglar. The only person at home during the night was the son, Charles Daniels, who retired at midnight after locking the money in the writing desk and laying the key on the clock shelf. The burglar gained an entrance to the house by reaching through a broken window pane and unlocking the front door. It is evident that he stood outside and watched Charles put away the money and key, for he seemed to know where to go to find both. Nothing else was disturbed. There is no clue.

—Killing frosts fell throughout this section Sunday and Monday nights, which will "cook" the freezeable garden truck out on the hills where the protecting fog was absent. Potatoes and corn were hard hit, some of the farmers losing most of their crops. In the river and creek valleys no damage of consequence was done. Precisely one year ago, on the night of June 8, 1912, a killing frost fell in this section doing a great deal of damage, but like that of Sunday night, going largely in streaks, often taking alternate rows of corn or potatoes in the same field. What damage, if any, has been suffered by the grain crop, is not yet determined. The first ten days in June are dangerous periods in all years it seems. The fruit crop was laid low several weeks ago, and throughout this latitude there will be practically none.

—J. D. Davis has had a substantial cement walk laid along the Helen street side of his homestead, a decided improvement surely. C. A. Childs and James A. Huling have also laid fine cement walks in front of their residence properties on May street. The Forest County Bank has also completed a substantial cement walk in front of their property on the public alley leading to the McCoy livery.

—Frank P. Amster was the master mechanic on all these jobs. Geo. B. Robinson is preparing the foundation for a cement walk on both sides of his residence property at the corner of Vine and Walnut streets, and we understand the walks about the public school property, across the street from the Robinson home, will also be laid in cement this summer. Board walks will soon be a thing of the past in Tionesta, even on the side and back streets.

—George Daugherty, formerly of Tionesta, but now a prosperous building contractor at Kittanning, was a brief visitor in Tionesta Sunday while making an auto trip and met a number of old-time friends. He is well enough fixed to be buying gasoline for his own automobile and had with him a congenial party composed of Editor M. H. Oswald of the Free Press, Al. Easley, Frank Neubert and Fred Lindeman.

—Editor Jas. B. Borland of the Franklin News was out on an auto trip Friday which included a swing around the circle taking in Warren, Kane, Sheffield and the enchanting Tionesta creek route with which latter run he was charmed as all are who have ever motored it. Jim, who was accompanied by H. Lambertson, F. Bernton and F. J. Dion, found time to run up to the REPUBLICAN shop long enough to say "how-dy."

—Robert C. Kirk of Kirks Mills, Lancaster county, has been here for a day or two on business connected with the Kirk lands, about 800 acres of which are located in Hickory township. Mr. Kirk comes at this time as a substitute for his father, whose periodical visits to Forest county were accustomed to look forward to with pleasurable anticipations, but who has not fully recovered from an attack of illness of the past winter.

—Mrs. C. W. Clark was most pleasantly surprised last Thursday morning when a happy bunch of her lady friends from out-of-town walked in upon her and announced that they had come to spend the day with her. The surprise party was made up of the following ladies: Mrs. Margaret Rhodes, sister, Mrs. M. A. Whann, Mrs. Dr. Honcker, Mrs. Fred Muse, Mrs. Jessie Williams, Mrs. Harvey Snulley, niece, and all of Franklin; Mrs. A. F. Atchison, also a niece, and her daughter, Miss Sara Atchison, of Pleasantville. The day was one of the most beautiful of the season, and the occasion was enjoyed alike by the amiable hostess and her more than welcome guests.

—Mrs. James D. Davis spent several days of last week with her son, Kepler, at the Annapolis naval academy, prior to his leaving on a three months' cruise with members of his class, which will include a visit to most of the principal naval stations of Europe. Kepler, who is now a midshipman, sailed Sunday on the Battleship Illinois, which will visit Germany, France, England, Italy, and the coast of Africa, returning by way of Spain and the Madeira Islands, reaching their native Amer. coast again about the first of September. Surely a most delightful trip.

—Hon. Oliver Byerly, accompanied by Mrs. Byerly and their daughter, are in the East for an indefinite visit with old friends. About twenty years ago Mr. Byerly left Forest county, of which he had been almost a lifelong citizen and at one time one of its County Commissioners, and took up his residence in Ostrander, Cowitz county, Washington. From the beginning his success in industrial pursuits in that community has been marked and he is now one of its leading citizens in both business and political life, having for five successive terms represented his county in the state legislature. Not only in these matters has Mr. Byerly prospered but in physical wellbeing as well, we should say, for, instead of about 150 pounds in weight when he left this section he now tips the beam at over 200, so that many of his old friends in the east were unable to say "just where they had met him before."

The smile gave him away, however, and they found him the same old Oliver as of yore. Mr. Byerly expects to remain in the east until after the Gettysburg reunion which he will attend, and hopes to meet the most of his old friends before returning to the far west.

D. A. R. Meeting in Tionesta.

Thirty-five members and guests of the Tidouote Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were delightfully entertained at the home of the late Mrs. Joseph G. Dale, at Tionesta, on Wednesday, June fourth, members and guests arriving by automobiles and trains. The hostesses, Mrs. Belle M. Dewees, of Salem, Ohio, and her sister, Mrs. Jennie Dale Partridge, of Pittsburgh, daughters of Mrs. Dale, welcomed all to the hospitable home, opened in honor of their mother, who was distinguished as the oldest member of the Tidouote Chapter, D. A. R., at the time of her death.

An elaborate course luncheon was served, the place souvenirs being small silken flags. The decorations of the spacious rooms were crimson California poppies and ferns. The guests present were, Mrs. E. W. Miller, Pittsburgh; Mrs. J. H. Derickson, Mrs. Sarah Jackson, Mrs. James Haslet and daughter, Miss Marguerite, Mrs. Robert Haslet, Mrs. Garrie Holman and Mrs. F. T. Sloum, Tionesta.

The Chapter accepted an invitation of the General Joseph Warren Chapter of Warren, Pa., to meet with them at the Outing Club House, Warren, on Flag Day, Saturday, June 14.

Korb-Greenlee.

A delightfully pleasant June wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Greenlee, at Torpedo, Warren county, Thursday afternoon, June 5, 1913, when their daughter, Miss Edith Pearl, was united in marriage with E. Manasseh Korb of Tionesta township.

The ceremony, which took place at 1:00 p. m., was performed by Rev. Mr. Campbell of New Castle, Pa., in the presence of about thirty guests, in only relatives of the contracting parties. The attendants were Mr. Will Korb of Tionesta and Miss Edith Stright of Tidouote, and Mr. Will Greenlee of Torpedo and Miss Lynch of Tidouote. The bride and her maids were beautifully gowned, while the groom and his best men wore the conventional black. At the conclusion of the pretty ceremony a most bountiful course luncheon was served, following which the happy couple took their departure for a short wedding trip, amidst a shower of rice, confetti and many shouts of good wishes for a long and joyous wedded life. Many tokens of friendship in the form of silver, linen, china and cut glass were bestowed upon the bride.

On their return they will live at Pleasantville where they will be "at home" to their many friends, and where the groom holds a responsible position as gauger for the Wilburine pipe line company.

Mrs. Frances Korb, mother of the groom, and her daughters, Mrs. W. E. Darts and Miss Augusta Korb were of the guests present from here.

Gas Blows Crew Out of Derrick.

Excitement reached a high pitch in and about Clarion, this county, Thursday when a well was brought in on the John Cook farm near the Forest and Elk county line, for the Jefferson County Gas Co. which is claimed to have a volume of 2,000,000 feet daily. It came in with a roar and blew Albert Meeley and Earl Whitton, drillers, both of Barnes, out of the derrick and took fire almost immediately. Much damage was done by the fire.

Both men were more or less burned. Whitton's condition is serious, although the attending physician states that if no complications set in he will recover. He received burns on the face and neck, and both hands. His hair was also badly singed, and it was at first feared that he had inhaled some of the flames. The men arrived in Sheffield Friday and were given medical treatment.

Soon after the well came in a large number of people attracted by the roar and the fire, made their way to the well and were interested spectators during the attempts to extinguish the blaze, which was accomplished only after much difficulty. The statement that it is doing 2,000,000 feet is based upon the opinion of experienced oil men. It is one of the biggest gas producers ever struck in that locality and will greatly augment the supply of the Jefferson company if it retains its present pressure. Further developments will be awaited with eagerness.

Arm Cut Off.

F. R. King, aged about 20 years, employed on the logging railroad of Coleman, Harter & McCormick, in Tionesta township, lost his right arm in a distressing accident at 5 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. While attempting to release a brake on the log loader he lost his balance and fell across the rail in front of the heavy machine. By a quick move he managed to throw his body off the track but the arm was caught by one of the wheels and cut clear off about midway between the elbow and shoulder. The train was moving very slowly and this fact probably saved the young man from being instantly killed. The accident occurred out in the woods at the extreme end of the road. The man was promptly cared for and hurried by train to the mill, where Drs. Bovard and Greck dressed his injuries. He stood the shock remarkably well and on Friday H. M. Alexander, a member of the firm, took him to the Oil City hospital, where he has been getting along nicely. His home is at Ohio Pyle, Fayette county, Pa., and he had been working on the road here for about a week. His father, J. A. King, was the engineer of the train on which he was injured.

Perry Whitman, Former Forest County Boy, Dies From Injuries.

Perry Whitman, a former Forest county boy, but for the past 30 years a prominent resident of Akaley, and later of Russell, Warren county, Pa., met with an accident on Wednesday of last week which proved fatal early the next day. In company with Elton Reynolds he had started with his team and wagon for a load of brook sand at the back end of the farm owned by George Beach, near the North Run, one mile east of Russell.

Having complained of dizziness in the morning it is thought he was seized with an attack of this kind while in the wagon, for without warning he pitched forward and fell out of the wagon striking with force on his head and shoulders in the rocky run bed. A hurried call was sent for Dr. C. H. Ver Milyea and he took Mr. Whitman to his home at Russell in his automobile. Upon examination it was found that he had suffered a serious concussion of the spinal cord at the base of the skull. His arms were paralyzed. He lingered in a semi-conscious condition for nearly 13 hours when death came to his relief.

Perry J. Whitman was a son of the late Selden and Lavina Whitman, and was born near Titusville, January 17th, 1857, being one of a family of fourteen children. He grew to young manhood in Tionesta township, and was noted in this community for his industry, honesty and general good character. Shortly after he went to Warren county he purchased a farm and soon became one of that community's highly respected and well-to-do citizens. September 25, 1882, he was married to Miss Rinnie Birt, of Robbin Hill, near Akaley, and they had lived a happy wedded life. She survives him together with one daughter, Mrs. Charles Mollinger of Warren. Three sisters and five brothers also survive: Mrs. Hannah, wife of John Wolfe of Tionesta township, Mrs. Laura, wife of Elmer Mealy and Mrs. Marilla Went, all of Tionesta township; William H. and Geo. W. Whitman of Kellestville, Okla., John K. Whitman of Salina, Kansas, Simon P. Whitman of Tionesta twp., and Charles F. Whitman of Akaley, Pa.

Funeral services were held in memory of the deceased from his late home Sunday morning. Interment in the Frewsburg cemetery. The following relatives attended the funeral, Mrs. Marilla Went, Mrs. John Wolfe, Mrs. Elmer Mealy, sisters, Mrs. Chas. Wertz, niece, and S. P. Whitman, brother.
