The billion dollars Americans have invested in Mexico can't get away, and the Mexicans are not at all inclined to furnish it with passports.

The man with the market basket wonders how it is that the prospect of a Democratic tariff makes the price of food tumble upstairs instead of down.

The Foxstutaway Spirit makes a mighty good guess when it states that "a popular vote on the question of whether or not Thaw is insane would result in an expression of belief in his sanity by a very large majority."

The Democratic raid on federal jobs in Pennsylvania continues. Following the request of Attorney General J. C. Reynolds that E. H. Porter, United States marshal at Pittsburgh, resign "for the good of the service," it develops that Postmaster General A. S. Burleson has demanded that William Baker, postmaster in Ridgway, Elk county, Pa., resign his job.

The special election in the third Congressional district of Maine to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Forrest Goodwin, the Republican incumbent, was held Monday and a heavy vote was polled. The campaign was fought out on tariff lines, the Republican candidate winning by nearly 600 plurality.

The first primary election under the new State wide law will be held Tuesday, September 16, between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Township and borough officers will be nominated by all parties that have filed certificates, and this county will nominate a candidate for District Attorney.

James' Camp. Quite a number of copperhead snakes have been killed during this summer. Maggie Pyrie killed one at the spring near Barton's on Thursday.

Andrew Cook and William Rossey of Clarion are now employed at James' mill. Mr. and Mrs. Russell McClellan have just returned from a little outing at Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller lost their baby boy. The interment was made Sunday, in Watersonville. W. H. Barton and wife spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barton of Watersonville and James' Camp.

Orrie Buck, now of Franklin, visited friends here Sunday. Mrs. Jamison and daughter visited Mr. Jamison a few days.

Mother of Eighteen Children. "I am the mother of eighteen children and have the pride of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without a fering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all druggists.

Sunday School Rally.

The 2nd Annual Sub-district Sunday School convention met in the M. E. church, at Redelyff, Pa., Friday Aug. 29, 1913, at 2:30 p. m., and was opened by reading, followed by prayer and scripture singing, followed by Rev. D. O. May, District Supt., Hon. A. R. Meehling, who presided, impressed upon the people the importance of each one taking part in the discussions and work of the convention in order to make it a success.

The first speaker, John Hall, was called and gave a talk on "The duty of the superintendent." He emphasized the work of keeping the young, especially the boys, in the Sunday school and spoke of the Sunday school as being the cheapest institution of education. A paper on "Parents' love and interest in Sunday school," was read by Mrs. Edith Murray. It was a very interesting paper, bringing out the very great work the parents have in keeping their children in Sunday school.

An Essay, by Mrs. Lena Heasley, Subject "Teacher's Qualifications." She emphasized religion, patience, tact, friendship, etc., as qualifications of teachers and many other splendid and beneficial thoughts were imparted. A talk was then given by Miss Ruby Mathews, on "Teaching the teen age." She spoke of the separation of the boys and girls as they enter their teens, in classes. Give them something to do, keep them interested and let them think, they are growing into men and women, visit them in their homes. Have picnics and social times for them. Bring before them the heroes of the bible and they will stay in the school.

The S. S. State worker, B. S. Forsythe, then explained the methods of the teachers' training class and emphasized the importance and great help of having one in every Sunday school, as the S. S. teachers' qualifications are the most important of all subjects taught. Four out of six Sunday schools responded to his request to try to organize a teachers' training class in their schools, Clarion, Union being already organized, and Redelyff and Gilfoyle organizing immediately at close of the session. The evening session opened with a song service in which all joined, followed by a song by Rev. Shaffer of the F. M. church.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: District pres., C. E. Mathews, vice president, Thomas Knight; secretary, Miss Mary Coon; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Potter. The first topic for the evening was, "How may the S. S. teacher be most helpful to her class?" by Mrs. Jennie Potter. A splendid paper was then read by Miss Rissa Murray of the Gilfoyle school, entitled, "The Child."

A talk on Sunday School work by Rev. Shaffer. A short talk by D. G. Reynolds, of Minnesota, "from the business man's standpoint." A talk was given by the State worker on the organized and adult bible class, which was very interesting, as all his talks are. A vote of thanks was extended to the people of Redelyff for the welcome and hospitality to all who attended, and also to all who helped in any way to make the convention a success. The convention closed with the benediction by Rev. D. O. May.

Stanislaus Guter, an Austrian resident of Oil City, stabbed his wife Monday night in a fit of jealousy inflicting a wound which caused her death an hour later from loss of blood. The knife thrust took effect on the inside of the left leg about half way between the hip and knee, inflicting a wound about five inches long which severed a large artery. Before a physician could be summoned the woman was past recovery. The man was taken to the lockup and will be tried for murder.

According to an item published in the Buffalo Courier, "Rattlesnake Pete" Gruber of Rochester, N. Y., formerly interested in Oil City and known to everyone interested in nature stories, may soon serve rattlesnake at his restaurant in Rochester. Mr. Gruber has become impressed with the edible qualities of rattlers and has been so unstited in his praises of their flesh as a dainty food, that the Rochester newspaper men have become embued with the idea that perhaps, the former Oil City man is right and they intend giving him an opportunity of proving it. The Buffalo Press club is to be the guest of the Rochester Newswriters' club and, on that occasion, a feature of the affair will be the serving of rattlesnake at a dinner, the principal item. Mr. Gruber will cook the steak and he declares that, hereafter, the members of the clubs will be ardent advocates of snake steak. Live rattlers from "Pete's" dens will be used to ornament the tables.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured. "I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. York, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Giesbert, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all druggists. adv.

ONE VOTER IN HUNTINGDON COUNTY

Assembly Clerk May Name Entire Huntingdon Ticket. Jere B. Rex, for several sessions chief clerk of the Pennsylvania state house of representatives and now supreme court erier in the capitol, who is a resident of Huntingdon borough, can nominate himself for sheriff of Huntingdon county or any other office he may desire and no one can oppose him at the primaries.

He is the only enrolled voter in his home county and therefore is the only man there who can vote in the primaries for any office except superior court judge and associate judge. He could nominate the whole Republican ticket and the men he named would be the candidates at the general election.

This is the interpretation in the state department of the action of the commissioners of Huntingdon county, who are said to have refused to permit the assessors to enroll voters according to party. Rex insisted upon filing an affidavit of enrollment, and the commissioners could not refuse to accept it.

"NO COURAGE TO LIVE"

Spinster Follows Brother in Suicide Pact, But He Recovers. The mystery surrounding the death of Miss Jane Jamison, who with her brother, George Jamison, was found by servants unconscious in their home in Radnor, near Philadelphia, was cleared up when the police got a letter written by Miss Jamison to a woman relative in Philadelphia informing her that her brother had declared his intention of committing suicide, that she had not the courage to live alone and would therefore join him in death.

Miss Jamison was sixty and her brother was sixty-two. The woman died soon after removal to a hospital but the man is recovering.

Beldeman, died in Harrisburg, Pa., after a fast of fifty-five days and eighteen hours. Until he began to starve himself Beldeman was in excellent health. He declined to give his family any reason for his refusal to eat.

Two Killed; Two Hurt at Mills. In similar accidents at the Atlantic and Red Jacket furnaces in North Castle, Pa., two workmen lost their lives and two others were probably fatally burned. Samuel J. Hanna and John Flak were killed. The men were caught when molten metal spurted from the furnaces and enveloped them.

Representative Elector Drowned. Edgar K. Bloech, Republican member of the house of the Pennsylvania legislature, whose home was in Germantown, died by drowning in Toms river, near Island Heights, N. J.

Says Clark Bill is Constitutional. Judge William E. Porter of Lawrence county, Pa., filed an opinion holding the nonpartisan feature of the Clark third class city bill to be constitutional.

Youth Ends Life; No Cause Known. Roy Zeligler, aged eighteen, son of Martin Zeligler, a merchant of Dallas, Pa., ended his life by drinking poison. No cause can be assigned for his action.

Taft Heads Lawyers. Former President William Howard Taft was elected president of the American Bar association at the close of the annual meeting of that organization in Montreal.

Caught a Bad Cold. "Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Donean, of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." OUTLOOK SEEMS CHEERFUL

Crop Promise Not Realized, However. Trade Review For Week. Dun's Review of Trade says this week: "Early promise of another year of remarkable crops will not be fully realized, yet the purchasing power of the agricultural community is sustained by high prices for the leading farm products. Official confirmation of considerable deterioration in cotton caused a sharp rise in that staple and corn advanced on a continuance of hot, dry weather.

"The reduced harvests are calculated to ultimately have some effects on railway freight traffic, but it is gratifying that sentiment remains cheerful in spite of the less favorable outlook in certain directions. While the delay in the adoption of the pending tariff bill acts as a check, business has nevertheless emerged from its customary summer lethargy and with the approach of the fall season the revival of activity is becoming more pronounced."

Doremus, New York broker, showing that Washington and Lee university of Lexington, Va., will eventually receive $2,000,000 under the will of Mr. Doremus.

Bryan's Definition of "Progressive." Secretary of State William J. Bryan, speaking in Winterport, Me., in behalf of William R. Pattenall, Democratic candidate for congress, defined a Progressive as "a man who is ashamed to be a Republican and hasn't the courage to be a Democrat."
