

Calendar for July 1913 showing days of the week and dates from 1 to 31.

During the last five days Congress has passed most of the dog days in Washington and the main subject has been tariff.

That disgraceful California "white slave" case is thus off by the Warren Times, Democratic: "In endeavoring not to throw discredit upon a member of his cabinet by an effort to save McReynolds from disgrace the President has put himself between two fires, declaring his attorney general had not committed a wrong while at the same time he acknowledged the fact by countermmanding his decision.

New Legislation Enacted.

The Pennsylvania legislature adjourned finally last Saturday morning after a six months' session which was characterized by unusual and intense bitterness and factional strife.

Following are some of the more or less important bills that have been passed: Providing for state-wide primaries in the selection of all candidates for office, including governor, United States senators and presidential preference.

Further legislation and additional appropriations in the interest of public health.

Establishing the department of labor and industry.

School code protected from vicious amendment and $1,000,000 additional appropriated.

Constitutional amendment permitting $50,000,000 bond issue for good roads passed a second time, enabling voters to pass upon it in November, and liberal appropriations made for continuation of road improvement.

Constitutional amendment which will institute direct inheritance tax, graduated, passed for ratification.

Woman suffrage constitutional amendment passed the first time.

Woman's labor bill.

Three bills of large importance on forestry passed.

Federal constitutional amendment providing for direct election of United States senators ratified.

Commission government for third class cities.

School of agriculture experiment station at State college.

Policy of governor continuing state board of charities with a view to encourage participation of citizens in philanthropic work sustained.

Largest appropriations for public charities ever made, subject to revision by the governor.

Also largest appropriations ever known to private colleges and universities, giving nearly three million dollars to three of the big colleges alone.

Board of censors for moving pictures.

Fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg provided for on a hospitable scale.

The Pymatuning swamp dam bill, with an appropriation of $400,000, and the Youngbush dam bill with a full half million dollar appropriation, two of the most vicious acts that ever passed a Pennsylvania legislature.

Preliminary steps taken for abolishment of office of secretary of internal affairs.

Reform in corporate tax settlements.

Non-partisan election of judges.

The loan shark bill.

Mothers' pension bill.

Cold storage act.

Church Hill.

Clifford Shaffer and Milo Barber called at the home of George Copeland, Sunday afternoon. They say that Copeland's is the place to go if you want to enjoy a pleasant visit.

Mrs. Philo Barnes and her daughter-in-law, Jessie, called on the latter's sister, Mrs. Nora Barnes. They walked up from Endeavor, and while it was pretty hot, said they could stand a little hot weather after so much cold.

Mrs. D. J. Cropp was up from Cropp Hill and spent Saturday night and Sunday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Church and Mrs. Shaffer.

We are very glad to see that the people on the hill have been awakened and are getting their cemetery and church lots fixed up. The old hill will be up to date after while.

Chas. Shaffer and Alton Barber were up to Tidoute one day last week.

People traveling over the hill want to keep their eyes open for rattlesnakes, for a few have been killed. They seem to be all big ones this year.

Some of our young people are getting ready for the fourth. We hope they will make it a sane one.

We have the scent of saw mow being around us now. Some of our farmers have begun to make their hay. It will not be a very large crop, but the most of them have out a little plot of millet, so they think they will have enough rough feed.

There will be preaching at Grace Chapel, Sunday, July sixth. All are invited to come and bring their friends along. Services will begin at eight o'clock sharp.

TEN DROWNED IN RIVER

Ferry Boat Upsets With Seventy Persons Aboard.

Ten bodies have been taken from the Kiskiminetas river at Leechburg, Pa., following the ferry boat accident near there. The names of eight of those whose bodies have recovered are: Michael Iconodas, East Vandergrift, Michael Milno, North Vandergrift, Charles Thonto, Vandergrift, Elmer Larrimer, fifty-five, North Washington.

William Eckman, thirty-nine, Vandergrift Heights, Clarence Stewart, twenty-two, Vandergrift, Merl Weaver, twenty-six, Punxsutawney, Jefferson Davis, sixty-one, Vandergrift.

Six bodies were recovered by men who were dragging the river. Later dynamite was resorted to and after eight charges had been fired the bodies of Davis and Weaver came to the surface.

As fast as the bodies are removed from the water they are taken to undertaking rooms where they are prepared for burial.

Coroner John Stone of Armstrong county visited the scene of the accident and summoned a jury. The accident occurred when a ferry boat loaded with between sixty and seventy persons tipped, throwing them into the water. The ferry boat runs from Hyde Park to Leechburg. As it neared the Leechburg shore all the passengers pushed to the front end of the boat, causing it to dip.

GIRL SOLD FOR $150

Story Told When Husband and Father Attempt to Force Her Home.

An offer to prove that fifteen-year-old Teresina Cottilo was sold to her husband by her father for $150 was made by Armon D. Clayton, Jr., deputy attorney general of Delaware, before Judge Daugherty in court in Philadelphia when the girl's father and husband sought to regain possession of her by habeas corpus proceedings.

The court continued the case. Deputy Attorney General Clayton declared he would produce evidence of a transaction by which the father sold the girl and prove she was compelled, through intimidation, to take the priest who performed the marriage ceremony last April she was willing to marry Cottilo. Stout said the girl, after her marriage, was brutally treated by her husband, whom she left to seek shelter with friends.

Mr. Roberts and family have moved to Lamont to keep the boarding house.

Porkey.

Several of our people have put on gas meters and expect to save some money by this move. At any rate there will be no question as to who uses the most gas, and that will be a grand thing in the case of the school building which has had a scarcity of gas in cold weather.

J. B. Littlefield and son spent Sunday with relatives in this village and had a fine visit while here.

Mrs. Wolfe and May Carl of the Phelps boarding house were the guests of the Blum family on Sunday and enjoyed a chicken dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Catlin are now living at Minister for a few months during summer weather and will return to Kelleysville this fall. We are glad to see them here as Mrs. Catlin is a great help in Sunday school work and will be of great assistance in the work here.

Down at Mayburg there is a lot of cases of matrimony and it is said that some of the young men are contemplating vaccination to be safe from the malady. There was a couple serenaded on Friday evening and another on Saturday, and one is booked for Tuesday evening at the same place. That is surely "going some".

There was an abundance of auto's on the road on Sunday last, and one nearly had an accident at the top of the Kinney grade, almost going into the ditch, but the cleverness of the driver averted trouble.

Most of the people in this place are going to stay in here for the Fourth, but some of the younger class are going out. There are no bills out for Porkey, Fools Creek or Sheriff, and we think most of them will go out. Most of the addresses will be made after the folks get back from town, and these of course will not be uplifting.

C. V. Card of Henry Mills was through this place on Sunday with his new car and it made a fine appearance.

Lumber for the new gasoline plant building at Minister has arrived and the work will go right along now. Mr. Proper is also drilling a well and Mr. Lusher of Tionesta is drilling it.

Walter Bloss of Sheffield has been a visitor at the Rupert home for two weeks, and on Sunday the word came in that his father's house and the contents were burned.
