August Blanket Sale.

The Big Annual Event, This Year Broader and Better Than Ever, Starts Monday, Aug. 25th.

If we could bring home to every housekeeper a full realization of the lowness of the prices that will prevail, and impress them with the great advisability of filling in shortages in the Fall and Winter supply now, we would crowd this store from the moment the sale opens next Monday morning.

In planning this event, we have had in mind the meeting of blanket and bedding needs, not only at the lowest prices of the year, but at actually lower prices than in many years.

It will be by far our most wonderful Blanket Sale—and we have had some great sales in the past.

Details will appear in the Oil City papers Monday, Aug. 25th, the day the sale opens.

THE NEW SUITS AND COATS FOR FALL.

The New Materials, New Trimmings, New Colorings, in Constantly Growing Varieties.

There is already far more of Autumn in the Cloak and Suit Section than remains of Summer. More than a few women have already become keenly interested in the new style departments.

Even if you will not be attracted here by an immediate need, it is a very welcome opportunity to familiarize yourself now with the fashion trend of Fall and Winter.

The length of the Suit Coats, worn with skirts a little longer than those of last season, will be of especial interest. Not a coat is less than 38 inches long, while some of the more extremes are 45 inches in length. The new sharp cutaway effects are worth studying.

The fashion showings at present are the most elaborate that we have had so far, reinforced by late shipments of new suits and coats for Fall.

The Kaleidoscope.

Have you any idea what a wonderful thing a kaleidoscope really is? Did you ever catch yourself wondering how many different kinds of patterns could be formed by the little bits of colored glass which the instrument contains and which adjust themselves with such remarkable facility when the instrument is turned in the hand? A calculation has been made by a noted mathematician which we are sure will astonish readers. He shows that a kaleidoscope containing twelve bits of glass may be turned rapidly enough to make ten changes a minute day and night for ninety-one years and forty-five days without exhausting the different combinations or the possibilities of getting a new figure on the next turn. If the number of pieces of glass are increased to twenty, a calculation shows that 462,880,890,576 years would be necessary to go through all of the changes of which it would be capable. The holder of the instrument turning all the while so as to get ten changes a minute and working day and night those millions of years.

Business Men and Lunch.

There was a conference in London recently under the auspices of the Incorporated Institute of Hygiene to discuss the health of business men. Many of the greatest physicians in England spoke, especially about the diet of the ordinary man of business. The New York Medical Record sums up their conclusions thus: "Most of the speakers expressed the opinion that but little should be eaten in the middle of the day, and some seemed to think that two good meals in the day were quite sufficient. A man who does not take enough exercise or who does not perform enough manual labor to enable him to digest and assimilate a large quantity of food, and particularly flesh food, should be very careful as to the quality and quantity of food he ingests. Such a man does not require much meat."

GLYNN THROWS DOWN GAUNTLET

Rejects Plan to Let Courts Settle N. Y. Governorship

MR. SULZER NOW ON DEFENSIVE

With New York State Situation in Deadlock Charges of Bribery Are Fired at Tammany Concerning Vote.

Martin H. Glynn sent to William Sulzer a letter in which he flatly refused to refer to the courts the question of who is the rightful governor of the state of New York. He said: "I shall perform every function of the office of governor except in as far as I am restrained by your illegal actions or by physical force."

He also says that "It is beyond my power to barter away any of the functions attaching to the office in which I am placed by your impeachment." He contends that the court of appeals to which Mr. Sulzer wants the issue submitted has no right to interfere in impeachment proceedings.

Mr. Glynn with this letter answers the question which everybody in Albany had been asking. What was he going to do about Mr. Sulzer's proposal that the lawyers get together and arrange a test case?

There was no intimation from Mr. Glynn as to what his next step will be. Mr. Sulzer still has possession of the executive offices, the privy seal and documents necessary to the business of the state.

As the situation is now Mr. Glynn has put the responsibility for the strange situation clearly up to Mr. Sulzer. It is believed that Mr. Sulzer's next move will be to try to get a test case before the courts without the cooperation of Mr. Glynn. How he will do this is not known, as his counsel had not considered the possibility of Mr. Glynn refusing to join them.

While the gubernatorial deadlock remained unbroken, open charges of bribery in connection with the recent impeachment proceedings gave a startling new twist to the situation. James G. Garrison, a close friend of John A. Hennessy, whom Sulzer appointed to probe all the state departments, issued this statement: "I charge now and positively that Tammany had cold cash for the four votes they needed to pass this resolution (that of impeachment) and they also used money to keep wavering votes in line. We will be prepared to prove this before we are through. There are some gentlemen mixed up in this who are headed straight to jail. That is all I care to say at this time."

The resolution impeaching Sulzer was carried with only three votes to spare. Tammany mustered seventy-nine votes for the resolution, while only seventy-six were needed. If Sulzer's friends can prove that four of the votes against the governor were purchased they declare the impeachment will fall flat.

Judge Herrick said that the report that Governor Sulzer or any of his advisers contemplated a back fire against Tammany by seeking the indictment of Charles F. Murphy or others was false. It is understood that the men who are serving Mr. Sulzer as counsel have not received and do not expect to receive any compensation for their services. It is also understood that they have believed all along that his right to exercise the duties of governor despite the assembly's impeachment would be sustained by the courts.

The impeachment trial of Governor Sulzer has been set for Sept. 18.

LOAN SHARKS HAD AGENT

Congressman McDermott Alleged to Be Paid Representative.

Isaac H. McMichael, former chief page of the house of representatives and frequently mentioned by Colonel Mulhall as his "principal news source" in legislative matters, gave the house lobby committee a new sensation. He testified that Representative James T. McDermott of Illinois during the pendency of a loan shark bill affecting pawnbrokers and "10 per centers" had been the paid agent of the pawnbrokers.

He told of a number of instances where he had obtained articles of his own and of McDermott's from the pawnbrokers of Washington.

He said that McDermott told him he had received all told more than $7,000 in the shake down of the Washington pawnbrokers. McMichael declared that Henry Neal, Speaker Clark's colored messenger, and Harry Parker, the messenger to Chairman Underwood, had been to his knowledge in the pay of Colonel Mulhall.

McMichael also testified that McDermott got part of the money that he (McMichael) collected from Colonel Mulhall. It was the belief here that the disclosures will result in an effort to impeach McDermott and possibly an investigation by the grand jury.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Not Yet City.

CLOSE VOTE ON TARIFF

Free Wheat Gets Only Five Majority in Senate.

Another close vote was recorded in the senate on a proposed amendment to the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill. The finance committee was sustained in its action in putting wheat on the free list by only 5 majority, the vote being 37 to 32. All the Republicans voted against free wheat and were reinforced by two Democrats—Senators Thorston and Ransdell.

The action of Ransdell in voting with the Republicans marked the second break from the solid Democratic support which had been given with the exception of Senator Thornton.

Immediately following the adoption of the committee amendment for free wheat Senator Gronna of North Dakota proposed an amendment providing a duty of 5 cents per bushel. This amendment was lost, 37 to 31, the two Louisiana senators voting again with the Republicans.

No Recess by Congress.

All hope for a recess of congress after the tariff bill is passed or for the postponement of currency legislation until the regular session in December disappeared when the Democratic caucus of the senate adopted a resolution commending to congress that currency legislation be taken up as soon as the tariff bill is out of the way. The action of the caucus was the result of insistence on the part of President Wilson that this program be followed.

BIG BUSINESS IN VIEW

Merchants Preparing for Heavy Fall Trade, Dun's Finds. Dun's Review of Trade says this week:

"Current distribution of merchandise continues in normal volume, while steady preparations are being made for an active fall and winter business. Conservatism has been accentuated somewhat by the damage to corn, yet in a broad sense crop conditions are still promising and, with remunerative prices prevailing, another prosperous year is assured.

"The heavy movement of agricultural products to market contributes liberally to transportation revenues, while the exports of grain and other commodities add materially to credit balance abroad."

FAIL TO HEAR TRAIN

While Freight Rears Past Them, Boys Are Caught on Other Track.

Standing on the southbound track of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad near Webster, Pa., and absorbed in the diversion of throwing stones at a freight train thundering past on the northbound track, two boys failed to hear a passenger train bearing down upon them and both were killed instantly.

The dead are: Frederick Harrison, ten years old, son of James Harrison of Donora; George Golden, Jr., twelve years old, of Donora.

Each boy received a fractured skull, a compound fracture of the left leg and a broken right arm.

Telegrapher Petitions Commission to Nullify Portion of Act.

The Pennsylvania state public service commission was asked by Miss B. A. Oliver, Wilkensburg, who writes that she represents women telegraphers on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad, to take, if possible, some steps to secure non-enforcement of the clause of the woman employment act of 1913 requiring a forty-five minute lunch period for all women employed by concerns within the scope of the act.

Miss Oliver's letter sets forth that the enforcement of the act would "entail great injustice and hardship" to women, and claims that the effect would be to compel the company to displace women telegraphers and replace them with men.

STORM DAMAGES PITTSBURG

Young Man Killed by Lightning—Big Trees Uprooted.

Urban Raab, aged twenty, was struck by lightning and instantly killed during a storm which did immense damage in the Pittsburgh district.

Sections of the city were flooded by the downpour of rain while gigantic trees were torn from their roots. Street car traffic was demoralized and fire were frequent. Wires were blown down, roofs torn off and small out-buildings demolished.

Touch Cost His Life.

Receiving 25,000 volts of electricity through his body H. Gilton Meredith, twenty-one years old, was hurled to death against the wall of the Pean Central Light and Power company's sub-station in Collinsville, near Altoona, Pa. His clothing was burned from him. With his hand on a switch he touched a high-tension wire, completing a circuit.

Heidup Men Get $1,700.

While Julian Morse and Oscar W. Flory, owner and superintendent of the Crown Slate company, located near Pen Argil, Northampton county, Pa., were on their way from the First National bank of Pen Argil to the quarry with $1,700 to pay the employees they were held up by five masked men and robbed at the point of shotguns.

Consolidation of Towns Agitated.

A movement which is expected to result in consolidation of the borough of New Kensington, Pa., with the boroughs of Arnold and Parnassus and establishment of a city has been initiated. It is planned to call the new city for New Kensington and establish the municipal buildings there. There would be a 15,000 population.

Says Husband Locked Her Up.

That she was locked in her room for twenty-four hours and then compelled to leave the house because her husband deserted her and did not pay their board bill was the testimony of Mrs. Alice F. Miller in her divorce action against her husband, James B. Miller of Pittsburgh.

Club Buys 4,000,000 Flies.

Four million dead house flies were bought at the rate of five cents a pint by the Harrisburg (Pa.) Civic club, this being the close of the swatting prize contest for the season. The number is only a fraction of those killed as a result of the civic club's campaign.

Cuts Throat Because Wife Left.

Conrad Schell, aged forty-five, a locomotive engineer of the Erie railroad, cut his throat from ear to ear in his boarding house in Meadville, Pa. It was reported that Mrs. Schell was about to institute divorce proceedings. This caused Schell to become despondent.

Corset Strings Used For Noose.

With her corset strings for a noose, Maud Brown, aged thirty-four, tried to end her life by hanging in a cell in the Frantstown avenue police station, Pittsburgh. The woman had been arrested for drunkenness. The half-strangled body was cut down.

Delilah Refused Him.

Because he was jilted by his sweet heart, Lewis Parker, aged twenty-four, a teamster, committed suicide by shooting at the home of the girl Delilah Crawford, daughter of a farmer near Franklin, Pa.
