EXPRESS rates are to be lowered, they say. But, hang it, you can't eat express rates.

AND now Russia refuses to participate in the Panama exposition. We may yet have to invite some of our poor relations.

Most persons believe in the principle of giving the devil his due, but it is far better rule of life not to owe him anything.

PEROLEUM and its products are on the free list. The tariff has nothing to do with the case, and yet the price is booming. The truth about protection will shortly be better understood.

DISPATCHES state that ex Governor Lind, President Wilson's emissary, has reached Mexico City in safety. But will he succeed in getting "next" to the situation as it really is, and then make his get-away with all his hair? That is the question.

A RATHER surprising statement is made by A. W. Rieker, of Chicago, publicity director of the National Socialist party in which he admits that the membership of that party as represented by paid-up dues, has dropped from 136,000 to 85,000, as a result of the violent policies advocated by the I. W. W.

THE tremendous gain in the export trade of the United States under the Dingley and Payne tariff laws, under which manufactured products have come to form the larger part of our export trade, looks like an unanswerable argument in favor of protection. And yet the tearing down process goes ruthlessly on.—Punxy Spirit.

THE captains of industry have been obliged to enlighten the unenlightened. They want to save their business and to maintain the American wage scale and standards of living. They have labored in the same way with every Congress which revised the tariff. They now discover that to appeal to a congressman makes them lobbyists.

THE new party enrollment law was sustained and the county commissioners of Clearfield county were ordered to carry out the provisions of the act in an opinion filed at Clearfield last Thursday by Judge Reed of Jefferson county. The decision was the result of a test case brought by a Clearfield assessor asking that a mandamus be issued ordering the commissioners to prepare suitable books or blanks for the enrollment of voters for the primary election next month. County Solicitor Liveright argued that it was not necessary to enroll the voters this year and that the act is unconstitutional. Judge Reed ruled, however, that compliance with the provisions of the act is imperative and that the writ prayed for must be granted in order that the electors may fully exercise their rights of franchise at the primary election.

A New Castle, Pa., dispatch under date of 11th inst., says: The story from Cleveland to the effect that the Blevins murder mystery again promises to be solved grows out of a trip which District Attorney Dickey, of Lawrence county, made to Bradford in company with a Cleveland detective a few days ago. A year ago the woman who is now furnishing the information to the authorities went to Mr. Dickey and told him something about her knowledge of the murder and it was investigated, but nothing came of the matter. Recently, however, the woman gave more information, and District Attorney Dickey came to the conclusion that she knew something about the killing. He made a trip to Cleveland to see a detective and together they went to Bradford, where their mission became known. Their trip there is said to have been for the purpose of seeing Dan Wilder, aged 70 years, the notorious crook, who was sent to the penitentiary from Venango county for robbing a woman near Pithole a few years ago. The story as told by the woman is largely the same that Addison Ruth, alias Frank Barnes, has told on numerous occasions, and the general public does not take much stock in it. Ruth, or Barnes made a statement while a prisoner in Venango county a few years ago.

TO HONOR BOQUET

Scene of Colonel's Victory Over Indians to Be Made Park. At the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Bushy run, at Greensburg, Pa., one of the principal engagements of the French and Indian war, a concrete movement was started to secure twenty-five acres of the famous battlefield for a memorial park and to erect a bronze statue with a large bronze tablet to Colonel Henry Boquet, the famous Swiss commander of the English troops, who gained such a signal victory over the Seneca Indians at that point.

It is proposed to purchase the battleground at an approximate cost of $25,000. Also $12,500 will be needed for the statue and tablet. The historical and patriotic societies of all Pennsylvania are behind the new movement, which almost already assures its success.

STUDENTS ELECTROCUTED

Two Come in Contact With Live Wire Carrying 25,000 Volts. Arthur May and Walter Fey, members of the junior class of electrical engineering at Pennsylvania State college, were electrocuted at the big power plant of the Harwood Electric company in Hazleton, Pa. Death resulted from coming in contact with a live wire carrying 25,000 volts.

The accident was not witnessed by any of the employees, but the interference with the current so deranged things that the entire region from Freehold to other towns in the vicinity were without current for fifteen minutes. Signs of life were visible in Fey and physicians who were rushed to the plant with pulmotors were unable to aid him.

Corpse Causes Mystery.

The corpse of an unknown woman was found by Crawford Iker of Donora, Pa., while digging the foundation for a house on a lot in Main street, Lettleville, Pa. The body is badly decomposed. After the gasty find was made James Kirk, aged six, came across the body and picking up the head carried it home. The astonishment of his parents knew no bounds when the lad reached home gaily swinging the cranium.

Child Saves Family.

Frances Gardiner, aged eleven, a waif taken in by the family of Dr. William Matson, is the heroine of Chester Heights, West Chester, Pa. She saved the lives of her benefactors when their house was totally destroyed with a loss of over $8,000 by a fire started by lightning. The child awakened the physician and his wife and children just in time.

Justice Accused of Graft.

Accused of extorting money from ignorant foreigners, Justice of the Peace E. C. Fullick of Cecil township near Washington, Pa., was arrested and brought before Justice J. F. Carmichael. The alleged extortions range from 60 cents to $10. It is charged Fullick would accuse a foreigner of some violation of the law and then offer to settle matters for a consideration.

To Reduce Cost of Money Making.

For the purpose of reducing the operating expenses, the management of the United States mint in Philadelphia will use gas as fuel instead of oil after Sept. 1. It will require 30,000,000 feet of gas a year to melt the bullion from which the coins will be made. Heretofore nearly 240,000 gallons of oil have been consumed annually.

Aged Divorcee Ends Her Life.

Despondency is alleged to have been the motive for Mrs. Lizzie Cunningham, aged fifty-two, a widow and well-known resident of Kittanning, Pa., ending her life with poison. Mrs. Cunningham has been divorced and it is thought that her constant brooding over this old love affair was the cause for the act.

Murder or Suicide?

While in a jealous rage, it is alleged, Andrew Lassa of Seminole, twelve miles from Kittanning, Pa., shot and killed his wife Elizabeth while she lay sleeping in bed. Lassa is a miner and believed, it is said, that a man had been in his home. Lassa declared his wife had committed suicide.

Auto Kills Oil Man; Hurts Four.

Edward O. Crawford, a wealthy oil man of Emlemont, Pa., was killed instantly and four women who were with him in his automobile were injured when the machine went down a thirty-foot embankment. Mrs. George Lambertson was probably fatally injured.

Oil Operator Hurt.

William Hart, sixty-five years old, an oil operator of Washington, Pa., was seriously injured while directing some work on the Lone Pine farm. While standing on the floor of an oil derrick a plank fell from the upper part of the derrick, striking him on the head.

Falls Over Wire; Dies.

Lloyd V. Woods, aged twenty-three, was killed in the Erie Railroad yards at Meadville, Pa. Woods, who had been employed as a switchtender a week, stumbled on a wire and fell in front of a switch engine which passed over his abdomen.

Ice Cream Dealer Fights Blue Laws.

Thomas Magee, an Altoona (Pa.) manufacturer of ice cream, who was prosecuted recently under the blue laws for selling on Sunday, will carry the case through to the higher courts if necessary.

LESS BOWEL TROUBLE

IN WEST HICKORY

West Hickory people have found out that A SINGLE DOSE of simple buck-thorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-Ika, the German bowel and stomach remedy, relieves constipation, sour stomach or gas on the stomach INSTANTLY. This simple mixture became famous by curing appendicitis and it draws off a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body. It is wonderful how QUICKLY it helps. The West Hickory Drug Store. adv

The Misses Julia Lohmeyer, Blanche Hendricks and Kathleen Dautenspeck, and Messrs. Ivan Carbaugh and Andrew Christenson left Saturday for a week's camping at Chautauqua Lake. They will be joined by Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Davis, of Chocoma, Pa., and it will be a reunion of the Mandolin Club of last year.

W. S. Hendricks, of Cochranton, was a business visitor in town the first of the week.

Mark Wilson came down from North Warren Saturday and spent Sunday with his folks. He was accompanied home Monday by his wife and son, who had been here the past week.

I wish to correct a mistake made in the items of two weeks ago when it was stated that Mrs. Gillespie was called away by the death of her brother. The one that died was her brother, Howard Karkner, not her half-brother, Robert Karkner, as stated. Friends of Mr. Karkner will be glad to learn that although he has been in poor health for some time, he is yet living.

Miss Blanche Briggs, of Youngsville, Pa., spent the week with her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Price.

Miss Bertha Spangler left Tuesday for Buffalo, where she expects to attend the millinery opening, preparatory to work in the local store this fall.

Father's Position.

"Why don't you want me to marry your daughter?" "You have no money." "But I have brains." "Maybe so, but you don't prove it by wanting to get married, young man."—Washington Herald.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything, and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief." writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all druggists. Adv.

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially in the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all druggists. Adv.

The Department of Forestry at Harrisburg has just issued a forest fire poster 14x22 inches in size, to be distributed generally over the forested regions of the state. It contrasts vividly the advantages of protected forests and the courses which befall us as the result of forest fires. Forest fires in most cases, result from the carelessness or indifference of some one, but pure vandalism is responsible for many, also. The posters above referred to are quite attractive and very effective, and will be sent to any one who will promise to place them in prominent places. Address as above.

Auto Over the Bank.

John Guinac of Warren, representing the National Biscuit Co., was probably fatally injured this Thursday morning when the runabout he was driving went over the bank at the Hunter farm. He was going down the river and met two of John Conroy's teams at the watering trough. He waited for the horses to water and as the teams started up the grade he attempted to pass them. While the road is not over-wide, there was room aplenty for him to get by, but he went too near the edge, resulting in his car turning over sideways on a straight down four foot embankment.

The car landed on top of the man, and in order to get him out the teamsters and others had to bodily lift the machine. A couch was secured and the injured man was taken into the Spencer house and Dr. Briggs sent for. Later the invalid basinet of John Sage was sent down and he was taken to Warren in Sage's car.

His legs being paralyzed would indicate that his back was broken. In addition he has a broken collar bone and one leg while his internal injuries are an unknown quantity. The car is an American Underling and probably is not badly injured.

He was on his way to Kelleetville.—Tidoute News. The spot where the accident occurred is well known to those who have occasion to travel the road leading from East Hickory to Tidoute on the East side of the river.

Costly Treatment.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital, also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was effected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all druggists. Adv.
